

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7646

Stephen Thompson said, "After I arrive in Australia, I will make a little news there, but to be on the safe side, I won't make it too big. I will then send the news link to Madam Wade. I hope Madam Wade can pretend to mention it by accident in front of the young master, and then find a way to let him see the content of the news."

Claire immediately said: "Okay, I will follow the instructions of Butler Stephen."

Then she asked, "When will my parents and I leave?"

Stephen Thompson said, "If nothing unexpected happens, the news will be sent to you on the morning of the third day of February, which is the day after Young Master's birthday. If everything goes according to plan, Young Master will take the earliest flight to Australia after seeing the news. After Young Master's flight takes off, I will arrange for you and your parents to leave. I will arrange for someone to pick you up from Eastcliff and your parents at the same time. However, you need to inform your parents and let them prepare, but it is best not to let them know the specific situation before departure."

"Okay." Claire knew that Stephen Thompson would not harm himself, let alone Charlie Wade, so he nodded and said, "I will find an excuse to tell them, but you need to tell me where my parents and I are leaving the country so that I can make up a suitable excuse for them."

Stephen Thompson said, "We plan to arrange for you and your family to leave the country by sea from the island city of Qilu. You will depart from Eastcliff, and your parents will depart from Aurous Hill. Both places are about the same distance from the island city, and it will take about six hours to arrive."

Claire said: “Then I will tell them that charlie Wade has something urgent to do and I will take them on a cruise to Japan and South Korea.”

Stephen Thompson instructed: “Mrs. wade, just make sure your parents won’t tell the young master about this.”

“That’s for sure.” Claire said, “I’ll tell them that charlie Wade has a client who invited him to Australia for feng shui consultation. My parents won’t disturb him when he’s away at work.”

“That’s good.” Stephen Thompson nodded and smiled, “Since Madam Ye is so confident, let’s proceed according to Madam Ye’s plan.”

Elaine knew that charlie Wade’s birthday was on the second day of the second lunar month, and she was thinking of booking a hotel in advance so that the family could celebrate charlie Wade’s birthday. When Claire returned home, she asked, “Claire, it’s our son-in-law’s birthday on the second day of the second lunar month. Should we find a place and order a cake to celebrate for him together?”

Claire said to her: “charlie Wade plans to take me to Eastcliff to watch Stefanie sun’s concert on his birthday. I will just celebrate his birthday, and you and Dad don’t have to worry about it.”

Elaine frowned and said, “Why are you going to see that Stefanie sun again? What’s the point of going to see her again after you’ve seen her? Besides, she is such a person. What a coincidence. Why does she always hold a concert on her good son-in-law’s birthday?”

Claire smiled bitterly and thought that this was not a coincidence at all. Stefanie sun had chosen to hold the concert on charlie Wade's birthday specifically.

At this time, Elaine saw that charlie Wade and Jacob had not returned yet, so she pulled Claire's sleeve and said seriously: "Claire, Mom thinks that you and charlie Wade have been married for so many years, and you are not young anymore. It's time to make plans early."

Claire had something on his mind, so he didn't pay much attention to Elaine's words. He only heard her say that she had to make plans early, so he subconsciously asked, "What plans are you making?"

Elaine said: "Of course we are planning to have children! You two have been married for several years, it's time to have children."

After she finished speaking, she suddenly realized something and asked with wide eyes, "Claire, you and charlie Wade... haven't you done that yet?"

Claire was upset by her question and quickly said, "Mom, don't worry about it. We can make reasonable arrangements for our own affairs."

Elaine didn't know what she meant, and couldn't help asking: "When you say reasonable arrangements, are you making reasonable arrangements for having children, or making reasonable arrangements for that thing between you two?"

After saying that, she quickly urged: "Claire, if you and charlie Wade haven't taken a step forward, then you really have to hurry up. If you live together as a couple and still treat each other with respect every day, what kind of life is that? It's almost like sharing a house. Your situation was special before, so Mom didn't say much, but now the time is ripe, don't waste your youth any longer."

"I see..." Claire sighed silently, then said, "Mom, I feel a little uncomfortable. I'll go upstairs first."

Elaine was helpless, nodded and said, "Go, think carefully about what Mom said, and don't focus on work all day long."

Claire's back paused for a moment before he walked out again.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7648

There are still two days before the Dragon Raising Day on the second day of February. charlie and Claire have already made preparations to head north to Eastcliff.

charlie has booked a flight to Eastcliff for tomorrow at noon, and has also booked the best hotel suite near the stadium. He plans to go shopping in Eastcliff with Claire, and then stay in Eastcliff for two days to have fun after watching the performance.

The idea of traveling around was proposed by Claire. She deliberately asked charlie to make a four-day travel plan, saying that she wanted to travel around Eastcliff with charlie, but in fact she just didn't want charlie to become suspicious.

Knowing that the two of them would be out alone for a few days and that they would also celebrate charlie's birthday, Elaine took Claire to her room and talked in private before leaving. When Claire came out of Elaine's room, his face was so red that blood was about to drip out, and his eyes looked around like a thief.

That night, Claire lay beside charlie and could not sleep all night.

Like her, Tawana Sweet, who was rushing to Eastcliff from France, also stayed awake all night.

At this moment, she is sitting in a private jet crossing the Eurasian continent.

However, she did not take her own private plane, but borrowed Bernard Arnault's private plane specifically in order to avoid being discovered by the outside world.

Otherwise, once her plane moves, people all over the world will know where her next stop is.

She didn't want to reveal her whereabouts in advance, as she was still waiting to go to Eastcliff to give charlie a surprise.

It was Stefanie sun's last farewell performance, and she naturally became the mysterious guest.

However, she and Stefanie sun had reached a best friend agreement that this matter would never be revealed to anyone else, not even to the outside world, and not to charlie either.

And she will be at Stefanie sun's concert, when Stefanie sun sings the song "Assassin", she will descend from the sky on a wire and sing the song with Stefanie sun.

The reason why she went to great lengths to travel from France to Eastcliff to attend this performance was because charlie would be watching the performance in the audience. More importantly, this day would also be charlie's 29th birthday.

She was madly in love with charlie, so naturally she didn't want to miss the good opportunity to celebrate his birthday. Even if she just sang a song for him on the stage, she would be very satisfied.

On the plane, the assistant saw that she hadn't rested yet, so he came over to her and whispered, "Ms. Sweet, Mr. Trevor Kennedy just broke the news to the media, saying that you will choose a date to hold your engagement ceremony. The media is hyping this news. Do you want to respond?"

Tawanna asked in surprise, "What does Trevor mean? We haven't been in touch much lately. Why are you suddenly releasing this kind of news?"

The assistant shook his head: "I'm not too sure about this...why don't you contact Mr. Kennedy?"

Tawanna was helpless and said irritably, "Give me the satellite phone."

The assistant immediately handed her the satellite phone, and she called Trevor immediately.

Trevor was currently at home, refusing to see visitors. Ever since he announced his engagement to the media, his agent's phone had been bombarded with calls, and many fans and media even ran to wait outside his mansion, hoping to interview him.

Trevor has not yet accepted any interviews from any media outlets as he is still waiting for Tawanna to contact him.

He knew that if Tawanna saw the news, she would contact him as soon as possible, and he could take this opportunity to communicate with her. Otherwise, she would not answer his calls, and occasionally she would hang up hastily with various excuses, not giving him a chance to be open and honest.

The reason for making this announcement to the public was mainly to force her to contact him.

At this moment, his cell phone suddenly received a satellite call from Tawanna. He immediately pressed the answer button and said, "Hi, baby."

Tawanna felt a little uncomfortable and asked him, "Trevor, why did you talk nonsense to the media?"

Trevor said, "Talking nonsense? Not really, right? We're already boyfriend and girlfriend, and we've even talked about getting married. I even said I'd find a chance to propose to you, and you verbally agreed."

Tawanna immediately said, "That's just a verbal promise. It's not counted. What's more, even if that's the case, you have to propose first, and then I will decide whether to agree. How can you just tell the media nonsense without my permission?"

Trevor was a little unhappy and asked her, "If I hadn't said that, would you have called me? You've been avoiding me all this time, even when you were on vacation. Why? If you want to break up with me, just tell me. We can sit down and talk it out and solve the problem, but don't use this kind of cold violence against me."

Tawanna said, "I've been busy lately and haven't found the time yet. When I have more time, I'll naturally have a good chat with you. Don't you even have this little patience?"

"No!" Trevor's voice grew louder and louder, roaring, "If I wait any longer, you'll leave me completely! Tawanna, I know you like that guy named Ye, but I advise you to face reality. You and him can never be together. He has a wife, and a fiancée like Stefanie sun. How could it be your turn?"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7649

Tawanna said guiltily and angrily: “This is my business, you don’t need to worry about it!”

Trevor asked back, “What about me?! What should I do?! Should I continue to wait for you, until you change your mind, or should you just give me a definite answer and ask whether we should officially end this relationship?!”

Tawanna pondered for a moment, calmed down, and said seriously: “Trevor, let’s end it here. To be honest, I don’t love you anymore. I’m sorry.”

Trevor on the other end of the phone spoke in a surprisingly calm tone, “Tavanna, you don’t have to love me, but you have to love yourself. The best way to fall in love with a man like that is to keep this love in your heart and then find a man who can tolerate your feelings for other men and marry him. Over time, your feelings for him may fade, but if you continue to be deeply involved in it, you will probably delay yourself and waste your precious youth!”

Tawanna was silent for a long time, then smiled and said, “Trevor, thank you. I know you’re doing this for my own good, but sometimes people are just like that. Even when they know something is impossible, they’re unwilling to give up completely. Besides, I still have most of my life to waste.”

Without waiting for Trevor’s response, she said, “Let’s break up, Trevor. This is good for both you and me. I know you’re also a person who cares about reputation, so I won’t tell the media this. I’ll give you two months, and then you can explain it to the media. During these two months, I won’t meet with you, nor will I respond to any rumors about your engagement.”

Then, Tawanna hung up the phone, sighed with relief, and two tears silently rolled down from the corners of her eyes.

On the first day of the second lunar month, charlie and Claire flew to Eastcliff.

Shortly after his flight took off, Stephen Thompson was ready to set off at Qixia Temple.

In order to avoid leaving any records for inspection, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) prepared a cargo plane for him that took off from Shanghai and headed for Melbourne, the largest city in Australia.

This cargo plane belongs to Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom)’s industry, but unlike the transportation company of the Poqing Society, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom)’s transportation company is almost all legal and aboveboard business. The transportation company she actually controls is already the largest express logistics group in Asia, with the largest all-cargo aircraft fleet in Asia, and even has its own exclusive cargo airport in the mainland.

Her cargo fleet includes nearly 100 self-purchased cargo planes and dozens of leased cargo planes, and has created an air transport network covering the world.

The company has cargo flights flying between Melbourne and Sydney, Australia every day, and all the cargo it carries is clearly traceable and has a clean background.

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) had a way to let Stephen Thompson take this plane to leave the country. He could avoid all customs and supervision. After arriving in Australia, he would be directly picked up by airport ground staff and disguised as one of the ground staff, so that he could enter the country smoothly. When he completed his mission and returned, he only needed to return to the airport as a ground staff member. The original ground staff member could then return to work normally, and Stephen Thompson could take another flight to leave Australia.

Before leaving, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) warned Stephen Thompson, "Sihai, when you go to Australia this time, you must ensure that everything goes according to plan. As long as you can successfully complete the mission, charlie's life will transition to the next stage."

Stephen Thompson immediately said respectfully, "Madam, rest assured, I will definitely fulfill my mission!"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) said, "Your plane takes off tonight and will arrive in Melbourne at noon tomorrow in China. By then, Nannan's concert hasn't started yet. If Miss Willson reveals the news to charlie the next morning as planned, charlie won't arrive in Melbourne until at least the third night in China. This leaves you plenty of time. You must leave Australia before charlie arrives in Melbourne."

Stephen Thompson nodded heavily: "Madam, don't worry. After everything is done, I will wait in Melbourne. Once the young master successfully boards the plane to Melbourne, I will leave immediately."

"Okay." Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) said, "I've arranged a flight for you to Osaka. I'll be waiting for you at the Kinkaku-ji Temple in Kyoto."

Stephen Thompson asked in surprise: "Madam, your next stop is Japan?"

"Right." Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded and said, "You suddenly appeared in Australia and lured charlie south to Australia. When he returned from Australia, he found that the Willson family girl and her parents had suddenly disappeared. He would easily guess that this was your trick to lure the tiger away from the mountain."

“By then, charlie will also know that you were the one behind the departure of the Willson family’s three children. He may not doubt your character, but he will definitely guess that there is someone else behind you, Stephen Thompson.”

“Given his personality, he won’t just blindly accept this. He’ll definitely try to figure out what happened. So, Sister Sun and I, as well as everyone else who has come into contact with charlie and Miss willson, must leave China before charlie returns to avoid any complications.”

Having said this, she paused slightly and continued, “The abbot of Kinkakuji Temple is Jingqing’s disciple. He has already arranged for Kinkakuji Temple to be closed for renovations. We can rest there for a while.”

Although Jingqing is not very old, he has been widely recognized and supported in the entire East Asian Buddhist community because of his unparalleled talent and destiny in Buddhism. In order to reach a higher level, many East Asian monks have the idea of worshipping Jingqing as their teacher and learning Buddhism from him. Jingqing also accepted several anonymous disciples based on their Buddhist affinity. The abbot of Kinkakuji Temple is one of them.

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) knew that charlie had deep feelings for Claire, and that Stephen Thompson had taken Claire away without his knowledge. He would definitely try his best to find her, so he decided to leave China first to avoid being caught by charlie. The Kinkakuji Temple was a good place to go.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7650

After charlie and Claire arrived in Eastcliff, they checked into the hotel next to the National Stadium.

Because a concert was about to start, the entire hotel was fully booked, and the two of them waited for nearly half an hour to check in.

After checking in, the two had nothing to do, so Claire suggested that they go for a stroll in the center of Eastcliff. Claire, who studied art and design, liked the courtyard houses within the second ring road of Eastcliff very much and wanted to go for a stroll with charlie.

charlie readily agreed, but he never thought that Claire just wanted to go with charlie to visit the place where charlie had lived as a child.

The two of them strolled through the alleys within the Second Ring Road. Claire took a lot of photos and also took a lot of group photos with charlie. He seemed to be in a particularly good mood.

When they arrived at Houhai, although there was still ice on the surface, it had already begun to melt near the shore. Claire felt a little regretful. She sighed, “I have always wanted to play the traditional northern ice sled, but I never had the chance. charlie, have you ever played it?”

charlie shook his head: “I haven’t played it either, but if you want to try it, we can come earlier next year, don't wait until the spring."

He didn't dare say that he had played with this thing. After all, the life story he told others was that he had been an orphan and wandered around since childhood, and then he was admitted to the Aurous Hill Welfare Home.

How could an orphan from Aurous Hill ever play better than a northern ice sled?

After all, in the cold and wet winter weather in Aurous Hill, it is not easy for a dog to stand on the thin ice, let alone a person. Children who grew up in Aurous Hill will not have the childhood memories of children in the north.

Claire was a little disappointed, but soon recovered as usual. She asked charlie: "It's my birthday tomorrow. Do you want to find a good restaurant for lunch?"

"No thanks." charlie said with a smile, "I'm not used to celebrating my birthday in a restaurant."

Claire said: "But I have to celebrate your birthday."

charlie suggested: "Why don't we buy a cake and have it delivered to the hotel. After the show tonight, we can just eat the cake in the hotel room."

Claire thought about it, nodded and said, "That's fine. I've already ordered a cake from a very famous cake shop in Eastcliff. I'll celebrate with you when I return to the hotel tomorrow!"

charlie smiled and said, "Okay, thank you, wife."

After returning to the hotel, the two washed up and lay on the bed. Claire waited for midnight to arrive and said happy birthday to charlie in person, while charlie lay on the bed with his thoughts flying.

In his ears, Stefanie sun's words would always ring inexplicably: "Unless you give me a son!"

He began to worry that after this concert, Stefanie sun would continue to argue with him about that issue.

Because after the concert, she will completely withdraw from the entertainment industry. At that time, she will no longer participate in any performances, record any songs, or accept any commercial cooperation, and will officially return to the life of an ordinary person.

By then, nothing can interfere with her life. If she mentions that she wants to get pregnant before marriage, how should I deal with it?

As I was sighing, the time came to midnight.

Claire leaned over, gently rested her head on his shoulder, and said, "Happy birthday, husband!"

charlie smiled slightly, stretched out his hand to hold her gently, and said softly: "Thank you, my wife."

Claire wanted to say something, but charlie's phone started buzzing non-stop.

Dozens of WeChat messages were sent all at once.

Stefanie sun, Cai Caizi, Aurora, Doris Young, Jasmine moore, Xion, Zara, Lisa, Ziva Hank, Helena and other women sent him birthday wishes, and even Tawana sent a message on time.

In addition to them, the four-hundred-year-old Lin Wan'er also sent a message to charlie, wishing him a happy birthday.

Others such as Don Albert, Isaac Cameron, Abbas and the Elms family also sent their blessings.
