

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7681

“But poor neighborhoods are worse off than most, and even their local governments like to bully the poor. They always build these politically correct safe injection sites in neighborhoods where poor or ordinary people live, making their living conditions even worse. They don’t dare make any changes to wealthy neighborhoods without the owners’ permission.”

“So, while it’s understandable that the country’s top tycoons immigrate here to enjoy the extravagance and decadence of capitalist society, it’s a little hard to understand why the middle class spends all their money to come here and work as blue-collar workers, mingling with the lower and middle classes of society.”

Don Albert nodded. “Rich people are always the best wherever they go. What I don’t understand is what Mr. Wade said about those who sold their property and went abroad to work as blue-collar workers. I have an old friend who used to run an aluminum alloy door and window business in China. He was not as rich as the rich, but better than the poor. But I don’t know who tricked him into immigrating with his family. He ended up working as a decorator for a Chinese foreman in the United States for more than ten years.”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “Those were all fooled by immigration companies. You have to know that immigration companies are like legal snakeheads. Like real snakeheads, they are in the business of sending people abroad. They first describe to people how good the outside world is, making people want to go out, and then in order to go out, they pay them a lot of money. They will never make money from the top rich people, because the top rich people know what the outside world is like much better than the bosses of immigration companies, and it is impossible for them to fool them. Their target group is those who lack understanding of the outside world, but always feel that the moon outside is rounder than the moon at home. These people may have a total net worth of only a few hundred thousand, and the immigration company will take half of it. For immigration companies, they don’t care whether these people can survive abroad. As long as they can make money, it’s fine.”

Don Albert nodded thoughtfully and said, “Some people know they will hurt others, but they don’t care about it just to make money. They really have no conscience!”

Isaac Cameron couldn’t help but laugh. “Don Albert, this isn’t your style. I remember you did this kind of thing a lot back in Aurous Hill. Wasn’t there a guy named Bex who specialized in P2P financial management? He’d lure elderly people into joining him with promises of high interest rates, then launder the money and turn it into investment losses. You were the one backing him, right? How many elderly people’s life savings went down the drain?”

When Don Albert heard him mention this, his face immediately turned red all the way to his neck. He quickly said, “Mr. Wade, you don’t understand the situation. That wasn’t the case back then. That bastard Bex started his own P2P company and approached me to invest. He didn’t tell me what kind of business it was, just that he could give me some shares and dividends, and that he needed me to help him settle the matter. I had no idea that he was running that kind of business. And after Master Ye approached me, I never got involved again...”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “Everyone makes mistakes sometimes. It’s best to admit your mistakes and correct them. Old Chen, please don’t bring up his past.”

Isaac Cameron said cheerfully, “Master, you are right. I was just teasing him to see how he would react.”

Don Albert wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and said, “Thanks to Master Ye for stopping me in time, otherwise I would have made a big mistake...”

charlie Wade smiled without saying anything, his eyes looking at a house on the roadside not far away. The door of the house suddenly opened, and a young boy of eighteen or nineteen walked out with a baseball bat.

charlie Wade glanced at the black and white ID photo on the printed information and said, “That guy is the main culprit, Bruce Brown.”

As he was speaking, Bruce Brown whistled a few times on the side of the road, and several boys, who were a few years younger, immediately walked out of several houses nearby.

charlie Wade smiled and said, “Hey, the boss just whistled and all the minions below showed up. Old Chen drove after them to see what they were going to do!”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7682

A group of young people in their teens, with almost no anti-reconnaissance awareness.

This group of people gathered together, talking and laughing as they headed towards the city, playing and frolicking along the way. They looked no different from ordinary children.

After leaving the block, the few of them found an intersection and shared a pack of cigarettes on a bench on one side of the intersection. From twelve or thirteen years old to eighteen or nineteen years old, everyone was holding a cigarette and puffing out clouds of smoke.

The leader, Bruce Brown, hid a baseball bat behind his butt, put his hands on the backs of the benches on both sides, squinted his eyes and looked around at the people passing by, as if looking for prey.

charlie Wade said to Isaac Cameron: “Old isaac, park the car opposite them, I will go meet them.”

Isaac Cameron asked, “Young Master, are you going by yourself?”

charlie Wade nodded and asked him, “Are you still afraid that I can’t handle them?”

Isaac Cameron smiled and said, “No, I’m just worried that these little pieces of trash will dirty your hands. This is something that either Don Albert or I can handle.”

Although Isaac Cameron and Don Albert were not cut out for martial arts, they had charlie Wade’s enlightenment and the help of elixirs, so their strength was much stronger than that of ordinary people, so it was no problem for them to deal with a group of teenagers.

However, charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, “Don’t worry, I won’t fight with them. It’s boring to fight.”

Isaac Cameron was confused, but he knew it was not a good idea to ask further questions, so he parked the car opposite the young people as Charlie Wade requested.

Charlie Wade pushed open the door and said to the two of them, "Arrange more manpower to track down Butler Tang's whereabouts, contact Inspector Li, and activate my ground network system to see if there is any gain."

Isaac Cameron nodded and said, "Don't worry, Master. I'll make it happen right away!"

Charlie Wade hummed, got out of the car, then straightened his collar, crossed the road and walked towards the teenagers.

At this time, a young Asian couple happened to pass by them. When the leader, Bruce Brown, saw the two approaching, he immediately winked at the people around him. Then he jumped up from the bench, picked up the baseball bat behind him, and stood in front of the couple. His younger brothers immediately surrounded the couple from both sides.

The couple was horrified, and the man immediately asked them nervously, "What...what are you going to do?"

Bruce Brown sneered and asked, "What country are you from?"

The man said warily: "We are Australians and have acquired Australian citizenship!"

Bruce Brown frowned, obviously not expecting such an answer, so he asked again: "Where were you from before you became Australian citizens?"

The man replied: "Korea, what's wrong?"

"What's wrong?" Bruce Brown snorted coldly and cursed, "Koreans, get lost and go back to Korea! You are not welcome in Australia!"

The man tried to reason with them: "We took the oath of naturalization last year and are legal Australian citizens!"

"F*ck you, Korean! Even if you become a naturalized citizen, you're still Korean! You're a parasite of Australia!" Bruce Brown spat at the man and immediately shouted to the people around him, "Hit him!"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7683

After saying that, he swung the baseball bat and was about to hit the other person.

The brothers around him were staring at the man's backpack and the woman's small backpack. They were looking for Asian targets here in their spare time, one to have fun beating people, and the other to take the opportunity to rob some property to provide them with food, drink and entertainment.

The reason they target Asians is that, firstly, most Asians are easy to bully and will not fight back or retaliate when beaten or scolded; secondly, the police turn a blind eye to such things. They have done the same thing many times and nothing has gone wrong. Sometimes they are unlucky and get caught by the police, but they are released soon.

The Korean couple was frightened when they saw the other party suddenly attack. The man held his head with his hands because he was afraid of the baseball bat, and the woman squatted on the spot and screamed loudly.

Just as the baseball bat was about to hit the man's arms, charlie Wade shouted from outside the encirclement: "Stop it!"

Bruce Brown subconsciously stopped and turned to look at charlie Wade who was speaking.

Seeing that charlie Wade was also Asian, he immediately asked in a cold voice: "Are you with them?"

charlie Wade smiled and said with interest: "What kind of bastard are you? You are a bastard who was born without anyone teaching you. You don't know any rules. You have to kneel on your knees to talk to me, understand?"

"F*ck!" Although Bruce Brown is not very old, he has always been the one bullying Asians. When has he ever been humiliated by an Asian like this?

Seeing charlie Wade being so arrogant, all attention was diverted to him at once.

When the Korean couple saw that someone had diverted their attention, they exchanged glances and then ran away, soon disappearing from sight.

Bruce Brown no longer paid attention to them. He shouldered the baseball bat and rushed towards charlie Wade with big strides.

Seeing him using all his strength to smash the baseball bat towards him, charlie Wade did not dodge at all. Instead, at the moment when the baseball bat was about to hit his face, he calmly stretched out his hand and easily grasped the upper part of the baseball bat in his hand.

Bruce Brown's powerful attack just now seemed to have lost all its energy in an instant and became motionless.

However, the power accumulated in his body and the baseball bat during the swing did not dissipate at this moment. Because there was nowhere to release it, it was like swinging a baseball bat hard and hitting an iron wall. It suddenly bounced back and caused him to have severe pain in his arms. He subconsciously let go of his hands and screamed in pain.

The other boys were stunned by what they saw. They didn't dare to step forward for a moment and gathered around Bruce Brown, talking about his condition.

Bruce Brown looked at charlie Wade in horror and blurted out, "How...how is this possible?! How can your hands be harder than steel?!"

charlie Wade smiled and said, “Look at you, you’ve grown so big for nothing, but you can’t even hold a baseball bat. What’s the difference between you and a loser? Come again.”

After saying that, he raised his hand and threw the baseball bat to Bruce Brown.

Bruce Brown’s arms were numb and painful, and he subconsciously wanted to raise his hands to catch it. However, the pain was so severe as soon as his arms were raised that he couldn’t keep up the movement, and the baseball bat fell to the ground with a sound of metallic collision.

charlie Wade couldn’t help but shake his head and sigh: “I’ve never seen someone as useless as you. You’re so weak and useless. If I made you out of a pile of dog shit, I’m afraid it would be stronger than you. What are you looking at? Why don’t you pick up the baseball bat quickly?!”

The children around were frightened by charlie Wade’s strange aura. Bruce Brown was also shocked and terrified at this time. However, charlie Wade’s words were really too mean, which made him feel humiliated. If he didn’t beat charlie Wade half to death today, how could these younger brothers believe in him in the future?

So he gritted his teeth, endured the pain, and picked up the baseball bat again.

charlie Wade nodded and smiled with satisfaction: “Not bad, this barely looks like a qualified piece of shit! Come on, continue! Let me see how big the gap is between you and dog shit!”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7684

As the only adult among this group of teenagers, Bruce Brown was already angry and embarrassed.

In the past eighteen years, he had never suffered such intense humiliation, not only in broad daylight, but also in front of his own younger brothers. This made him feel that the ruthless image and status in the underworld that he had painstakingly cultivated were instantly destroyed.

Anger has made him lose his mind.

He didn’t believe it. He didn’t believe that the man in front of him was really so strong that he couldn’t shake him at all.

It must be that I haven’t used enough force, it must be that I haven’t been cruel enough!

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth, used all his strength, swung the baseball bat again, and smashed it towards charlie Wade’s head.

This time, Bruce Brown had already decided to kill charlie Wade.

He didn’t want to go, considering the consequences of this blow. He just wanted to find an outlet for his extreme anger and restore his damaged image.

The kids nearby were stunned. They had all played baseball and knew how damaging a baseball bat could be. They could also tell that if Bruce Brown had hit a normal person on the head with that bat, it would have definitely cracked their head, or even shattered their brains.

Even if you use your hands to block it, it is likely that your palm and arm will be smashed to pieces.

The powerful momentum of the baseball bat and the whistling sound of breaking wind came straight to charlie Wade's head. The two younger guys didn't dare to open their eyes to look. They even felt panic in their hearts because they were afraid that someone would be killed.

Although he had not received any substantial punishment in the past few times he went to the police station, if he was involved in a murder case, his parents would probably not let him off easily.

But what no one expected was that charlie Wade just raised his hand slightly and grasped the baseball bat tightly again. Even though the front end of the baseball bat was only half a centimeter away from charlie Wade's forehead, the baseball bat still could not hurt charlie Wade at all.

Bruce Brown couldn't understand it.

Even though his arms hurt so much that they felt like they were about to break, he didn't bother to scream. He just looked at charlie Wade as if he were an alien, and his whole body was in a daze and confusion.

charlie Wade handed the baseball bat to Bruce Brown, staring at him, and said coldly, word by word, "Don't bully those unarmed and honest people anymore. You must always remember your angry state just now, remember your desperate and reckless mentality. From today on, you must use that state and mentality to deal with the worst, most cruel, and most damnable people in this city. Only in this way can you replace them. Do you understand?"

As he spoke, charlie Wade mixed his spiritual energy into his voice, giving Bruce Brown a strong psychological hint.

charlie Wade's psychological suggestion is like a brand burned deep in his soul by spiritual energy, which he will never be able to detect or get rid of in his entire life.

The reason why charlie Wade gave him such a psychological hint was to punish him for his actions with a proverb from the Chinese ancestors, which is: Evildoers will be punished by evildoers.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7685

Teenagers like Bruce Brown have no kindness in their souls. He is born bad, just like those teenagers who instigate other children to jump off buildings and trick children under the age of 10 into returning home and killing them.

Even though I didn't give him any psychological hints, he had already decided to kill me. This proved that this person was rotten to the core and beyond help.

The reason why he hasn't killed anyone until now is not because he is not bad enough, but because he has not encountered something that would make him want to kill. If he encounters such a thing, he will kill without hesitation.

Letting such a person return to society would be a huge threat to society, but Charlie Wade considered himself a gentleman and did not want to and was unwilling to take action against such a young man.

Giving him a psychological hint can, on the one hand, prevent him from wantonly bullying honest people, and on the other hand, allow him to choose to fight against the bad guys on his own.

If he punishes other evil people, it can be considered that he has redeemed himself. If he is punished by other evil people, it can be considered that he deserves the misfortune. In any case, it is a good thing.

The reason why Charlie Wade used words and actions to provoke him again and again was to make him find that hysterical state himself. If he had never entered or experienced this state, it would be useless to rely on psychological suggestion.

But the several layers of progressive stimulation he had just experienced had already made him accurately experience the feeling of wanting to kill someone. At this time, coupled with the psychological suggestion that made him go against the worst, cruelest, and most damnable people, he could immediately find that state.

As expected, Bruce Brown's eyes were bloodshot at this time, and his fists were clenched so tightly that veins bulged from his arms to his neck to his forehead.

He clenched his teeth and said murderously, "I understand!"

Charlie Wade then pointed at Bruce Brown and asked the kids, "Is he your boss?"

Several people nodded in panic.

Charlie Wade said with satisfaction: "Very good, you must remember that on the one hand, you must listen to your boss and obey your boss's words, and on the other hand, you must also learn from your boss and take him as an example. Do you understand?"

Several people immediately became excited and shouted, "I understand!"

charlie Wade smiled and nodded: “Very good, finally, you all remember this, we have never met before. In five minutes, Bruce Brown will start thinking about who is the most ruthless and bad person on this block, and then put it into action. Do you understand?”

Bruce Brown led a group of little brothers and said loudly: “Got it!”

charlie Wade smiled, turned around and left without saying anything else.

When charlie Wade returned to the car, these young people were still standing there in a daze.

Don Albert and Isaac Cameron were both puzzled when they saw him return. Don Albert, impatient, couldn’t help but ask, “Master Wade, that bastard hit you so many times with a baseball bat, why didn’t you do anything to him? He should have been over 18, right?”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “Even though he’s eighteen years old, he’s still a young boy. If I fight him, not to mention that I can kill him with just a little force, this alone will lower my rank. Just wait and see, someone will take care of him for those victims.”

The psychological hint that charlie Wade gave to Bruce Brown was a never-ending journey of upgrading and fighting monsters.

Even if he can establish and improve his status in this area through a few victories, there will still be more powerful goals in the future. So, it is like putting Bruce Brown into a gambling game where he can only go all-in. He may win a few rounds, but he can’t win all the time, and he can only lose once.
