

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7691

At this stage, Nanako Ito has already attained enlightenment. Although her spiritual energy is not very strong, she can already sense the environment within a few hundred meters around her. She just moved her mind slightly and used her spiritual energy to walk around charlie Wade's villa, but did not find any trace of anyone.

She immediately picked up her phone and replied to charlie Wade on WeChat: "Mr. charlie Wade, I just checked your home. All three cars are there, but no one is home. Do you want me to go in and take a look now?"

charlie Wade immediately replied: "Yes! Help me see if there are any suspicious clues at home!"

When no one answered the phone at home, charlie Wade guessed that Claire and his family of three were definitely not there.

According to the feedback from the company's administration, charlie Wade had actually guessed in his heart that Claire definitely did not encounter an accident, but had planned it in advance, and had planned to suddenly disappear from his world.

But he couldn't understand. He couldn't understand why Claire would suddenly leave him after being with her for so many years and their relationship was clearly getting better and better.

Moreover, Claire had just given her to him on the night of his birthday, so why would he suddenly leave?

If she had wanted to leave a long time ago, why did she give me the most precious thing?

No matter how you analyze it, it seems very unreasonable.

So, he needed Nanako to go home and find out what was going on.

After getting charlie Wade's permission, Nanako Ito easily jumped from the side wall of the villa, lightly touched the wall with her toes, and then nimbly flipped into the house.

Seeing that the doors and windows were closed tightly, she chose to break the lock of the main door with one palm, opened the door a crack, and quickly slipped in.

After entering the room, Nanako did not find anything unusual. The room was very clean and tidy, and there was no sign of any accident or hasty departure. Then she quickly took a few photos and sent them to charlie Wade.

charlie Wade had just arrived at Shangri-La in Melbourne. When he received the photos of the first floor sent by Nanako Ito, he was even more surprised. There was indeed nothing unusual about the house in the photo. Even Claire's slippers were neatly arranged.

He was feeling uneasy, so he said to Isaac Cameron and Don Albert, “You two go back to your room first and tell me the room number later. I need to make a phone call in the car.”

Isaac Cameron immediately said respectfully: “Okay, Master, I’ll send you the room number later.”

After saying that, he winked at Don Albert, and the two of them quickly pushed the door and got out of the car.

charlie Wade was the only one left in the car. He immediately sent a video call to Nanako Ito. Nanako Ito answered the call quickly and said to charlie Wade, “Mr. charlie Wade, I’ve checked the first floor of the house and can’t see any problems. Do you want me to check the surveillance camera outside?”

charlie Wade said: “Nanako Ito, go upstairs to my bedroom first. I want to see what the condition of my wife’s personal belongings is.”

Nanako asked him: “Mr. charlie Wade, is it appropriate for me to go in? After all, this is your and Ms. willson’s bedroom. Will it destroy your privacy?”

charlie Wade said: “I can’t worry about that now. Just go in and turn the camera around so I can see the details of the room.”

Seeing that charlie Wade was not shy about it, Cai Caizi immediately agreed, and then under charlie Wade’s command, she came to his and Claire’s bedroom.

As soon as he entered the bedroom, charlie Wade immediately found something wrong. Compared with the clean and tidy public area on the first floor, the room looked much more messy. There were a lot of clothes piled on the bed, and they were all very messy. The doors of the cloakroom wardrobe were all open. Most of the clothes were only hung on one side of the hanger, and many of them fell on the shelves or the floor. It was obvious that they were brought down when other clothes were hurriedly packed.

Nanako Ito also noticed something unusual and asked him carefully: “Mr. charlie Wade, didn’t Ms. willson tell you that she left home?”

charlie Wade shook his head and said truthfully: “No, I just called her and her parents, but the phone was unreachable. I called her company, but the people in her company said that she had already laid off the company.”

“This...” Nanako said in disbelief: “Charlie, isn’t your relationship very good? Why did Ms. willson leave without saying goodbye?”

charlie Wade said blankly: “I don’t know either, but there must be something else going on.”

Nanako looked around the room and suddenly saw a red certificate and a folded white paper on the bedside table. She looked closely and found that the red certificate was actually a marriage certificate. So she hurried over, pointed the camera at the marriage certificate and the folded white paper, and said to Charlie Wade, "Mr. Charlie Wade, look, is this something Ms. Willson left for you?"

"Marriage certificate?!"

Charlie Wade's pupils contracted instantly and his heartbeat speed increased instantly.

All the previous things had already made him feel something was wrong, and the fact that the marriage certificate was placed on the bedside table made him even more alert.

He had already guessed that the folded white paper should be the letter Claire left for him.

He placed his hand on his heart, forcing himself to calm down, and then said to Nanako: "Nanako, please open that piece of paper. I want to see what's written inside."

Nanako said nothing, but stretched out her slender hand and slowly unfolded the A4 paper that had been folded twice.

When Charlie Wade saw the contents of the letter through the video screen, he was suddenly struck by lightning and stood still.

Then, tears filled my eyes uncontrollably and burst out.

The letter was written by Claire. It was not long, but each word was written carefully and clearly. It read:

"Dear husband, hello.

When you see this letter, my parents and I have already left China forever. Please forgive me for leaving without saying goodbye.

Charlie Wade, the moment I knew your entire life story, I didn't blame you for hiding your identity from me for so many years. On the contrary, deep down in my heart, I felt particularly distressed for your forbearance and grievances over the years. I was also particularly touched by the help and care you have given to me and my family through various means and channels over the years.

Over the years, I have not fulfilled my role as a wife and my obligations as a wife, and I owe you a lot;

My parents have too many character flaws and are not very considerate in their handling of things. I'm really sorry that they have caused you so much trouble over the years, especially my mom. She treated you so well, but you forgave her again and again, and even saved her from danger. Over the years, you have always been asked to accommodate us and clean up all kinds of messes for us. I feel extremely ashamed.

I know that you haven't been able to avenge your parents yet, and I also know that if our family stays with you, it will only hold you back. So after careful consideration, I decided to take them both away and no longer be a burden to you. I hope that without our interference and concerns, you can focus on your work, get your revenge soon, and get your life back on track.

You and I each have a marriage certificate, but because of your identity, this marriage certificate is strictly speaking not legally effective, so our ridiculous relationship as husband and wife is a dream from beginning to end.

Now the dream is over and the bubble is shattered. From now on, you and I are no longer husband and wife. Let's each keep a copy of the marriage certificate as a souvenir.

My parents and I have been cared for by you for so many years. It is not right for us to just leave like this. But I know in my heart that if we don't, it will be difficult for us to have a clean and neat result. So, I beg you to forgive me again, and I also beg you not to try to find me.

From now on, we will live in different places and live happily.

—Claire. ”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7693

After reading the letter, charlie Wade felt extremely distressed.

At this moment, he regretted it immensely. He regretted that he should not have concealed his identity from Claire from the very beginning, so that one lie needed to be packaged with countless lies.

Instead of confessing the truth, they keep covering it up with lies. It's like a program with a huge bug. The programmer doesn't solve the bug itself, but uses a lot of other codes to circumvent the bug and barely keep the program running.

The result is that a program that could have been simple and efficient suddenly piles up more and more code, making it more and more bloated and unstable.

When there is too much unnecessary code in a program, the entire program may crash at any time, and it will crash completely from the inside out.

charlie Wade's mistake was exactly the same as this situation.

If he had confessed everything before marrying Avril Lavigne, Avril Lavigne might have felt that what he said was all fantasy, but at least he would have a clear conscience and would not have to keep lying later.

At the very least, I should tell Claire everything the moment Stephen Thompson finds me. Even if Claire doesn't believe it, I still have the balance in my bank account and Stephen Thompson, the Wade family's head steward, to prove it. Claire might find it difficult to accept it at the time, but after all, I have been honest with her, so she shouldn't leave me.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade couldn't help but burst into tears.

Then, he muttered to himself: "Stephen Thompson...Butler Stephen..."

When he said this, his whole body straightened up instantly as if he had been electrocuted, his mind and heart were shocked!

A lot of question marks popped up in his mind!

First of all, how did Claire know his identity? !

Secondly, even if Claire knew his identity as the young master of the Wade family, how could he know that he still bore a deep blood feud?!

Once again, there must be someone who knows Claire well and told him all this. Who is this person?! Is it Stephen Thompson?!

Besides!

Who was secretly pushing Claire to make plans and actions to leave him? !

Why did Stephen Thompson disappear for so long and suddenly appear in Australia?

Why did the information about Stephen Thompson being attacked in Australia happen to be conveyed to him through Claire?!

Why did Claire leave right after I arrived in Australia? !

These questions rushed into his sea of consciousness like a flood, disturbing his mind but also washing away the doubts in his heart.

The soil covering the surface of the core was washed away by this flood of thought, and its essence was immediately revealed.

charlie Wade knew that all this must have been secretly manipulated by Stephen Thompson.

He must have told Claire his identity;

He must have told Claire that he had a deep blood feud;

He must have persuaded Claire to leave him so that he could focus on dealing with the Poqing Society;

He must have been the one who got involved and deliberately let himself be robbed by these teenagers in Australia, letting Claire cooperate and pretend that it was an accident so that he could see it.

It must have been him who, after he set off for Australia, immediately arranged for Claire and her parents to leave Aurous Hill, and even leave China.

charlie Wade didn't understand. He couldn't help but growl, "Stephen Thompson, Butler Stephen, why?! Over the past few years, I've respected you like a father, and you've loved me like a son. Why did you leave so quietly?! It would be fine if you left quietly, but why did you let Claire leave me?! Why!!!"

Nanako saw charlie Wade crying, his eyes red as blood, and in great pain through the video, and her heart ached.

She was smart and had already guessed the whole story. Seeing charlie Wade's emotions losing control, she quickly spoke to comfort him: "Please don't be angry, Mr. charlie Wade. Butler Stephen did this for your own good!"

"For my own good?!" charlie Wade subconsciously questioned: "For my own good, you want to separate me and my wife. How can this be considered for my own good?!"

Nanako said softly, "But charlie Wade-jun, you're facing a behemoth with hundreds of years of history! Analyze calmly. Not only can Ms. willson's family not help you at all, but they will become your weak spot, giving your enemies an opportunity to exploit. Even your grandparents, as formidable as they are, have narrowly escaped the enemy's clutches time and again. If the enemy learns of Ms. willson's family's existence in the future, how will you be able to protect them?"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7694

At this point, Nanako said with some heartache: "And... and charlie Wadejun, don't you feel that the existence of your family has seriously affected your cultivation? You rarely have the opportunity to practice in seclusion. When there are important matters, you can only find an excuse to consult Feng Shui every now and then. To be honest, at this rate, it will be difficult for charlie Wade to have the ability to compete with the Poqing Society in a short time..."

charlie Wade was instantly speechless by what Nanako said.

He is not a fool, nor is he an idiot who acts on impulse. He knows that what Nanako said is right.

If the Poqing Society were to obtain his identity and information in the future, Claire's family of three would become their second-largest target after himself.

He also knew that the special family situation had seriously affected his cultivation. Whether it was the ring Lin Wan'er gave him or the handprint that appeared in the Nordic Aurora, it was still a mystery to him because he had never found the time to truly concentrate on his retreat.

He understood the principle, but the pain of separation was real. She was his wife of six years! Although they had not been husband and wife for the first six years, she had just...

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade became even more grief-stricken.

He choked up and sighed, "Claire had clearly prepared to leave me a long time ago, but she insisted on spending the rest of my birthday with me, and even gave herself to me on that day... Moreover, since she knew my identity, she must have known about my engagement with Stefanie Sun. But even so, she still accompanied me to Eastcliff to watch Stefanie Sun's last concert... And I didn't even have the chance to tell her my true identity in person..."

Charlie Wade suddenly felt that he owed Claire too much. At this moment, there was only one thought in his mind, which was to find Claire, confess everything to her, and tell her all the secrets. If she was willing to accept the real him, they would be together. If she could not forgive him and was unwilling to look back, he would also hear her answer in person.

But how to find Claire?

He immediately wiped away his tears and said to Cai Naizi, "Cai Naizi, please contact Ruoli for me. The He family has served the Banks family for many years and is very experienced. Ask her and the He family to help me investigate Claire's whereabouts. Let's start now and we must seize every minute!"

Nanazi said without hesitation: “Okay charlie Wadejun, I will tell Ruoli now, is there anything else you need me to do?”

After she finished speaking, without waiting for charlie Wade’s reply, she quickly said, “Why don’t I transfer a group of ninjas from Japan? Although their combat power is not that strong, their ability to track down and find shadows is definitely beyond reproach. Having them come here should be able to help.”

Since the Tokyo War, the Ito family has conquered most of the ninja families in Japan. These ninjas have sworn allegiance to the Ito family and are on standby 24 hours a day.

charlie Wade had dealt with ninjas before. As Ito Nanako said, although these ninjas were not very powerful, they had first-class tracking and anti-tracking abilities, as well as first-class concealment abilities. Ordinary warriors might be stronger than ninjas, but if a ninja was determined to hide and not be discovered, even warriors who were much stronger than him might not be able to find him, unless a cultivator like himself could use spiritual perception to make the ninja nowhere to hide.

Since Stephen Thompson had planned it in advance, Claire’s route of departure must be confusing, and the ninja might really be of great use.

So, he thanked her, “Thank you, Nanako. Please take the trouble to arrange for the Japanese ninjas. But you must tell them that after they come to China, they should not cause any trouble or any incidents, and should focus all their attention on finding people.”

“No problem, charlie Wade-jun.” Nanako said quickly, “You don’t have to be so polite to me, charlie Wade-jun. Not only those ninjas, but as long as charlie Wade-jun says a word, the entire Ito family, from top to bottom, will obey your orders!”

charlie Wade was touched, but he didn’t keep thanking her. Instead, he said seriously, “Nanazi, since Claire was able to leave me a letter at home, proving that her route of departure started from home, have the He family immediately begin an investigation. When your ninjas come, have them meet Ruoli and temporarily obey Ruoli’s orders.”

charlie Wade had already experienced Xion's abilities.

At such a young age, she was able to lead a large number of masters of the Banks family to cross to Japan and wipe out the Matsumoto family. If she had not met me, she would have been able to evacuate smoothly and complete the mission perfectly. There would be absolutely no problem letting her command the operation.

Nanako naturally had no objection and immediately said, "No problem, charlie Wadejun, I'll have them prepare now and rush to China before dark!"

charlie Wade said, "Thank you for your hard work, Cai Caizi."

Nanako asked, "When does charlie Wade-jun plan to come back?"

charlie Wade said: "I want to go back as soon as possible, but Butler Stephen was last seen in Australia. He should still be in Australia at this stage. I want to try to find him. After all, he is the most critical link. If I don't find him, I will never know what other secrets he has!"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7695

When Nanako Ito heard charlie wade say that he wanted to stay in Australia, she subconsciously asked him: "Mr. charlie wade, if you want to find Ms. willson as soon as possible, shouldn't you hurry back to China?"

charlie wade sighed: "I have fallen into a trap since I came to Australia. They must have a strict organizational structure and action plan. Maybe Claire is no longer in China. If I go back now, it may not have any effect, but I can be sure that Stephen Thompson is the mastermind behind all this. No matter where Claire is, as long as I find him, I can find Claire!"

Nanako Ito suddenly realized and said, "I understand, charlie wadejun. I will cooperate with Ruoli as much as possible on the Chinese side. You can rest assured."

"good!"

charlie wade was so confused that he didn't say anything more to Nanako Ito and hung up the video.

Feeling a slight chill on his face, he reached out to touch it, only to realize that he had already burst into tears.

So he quickly wiped his tears with the palm of his hand, pushed the door and got out of the car.

The Wade family does not have many connections in Australia. They only have three hotels in Melbourne, Sydney and Brisbane. Most of the hotel staff are ordinary people. Tracking down someone like Stephen Thompson will be of no use at all.

So, the first person Charlie Wade thought of was the Chinese detective Li Yalin.

Li Yalin's criminal investigation ability is almost unmatched. Through the last operation of transferring the assassins in Morocco, Charlie Wade discovered that his anti-reconnaissance awareness is even stronger than his investigative ability.

The reason for making such an inference is that Li Yalin handled all the clues of the incident extremely cleanly. The only small tail left was the owner of the food factory. As long as the owner of the food factory did not tell everything, no one in this life would find out that the food factory was a key transit stop for those assassins.

However, Li Yalin successfully lured the owner of the food factory into a trap of interests, turning the owner into a guilty beneficiary, so that he would keep the secret and not let anyone know.

In cases like this, although there are still clues in theory, in reality the clues have been cut off and there will be nothing left to uncover if the investigation continues.

This means that if Li Yalin were asked to look for clues to this kind of case, he would find nothing.

So Charlie Wade felt that whether he was looking for Stephen Thompson or Claire, he had to ask Li Yalin for help.

So, he immediately created a group on WeChat and invited Li Yalin, his eldest uncle Asher, and his second uncle Homula to join the group.

Charlie Wade used the simplest language to post the whole story in the group, and then also sent a message to the group expressing his hope that Li Yalin would come to help.

The first person to respond was Charlie Wade's uncle, Asher. He said in confusion, "Charlie, from what you said, it seems that Stephen Thompson has not been loyal to your father all these years. He must be loyal to someone else!"
