

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7711-7720

Claire sent his parents to their room to settle down. Seeing that the room was in such good condition, the couple immediately felt relieved.

What they feared most was that they would suffer losses during their escape, and they were also afraid that after arriving on the South Pacific island, they would find the conditions on the island too harsh.

However, seeing that the ships that had escaped had such good conditions, they naturally felt more at ease.

Jacob looked left and right, touched the carpets and furniture in the room, and said to Elaine: "Wow, everything on this ship is good stuff. The furniture is made of high-quality mahogany, and the carpets are all handmade wool carpets and they are very thick. I remember that such carpets in the Middle East seem to cost tens of thousands of yuan per square meter. Even the conditions of the ship we escaped on are so good. The conditions on the island in the South Pacific must be no worse."

"Really?" Elaine squatted down in surprise, touched a corner of the carpet, and asked in confusion: "Can this thing be so expensive?"

Jacob reminded her, "Have you forgotten the carpet we saw at the Abu Dhabi mosque? Each square meter of that carpet cost tens of thousands of dollars. What do you think is the difference between this carpet and that one?"

"Really!" Elaine said with emotion: "This touch is a good thing."

As she spoke, she couldn't help but sigh: "It seems that charlie Wade is a good guy. He has exploded, but he still takes care of us so considerately."

Jacob sighed and said with some heartache: "Didn't you hear what my daughter said? He sold his house and car, and pooled the cash and other things together to settle our family of three. He is really kind and righteous."

Elaine also looked a little sad. She sighed a few times and then said solemnly: "Husband, Claire, since charlie Wade is so good to us, we must not let him down!"

Claire looked at her mother in surprise, thinking that her humanity had finally been sublimated.

Unexpectedly, Elaine said seriously: “charlie Wade has put in so much hard work and effort to build this situation for us. We must not let his efforts go to waste. In other words, we must not let anyone know where our family of three is going. After we get there, we must not let anyone know that we are there, because once it is known and spread out, all of charlie Wade’s efforts may be wiped out.”

The glimmer of fantasy Claire had just ignited was instantly shattered. She laughed at herself, thinking that she was almost 30 years old, but she still hadn’t seen the reality clearly. She had long known what kind of person her mother was, but she still hoped that she would change. It was simply a foolish dream.

Her father, Jacob, gave Elaine two thumbs up in agreement and praised her: “Wife, you are absolutely right. At this time, we must have the courage to cut off our own arms. We must not let charlie Wade’s efforts go to waste.”

As he spoke, he muttered in a low voice: “Haven’t all those bastards who engaged in telecom fraud been sentenced recently? Once they are caught, no one can escape, and all their property will be lost. If charlie Wade really becomes a fraudster in the future, then all he leaves us will be illegal gains. Logically, they will all be fined and confiscated, but as long as no one can find us, we can rest assured in the South Pacific!”

Elaine couldn’t help but ask: “What if charlie Wade is arrested, will he give us up? After all, serving a sentence can reduce the sentence. And just like when souna got into trouble, didn’t they say that as long as the stolen goods are returned and compensation is paid, the sentence can be reduced?”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7712

Jacob nodded and said, “I still believe in charlie Wade’s character. Since he has made this decision and is on the run, leaving us to enjoy life, it proves that he definitely wants to protect us. As long as we don’t expose ourselves, there is no need to worry about our safety.”

Elaine breathed a sigh of relief and said quickly: “The same thing, don’t let anyone know anything.”

Claire listened to his parents' mumbling, feeling sad, but suddenly he seemed to understand something.

She found that if she told some things and problems honestly to the people around her, it would be too difficult to explain them, and they would be hesitant and timid.

Just like this time, he took his parents away from China indefinitely without saying goodbye. If he explained the truth, his parents would be so surprised. When they thought of charlie Wade's trillion-dollar fortune, they would probably be even more itchy. With your mother's personality that values money over life, he would not care what danger charlie Wade is in. He would definitely find a way to tell the world that he is charlie Wade's mother-in-law.

By then, it will be even more difficult to deal with.

But if you lie, everything will be much easier.

Once you tell this lie, you will never have to worry about your parents holding you back. The biggest and most difficult problem can be solved better in the easiest way.

She suddenly thought of charlie Wade's lie, and suddenly realized it. She also understood better why charlie Wade made the decision to hide it from her.

If we keep it secret, everything won't be so shocking, and everything won't be so difficult to understand.

At this moment, she finally experienced charlie Wade's situation and feelings, and the resentment buried deep in her heart disappeared in an instant.

After coming out of his parents' room, Claire found Sun Simi and told her his thoughts.

Sun Simi also felt that Claire's way of handling the matter was actually more appropriate than telling the truth.

Being honest also tests human nature.

If the old couple is determined to find Charlie Wade as a rich son-in-law, it is not impossible for them to keep an eye on them, but this state of high vigilance and the other party's mentality of wanting to break through the defense are like prisoners and guards in a prison. Being on guard against each other all the time will make both sides very tired and more likely to make mistakes.

But if Claire's method is used, the old couple will no longer have the mentality of being imprisoned prisoners. They will regard the staff as an umbrella to protect them, and they would like to hide under the protection of the umbrella at all times. At that time, all work can be carried out more smoothly.

So he immediately reported the matter to Sister Sun, and Sister Sun also asked Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) for instructions.

When Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) heard this, he was a little surprised at first, but soon he smiled and said to Sister Sun, "No one knows their father and mother better than their daughter. Let's follow Claire's idea!"

Charlie Wade, who was in Melbourne, didn't know that in the eyes of Jacob and Elaine, he had changed from a good son-in-law to a troublemaker.

The old couple who used to call him a good son-in-law now wish they would never see him again in their lifetime.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7713

After the two met, Charlie Wade synchronized the situation with Li Yalin. After listening, Li Yalin said with emotion: "Master Wade, let me be honest. Since Madam Wade is willing to leave you, it means that, first, there is no need to worry about her safety. Second, she definitely does not want to be found by you. If Madam Wade was held hostage, it might be easier to find her, but she and the other party have a cooperative relationship, which is too difficult."

After that, Li Yalin said seriously, "I think you shouldn't focus on this matter. It requires careful analysis, not intensive effort. It might take one or two years, or three to five years. If you devote yourself to it, it will delay your important work. If you trust me, just leave this matter to me and focus on your revenge plan. After all, Mrs. Wade left you because she wanted you to focus on this matter. What do you think?"

charlie Wade sighed in his heart.

He also knew that finding Claire was by no means an easy task.

Even if the other party does not transfer Claire anymore, it will take at least one or two years for Li Yalin to sort out these clues bit by bit. If the other party notices something unusual and uses the same trick again, the timeline may be extended even further. If he devotes all his energy to searching for her, it will probably take up too much time and energy.

What's more, Claire may not want to see him. If she is also trying to avoid him, it will be even more difficult to find her.

Claire left him, not because she was angry with him, nor because she didn't love him. She didn't want to affect his revenge. If he could get his revenge one day, maybe Claire would come back again, and maybe the mastermind behind the scenes would surface.

But if he fails to take revenge and his identity is not revealed to the world, Claire will know that he has not taken revenge and will definitely choose to continue hiding. He might delay both revenge and the search for Claire.

charlie Wade's success today, apart from his parents' secret support, is also inseparable from his decisive and straightforward style of doing things.

Now, Claire's departure is a foregone conclusion. No matter how sad I am, I can't just give up. I must make a rational decision to get the best result.

So, he said to Li Yalin, "Inspector Li, I'm placing all the ninjas from the He and Ito families under your command. I'll also assign you a hundred elite soldiers and generals from the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace, and the entire AI model is at your disposal. Please make sure to find Claire's whereabouts as quickly as possible."

Li Yalin immediately said, "No problem, Master Wade. I'll start with Australia and Tang Sihai's clues. China will arrange for people to track the information of these cars. After I finish my work in Australia, I will go to China to continue the investigation. You don't need to waste time in Australia."

"Okay." charlie Wade sighed and said, "Then I'll go back to Jinling first. I'll leave the matter of finding someone to Inspector Li."

Although charlie Wade said this, he had another thought in his mind, which was to go back to Jinling to see Lin Wan'er (Alani).

Unlike Li Yalin, a detective who is good at unraveling a case, Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s cleverness is more about being unexpected and unconventional.

When she first came to China, she found out her hidden true identity just by her name. If Sara had been half as smart as her, she would have found her and killed her long ago.

Therefore, he wanted to meet Lin Wan'er (Alani) and see if she could give him any useful tips based on her experience and wisdom.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7714

After a ten-hour flight, charlie Wade hurried back to Aurous Hill.

At this time, the Aurous Hill He family and the ninjas sent by the Ito family joined forces to begin investigating all the clues about Claire's departure.

Even for experienced masters, it is still difficult to increase the speed when dealing with such problems.

Moreover, according to Xion, every clue is like a maze with no end. If you follow it, you will find that the further you go, the more chaotic and confusing it becomes.

charlie Wade knew very well that this matter would not be resolved overnight, but he was also uneasy about the feedback he received.

So, after he got off the plane, he called Lin Wan'er (Alani) immediately to ask where she was.

It was seven o'clock on Friday evening. Lin Wan'er (Alani) told him, "I am at Zijin Villa. Sir, do you want to see me for something?"

charlie Wade said: "I would like to ask Miss Lin for her opinion on some things. Is it convenient for Miss Lin?"

"That's convenient." Lin Wan'er (Alani) said in a clear voice, "Sir, please come directly over. I've prepared tea and am waiting for you."

charlie Wade breathed a sigh of relief and let Don Albert and Isaac Cameron leave together. He drove another car sent by Isaac Cameron's men and headed straight for Zijin Villa.

When they arrived at Zijin Villa, it was already eight o'clock in the evening. Zijin Villa was very quiet. After receiving the notification from Jacob, Qiu Yingshan(Curtis) and his wife waited quietly at the gate of Zijin Villa with Jacob.

Even though they were already in their eighties, they still obeyed and respected Lin Wan'er (Alani) like a child to their mother. In addition, charlie Wade was very kind to them, so they dared not neglect him in any way.

Seeing charlie Wade, Qiu Yingshan(Curtis) stepped forward and said respectfully, "Mr. wade, you are here."

charlie Wade smiled and nodded, then asked them, "Where is Miss Lin?"

Qiu Yingshan(Curtis) then said, “The young lady is waiting for Mr. wade at the villa on the top of the mountain.”

Old Zhang beside him also bowed and said, “Mr. wade, the young lady has ordered us to stay downstairs and not disturb you. This old servant will not take you upstairs.”

charlie Wade knew their deep-rooted respect for Lin Wan’er (Alani), so he nodded and said, “Thank you for your hard work, I’ll go up first.”

Afterwards, charlie Wade climbed the stone steps and arrived at the gate of the villa. The gate was ajar, leaving a gap of nearly 20 centimeters. Through the gap, he could see Lin Wan’er (Alani) sitting under the Mother of Pu’er Tea, boiling water and making tea. He was about to knock on the door as a courtesy when Lin Wan’er (Alani) said, “Young Master, please come in.”

charlie Wade did not delay any longer and pushed open the heavy wooden door and walked in.

Lin Wan’er (Alani) was wearing a long white dress and a white fur cape. When she saw charlie Wade come in, she immediately stood up and saluted: “I was busy making tea and couldn’t leave. I hope you will forgive me for not being able to come and greet you.”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “Miss Lin, we are friends in need and life-long friends. Why are you still so polite to me?”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled sweetly and said, "No matter what, etiquette is always necessary. My grandmother taught me since I was young that even after marrying, I must still be polite to my husband. Moreover, you are my savior."

charlie Wade shook his head helplessly and smiled bitterly, sighing: "Aren't you my savior?"

After saying that, he didn't bother being polite with Lin Wan'er (Alani) anymore and sat down directly opposite her.

After sitting down, charlie Wade finally remembered to look up at the lush tea tree above his head and exclaimed, "I didn't expect that this mother of Pu'er tea has such strong vitality. Even in such cold weather, it still has lush branches and leaves."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded and smiled, "Although Pu Cha's mother failed to overcome the tribulation in the past, she is now a celestial being reborn from the ashes. Normal weather won't affect her growth. She just needs to work hard and wait for the next tribulation."

After that, she filled the teacup to 80% of its capacity with tea, handed it to charlie Wade and said, "Try it, sir, and see if it's different from before."

charlie Wade picked up the teacup and took a sip. He felt the tea, wrapped in a trace of spiritual energy, entering his stomach. He couldn't help but sigh, "It seems that the spiritual energy is richer than before. However, it is still a long way to go before it can be of great help to cultivation."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "Don't worry, young master. In three to five years, the Mother of Pu'er Tea will be lush and leafy enough to shade this courtyard. By then, the spiritual energy contained in her leaves will be even richer, and then she will be able to truly help you.”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7715

After that, she comforted charlie Wade again: “For you, three to five years is just a blink of an eye, it will pass quickly.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani)’s original intention was to say that charlie Wade’s life span would definitely be several hundred years. If the secret in the ring was unlocked, it might even last for thousands of years. In the long river of life of thousands of years, three to five years is really nothing.

However, when charlie Wade heard these words, he felt differently.

How can three to five years be just a blink of an eye?

If I can’t find Claire, I’m afraid every day will be like a year. I don’t covet the spiritual energy of the Mother of Pu Cha, but if Claire also has to wait for three to five years to be found, I really don’t know how I will get through it.

Seeing charlie Wade’s worried look, Lin Wan’er (Alani), who was very perceptive and intelligent, immediately noticed something was wrong, so she asked with concern, “Sir, have you encountered any troubles?”

charlie Wade nodded, sighed softly, and told Lin Wan'er (Alani) the whole story of Claire's family of three leaving Aurous Hill.

After hearing this, Lin Wan'er (Alani) was slightly surprised, but then something clicked in her mind and she spoke, "Butler Tang has been secretly protecting the young master for so many years. He's arguably one of the people who knows him best. If he starts to be wary of the young master, he'll definitely do it better than anyone else. So, I don't think this matter is optimistic."

charlie Wade sighed, "I know it's not optimistic, but I still want to find Claire as soon as possible. I wonder if Miss Lin can help analyze and give me some advice? If not, you can tell my fortune."

Seeing charlie Wade's decadent look, Lin Wan'er (Alani) felt somewhat distressed. She took out nine copper coins from her bosom, cleared half of the tea table, and then carefully scattered the nine copper coins on the tea table.

Then she frowned and stared at the nine copper coins, her face full of confusion.

charlie Wade couldn't help but ask, "Ms. Lin, what does the hexagram show?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) frowned and said, "It's very strange that the hexagrams of the Gate of Life and the Gate of Death are showing two completely different images at the same time. Since you are looking for someone, the Gate of Life and the Gate of Death represent finding someone easily and looking for a needle in a haystack, respectively."

"This..." charlie Wade was confused and asked subconsciously: "Ms. Lin, how can there be such a hexagram? Isn't this a complete contradiction?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) counted silently on her fingers, becoming increasingly surprised the more she calculated. She said doubtfully, "The hexagram indicates this is indeed the case. Regarding the possibility of finding Madam Wade, the hexagram indicates one life and one death. In other words, there are two equally likely outcomes: extremely difficult to find or extremely easy to find. And the factors that influence these two possibilities lie solely in one person."

Charlie Wade asked: "What does this mean?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "The Gate of Life and the Gate of Death are both controlled by one person. If this person opens the Gate of Life, it will be easy for you to find your wife. If this person opens the Gate of Death, it will be extremely difficult for you to find your wife."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but say: "Then this is talking about Tang Sihai and the mastermind behind this matter? The whole thing is controlled by them."

"No," Lin Wan'er (Alani) explained. "Whether it's Steward Tang or his mastermind, both of them are considered dead in this hexagram. Even if they had the ability to help the young master find Madam Wade, they would never do so. They went to so much trouble to take Madam Wade away from the young master, they can't let their efforts go to waste."

"It's like someone being kidnapped. The kidnapper is their death. Although the kidnapper has the ability to spare their life, it is almost impossible to do so. Their chance of survival lies either with the police or some other third party, but not with the kidnapper."

charlie Wade nodded, and suddenly realized: “This means that the only person who can truly influence the Gate of Life and Death is a third party besides me and Tang Sihai and the others.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) nodded and said, “That’s right.”

charlie Wade quickly asked, “Is that Inspector Li? I asked him to help me investigate this matter. Does the success or failure of the whole thing depend on him? If he investigates in the right direction, or if he finds that key opportunity, can he solve the problem?”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) hesitated and said, “Well... I’m not sure yet...”

There was one thing she didn’t tell charlie Wade: opening the gate of life or the gate of death depended on that person’s thoughts. In other words, both the gate of life and the gate of death were under the full control of that person.

If Li Yalin was just asked to investigate the case, if he found the answer right, he would open the gate of life, and if he found the answer wrong, he would enter the gate of death, which seems to be different from what the hexagram shows.

If we have to blame Li Yalin, the reasonable explanation is that after Li Yalin found out the way to escape, he hesitated whether to tell charlie Wade.

In that case, with the door of life in his left hand and the door of death in his right hand, life and death will all depend on his thoughts.

But is it really like that?

Lin Wan'er (Alani) didn't dare to confirm it in her heart.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7716

Lin Wan'er (Alani) stared at the hexagram presented by the nine copper coins, and became more and more surprised.

She had never encountered such an ambiguous, or half-and-half situation before.

Among the nine copper coins, the front and back and directions of four are exactly at the gate of life, the other four are exactly at the gate of death, and the key one is just at the position of life or death.

This kind of life or death does not refer to the copper coin itself, but when you look at it together with the four life gates, the five copper coins can simultaneously form a life gate hexagram.

But if you look at it together with the other four death gates, it can also form a death gate hexagram.

It's like when two countries are at war, and a mixed-race baby is born. The national strength of these two countries is exactly equal, so only this baby can change the scales. If the baby takes on the nationality of the father, he will become an enemy of the mother's country, and vice versa.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) has been fortune-telling for hundreds of years, but this is the first time she has seen such a strange hexagram.

She silently grabbed nine copper coins and threw them out again. Although the positions of all the coins had changed this time, Lin Wan'er (Alani) came to the same conclusion again by interpreting the hexagram.

Seeing her frown, Charlie Wade couldn't help but ask again: "Miss Lin, what does the hexagram show this time?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) shook her head: "It's the same as before, nothing has changed."

charlie Wade was surprised and asked her, “I just wrote down the front and back of all the coins and their positions. Compared to the previous hexagram, the position of each coin has changed, and the front and back have also changed. Why is the hexagram the same?”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) smiled and said, “Young Master, you learned Feng Shui from the Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures, but there doesn’t seem to be any divination in there. Hexagrams aren’t interpreted based on appearances, but rather using their unique logic. The two hexagrams may appear unrelated on the surface, but the actual readings are exactly the same.”

charlie Wade sighed: “There really isn’t any advanced divination technique in the Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) explained, “The reason why divination is so mysterious is because its underlying logic is equivalent to a software that can simulate calculations.”

“Young Master, now that you’re involved in car manufacturing, you should know that modern simulated car collisions, in addition to actual crash tests, can also be simulated in software. The software itself has already set the physical properties of Earth as constants. During the simulation, you only need to input parameters such as the vehicle’s weight, speed, collision avoidance design, material strength, collision location, collision object, etc., and you can simulate the collision results of the car in detail.”

“My fortune-telling relies on the I Ching and the Eight Trigrams. Although the ancients didn’t have computers, they used years of observation to grasp the underlying logic of the world and even the universe, and then created the I Ching and the Eight Trigrams. The core of the I Ching is “yin and yang,” which is actually the earliest binary system, similar to the 0 and 1 in the computer world. I use copper coins for fortune-telling. The front and back of the coin, like yin and yang, is also a form of binary.”

“These nine coins are like the nine important parameters of a computer simulation. By using the Yijing Bagua software to simulate these nine parameters, we can predict the direction and outcome of events, as well as the variables involved. As long as the development of events does not deviate from the operating model of this world, the deduction results will not deviate too much. Although the positions and front and back of the nine coins may be different, the reason why nine coins are needed for divination is that all divination depends not on the state of a single coin, but on the relationship between the nine coins. In other words, dropping nine coins on a table, a room, or even scattering them throughout the courtyard will not affect the result.”

The I Ching and the Eight Trigrams are not feudal superstitions, but the truth of simplicity.

0 and 1 can constitute the virtual world of computers, and yin and yang can naturally constitute all things in the world.

However, Lin Wan’er (Alani) may be the only person in the world who truly masters the I Ching and the Eight Trigrams and can use nine variable parameters for calculations and deductions.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7717

The result was the same both times, which made Lin Wan’er (Alani) confused.

Whether it is Stephen Thompson or the people behind Stephen Thompson, they all belong to the Death Gate.

Li Yalin is charlie Wade’s man, so he belongs to the Shengmen.

charlie Wade himself must also be the source of life.

So, who is this person caught in the middle, wavering?

In doubt, she said to charlie Wade, “Sir, please be patient and give me some time to think about the connection. When there is a result, Wan’er will tell you as soon as possible.”

charlie Wade nodded slightly. Li Yalin might even need one or two years or even three to five years to track her down. No matter how amazing Lin Wan’er (Alani) was, it was impossible for her to find clues overnight. Naturally, this matter could not be rushed.

Recalling the letter Claire had left for him at home before leaving, charlie Wade suddenly felt a sense of longing to return home, so he said to Lin Wan’er (Alani), “Miss Lin, it’s getting late, and I won’t bother you any longer. If you have any findings or conclusions, please contact me as soon as possible.”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded and smiled, "Don't worry, sir."

After saying this, although she was reluctant to leave, she did not try to persuade him to stay. She smiled and said, "I will see you off, sir."

After charlie Wade left Zijin Villa, he immediately rushed back to Tomson Yipin.

The situation at home is exactly the same as shown in Nanako's video.

Most of the furniture and things were not moved, and everything was the same as when I left.

Back in the bedroom, the letter left by Claire was still quietly placed on the bedside.

charlie Wade opened the letter and read it again, tears welling up in his eyes again.

After six years of marriage, they thought their marriage life was finally on track, but they didn't expect it to come to an abrupt end at the most beautiful moment.

Now that he is back home, everything is still the same as before, except Claire is gone. In this environment, seeing things reminds him of her, which makes charlie Wade feel extremely sad.

After much hesitation, he still left Tomson Yipin with the letter given by Claire.

Living alone in such a big house is lonely, and Claire's shadow is everywhere, which makes people feel even more depressed.

So charlie Wade left Tomson Yipin and went to the hillside villa of Champs Elysees alone. He felt that he needed some time to calm down, at least three to five days, or at most one to two months.

Afterwards, he left messages to Li Yalin and Lin Wan'er (Alani) on WeChat respectively, telling them to contact him by phone as soon as possible if they had any news. As for WeChat, he planned to temporarily disconnect from the Internet and only keep Li Yalin and Lin Wan'er (Alani) on the whitelist on his mobile phone, blocking all other calls and text messages.

When Lin Wan'er (Alani) saw charlie Wade's message saying that he would contact her by phone if he had any news, she knew that charlie Wade must want to be alone and digest the fact that Claire had left.

She was worried, afraid that Charlie Wade would never recover or suffer from lovesickness all day long.

So, she also told Jacob and others not to disturb her, and decided to sort out Charlie Wade's recent experiences and who the variables in the hexagram depended on.

She opened a Go board and placed a black piece on the far left, muttering, "Every cause and effect has its origin. So, the origin of all this should be Qingzhao Temple on the edge of the Hundred Thousand Mountains, right?"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7718

Lin Wan'er (Alani) and Charlie Wade have not known each other for long. Judging from the time they have known each other, she feels that the mysterious power behind Charlie Wade first surfaced in Qingzhao Temple.

At that time, she was heading to the Shiwan Mountains with Charlie Wade, but unexpectedly, she met the fake nun who was waiting there at Qingzhao Temple on the edge of the Shiwan Mountains.

Not only did the other party know the secret of the two of them going to the Shiwan Mountains, he even knew that the Shiwan Mountains were full of dangers for Charlie Wade.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) placed a white piece under the first black piece.

The black pieces on top represent Qingzhao Temple, and the white pieces on the bottom represent the fake nun.

Then, the two flew directly from the Shiwanda Mountains to Eastcliff.

So she took out another black piece and placed it behind the previous one.

At first, in her mind, this black dot represented Eastcliff.

And she thought again of the time when she and Charlie Wade had just arrived in Eastcliff. Stephen Thompson sent the old photo album of Charlie Wade's parents to the Wade family's old house and left without saying goodbye. It was also at that time that Lin Wan'er (Alani) knew that Stephen Thompson and the fake nun of Qingzhao Temple were actually in cahoots.

So she placed a white piece under the second black piece.

This white piece represents Stephen Thompson.

Now, what Lin Wan'er (Alani) has to do is to locate the third black piece and the third white piece.

However, she suddenly thought of a detail.

When I followed Charlie Wade back to the Wade family's old house, I met Stephen Thompson once. At that time, there was a faint smell of incense on Stephen Thompson's body, and both I and Charlie Wade smelled it.

At that time, Stephen Thompson said that he had just gone to Yonghe Temple to worship Buddha.

Charlie Wade didn't care too much, but Lin Wan'er (Alani) thought a little more about it at the time.

She first felt that Stephen Thompson's face did not look like that of a person with religious beliefs, but more like an old soldier who had been tested and firmly believed in atheism.

Then, she thought about the attributes of the Lama Temple. It was a Lama temple, which seemed to be even more out of place for someone like Stephen Thompson.

But at that time, most of her energy was spent on thinking about what kind of dangers were hidden in the Ten Thousand Mountains, and she did not take Stephen Thompson's abnormality to heart.

But now that I think about it, there are indeed some problems.

Qingzhao Temple and Yonghe Palace.

Why are there all temples?

Does this mean that the mysterious mastermind behind Stephen Thompson has some connection with the temple?

Her intuition told her that her guess must be correct.

So, she immediately took out a black piece and placed it behind the first two black pieces, muttering, “The first black piece is Qingzhao Temple, the second black piece is not Eastcliff, but Yonghe Palace. Then this third black piece is most likely a temple.”

Thinking of this, her eyes suddenly lit up: “Madam wade left Aurous Hill. Before she left, she must have met these people. They must have told her something about the young master, which made her willingly leave him. So, where did she meet them? Most likely, it was Aurous Hill, and most likely a temple!”

“If the third black dot represents a temple in Aurous Hill, then it’s most likely the most famous... Qixia Temple!”

Moreover, Lin Wan’er (Alani) had intended to go to Qixia Temple. That time, as she wished, she met the fake nun from Qingzhao Temple in Qixia Temple.

Therefore, the suspicion of Qixia Temple becomes even greater!

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7719

Lin Wan’er (Alani) felt that she was getting closer and closer to the truth.

So, she immediately called her grandson, Sun Zhidong (Meir). As soon as the call was connected, the person on the other end said respectfully, “Miss, why are you calling so late? What instructions do you have?”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) asked, “Can you access the operator’s confidential data?”

Sun Zhidong (Meir) immediately said, “Of course, Miss, what data do you want?”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) ordered him in a serious tone, “Please help me check the access records that Madam wade left with the operator over the past few months. Be specific and accurate to every base station. Then mark the location on a map according to the timeline and give it to me.”

“Mrs. Wade?” Sun Zhidong (Meir) was a little surprised. He didn’t know why Lin Wan’er (Alani) wanted to investigate charlie Wade’s wife. He thought this was not a request charlie Wade made to her.

However, between charlie Wade and Lin Wan’er (Alani), he naturally preferred Lin Wan’er (Alani), so he gave up asking and immediately said, “Miss, please wait a moment, I will arrange it.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) thought of something and reminded him, “Remember, it must be kept absolutely confidential.”

“Don’t worry!”

The user data in the hands of operators is kept highly confidential.

Especially the user’s movement trajectory, generally speaking, even the police cannot retrieve it at will.

For users, no matter which operator’s mobile phone number service they use, as long as the mobile phone needs to access the network, an access record will be left with the operator.

When the user is at home, the operator will automatically match him with the base station closest to his home and also record the time he accesses this base station.

When a user leaves home, once he leaves the range of the previously connected base station and enters the coverage range of the next base station, the operator will also record the time he disconnected from the previous base station and the time he connected to the next base station.

These are critical data that will be kept on the server.

These data have existed for many years and have helped the police solve many major cases.

Especially in the era when the Sky Eye system was not yet perfect, many criminals were clever enough to carefully fabricate alibis for themselves, but in the end they made a mistake and the police found records that their mobile phones had been near the crime scene.

Lin Wan’er (Alani) knew very well that she did not have an AI model like charlie Wade, and it was impossible for her to locate Claire’s movement trajectory in the shortest time through municipal surveillance, so she thought of using this method.

Although this method is not as accurate and clear as video surveillance, the answer Lin Wan'er (Alani) wants is very simple. She just wants to know whether Claire has been to Qixia Temple in the past few months!

Sun Zhidong (Meir) is very efficient.

In less than twenty minutes, a video file was sent to Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s mobile phone.

The starting screen of this video is a map of Aurous Hill City and a red dot coordinate.

After clicking play, the coordinates will jump and move in different areas of the map. The corresponding time in the upper left corner shows which base station Claire's mobile phone is connected to at this time point and the next time point respectively, and where this base station is located on the map.

Due to the distance between base stations, the movement of the red dot is in the form of jumping.

Most of the movement trajectories jumped back and forth between Tomson Yipin and Claire's company, and occasionally went to some other places. Lin Wan'er (Alani) didn't pay attention to these. She was always paying attention to the Qixia Temple part on the map, wanting to see when the red dot would light up in Qixia Temple.

Hard work pays off.

When time advanced to the eve of the Lunar New Year, the red dot representing the base station where Claire was located suddenly lit up in Qixia Temple!

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7720

At this moment, a smile appeared on Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s lips.

The third black spot was officially defined as Qixia Temple in her mind.

So, the next step is to find clues about Baizi.

Who did Claire go to meet at Qixia Temple?

Is it the fake nun, or Stephen Thompson, or is there someone else who is the "white piece" here?

Thinking of this, a name suddenly flashed in her mind.

charlie Wade once said that by chance, Ito Nanako was enlightened by a monk named Jingqing at Qixia Temple.

Thinking that the enemy's position had never left the temple, she realized that Master Jingqing must also be a member of the enemy camp.

So, she placed the third white piece below the third black piece and said with a smile, "It seems that this white piece is most likely Master Jingqing."

Then, she searched for some news about Master Jingqing and found that although he was young, he had a very high level of attainment in Buddhism. He even represented the Chinese Buddhist community and exchanged ideas with Master Kongyin, the leader of the Japanese Buddhist community and the abbot of Kinkakuji Temple, in Putuo Mountain.

She had an idea and searched for Master Kongyin again. Although Master Kongyin had not appeared in public for the past two years and had not left any news, Lin Wan'er (Alani) still saw the announcement of the closure of the Kinkakuji Temple for reconstruction through the automatic association function of the search engine.

Looking at the start time of the temple closure, it was the eve of charlie Wade's birthday, less than a week away.

She couldn't help but mutter to herself, "Although there's no direct evidence yet, the indirect evidence has formed a chain of evidence that can corroborate each other. This should mean that the other party is in the Golden Pavilion right now!"

charlie Wade could never have imagined that Lin Wan'er (Alani) had figured out the whole thing in just the time of a movie and with just six chess pieces.

"Golden Pavilion..."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) muttered to herself, and then wanted to call charlie Wade to tell him her analysis.

But at the moment when the phone number was about to be dialed, she exited the dialing interface.

In her opinion, since this matter involved Claire, Charlie Wade's rationality would definitely be affected. If she told him her speculation now, he might set off for Japan immediately.

However, the other party was obviously more powerful than him. Not only did she know his actions very well, but she was also monitoring him to a certain extent. Otherwise, when he deliberately went to Qixia Temple that time, the fake nun would not have shown up on her own initiative.

After thinking for a long time, she called Sun Zhidong (Meir) again.

On the phone, she said to Sun Zhidong (Meir), "I'm leaving for Japan before dawn and need a new identity. Please help me arrange it. Also, please help me check the current whereabouts of Master Jingqing, who is very famous in the field of Buddhism."

Ten minutes later, Sun Zhidong (Meir) called and said respectfully, "Miss, I've already arranged your identity. Your plane is taking off for Nanjing now. Please arrive at the airport in three hours. I'll arrange for someone to pick you up. Also, the Venerable Jingqing you asked me to investigate went to Osaka, Japan, a week ago with some Buddhist scholars from China. The information I've found indicates that he was invited to Japan to participate in a non-public Buddhist exchange event."

Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s smile grew wider. She had lived in Japan for many years and knew Japan very well. The transportation in Kyoto, where the Kinkakuji Temple was located, was not very convenient. From China, flying to Osaka was the first choice, followed by Nagoya.

Since Jingqing also went to Osaka, he was most likely in the Kinkaku-ji Temple.

Could it be that Master Jingqing is the real mastermind behind this?

Lin Wan'er (Alani) felt that the last time she met the fake nun, she was obviously just a messenger and was unwilling to reveal more. Now, only if she went there in person would she have the opportunity to figure out what was behind this matter!
