

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7651

What's even more interesting is that even Steve Rothschild sent charlie a long string of blessings.

The constant WeChat messages made charlie feel a little embarrassed. He didn't dare to reply in front of Claire, so he could only put down his phone.

Claire asked him: "Husband, why don't you reply to the message?"

charlie smiled and said, "Oh, these are all blessings from a group of customers, so I won't respond to them one by one. I'll just post them on WeChat Moments later and write a few words of thanks."

Claire smiled slightly and did not expose him, but asked him: "You are twenty-nine years old, do you have any wishes?"

"Wishes?" charlie thought for a moment and smiled, "I haven't thought about it before, but when I think about it carefully, I have quite a lot of wishes."

Claire said: "You can think about it first and come up with the one you want to achieve the most. Then make it when you blow out the candles tonight. Birthday wishes will be easily fulfilled."

"Okay." charlie nodded with a smile.

After a night's rest, the second day of February quickly arrived.

In Eastcliff today, it was foggy outside in the early morning, and visibility was very low. charlie looked down at the National Stadium from the window of the hotel. The entire venue, which was originally clearly visible, had now become hazy.

Not long after, snowflakes began to fall from the sky, and the mobile phone notifications kept ringing. Several news and weather apps reminded me that there would be a sudden heavy snowfall in Eastcliff today, and it might turn into a blizzard.

Logically speaking, the temperature would rise after the first month of the lunar year, and it would be March in the Gregorian calendar, so the probability of snowfall in Eastcliff would be very small. However, unexpectedly, a sudden heavy snowfall turned the entire city into a world covered in silver.

Claire felt much better when he saw the snow flying all over the sky. He sat in front of the floor-to-ceiling window and watched the snow fall intently.

However, the people rushing through the morning rush hour on the streets outside were not in such a good mood. The various vehicles on the road were stuck in a mess, and people were struggling to move forward in the snow with umbrellas. From time to time, people or bicycles would slip on the road.

The snow fell heavily across the university until evening.

The heavy snow finally stopped when charlie and Claire started queuing up for ticket checking at the stadium.

The heavy snow has brought the city's traffic to the brink of paralysis, but it still cannot stop the enthusiasm of these fans. Tens of thousands of people have entered the venue one after another, causing the temperature of the entire venue to rise suddenly.

This time, charlie and Claire got front-row tickets, which is also the hardest-to-get area at all concerts. Here, they can see the stars on the stage up close and experience the best.

Claire couldn't be happy at this moment. She kept looking at the time on her mobile phone. The performance would start on time at 7:30 in the evening, and there were still twenty minutes left. But she also knew that at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning, she would have to cooperate with Tang Sihai and accidentally let charlie see the news that he wanted charlie to see. According to his plan, charlie would immediately leave for Australia after seeing the news. This meant that she only had the last twelve hours left with charlie. At this moment, she felt like she was living her life by the seconds. Thinking that there were only twelve hours left, and seeing charlie beside her, Claire's emotions were a little out of control, and tears unconsciously slid down her cheeks again. Seeing her tears, charlie asked her with concern: "Wife, you...why are you crying again?" In the past few days, Claire's mood has been unstable. charlie originally noticed that something was wrong, but he was too stupid to guess the reason. But at this moment, seeing Claire crying silently again, his heart suddenly ached, as if he had guessed something. Looking at charlie's concerned and nervous eyes, Claire's pain and grievance were instantly magnified by this concern. She could hardly control her urge to hug charlie and cry. If she kept it in her heart like this, she was afraid that she would collapse. But unexpectedly, at this moment, a girl next to me burst into tears. Her boyfriend quickly held her in his arms and asked nervously, "Baby, what's wrong with you?" The girl choked up and said, "I... When I think about this being Sister Stefanie's last concert, I... I feel so sad! I can't imagine her leaving the entertainment industry at such a young age..." As she spoke, the girl lost control of her emotions and burst into tears. Only then did charlie realize that the girls crying beside them were not just her and Claire. Many girls were like Claire, silently crying while looking at the empty stage. charlie also naturally thought that Claire's tears were shed because Stefanie sun was going to quit the entertainment industry. So, he held Claire in his arms and comforted her, "Don't be sad, my dear. Even if Miss Sun retires from the music industry, her music can still be listened to online at any time. Many live concert videos can also be found online. And judging by the routines of those Hong Kong and Taiwan singers, she might make a comeback one day." Claire was stunned when she heard this. She gave a bitter laugh, and her rationality gradually took over. She suppressed the impulse in her heart...

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7652

The performance started on time at 7:30.

Different from the gorgeous and cool opening of her previous concerts, Stefanie sun's last farewell concert did not adopt a high-profile opening style.

The originally dark stage was gradually lit up by multiple large LED screens. At the same time, a light was turned on in the middle of the stage. Under the light, a sand painter was painting on a glowing sand painting board with his hands and fine sand.

The picture shows a boy who looks two or three years old, holding the hand of a toddler girl.

Then, music started playing, and Stefanie sun slowly rose from the lift platform. Wearing a white long dress, she sang a song she wrote on the stage, called “Little Us”.

This song tells the story of a pair of childhood sweethearts, their close relationship from infancy to childhood, and then their separation due to family reasons. Although they never had the chance to meet again, the girl still missed the boy. The story background completely and realistically shows her mental journey before she found Charlie Wade.

The sand painter skillfully matched the song, constantly overturning and repainting the sand painting. In the picture, the two children grew up gradually. When the boy was seven or eight years old, he left the city with his parents. The girl watched them get on the car with tears in her eyes, and then ran after their car for a long time.

Then, the girl grew up slowly. Although she grew up, studied and played normally like other children, she could never forget the boy's appearance when he left.

The girl gradually grew into a graceful and elegant lady, but she could never find any trace of the boy. Year after year passed, the trees on the shore of Houhai sprouted and withered, withered and sprouted again, and the ice surface that the children loved froze and melted, melted and froze again.

Fans who know Stefanie sun know that as the only daughter of the Sun family, she is worth tens of billions. The reason why she gave up her status as a young lady in Beijing and entered the entertainment industry was to find the boy she missed that year.

But no one knows whether she found the boy or not.

There is no perfect ending in this song. The last line goes: “No matter where you are, please remember the little me and the little us back then.”

This song is a bit tender and sad. Judging from the performance effect, it is not suitable to be used as the opening of a concert.

However, Stefanie sun’s fans all know her infatuation and good intentions over the years, and they are more moved by this song than other explosive songs.

Considering that this was Stefanie sun’s last concert, fans felt the same way. Many people in the audience burst into tears during the first song of the concert.

charlie Wade was in a complicated mood. A line of poetry kept popping up in his mind: “It is easy to torture a talented person, but it is the hardest to accept the kindness of a beautiful woman.”

A girl who has been silently devoted to you for so many years, even if she has a heart of stone, will probably be melted by this burning sincerity.

What made charlie Wade even more at a loss was that there were more women who were so devoted to him than just Stefanie sun.

Stefanie sun's melodious voice, combined with the lyrics of the song and the sand painter's paintings, even Claire, who was beside charlie Wade, was moved.

At this moment, the snow, which had stopped for about an hour, began to fall again.

In the open-air venue, snowflakes were falling, and this moving song made the audience feel emotional and moved.

One song quickly pulled tens of thousands of people in the audience into the hot spring of pure love. Even though snowflakes kept falling on their heads, they still felt warm.

After singing a song, Stefanie sun turned around on the stage and wiped away her tears.

She knew charlie Wade was in the audience, but she never dared to look him in the eye.

Moreover, today, she specifically instructed the photographers on the scene not to point the camera at the audience, because she was afraid that the cameraman would accidentally capture charlie Wade and be seen by someone with ulterior motives.

When the audience saw her turning around and wiping her tears, they subconsciously thought that Stefanie sun must be sad because of the song, and inferred that she probably had not yet found the boy mentioned in the song.

Then, Stefanie sun adjusted her mindset and continued the performance.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7653

After singing three songs in a row, Stefanie sun finally took advantage of the break between songs to say into the microphone, "Thank you very much to the audience tonight.

This is the last concert of my global farewell concert. I was born in Eastcliff, grew up in Eastcliff, and debuted in Eastcliff. So I chose Eastcliff to hold this concert because I hope that my acting career can have a complete beginning and end, and end successfully in the place where it began, and it can be considered a complete end.”

The fans were excited and sad, and they shouted her name loudly in the audience, and some even shouted at her not to quit the music industry.

Stefanie sun smiled slightly and continued, “Although I’m very happy and honored to have supporters like you over the years in the entertainment industry, I believe that all good things must come to an end, and I always have to choose a time to say goodbye to everyone. So I hope to say goodbye to everyone properly and solemnly in my best years, so that everyone will remember me at my best.”

A female fan in the front row yelled at the top of her lungs, “Stefanie, you will always be the best in my heart!”

Stefanie sun smiled and said, “You have to remember that nothing is always the best.”

After that, she half-jokingly and half-seriously said to the audience, “Perhaps if I say goodbye to you now, the last impression left in your minds will be of the best Stefanie sun. But if I say goodbye to you again in ten years, it may be the old and faded Stefanie sun. If I wait another twenty years and still don’t say goodbye, many of you may quietly discuss why that old lady named Stefanie sun hasn’t retired yet and is still clinging to the music scene at her age. It’s really annoying, isn’t it?”

“No!” fans quickly denied it.

Stefanie sun waved her hand and said with a smile, “Okay, I’ve decided to quit, so I won’t give you the chance to dislike me ten or twenty years from now. So these are all false propositions. What I want to tell you is that high-quality companionship is never about being together for a long time, but about being able to devote yourself wholeheartedly and without regrets no matter how long you are together. I have been going all out in the entertainment industry for all these years. For me, I have done my best to accompany you all, so I won’t feel any regrets saying goodbye now. So, don’t be sad, don’t have any regrets, you just need to know that the Stefanie sun who loves you has kept her acting career at its peak forever.”

Stefanie sun’s frank and sincere expression made fans cry.

Many idols are racking their brains to think about how to prolong their blooming period, how to squeeze out the consumption potential of their fans, and how to use various resources to make themselves more successful.

But Stefanie sun never had these thoughts.

She is self-disciplined and self-loving, and at the same time, she is very sincere to her fans. She is never pretentious or deceitful. Over the years, she has given her all in every song and every performance, and she has indeed left her best side to her fans.

Moreover, the entertainment industry is cruel. No old artist with both virtue and talent can maintain their popularity forever. As they grow older, even superstars will have weaker and weaker influence, which is the same trend as the state of a person's life.

If Stefanie sun continues to stay in the entertainment industry, she will inevitably start to decline after five or eight years. No matter how hard she tries, she will gradually be defeated and replaced by fresh blood in terms of appearance, physical strength and condition.

Now, she has retired from the entertainment industry directly from the peak of her career, and what she will leave to the entire Chinese music scene will be a monument that represents her continuous advancement and never going downhill.

Moreover, it will be difficult or even impossible for the entertainment industry in the future to have another idol as pure, dazzling, and self-loving as her.

Because, even if someone is as pure as her, it is impossible for her to possess her unparalleled talent, her wealthy family background and her spotless self-discipline at the same time.

Of these four points, some people in the world may possess one, two, or even three, but no one will possess all four like she does.

She retired at this time and will surely become a music legend that will never be seen again!

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7654

Stefanie sun's farewell performance continued in the heavy snow.

Fans were not bothered by the heavy snow, but instead enjoyed this poignant and beautiful scene that was about to be discontinued.

Stefanie sun was in very good shape today. She performed every song impeccably without any mistakes or abnormalities.

The performance lasted nearly two hours. After a song ended, Stefanie sun smiled and said, "Today's concert features a friend who has come all the way from France to be a special guest. I'm sure you can guess who she is, right?"

As soon as he finished speaking, the audience burst into cheers.

Everyone knows that Tawanna was in Paris a few days ago and held several concerts in Paris. Stefanie sun suddenly said that a guest was coming from France, and everyone immediately realized that it should be Tawanna Sweet.

Moreover, everyone knows that Stefanie sun and Tavana have a good relationship. Stefanie sun has been a guest performer for Tavana in several of her previous performances. It is natural for Tavana to be a guest at Stefanie sun's concert this time.

At this moment, Stefanie sun said to the microphone: "Next, please give your warmest applause to welcome our good friend who has come from afar, Tawanna Sweet!"

Suddenly the whole audience burst into applause.

For the audience, it is really worth the trip to watch the performance of two superstar singers with one ticket.

As soon as Stefanie sun finished speaking, the lights on the stage suddenly went out.

Immediately afterwards, a large amount of smoke was sprayed out from both sides of the stage, and the figures on the stage could not be seen at all.

At this time, Stefanie sun had quietly left the stage in the smoke, and from this moment on, the stage was about to be handed over to Tawana.

Then, the lights on the scene came on again, and the lights on the stage began to become hotter. Then, familiar music sounded, which turned out to be Tawanna's most famous love story.

Under the action of high-power fans, the smoke was split from the center of the stage and dispersed to both sides. In the center of the stage, Tawanna suddenly appeared on the stage in an elevator. The fans were overjoyed, and screams filled their ears and echoed throughout the venue.

Although the weather was cold, Tawanna still wore a very cool sequined dress. The style of the dress was similar to a one-piece swimsuit, but it was made very exquisitely. With the golden sequins, she looked radiant on the stage.

Unlike Stefanie sun's restraint, the moment Tawana came on stage, in addition to concentrating on singing, her eyes were always looking in the direction of charlie Wade.

When she was backstage, she had already secretly observed charlie Wade's position, and as soon as she came on stage, she kept looking at him without blinking.

Claire realized that Tawana had been staring at her, and she knew in her heart that she was not looking at her, but at her husband.

charlie Wade felt a little guilty when he saw her staring at him, so he didn't dare to look her in the eye from beginning to end, for fear that Claire next to him would notice something.

On the stage, Tawanna sang passionately and vigorously, and with her superb stage performance, she captivated all the audience.

Today she specially selected a few passionate love songs as the performance songs, just to let charlie Wade know her deep love.

charlie Wade felt somewhat embarrassed, so he tried not to look at her or make eye contact with her.

But Tawana was not satisfied with charlie Wade's evasive behavior, so she walked to the edge of the stage, stood closest to charlie Wade, and sang emotionally.

After singing five songs in a row, Tawana took the microphone and said in fluent Chinese, "I am very honored to be the guest of Miss Sun's last concert. I hope that everyone in the audience will enjoy this evening. I also hope that all lovers in the audience will finally get married."

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7655

Tawana greeted the audience in Chinese, which surprised the audience and they cheered one after another.

Tawana continued, "I never really understood China before, but after coming into contact with China, I found that I had fallen deeply in love with this country and its people..."

When she said this, Tawana did not forget to look in the direction of charlie Wade. She said that she loved the people of this country, which was obviously meaningful.

Having said this, Tawana didn't dare to continue to bring up her own agenda, so she continued, "Next, I'll bring you my last song of the day, which is also my favorite Chinese song. And I'd like to invite Miss Sun to sing this song with me!"

After saying that, she turned around, looked towards the backstage, and said with a smile, "Miss Sun, please come to the stage!"

Everyone watched intently, and saw Stefanie sun, wearing a white traditional-style long dress, walking slowly onto the stage from the side.

Tawanna came forward and the two of them gave a brief hug on the stage. Then Tawanna looked at the audience and asked with a smile, "Does everyone know which song we're going to sing next?!"

"assassin!"

The audience in the audience was already boiling with excitement.

Most of them had not seen the live performance of "Assassin" by Tawana and Stefanie sun, but later they all saw the video of the performance on the video platform.

There is no doubt that after the two of them adapted this song, its value at least doubled and it received unanimous praise from the audience.

Now, everyone has the opportunity to witness the two of them perform together, and they are naturally very excited.

Afterwards, the two girls held hands and performed the song “Assassin” again on stage.

However, there was no one dancing with them in this performance.

Previously, Tawanna had kissed one of the male dancers through a mask, which attracted quite a bit of attention from all over the world. I thought I could feast my eyes today, but I didn’t expect that the two women would hold hands the whole time, and their stage performance was perfect yet restrained.

After the song was finished, Stefanie sun and Tawana held hands and bowed to the audience. Stefanie sun, holding the microphone, said tearfully, “At this moment, tonight’s performance is officially over. Similarly, my acting career is completely over. I am truly grateful for your care and support over the years, which has allowed me to get to where I am today. I hope my songs can continue to accompany you on my behalf in the future. I wish you all the best in your life. Thank you all again! Thank you!”

After saying that, Stefanie sun put down the microphone and bowed deeply again.

The audience in the audience did not expect that the performance had already ended. Only then did they realize that Stefanie sun had sung more than 20 songs in a row on the stage, and the entire performance had lasted more than two and a half hours, far exceeding the length of an ordinary concert.

However, when they thought that this was their idol’s last performance, everyone was very reluctant to let him go, so a large group of people shouted in unison: “Encore, Encore!”

Encore is actually the English word Encore. In simple terms, it means another song.

In the past, concerts would always arrange a song as an encore as a thank you to the fans.

However, Stefanie sun smiled very freely and said, “After sending you thousands of miles away, we must finally say goodbye. Procrastinating will only drain everyone’s emotions. I hope you will remember me, remember the me who said goodbye to everyone so cleanly. Perhaps I will meet some of you again in the future, but the next meeting will not be on the stage. The Stefanie sun singing on the stage will never see you again! Thank you all for your care over the years. Thank you, bye!”
