

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7671

Elaine stood up happily and said, "I'll go upstairs and pack my luggage quickly so as not to delay boarding the ship tomorrow morning! I've been traveling by plane recently and haven't experienced a luxury cruise yet!"

At this time, Jacob also took out his mobile phone and called President Pei.

As soon as the call was connected, he said to Chairman Pei, "Old Pei, I have something to tell you. My son-in-law went to Australia with Mr. Albert on business."

Chairman Pei asked curiously on the other end of the phone: "With Master don Albert?"

Jacob smiled and said, "Yes, yes, it's Master don Albert. You know, Master don Albert always asks my son-in-law for help, and my son-in-law is too embarrassed to refuse."

President Pei praised: "Who can blame charlie Wade for his real ability! The rich and powerful people in Jinling all respectfully call him Master wade."

Jacob was proud in his heart, and said with a smile: "Yes, yes, my son-in-law is indeed capable. By the way, Lao Pei, I don't want to tell you about this. It's mainly about my son-in-law. This trip to Australia may take a long time. He was afraid that Elaine, Claire and I would be bored, so he arranged a luxury cruise to Tahiti for us. It may take a month, and we will leave tomorrow. I didn't expect it to be so hasty. There are many things in the association that I can't deal with in time."

When President Pei heard this, he knew what Jacob was up to. After he had tricked Jacob last time, the chance for advancement that he had been waiting for for many years was gone. Since then, he realized that he must appease Jacob in the future, otherwise his future would probably be locked in the Calligraphy and Painting Association, and he would never have the chance to move up in this life.

Now Jacob wants to take a leave to travel. Logically speaking, no one can take a month off to go out and play, but since it is Jacob, I certainly cannot refuse.

So he smiled and said, "Jacob, just go and have fun. I'll take care of the association's affairs. Don't worry!"

Jacob breathed a sigh of relief and smiled, "Thank you, President Pei."

President Pei quickly said, "Jacob, we're all family. If you have anything to say, just say hello. Why are you being so polite? It's too awkward."

Jacob really enjoyed the feeling of being valued and said with a smile, "Okay, Lao Pei, given our relationship, I won't be polite to you. I'll bring you a gift when I come back!"

Twenty minutes later, Jacob and Elaine had packed their luggage.

Claire hid in her and charlie Wade's bedroom, covering herself with the quilt and crying.

After crying, she wiped away her tears, left a letter for Charlie Wade with a pen and paper, and placed the letter on the bedside table.

Then she simply packed a few clothes and necessities, washed her face with cold water, and walked out of the room.

In the living room, Jacob and Elaine were both searching for travel guides for Tahiti on their phones. Seeing Claire coming down, Elaine said, "My dear daughter, we've been waiting for you. Let's set off quickly to Tahiti!"

Sun Simi was waiting in the yard at this time. When she saw the three people coming out, she hurried forward to help Elaine take the luggage first, and said respectfully: "Uncle and aunt, you two get in the car first, I will load the luggage."

After that, he said to Claire, "Mr. Willson, you sit in the passenger seat, and let uncle and aunt sit in the second row."

Claire nodded and said to his parents, "Dad, Mom, you sit in the back."

"Okay." The two agreed readily and got in and sat in the back seat of the business car.

The most comfortable seats in a high-end business car are the two first-class seats in the second row. The two knew they were going to travel a long distance, so as soon as they sat in, they easily adjusted the seats according to their needs and preferences.

Claire knew that his parents would be anesthetized soon, and he was a little worried.

Sun Simi could see her worry, so she smiled and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Willson, everything is safe. Let uncle and aunt have a good rest."

"Okay." Claire also knew that the arrow was on the string and had to be shot. No matter what, she could not stay and hold Charlie Wade back.

So she helped Sun Simi load the luggage into the car, and then sat directly in the passenger seat.

Soon, the business car drove out of Tomson Yipin.

Jacob and Elaine in the back row had not noticed anything unusual yet. Their minds were full of thoughts about the upcoming luxury cruise trip to Tahiti.

When the business car drove out of Tomson Yipin, several cars parked nearby immediately followed, keeping a distance of dozens to hundreds of meters from the car. These vehicles and the people inside were all An Chengxi's subordinates. They would escort Claire and her parents all the way to the island city.

The convoy drove out of the city and onto the highway.

It was already completely dark. Sun Simi said to Jacob and Elaine while driving, “Uncle and aunt, wouldn’t it be too boring for you to ride in the car? How about I raise the TV in the middle and show you a promotional video for our cruise to Tahiti!”

“Okay!” Elaine agreed immediately and said with a smile, “We just want to do more homework! Let us learn more about it first!”

Sun Simi immediately pressed the switch, and the partition between the rear cabin and the cab slowly rose up, separated by a wide-screen TV.

Afterwards, a tourism promotional video of Tahiti was broadcast on TV. The images in the video were so beautiful and fascinating that Jacob and Elaine couldn’t take their eyes off it.

At this moment, a burst of colorless and odorless gas was released from the air conditioner vent. The two were so fascinated by it that they felt drowsy. As their eyelids began to droop, they fell into a deep sleep uncontrollably...

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7672

After Jacob and Elaine fell into a deep coma, Sun Simi first opened the rear car window, then changed the air conditioner to external circulation. After the air was completely refreshed, she put the TV back on the partition.

Claire looked back at the two of them and found that they were sleeping very soundly, with their chests rising and falling regularly with their breathing, so he was completely relieved.

Sun Simi glanced at her and said with a smile, “Don’t worry, Mr. willson, they are both safe.”

“Okay.” Claire nodded gently and asked her, “By the way, when charlie Wade arrives in Australia, he should contact me as soon as possible. If he can’t contact me by then, he will definitely be very worried. Do you want me to leave him a message?”

Sun Simi said, “After you board the ship, leave the rest to us. Young Master will definitely be anxious, but I feel that no matter what method is used to separate, the pain of separation is unavoidable. I am also unable to solve any problems for Young Master, so I can only let him digest it slowly on his own.”

After that, she looked at Claire again and said seriously, “Boss wilson, although separation will be painful, from the overall perspective, it will definitely be beneficial to the Young Master’s revenge and the safety of both of you.”

“I understand.” Claire smiled bitterly and nodded slightly, thinking to himself: “No matter what, I can’t drag charlie Wade down anymore. He has so many things to do, and not only can I not help him, but I will only become a burden to him. I hope that after I leave, he can put his mind at ease and go all out to do what he should do.”

On the highway, the entire convoy sped along at the maximum speed limit.

From Aurous Hill to Qilu Island City, the entire journey on the highway was very smooth.

What Claire didn't notice was that many cars exactly like the business car she was riding in kept appearing on the highway.

Moreover, these cars, like this one, are all brand new and do not have official license plates.

At this time, Sun Simi reached out and pulled off the temporary license plate from the windshield in front of the main driver's car.

The same operations are also performed in other similar models.

The rear windows of these cars are completely private. Although the front glass is transparent, it has all been specially modified. All the surveillance cameras along the way, as long as the flash or fill light is turned on, the windows in the pictures will be completely white and nothing can be seen.

Given the current lighting conditions, it is impossible to capture what is inside without flash and fill light.

Afterwards, other identical vehicles began to overtake and pass each other frequently.

Dozens of identical cars constantly adjust their relative positions on the highway, just like mahjong tiles on a mahjong table. After constant shuffling, no one knows who is who in the absence of special marks.

After being shuffled, these cars began to turn into other roads at different intersections, or exit the highway through different exits, just like fireworks flying everywhere after being launched.

The reason for doing this is to interfere with Charlie Wade's sight as much as possible. With so many vehicles that cannot provide any clues from the outside mixed together, Charlie Wade will not be able to locate where Claire went in a short time.

If he insisted on finding Claire, he could only use the most stupid method, tracing the trail one car at a time and one clue at a time.

Moreover, each clue is an open mystery. As long as he doesn't find Claire, he cannot determine the authenticity of the clue.

Therefore, even if Charlie Wade was given one or two years, he might not be able to find out the final destination of these cars.

To take a step back, even if Charlie Wade finally confirmed that Claire's car went to Qilu Island City, it would be difficult for him to find out where Claire went from the island city.

Taking a step back, even if Charlie Wade found out that Claire boarded the ship from the island city, what would happen? After the ship reached the high seas, Claire's family and the accompanying team would be arranged to change to other ships. At that time, it would be more difficult for Charlie Wade to investigate further.

All of this was Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s plan.

She knew that Charlie Wade's current strength was already very impressive. Not only did he have a set of AI models, but he also had the secret help of top detectives like Li Yalin. It was impossible for her to let Claire disappear without leaving any trace.

Instead of taking the trouble to wipe out the traces left behind, only to have Li Yalin find a small loophole and tear everything apart, it would be better to do the opposite and leave traces everywhere. Anyone who came to investigate these traces would be exhausted, including him, Li Yalin.

For the police solving a case, if there is only one suspect, there is nothing to worry about. As long as they dig deeper into this person, they will definitely find the clues they want.

But what if there are a hundred suspects?

Those are a hundred mysteries that they need to solve one by one, which will definitely become their nightmare.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7673

At three o'clock in the morning, the business car that Claire was riding in drove into the island city port terminal.

The ship they were going to take was already waiting at the berth, fully loaded with containers, ready to sail to New Zealand.

After entering the high seas, the ship will meet another cargo ship heading from Shanghai to Argentina in the Pacific Ocean. Claire and his family will change to this cargo ship there and continue sailing southeast. When passing through a route hundreds of nautical miles away from Tahiti, a luxury yacht belonging to a Silicon Valley tycoon will take them to the Windward Islands of French Polynesia.

Tahiti is the largest island in the Windward Islands, but it is not the real destination of Claire and his group. The island that Lydia (Ava) ( Charlie's mom ) used to settle them is an unknown small island in the Windward Islands. It is an island whose usage rights have been privately bought out and is not open to the public.

The vehicle Claire was riding in drove directly into an empty container. Then, several staff members came over to close the door of the container. The container was lifted by a crane and loaded onto the container ship.

However, this container was not stacked on top of the pile of containers, but was directly hoisted onto the deck.

When the container was placed firmly on the deck, a staff member came over to open the door. Sun Simi immediately started the car and exited the container. The staff member then opened the door and said respectfully to Claire in the car, "Hello, Mrs. Wade!"

Claire was a little uncomfortable. First, she was not used to so many people talking to her respectfully, and second, she was not used to them collectively calling her Mrs. Wade.

At this time, a middle-aged woman came over and said to Claire, “Madam, the freighter is about to set sail. You are tired from the journey. Please follow me to the cabin to rest.”

Claire asked nervously: “What about my parents?”

The middle-aged woman smiled and said, “We will arrange for your parents to rest in the observation room. A doctor will accompany them throughout the process. They will probably wake up tomorrow afternoon. I will notify you in advance then.”

After saying that, she waved behind her, and four medical staff in white coats came running over, pushing two mobile beds.

The middle-aged woman then asked Claire, “Mrs. Wade, do you have any other questions? If not, I’ll let them take your parents over first.”

Claire shook his head and said, “I have no other questions. Please take good care of them.”

“Don’t worry.” The middle-aged woman smiled and said, “After I take you to your room and settle you down, I will take you to see them. We will not restrict you from visiting at any time.”

Claire nodded in agreement, and Sun Simi helped her carry her luggage and came into the cabin.

Although this is a cargo ship, it has also been specially modified. Several rooms comparable to five-star hotels have been pre-decorated in the cabin. Not only are the soft furnishings and furniture high-end brands, but all household appliances are also available.

In addition, there are several rooms, including a medical room, activity room, restaurant and cinema.

Even the ingredients prepared for Claire’s family are the best and most expensive in the world, and the chefs in charge are all Michelin-level high-end masters.

The middle-aged female guide on the side introduced all the hardware and software here to Claire. Claire looked at it bit by bit and was shocked.

When she arrived at the incredibly luxurious room, she couldn’t help but be amazed at the care taken in decorating it. She couldn’t help but say, “We’re only on the ship for a short time, maybe just ten days or so. There’s no need to invest so much manpower and resources in decorating it.”

The middle-aged woman smiled and said, “You are the young master’s wife. Even if you are only on this boat for two hours, we must be well prepared and must not neglect anything.”

Claire felt sad, but still said politely: “Thank you.”

The middle-aged woman shook her head: “Madam, you don’t have to be so polite with us servants.”

After that, she said to Claire, “Madam, let Mengmeng help you settle down. I won’t bother you here anymore. The ship will leave the port in ten minutes. I need to follow up.”

Claire nodded and said politely, “Then you go ahead and do your work.”

Claire didn’t know that these were all arranged by Lydia (Ava) ( Charlie’s mom ) himself, and he had put a lot of effort into it.

The reason why she did this was, on the one hand, because she felt guilty towards Claire, and on the other hand, she hoped that when she and charlie Wade reunited and confessed everything in the future, charlie Wade would blame her less.

Ten minutes later, with a low whistle, the freighter slowly sailed out of the berth, then out of the port and into the Yellow Sea.

Claire silently watched the harbor getting farther and farther away from the porthole, and couldn’t help but burst into tears again...

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7674

Early in the morning Australian time, charlie Wade, Don Albert and Isaac Cameron landed at Melbourne Airport.

Melbourne time is two hours ahead of China time. It is still dark in China. charlie Wade was afraid of disturbing Claire’s sleep, so he didn’t send her a message.

Isaac Cameron had already arranged for the local Buckingham Palace Hotel staff to send a Cadillac SUV over.

After the three of them got the car, Isaac Cameron, who had an international driver’s license, was responsible for driving, and charlie Wade asked him to drive directly to the hospital where Stephen Thompson was.

On the way, charlie Wade asked Isaac Cameron: “Old Chen, are you sure Butler Stephen is still in that hospital?”

Isaac Cameron was a cautious person, and he said seriously, “Master, the people I arranged replied that they went in and checked three hours ago and confirmed that Butler Stephen was still there.”

“Okay.” charlie Wade nodded and sighed, “I’ll see Butler Stephen later and heal his injuries. Then we’ll take him back to Buckingham Palace. After I ask him some questions, I’ll go settle the score with those brats.”

Don Albert pulled out a small utility knife from his pocket and said through gritted teeth, “Master Wade, as long as we catch those little bastards, I will carve the word ‘bastard’ on their foreheads!”

charlie Wade asked in surprise: “Where did you get the knife? You can’t have brought it on the plane, right?”

Don Albert said with a smile, “That’s impossible. The security at domestic airports is so strict. There’s no way you can bring this thing on a plane. I just bought it when I went to the convenience store to buy cigarettes at the airport.”

After saying that, he pulled out a pack of export-grade Zhonghua cigarettes and complained, “I have to say, cigarettes in this damn place are damn expensive. Just a box of hard Zhonghua cigarettes costs almost three hundred yuan.”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “You never forget your performance art wherever you go.”

As he spoke, he remembered something and reminded Don Albert: “But I have to tell you in advance, when you find someone, no matter what the situation is, you can’t carve the word bastard on their forehead.”

Don Albert asked in confusion, “Why, Master Wade? If we don’t teach them a lesson they’ll never forget, it would be too easy for these little bastards!”

charlie Wade said seriously, “Why? Let me tell you, firstly, the local bastards don’t know Chinese characters. If they go out with the words you carved on their foreheads, no one may recognize them. Maybe other bastards will think it’s some cool and fashionable tattoo.”

“Secondly, we shouldn’t give the local media any ulterior motives. If you carve Chinese characters on their foreheads, the unscrupulous local media will definitely seize on this incident and exaggerate it. They’ll then go on to discredit us. You have to understand that these people are always like this. If they shoot each other in the street and seven or eight people die, it’s a trivial matter to them. But if a foreigner, especially an Asian, casually drops a piece of wrapping paper on their street, they’ll escalate it to a national level and criticize them. We’d better keep a low profile. Even if we carve something, don’t carve Chinese characters.”

Don Albert said with a smile: “That’s easy. Just carve Bakayaro in Japanese or Xiba in Korean for them.”

While driving, Isaac Cameron joked, “Don Albert, can you write Bakayaro in Japanese and Xiba in Korean?”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7675

Don Albert said seriously, “No, but I can learn! I can apply it right after I learn it!”

Isaac Cameron gave her a thumbs up and praised her, “Great, you’re still so eager to learn at your age. You have a bright future!”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “Don’t even think about throwing dirty water on Japan and South Korea at this time. After all, these people are hostile to all Asians. If Asians throw dirty water on each other at this time, it will only increase their hostility towards Asians. I think it’s better to engrave it in English. They speak English anyway.”

Don Albert chuckled and said, “I heard that this place was where Britain exiled criminals two hundred years ago?”

“That’s true,” charlie Wade said casually. “This place wasn’t originally a good place. It’s said there are more rabbits than people, and spiders are bigger than rabbits. Over 70% of the land can’t grow crops, and over half can’t even grow grass. But the iron ore reserves are astonishingly high, with iron content exceeding 60% in many places.”

Don Albert smacked his lips and said, “No wonder Britain wanted to exile criminals here. If we were to build a prison, we could make steel and iron fences using local materials.”

charlie Wade knew he was being sarcastic, so he smiled and said, “Although their early history wasn’t so glorious, they did have a mine. In this era, people laugh at the poor but not at prostitutes. Whoever has money is a developed country with modern civilization.”

Don Albert looked a little unconvinced, and cursed under his breath, “Many developed countries were once aggressive powers, and now they’ve transformed themselves into fucking civilized societies.”

charlie Wade shook his head and smiled, and said nothing more. He was used to Don Albert’s clear likes and dislikes and his straightforwardness.

A few minutes later, Isaac Cameron drove to the Parkville district of Melbourne and then arrived at the Royal Melbourne Hospital.

After the car was parked in the parking lot, Isaac Cameron said to charlie Wade, “Master, Butler Stephen is in the intensive care unit of the emergency department. Do you think we should go in now or arrange for someone else to check it out first?”

charlie Wade said: “Just go.”

After saying that, he pushed the door and got out of the car.

charlie Wade felt that since Wu Feiyan had never included the Wade family in her target for elimination, Stephen Thompson, as the steward of the Wade family, would definitely not be targeted by her, so he did not have to worry that this matter would involve the Poqing Society.

Since there is no need to worry about the Poqing Society, there is generally nothing to worry about. The most important thing is to go in and see Stephen Thompson, heal his injuries as soon as possible, and then find out why he left without saying goodbye.

So, the three of them walked into the hospital together and came to the emergency department of the hospital. Isaac Cameron found out the location of the intensive care unit and asked charlie Wade and Don Albert to go to the second floor together.

At the nurses’ station on the second floor, a nurse on duty stopped them and asked in English, “Who are you looking for?”

Isaac Cameron immediately responded, “We’re looking for the injured Chinese man, who is probably in his sixties and is in the intensive care unit.”

The nurse said, “He has been discharged.”

“Discharged from the hospital?!”

Except for Don Albert who couldn’t understand English, charlie Wade and Isaac Cameron were all stunned.
