

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7591

Seeing that she said so, charlie could only nod and said, “Okay, then I’ll ask her on WeChat later.”

In fact, Tawana also knew that charlie was leaving the island today.

She missed charlie very much, but because Claire was also on the island, she could only restrain the urge to see charlie.

Because she was preoccupied with something, she was in a daze and not in the right state of mind.

Her parents were also in a state of disarray due to the impact of the terrorist attack that night. The three of them often sat together in a daze. Her mother even suggested several times that she wanted to leave the Maldives and return to the United States, but Tawanna never responded.

Two days passed as her parents finally recovered from the terrorist attack. Then her mother noticed something was wrong and said to Tawanna, “Honey, I think something is wrong.”

Tawanna looked out at the glassy green sea and asked absentmindedly, “What’s wrong?”

Mom said, “Look, what happened to us here is known to the whole world, and it has such a huge impact. There’s no way Trevor doesn’t know about it. You two used to be so inseparable, and you didn’t bring him on vacation this time. I can understand why you said he was training for the competition, but when something so serious happened to us, he didn’t come to see you. Isn’t that a little strange?”

In the past, Trevor and Tawanna were really in love. They were like conjoined twins, spending all day and night together. They were recognized as a passionate couple in the entertainment industry.

But recently, not only have the two of them had fewer and fewer opportunities to appear in the same frame, but their daily communication has also become less and less.

His girlfriend had encountered such a big thing, but he didn’t rush over to comfort her or even call her. This really made Tawanna’s mother feel strange.

Tawanna didn’t know how to answer for a moment.

Just before Trevor left China, the two had implicitly reached a consensus on getting married. At that time, she had already realized that it was impossible for her to be with charlie, and she even wanted to seize the time to settle the matter and give up other thoughts.

However, as she came into contact with charlie more and more, and charlie saved her from danger time and time again, Tawanna suddenly realized a reality, that is, she would probably never be able to get rid of her feelings for charlie psychologically in this lifetime.

For Tawanna now, it doesn't matter if she can't get charlie, but she doesn't want to settle for anything less.

Trevor is that makeshift partner.

If you still want to make do, then suppress your true feelings and maintain an emotional relationship with him.

But since I don't want to settle for it, there's no point in continuing to waste time with him.

Originally, she had thought about breaking up with Trevor directly.

But after thinking about it, Trevor is the boyfriend she has been with for the longest time after all, and she doesn't want to appear too heartless. If she can let him let go on his own initiative, perhaps that would be the best outcome.

Therefore, Tawanna kissed charlie passionately at the concert, and even sang the song "Assassin" on the island where she had kissed charlie passionately, just to express her attitude to Trevor and let him know that she still couldn't let charlie go!

Trevor never contacted me. Even when I encountered such a big thing, he still didn't ask a single question. It can be seen that he has understood my thoughts and decided to let go.

Now, her mother suddenly asked about Trevor. Tawanna hesitated for a moment and murmured, "Mom, Dad, Trevor and I are over..."

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7592

"it's over?"

Tawanna's father was surprised and blurted out, "You two were doing fine, how come it all ended so suddenly?"

Tawanna stammered, “Maybe it’s still not that suitable. I don’t think there will be any substantial results if we continue like this. Besides, we are both not young anymore. There is no need to continue wasting each other like this.”

“Not so appropriate?”

Tawanna’s mother said puzzledly, “You two have been together for such a long time. This is the longest relationship you have ever had. You are already in your 30s. It is time to think about your marriage. If you break up with Trevor now, it will take you several years to fall in love again and get married. I am afraid you will be 40 years old!”

At this point, Tawanna’s mother sighed dejectedly: “A woman’s youth only lasts a dozen years. You can’t waste it any longer...”

Tawanna’s father also agreed: “Yes, baby, with your talent in music, your career can be very long, but your adolescence is fixed. It is more important to seize the time to settle down the major events in your life.”

Tawanna’s mother immediately echoed her husband’s words and continued, “Daughter, I think Trevor is actually quite good. He has a good appearance and a good temperament. Although his income may not be as high as yours, he is already considered an elite. You can be financially independent when you get married, so you don’t have to worry about him holding you back.”

Tawanna shook her head firmly and said, “Stop talking. I no longer have any feelings for him. Continuing to waste time on him is not good for either of us.”

The couple looked at each other and couldn’t help feeling a little melancholy.

They have a good impression of Trevor. Their daughter has a complicated love history and finally found a long-term and stable partner. They also hope that the two can get married soon.

It seemed like this was almost certain, but I didn’t expect that it would end up with everyone going their separate ways.

Tawanna’s mother was obviously in a low mood. Her daughter’s emotional state had reached zero, and she didn’t know when she would be able to achieve a happy ending. Their family had already earned enough money to last them several lifetimes, and they just wanted their daughter to enter the next stage of her life. But now, it seemed like a distant future.

Tawanna's father couldn't help but ask, "Has Trevor changed his mind? Has he been messing around with other girls lately?"

"No." Tawanna felt a little guilty and said quickly, "This has nothing to do with changing your heart."

Tawanna's mother suddenly thought of something and blurted out, "Daughter, could it be that you have changed your mind?!"

Tawanna didn't dare to answer her mother's question and stammered, "I already told you it has nothing to do with changing your heart, so please stop asking."

Tawanna's mother blurted out, "During your concert in China, the entire internet was filled with news about you and that dancer kissing through their masks. Was it a bit too much on stage that Trevor was unhappy?"

"Possibly!" Tawanna's father immediately agreed. "The coverage was indeed quite intense, and the stage scale was indeed a bit larger than previous performances. If I were Trevor, I might also feel a little resentful."

After that, Tawanna's father quickly advised: "Daughter, if you have a misunderstanding because of this matter, Dad suggests that you find an opportunity to explain it to him clearly. Work is work, life is life, just keep them separate."

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7593

Tawanna said irritably, "You two should stop discussing this. No matter how you discuss it, Trevor and I have come to the end. There's no way I'm going to go back to the way we were before, let alone marry him. In fact, I'd rather not get married than marry him just because of age."

My mother couldn't help but say, "But you have to think about your life! You're so successful in your career and have made so much money. Your music copyrights will continue to create wealth for you in the future, but you have to move forward in your life. Otherwise, what will happen to the money you earn and your music copyrights? Who will inherit them?"

Tawanna blurted out, "If I'm destined to have offspring, then my descendants will inherit it. If not, then I'll just donate it all after I die!"

My mother's eyes were red with anxiety. "How can this be? Those celebrities who die alone are so pitiful. Some of them, in their twilight years, are surrounded by all kinds of scammers, all eyeing their inheritance. Various institutions swarm around them like flies to get their money, as if they were a prime steak on the table. I can't bear you going through that kind of torture in your old age!"

Tawanna said seriously, “Mom, I’m only in my thirties. I don’t want to think about the problems you mentioned. What’s more, I believe in my own abilities. Since I was able to create my own career in my twenties, I will definitely not be manipulated by those people when I’m in my seventies or eighties. You don’t have to worry about these things for me.”

Having said that, Tawanna stood up and prepared to go to the terrace outside to enjoy the sea breeze and calm down alone.

But at this moment, her phone suddenly received a WeChat message.

The moment she saw the WeChat push, she was extremely surprised, and her previous irritability disappeared instantly, because she knew that this WeChat must have been sent by charlie Wade.

Tawanna’s main living circle is in Europe and the United States. For Europeans and Americans, they have their own social software and instant messaging software, and not many people use WeChat on a daily basis.

The main reason why Tawanna downloaded WeChat and registered an account was to contact charlie Wade.

She also added some chi[na friends on WeChat, but those people were basically partners with whom she had work contact. After chi[na’s 20 concerts ended, she set all of those partners to Do Not Disturb message notifications. Only one person’s message notifications were turned on, and that person was charlie Wade.

Therefore, as long as there is a push message on WeChat, it must be sent by charlie Wade.

Tawanna’s visible transformation and joyful look made her parents realize something was wrong.

At this time, Tawanna quickly picked up her phone, opened WeChat attentively, and saw the message sent by charlie Wade, which read: “Which villa does Miss Sweet live in? I’m leaving the island today and want to meet you.”

Tawanna was so excited that she quickly replied with her fingertips: “I live in Villa 1, but I am currently in Villa 2 where my parents live.”

charlie Wade replied: “I’m across from you. If it’s convenient, I’ll come over later.”

Tawanna immediately replied: “Then let’s meet at Villa 2. I’ll be back soon.”

charlie Wade replied: “Okay, see you later.”

Tawanna put away her phone and immediately told her parents, “I’m going back to my room. A friend is coming to visit later.”

After saying that, without waiting for his parents’ reply, he hurried out and returned to his room.

Tawanna’s mother couldn’t help but say to her husband, “Tawanna’s behavior just now was very much like that of a teenager in love. Who is the friend she was talking about?”

Tawanna’s father shook his head and said, “I don’t know either, but she has been acting a little strange lately. Could it be that she has a new crush?”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7594

Just when Tawana’s parents were confused, charlie Wade had already arrived outside Tawana’s villa.

He rang the doorbell, and Tawanna, who had hurried back to put on some makeup, ran out and opened the door for him.

Seeing charlie Wade, Tawana felt both happy and shy, and said excitedly: “Mr. Wade, you are here, please come in!”

charlie Wade waved his hand: “Miss Sweet, I won’t go in. Let me just say a few words here.”

Tawanna was a little disappointed: “Ah? Say it here?”

“Yes.” charlie Wade nodded and smiled. “My family and I are leaving the island today, so I came to say hello to you. Also, I wanted to thank you in person for your charity performance in France.”

Tawana looked at charlie Wade and said respectfully and with a hint of ambiguity: “Mr. Wade, you have saved my life time and time again. No matter what you ask me to do, even if it means going through fire and water, even if it costs a lot, I will never hesitate, so please don’t say thank you to me...”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “I did feel a little guilty for adding a few more concerts for you for no reason, and they were charity performances with no income.”

“You’re joking,” Tawanna said shyly. “Ever since you saved my life in Tokyo, money has no meaning to me. If you need me, I’m willing to give you all the free tickets for all my future concerts.”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “Miss Sweet, you don’t have to be so polite. The reason I invited you to France to hold several charity performances this time is entirely to give Bernard Erno a face. But don’t worry, although you don’t take a penny, he certainly won’t dare to treat you badly. In addition, you can cooperate more in the future. His group has so many luxury brands. You can cooperate more in the future. Don’t think about charging less to save his face, and don’t think about charging less to save my face. He is not short of money at all.”

Tawanna understood what Marven meant, nodded slightly, and said, “I understand, Mr. Wade.”

After that, she looked at charlie Wade and mustered up the courage to ask him, “Mr. Wade, are you really not going to come in and sit for a while? There’s no one else here, I live alone.”

In fact, Tawanna didn’t want to take the opportunity to have something happen with charlie Wade. She just felt that if the two of them stood here and talked, charlie Wade would definitely leave after a few words. If she invited him to sit in the house for a while, the two of them would at least have a chance to talk more.

But charlie Wade didn’t want to be alone with Tawanna in private. This American woman was a bit too unrestrained and it was really a bit too much for him to handle.

So, he smiled and said, “I won’t go in. I’m about to check out and go to Male. I just came to say hello.”

Tawanna nodded slightly in disappointment and sighed, “After Mr. Wade goes back, I don’t know when we can meet again...”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “You and bruce Automobile will inevitably cooperate in the future. There will be many opportunities to meet. When the first car of bruce Automobile rolls off the production line, I will invite you to be the spokesperson.”

Tawanna nodded heavily and said, “Then it’s a deal!”

“Okay, it’s a deal!” charlie Wade agreed and asked Tawanna, “By the way, when do you plan to leave?”

“Tomorrow,” Tawanna said. “I’ve arranged for the person in charge of the performance team to go to Paris. I’ll return to the United States to rest for a few days. Once the performance date in Paris is confirmed, I’ll start preparing actively.”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7595

charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: “Then I wish you a successful performance in advance!”

“Thank you, Mr. Wade!”

Seeing that he had already greeted her, charlie Wade said to her, “Miss Sweet, the previous incident during this vacation must have had a great impact on your mood. After the French performance is over, if you still want to come to the Maldives for vacation, you can come to Baima Island again. After the current guests on the island check out and leave, the island will no longer be open to the public. I will arrange for mercenaries from the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace to be stationed here. If you come here for vacation again, your safety will be absolutely guaranteed.”

Tawana asked in surprise, “White Horse Island will no longer be open to the public? It seems that this island has only been open for a few years, right?”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “Bernard Elno gave me this place and another island as a gift to thank me for saving his life. From now on, you can treat this place as your own property. If you want to come, just say hello anytime and someone will arrange everything.”

Tawanna was surprised and asked him, “Mr. Wade, do you come here often?”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “It depends on the situation. Since we have this convenient condition, I should come here often in the future.”

What charlie Wade was thinking at this moment was that he and Claire had only traveled together once in all these years, but this was a good start. If there was a first time, there would be a second time. In the future, he could often come to Maldives with her. This place was basically isolated from the world and it was indeed a good place to relax.

Seeing that it was getting late, charlie Wade withdrew his thoughts and said to Tawanna: “Okay, Miss Sweet, I have to go back. See you next time.”

Tawanna nodded repeatedly: “See you next time, Mr. Wade!”

charlie Wade waved his hand and turned to leave. Tawanna watched him leave and then returned to the room in a daze.

She had just sat down on the sofa in the living room when her parents walked in.

Tawanna's mother asked with concern: "Daughter, who was that man just now?"

Tawanna was startled by the sudden appearance of her parents and exclaimed, "Mom, Dad, how did you two get in?"

Tawanna's mother said helplessly: "You didn't lock the door yourself. What were you thinking about? You were so absent-minded that you even forgot to lock the door."

"Ah? Oh, nothing... nothing..." Tawanna was very embarrassed and stammered, "I was just thinking about the performance later, and I might have been a little distracted."

Tawanna's mother asked her, "Daughter, you haven't told us who that man is yet."

Tawanna murmured in her heart: "Who is that man? He is the love of my life..."

But how could she possibly say such words? So she explained to her parents, "He... he's Mr. Wade, a Party A staff member I worked with when I held a concert in Huaxia."

Tawanna's mother noticed that her daughter was evasive and flustered when answering questions about the man, so she quickly asked, "Did you make an appointment with him to come here together?"

"No...it was just a coincidence," Tawanna quickly explained. "I didn't expect him to be on the island."

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7596

Tawanna's father came over and asked her, "Baby, tell us, what's your relationship with that Asian man? Is he the reason you broke up with Trevor?"

Tawanna pursed her lips and said, "My relationship with him is my personal matter, so don't ask me. As for whether I broke up with Trevor because of him, it doesn't matter. What's important is that I no longer have that kind of feeling for Trevor."

Tawanna's mother said helplessly: "Baby, don't forget that you are my child. There are some things you can't hide from me. Tell me the truth, do you have feelings for that Asian man? Or, have you two made any clear progress?"

Tawanna quickly explained: "Mom, don't make blind guesses. Mr. Wade and I are innocent, and Mr. Wade is already married. He came to White Horse Island this time with his wife."

“You came with your wife?” Tawanna’s mother breathed a sigh of relief and quickly warned her, “If you’re going to publicly break up with Trevor, then for the next six months, don’t have any scandals with anyone else, or it will affect your reputation.”

Tawanna said perfunctorily: “I know, you don’t have to worry about me.”

When Charlie Wade and his family ended their short trip to Baima Island and flew back to Jinling, Bernard Erno had already landed in New York.

The United Nations attached great importance to his arrival, and the Deputy Secretary-General and the head of the Office of Counter-Terrorism personally went to the airport to greet him.

Just like the treatment he received when he returned to France, reporters from all walks of life flocked to the scene to catch the hot spots.

As soon as Bernard Arnault got off the plane, he was surrounded by media reporters who asked him all kinds of questions. The most common question was how much money he was going to donate to the United Nations Counter-Terrorism Office this time.

Bernard Erno said bluntly, “Ladies and gentlemen, time is limited, so I won’t answer all your questions here. I’ll briefly explain some of your concerns. First, I’m here to donate $200 million to the United Nations Office of Counter-Terrorism to advance the UN’s counter-terrorism efforts worldwide.”

Reporters at the scene were all shocked.

These days, many wealthy people donate money, and even more set up charitable foundations, but few people donate huge amounts of cash directly to authoritative organizations like the United Nations.

The reason is nothing more than some unspoken rules in the industry.

Many wealthy people’s donations are not actually donated. Instead, they take the money out of their own pockets and put it into another pocket that is completely under their control.

They generally like to donate money to their own foundations. This money may not really be used for charity in the foundation. Most of the time it is just a trust they leave for themselves and their descendants.

Setting up a fund in the name of charity can not only gain a good reputation, but more importantly, it also provides an excellent tax avoidance channel for your funds.

Therefore, they are very willing to donate money to their own foundations, often hundreds of millions, billions or even tens of billions of US dollars.

But donating to an organization like the United Nations is different. It's not just a transfer from one hand to the right hand, it's a direct donation of real money. So when these reporters heard that Bernard Ayno was going to donate 200 million US dollars to the United Nations, everyone was shocked. Once these 200 million US dollars are donated, they will definitely not be taken back. It seems that Bernard Ayno really wants to promote the global anti-terrorism cause.

At this moment, Bernard Elno suddenly thought of something and quickly waved his hand and said with a smile: "No, no, I need to correct you. The 200 million US dollars is used to promote the United Nations' anti-terrorism work around the world, excluding the United States!"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7597

As soon as Bernard Erno finished speaking, the expressions of the reporters around him became shocked and complicated.

Some reporters from non-American media outlets, when they heard that Bernard Arnault donated money but excluded America, had a mentality of watching the show.

When the American local media reporters heard this, their expressions immediately became a little ugly, and they felt that their country was being treated differently.

In fact, for the United States, 200 million US dollars is far from enough to cover the travel expenses for their nominal anti-terrorism operations, let alone anti-terrorism efforts, so they don't need Bernard Arnold's donation at all.

However, for American journalists, we can do without the money, but you cannot discriminate against us.

An American reporter immediately asked indignantly, "Mr. Elno, I'd like to know why you singled out the United States for the use of this donation. I believe that the United States has always been a global model for counter-terrorism and a leader in counter-terrorism operations. No one understands counter-terrorism better than the United States. Isn't it inappropriate for you to treat us differently in this matter?"

Bernard Elno looked at the reporter in surprise and jokingly said, “The tone and manner of your words remind me of an old friend, but I won’t mention him by name here.”

The reporters around who understood what was said burst into laughter.

Bernard Elno smiled and continued, “I still have to answer your question directly. Why does the United States have to be excluded from the $200 million? It’s because up to now, Blackwater and the US government have not given us a satisfactory answer to the terrorist attack on White Horse Island. They just casually put forward a scapegoat and want to muddle through this matter. I personally do not accept this, and I believe Miss Tawana Sweet cannot accept it either. And all the people with a sense of justice in this world certainly cannot accept it!”

At this point, Bernard Elno snorted coldly, his face full of righteousness almost overflowing the screen. He raised a hand and said loudly: “If the United States cannot give me a satisfactory answer on this matter, I have reason to suspect that the United States is deliberately shielding Blackwater. If justice is not upheld in the United States, then I am willing to withdraw from the American market indefinitely with all my brands! Excluding the United States from the two hundred million US dollars in anti-terrorism donations is my attitude to the American government!”

The reporters around him did not expect that this old man who had always been profit-driven and even invented and promoted the distribution system in order to make money would be so full of sense of justice at this moment.

The American reporters looked at each other in bewilderment. Under such circumstances, it was unrealistic to ask them to continue to fight. Bernard Elno had already stood on the moral high ground. The previous incident on White Horse Island was a sensation and known to everyone. America was indeed in the wrong in this matter.

The President was also paying close attention to Bernard Elno’s trip to the United States at this moment. What he cared about most was public opinion, so he was very worried that Bernard Elno would talk nonsense everywhere. And Bernard Elno did not disappoint him. As soon as he got off the plane, he started talking nonsense at full speed.

What’s even more f*cked up is that this Old Deng actually dared to make fun of me in a subtle way. This is intolerable.

His face darkened as he immediately instructed his staff, “Quick, notify all major media outlets to write articles immediately to throw mud at Bernard Elno. Dig up any old grievances he has and publicize them. Then, brand him as someone who came to the United States purely for hype and has no genuine interest in fighting terrorism.”

The staff member quickly said, “Commander-in-Chief, this guy is so unscrupulous, it doesn’t fit the nature of a businessman. I always feel that something is fishy. Moreover, he has the upper hand in this matter and is already on the moral high ground. If we rashly launch a public opinion war against him, we may very well shoot ourselves in the foot. In my opinion, we are in the wrong in this matter, so we should try to keep a low profile. If all else fails, we can impose appropriate penalties on Blackwater to calm public anger.”

The President said angrily, “I didn’t want to argue with him, but this guy is really going too far! He donated 200 million US dollars to hype himself up, which I can accept. As long as money is money, I will naturally welcome him with open arms. But why did he exclude America? Isn’t this a blatant accusation and a deliberate slap in my face?”

He paused for a moment, then added, “I’m not intentionally trying to protect Blackwater. It’s just that Blackwater’s nature is too unique. Almost all of its members are our supporters. We have so many dirty jobs around the world that need them to do, and they’re the only ones who can do them. If we don’t help Blackwater now, once their reputation is completely tarnished, we won’t be able to ask them to do our dirty work anymore, and the public will be very hostile to them! So no matter what, we have to help Blackwater now.”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7599

At this point, he gritted his teeth in annoyance and said, “If Bernard Erno hadn’t kept insisting on this, the influence of this matter would have definitely declined by now!”

The chief aide was also somewhat helpless and said, “I really didn’t expect that Bernard Elno would dare to oppose us so openly.”

The commander-in-chief said sternly, “So, don’t hesitate. Just do as I say. Let’s directly fight him through public opinion. Isn’t he on the moral high ground? While we can’t climb up, we can pull him down! Once he’s in the same moral trough as us, it’ll be a dog-eat-dog fight, with no one right or wrong.”

After that, he seriously educated his staff: “You must remember that sometimes, we don’t have to make money to win. In the business world, it doesn’t matter if I don’t make money myself. As long as I can make my competitors lose money, I still win.”

Seeing the thoughtful expressions on their faces, the commander-in-chief said calmly, “Think about it from another perspective, gentlemen. If you’re already covered in shit and can’t wash it off, why not just cover others in shit? When everyone is covered in shit, no one will just be disgusted by your stench.”

The commander-in-chief's metaphor suddenly enlightened everyone!

Everyone immediately felt as if they had realized something, and their eyes became clear and shining.

Before, they'd worried Bernard Elno would fight them to the bitter end. Now, they realized the Commander was right. Now that things had come to this, what was there to fear? The White Horse Island incident had gotten them into a mess, and if they couldn't clean themselves up, they might as well give up and discredit Bernard Elno. Once he was discredited, the public would naturally turn against him.

So, the most senior, round-faced aide said without hesitation, "President, I'm going to contact the media right now and dig up all the dirt on Bernard Elno. It just so happens that he's been so rude to America today, and he's already offended the American media. They have a legitimate reason to confront him! Let's take this opportunity to discredit him!"

The Grand Commander nodded slightly, looking teachable. He smiled and said, "As Grand Commander, I may not have as much experience as those professional politicians, but when it comes to business, all the Grand Commanders of the past combined might not be my match. Bernard Elno is a businessman, so let's compete with him in the same way we compete in the business world!"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7600

When Bernard Ayno finished the interview at the airport and headed straight to the UN headquarters accompanied by UN officials, major American media outlets all received instructions from Washington.

The instructions were simple: to discredit Bernard Arnault as much as possible, the darker the better.

Although the American media claims to have freedom of the press on the surface, they are actually controlled by a group of financial tycoons behind the scenes. These tycoons are active in Silicon Valley and Wall Street and are essentially profit-driven. They often fabricate fake news and distort the facts for the sake of profit and to please Washington. Even when the President was not in office, he would angrily denounce these media as "fake news" when he mentioned them.

However, to the President, these media are like toilets. When he cannot use the toilet himself, he complains about its smell, odor and dirtiness. But when he can use it himself, he sits on it and poops and urinates every day, and he is so happy.

These media outlets now dare not disobey the President. In addition, Bernard Elno really does not give face to these domestic media outlets, so everyone is eager to deal with him. It just so happens that the President has given the order, which is equivalent to revenge by order, and everyone is naturally very happy.

So, everyone started to use their own skills to dig up some negative information about Bernard Arnault.

When it comes to negative information, Bernard Arnault actually has a lot.

For example, when it acquired the Dior brand, it played tricks on the French government. Before the acquisition, it promised to retain workers and jobs, but after the acquisition, it directly fired thousands of people from the company, turned its back on its employees, and even manipulated the stock market and was suspected of money laundering. When it acquired LV, it carried out many illegal back-room operations and achieved an illegal acquisition.

But Bernard Erno never cared about that.

He is a typical pragmatist who only cares about results. He does everything to achieve his goals and has no bottom line for this purpose.

As a result, American media practitioners immediately began to use all their talents to uncover all the improper and even illegal business competition of Bernard Arnault in the past, and then competed to report on it.

For a time, news headlines appeared one after another.

For example, “The Dirtiest Richest Man in the World”, “What You Don’t Know About Bernard Elno”, “The Former Richest Man in the World: The Shameless Bastard Who Got to the Top by Robbery and Theft”, and “A Wolf in Sheep’s Clothing”.

After Bernard Arnault arrived at the United Nations, he was preparing for a donation ceremony in the lounge when his assistant said with a frustrated look on his face, “Boss, the American media is smearing you like crazy!”

Bernard Elno didn't even raise his eyelids and snorted coldly, "Slander me? It's nothing more than that incident from back then. It's already internationally known. It doesn't matter. Let them erase it."

The assistant said nervously, "But their coverage is a bit too intense right now. Almost all media outlets in the United States are covering this. The coverage is quite intense..."

"Don't be afraid!" Bernard Elno sneered. "Let them party to their heart's content. Who among those who have climbed to the top of the world's richest man started out clean and honest? Didn't the President also use all sorts of shady tactics when doing business? Whatever. The more ruthless they are, the better. It would be best if they could make it so bad that I can't even survive in America!"

The assistant was stunned.

What on earth is the boss trying to do?

He wasn't like this before!
