

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7731

Seeing that Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) had made up his mind, the other three said nothing more.

Although everyone was shocked and annoyed that Lin Wan'er (Alani) found them here, after all, Lin Wan'er (Alani) was a friend, not an enemy, and at least she posed no threat.

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) cleared the broken pieces from the tea tray and took out a new cup. He said, "Alright, everyone, there's no need to be discouraged. It's normal to be inferior to others in skills and intelligence, especially when it comes to a senior like Lin Wan'er (Alani). Everyone should sit down and wait patiently."

The three of them nodded and sat down again.

At this moment, Lin Wan'er (Alani) had already walked into the entrance of the main hall courtyard.

Master Kongyin, exhausted and excited, was leaning against the door frame and looking forward to it. The moment he saw Lin Wan'er (Alani) step in, a childlike smile instantly appeared on his wrinkled face.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) also saw him, and at the same time put away her usual girlish smile, replacing it with a kind yet majestic smile.

At the same time, she took off her mask as she walked, and used both hands to detach her ponytails. While walking quickly, her hands skillfully and decisively tied her long hair into a neat and tidy high ponytail again.

At this moment, Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s eyes took on a sharp look.

In an instant, his temperament changed drastically, as if he had become a different person.

Kong Yin was trembling as he tried to walk out of the main hall to greet her. Lin Wan'er (Alani) had tied up her hair and just slightly stretched out her right hand with her palm facing him. Kong Yin knew that Lin Wan'er (Alani) wanted him to wait there.

So he stopped and held the door frame with both hands for support. His tears had already burst out, so that Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s figure gradually blurred in his eyes.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) quickened her pace and strode towards Kong Yin. When she got closer, Kong Yin loosened his grip on the door frame and trembled as he was about to kneel down, mumbling incoherently, "Miss... Zhengping pays respects to you..."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) reached out to support him, smiling and asking, "Zhengping, it's been a hundred years since we last met. Are you okay?"

Kong Yin's emotions instantly lost control, and he broke down and sobbed like a child, "Okay... okay... Miss... Zhengping is fine. Thanks to you, I am still alive today and have the opportunity to see you again... Miss... have you been okay these years?"

Seeing him crying, Lin Wan'er (Alani) couldn't help but feel sad, but she still maintained that loving smile and said softly, "I'm fine too. As you can see, I still look the same."

After saying this, Lin Wan'er (Alani) supported him and said, "You're old, don't stand here all the time, and don't get too excited. I'll help you go in and sit down to talk."

Kong Yin choked up and said, "Zhengping dare not trouble the young lady. Zhengping can still walk on his own."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled softly and said, "Still as strong-willed as when I was little."

Although she said this, Lin Wan'er (Alani) still gently helped him to sit on the cushion in the center of the main hall.

Kong Yin was nearing death, his movements slow and exhaustion evident, but his face was filled with excitement. He wiped away his tears with his cassock, then took in Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s presence and exclaimed, "Miss, you haven't changed at all in all these years."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) laughed heartily and said, "I haven't even reached four hundred years of my five hundred year lifespan yet. In a few decades, I'll still look like this."

Kong Yin sighed and said, "Miss, you have worked hard over the years."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "I've had more experience traveling the world than most people, so it's only natural that I should endure some hardships."

Kong Yin nodded: "Miss is as open-minded as she was back then."

After saying that, he suddenly remembered to ask, "Miss...you...why did you come to Japan? I still remember you said that Japan's aggressive military policy since the First Sino-Japanese War left you extremely disappointed. You said you would never come back here...Now that you're back, have you run into some trouble?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) shook her head and said, "I came here to meet the distinguished guests in your temple."

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7732

"My distinguished guest?!" Kong Yin was stunned for a moment, then asked her, "Miss, are you acquainted with Master Jingqing and the others?"

"I don't know him," Lin Wan'er (Alani) said with a smile. "I just saw that your temple is closed for renovations, and Master Jingqing has come to Japan. I thought the person I'm looking for might be here, so I came to see him. If it's convenient for you, please send someone to tell them that Lin Wan'er (Alani) begs to meet with them."

Kong Yin nodded and said, "To be honest, young lady, I only know Master Jingqing among them. The others all live in a separate courtyard in the temple. They rarely go out and never communicate with us. However, it seems that Master Jingqing is not the leader of these people. The real leader should be living in seclusion in the separate courtyard. Miss, wait a moment, I will tell Master Jingqing and ask him to pass on the message."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "You are old and frail, so please don't bother yourself. I'll go find that novice monk and ask him to pass on the message."

Kong Yin smiled and took out his cell phone from under the futon, saying, "Don't worry, miss. I'll call Master Jing Qing."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) was stunned for a moment, then giggled, reaching out to touch his bald head. She smiled and said, "Zhengping, seeing you again feels like it was over a hundred years ago. I'd forgotten that this is already modern society."

Kong Yin smiled like a child and said, "But in Zhengping's heart, the days when he lived with the young lady and other brothers and sisters were the best time of his life."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) sighed, "Time flies. Of all your brothers and sisters, you're the only one left now, right?"

Kong Yin sighed with tears in his eyes, "Yes, Miss, I am the only one left. I never thought that I would have the chance to see you before I die."

As he spoke, he couldn't help sobbing again.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "Alright, stop crying. You were the one who cried the most among all the children before. I didn't expect that you'd still be so fond of crying even though you're over a hundred years old. I can't count how many times you've cried since I met you."

Kong Yin quickly wiped away his tears and murmured, "I'm sorry to have made you laugh..."

As he spoke, in order to divert the awkwardness, he quickly picked up his phone and asked Lin Wan'er (Alani), "By the way, Miss, how should I tell Master Jingqing?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "Just say your young lady wishes to meet the head of his family. If you would be so kind as to grant her a meeting, please move to the main hall for a chat."

"Okay, miss." Kong Yin called Master Jing Qing without hesitation.

Jing Qing was not surprised by his call. After answering the call, he said respectfully, "Hello, Master Kongyin."

Master Kongyin said, "Master Jingqing, my young lady would like to meet with the head of your family. Could you please come to the main hall for a chat?"

Jing Qing looked at Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) in front of him, and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded slightly.

So he said to Kongyin: “Please ask Master Kongyin to tell your young lady that we will be here soon.”

After hanging up the phone, he asked Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom), “Madam, let me go with you.”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) stood up and said with a smile, “Let’s all come together. He dared to come to Kyoto alone at such a great risk. What else do we have to hold back?”

Tang Sihai and Sister Sun looked at each other, without saying a word, and stood up silently.

Then, the four of them walked towards the main hall together.

In the main hall, Lin Wan’er (Alani) sat upright. For a girl who looked only sixteen or seventeen years old, sitting so straight and with such a solemn expression, the scene was indeed a bit incongruous.

Although Kong Yin had a thousand words to say to Lin Wan’er (Alani), he knew in his heart that his young lady had important things to do, so he sat beside her without saying a word.

Soon, footsteps were heard, and Lin Wan’er (Alani) raised her eyes and looked towards the entrance of the main hall.

Although she was very calm, she was also very curious about who was the person who could see through everything and even plan everything behind the scenes.

Moreover, she knew very well that the other party had arranged for someone to meet her at Qingzhao Temple, which proved that she was in the open to them, and they must know her identity and origin.

Now, it’s finally time for everyone to speak frankly!

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7733

A moment later, Lin Wan’er (Alani) saw a tall and slender middle-aged beautiful woman with a beautiful face and a heroic air walk in.

Lin Wan’er (Alani) knew who was following behind her.

One is Stephen Thompson`, the long-time steward of the wade family;

One was the fake nun I met at Qingzhao Temple that day;

One is the famous young Buddhist master Master Jingqing.

So, who is this beautiful woman?

Lin Wan'er (Alani) only felt that the other person looked somewhat familiar, but at first glance, she didn't know where to remember him.

Living too long has many advantages and disadvantages. In addition to having more worries, you will meet and hear so many people in your lifetime that it is really a test for your memory.

An average person lives for decades, and no matter how sociable they are, they only really know a few thousand people. Those who are afraid of socializing know even fewer people.

Since she was a teenager, Lin Wan'er (Alani) has been constantly changing locations and identities, meeting one group of people after another. Her timeline spans more than three hundred years, and there are countless faces in her memory bank.

For her, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) was not someone she had really met. She had only seen some introductions about her indirectly or passively, so she couldn't match her up for a while.

When Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) knew Lin Wan'er (Alani), charlie Wade was still living in the Aurous Hill Welfare Home. She learned many secrets of the Po Qing Society from some opponents within the Po Qing Society, including Lin Wan'er (Alani), who had always been listed as Sara's number one target.

However, she didn't know what Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked like before. It was not until Lin Wan'er (Alani) appeared next to charlie Wade that she noticed this special girl.

However, she did not dare to confirm it at first. It was not until later when Lin Wan'er (Alani) accompanied charlie Wade to the Shiwandashan Mountains that she was truly sure that this little girl was the Lin Wan'er (Alani) that Sara had been looking for for more than three hundred years.

Although she had seen Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s photos and video materials some time ago, this time when she actually met Lin Wan'er (Alani) face to face, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) suddenly felt a powerful pressure and aura from this girl-like woman.

She knew that she should not be misled by Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s appearance. Lin Wan'er (Alani) was a weak girl who looked only sixteen or seventeen years old. Despite Sara's strenuous pursuit, she was able to live safely and unharmed for nearly four hundred years in the unpredictable and dangerous modern times. She was definitely an extremely extraordinary woman.

When Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) came to Lin Wan'er (Alani), Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked at her with a smile. Although she had some questions in her mind, she did not speak first. Instead, she pointed to the cushion opposite and made a gesture of invitation.

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) returned the invitation with a smile. Instead of sitting down immediately, she said respectfully, "Senior Lin, nice to meet you. Let me introduce myself. My name is Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom), and I'm Charlie Wade's mother."

When she heard the words "Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)", a slight ripple appeared on Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s calm face.

She was indeed shocked, but not for long.

The longer you live, the more you see.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7734

The more she saw, the fewer things could disturb her spiritual heart.

For Lin Wan'er (Alani), let alone the fact that Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) was still alive, even if two living dinosaurs suddenly appeared somewhere tomorrow, she would not find it incomprehensible.

She thought that the most incomprehensible person in the world was herself.

So, she smiled calmly, nodded slightly and said, "So it's Madam Wade. Then everything makes sense. Please take a seat."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded and sat cross-legged in front of her with a respectful expression.

Two extremely intelligent women sat face to face for the first time.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked at Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom), and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) also looked at Lin Wan'er (Alani). The gaze that spanned hundreds of years and the almost identical fate made both of them feel a sense of mutual understanding.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) was the first to break the silence. She looked at Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) and smiled, "I've long admired Madam Wade. It's truly a great honor to meet you today!"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) said modestly yet respectfully, "Senior Lin, you're too polite. I've heard of you a long time ago and have always admired you. However, even Sara couldn't find you, so I don't dare to hope to meet you one day."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "Even within the Po Qing Society, very few people know my identity and background. It seems Madam Wade has done a great job infiltrating the Po Qing Society over the years."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) smiled faintly and said, "Infiltration is actually very difficult. Within the core layer, the three elders and the four earls are both bound by their cultivation and the antidote. I can't penetrate their level, and I haven't dared to even try, fearing that a single misstep could lead to total failure."

"However, over the years, I have found several righteous people from the Wu family who are willing to break away from Sara's control. They have helped a lot."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) raised an eyebrow in surprise and asked with interest, "Mrs. Wade is truly courageous! She actually chose to directly seek a breakthrough from the Wu family! This unconventional approach truly earns my admiration!"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) said modestly, "Actually, I'm starting from the perspective of human nature. I've discerned a truth from many years of history: when people are individuals, there are pure good and pure evil; but as people form groups, and the number of groups increases, it becomes difficult to guarantee that the group is purely good or purely evil."

“In other words, the younger generation believes that as long as the group base is large enough, even the best group will have bad apples, and even the worst group will have righteous people.”

“Just like the fascist camp in World War II, there were many demons and countless killings, but among them, there were also those who abandoned darkness and joined the light;”

“During apartheid in the United States, there were many white people who discriminated against people of color, but there were also white people who became true friends with people of color.”

“This proves that no matter how powerful the influence and control of the environment is, it’s impossible to completely control everyone’s thinking and values. Probabilistic theory says that probability is the norm and underlying color of this world. So, I feel that the Wu family has flourished for four hundred years under Sara’s protection. They have so many descendants that they could have established five military governorships, just like the ancient feudal system. With such a large scale, even if the vast majority of people are Sara’s loyal lackeys, there must be a few who are dissatisfied with Sara and the Wu family’s actions. If I can find these people, I’ll be infiltrating the enemy.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani)’s eyes widened as she exclaimed, “Mrs. Wade’s thinking is truly extraordinary. It’s truly enlightening!”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) said self-deprecatingly, “I hid for twenty years without being noticed by anyone other than my subordinates, but after a few actions, I was exposed in front of you, senior. Compared to your wisdom, I am just a little clever.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) shook her head and sighed in frustration, “I’ve always used my so-called wisdom to escape, but Madam Wade is different. She uses her wisdom to counterattack. This alone makes her far superior to me!”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7735

Facing Lin Wan’er (Alani) (Alani) praise, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) said modestly, “Senior, you’re too kind. I’m far from launching a counterattack right now. I’ve only been secretly making some preparations. Furthermore, my husband planned many things for me before he passed away, and he also assembled a professional team. Otherwise, if I were alone, I wouldn’t even be able to escape.”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled slightly and asked, "Did Madam Wade achieve any major breakthroughs from the Wu family?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) said, "To be honest, Senior, there are indeed a few people in the Wu family who feel that the Wu family has been aiding and abetting Sara's evil deeds over the years. Although they have gained a lot of material benefits, they are also deeply sinful. However, those who intend to overthrow Sara are not in high positions. Although they can provide some information, it is unlikely to be of much help."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded, suddenly thinking of a breakthrough, and said, "Madam Wade's idea has given me an inspiration. Although the vast majority of the Wu family members aided and abetted the evil, they are certainly worried about the future. For the past three or four hundred years, they have had Sara's protection, so they can rest easy and even enjoy immense wealth. But Sara only has less than a hundred years left to live. They will undoubtedly be worried about the drastic changes that will follow her death."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s pupils trembled, and he looked at Lin Wan'er (Alani), waiting for her next words.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) continued, "Although the Wu family and Sara are on the same boat, Sara has no descendants of her own. She doesn't have to worry about the continuation of her bloodline after her death. But the Wu family is different. They don't have elixirs of immortality. They have relied on generations to reproduce to reach their current situation. Once Sara's 500-year lifespan expires, will the Wu family's descendants still be able to control the three elders, can they still control the death squads and the cavalry guards? Can they still resist the external enemies of the Poqing Society? These are probably the difficult problems that the Wu family will face."

"So, I think we should find a way to make the Wu family realize this huge risk and gradually alienate them from Sara. At the same time, we should also make Sara realize the risk of betrayal from the Wu family. She is suspicious and violent by nature. Once she starts to guard against the Wu family, they will definitely harbor resentment towards each other. For Sara, how to resolve the Wu family's alienation will definitely be a very headache-inducing systemic problem."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) said in surprise, "Senior's idea has enlightened me! Sara's presence is decreasing, and the Wu family must be getting more and more worried. If we can find a way to amplify the Wu family's worries and arouse Sara's suspicion, the internal friction between them will probably be equivalent to that of thousands of troops!"

After that, she asked Lin Wan'er (Alani), "Does Senior have any good ideas?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) thought for a moment, then smiled and asked, "How about turning my story with Sara into a short play?"

"Ah?!" Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) exclaimed, "Senior, why do you think so?"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7736

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said calmly, "For the past three hundred years, I've been hiding everywhere. And so has Sara? To be frank, we're both centuries-old monsters, too old to be seen in public. Let's make our story into a short play, and have it end with Sara dying at the end of her five-hundred-year lifespan, just like Empress Dowager Cixi. Everything vanishes into thin air, and the Wu family collapses completely."

At this point, Lin Wan'er (Alani) suddenly smiled mischievously and said, "After Empress Dowager Cixi died, her all-powerful power vanished in an instant, like a passing cloud. The Qing Dynasty also quickly fell. This period of history happened not too long ago. Most Chinese people know about it, and naturally the Wu family knows about it too. Others won't extend it to the present, but Sara and the Wu family will definitely project it onto themselves. Sara is Empress Dowager Cixi, and the Wu family is the late Qing Dynasty. After Sara's death, the collapse of the Wu family is only a matter of time. By then, Sara will be furious, and the Wu family will probably be in constant fear. Then, both sides will be suspicious of each other and keep back-up plans for each other. I'm afraid Sara will be in a state of panic for the next few decades!"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) was extremely surprised, and Sister Sun and Tang Sihai beside him were also extremely excited.

No one had thought of such a trick.

If the story of Lin Wan'er (Alani) and Sara was really made into a short drama, the Wu family would probably collapse when they saw it, and Sara would probably go crazy when she saw it!

With just one simple trick, the alliance between the Wu family and Sara can be trapped in a trap of internal friction. This is definitely a prime example of using a small effort to achieve a great result!

So, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) asked her, "Senior, if you are really willing to film these into short dramas, then I can take care of it for you and find a reliable team to bring it to fruition!"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "Mrs. Ye, there's no need for you and me to get directly involved in this matter, lest we leave any clues. Besides, just having one team film it would be too small a move."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) couldn't help but ask, "What do you think, senior?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "My idea is to write our story into a script myself, publish it online, and then give 500 bitcoins to Graynet. Graynet will host a special competition. The competition will allow all short filmmakers around the world to remake the script for free. Whoever's version has the most views and the widest influence will receive 300 of the 500 bitcoins. The second-place winner will receive 100, the third-place winner will receive 50, and those ranked fourth to thirteenth will receive five."

She raised an eyebrow and said, "Five hundred Bitcoins, at current prices, are worth nearly $60 million, or 400 million RMB. The cost of a short play is only a few hundred thousand RMB, a few million at most. Even if you can only get five Bitcoins, that's still $600,000. I think the temptation is huge. Furthermore, Gray Network's intermediary services are always trustworthy. As long as you transfer the Bitcoin to them and pay them the agreed 10% handling fee, they will naturally strictly abide by the agreement and maintain the fairness of the competition. As long as Gray Network spreads the word, no one will worry about the competition being unfair or the winner not receiving the prize money."

"By then, there might be hundreds of short dramas all over the world, all about Sara and me. For Sara and her family, such an information bombardment would be impossible to avoid."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded excitedly, exclaiming, "Senior, this plan is brilliant! Furthermore, using Bitcoin to post a reward on the gray network won't leave any clues for Sara. Even if Sara gets furious, she won't be able to do anything about it. As for the audience around the world, they'll just treat this skit as a made-up story, and no one will connect it to reality. It truly has every benefit and no harm! Senior's strategy truly impresses me!"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "I was also inspired by Madam Wade. Seeing Madam Wade, I suddenly realized that hiding for over three hundred years was too tiring and foolish. It would be better to change the game and switch from defense to offense. Sara has made me suffer so much, it's time she had a taste of her own medicine!"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) (Alani) plan amazed Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom).

She wanted to write her experience with Sara into a script, shoot it into a short play, and even give Sara an ending where she would be reduced to ashes five hundred years later, in order to alienate the relationship between the Wu family and Sara, and also to break their mentality. This in itself was already very genius.

What's even more outrageous is that she actually wants to turn the short plays into a reward system instead of an investment system.

This is simply the best way to isolate risks.

If it is an investment filming, no matter how many shell companies are used to disguise it, the capital chain cannot be hidden.

It is difficult to completely hide who made the drama and whose money the filmmakers took.

Even if the money can be hidden, who found that person and how they got in touch with him would still leave hidden dangers.

However, Lin Wan'er (Alani) directly avoided the investment link. She simply took out a super high amount of Bitcoin as an incentive and used Gray Network as endorsement.

The high rewards offered by the gray network will naturally encourage short drama practitioners to spread the word on their own, and even attract some outsiders to join in for the money.

The high rewards will stimulate those short drama practitioners to spend their own money and effort to shoot, without having to have any contact with Lin Wan'er (Alani) throughout the whole process.

It's a bit like the organizers of a marathon.

They only need to offer a high enough winning reward and do not need to pay a penny of commission to marathon participants. Marathon runners and enthusiasts from all over the world will flock to the event at the cost of their own travel, food and accommodation. Not only do they have to pay the entry fee, but for some popular events, they even need to draw lots to be eligible to participate. Otherwise, there is no way to get in even if they pay.

In this way, Lin Wan'er (Alani) doesn't have to give the money to these production teams herself, and the funding chain will be completely untraceable.

Bitcoin itself is a cryptocurrency, and its links are all anonymous. The possibility of finding Lin Wan'er (Alani) through Bitcoin is zero.

Even if Sara knew that the bitcoins were from Lin Wan'er (Alani), she had no way to trace the source.

The gray network itself is an untraceable gray area. Even if Lin Wan'er (Alani) posts tasks here, Sara cannot find her.

In this way, Lin Wan'er (Alani) has the dual security of the gray network and cryptocurrency.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) doesn't need to reveal any clues herself, she just needs to post the task to attract short drama creators around the world to start filming at their own expense for the reward of a few hundred bitcoins.

By then, the story about the two people may be released online in hundreds of different languages in various regions around the world, which will be an absolute 360-degree seamless information bombardment for Sara and the Wu family.

What's even more outrageous is that Lin Wan'er (Alani) posted the script she wrote on the gray Internet. Sara knew that the script was written by her, but she couldn't find her where she was and could only worry.

Lin Wan'er (Alani), apart from paying money and providing stories, does not have to bear any risks.

Not only that, by then hundreds of teams around the world will be filming this story, and the number of actors involved will start at at least tens of thousands. Even if Sara wants to find someone to vent her anger on, she will have no chance at all, because once she takes action against these actors, it will attract unnecessary attention. The audience originally thought that this was just a fictional story, but once the participants were mysteriously killed, they would wonder whether there was some kind of connection.

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) couldn't help but sigh to Lin Wan'er (Alani) at this moment, "I've been working in the shadows for twenty years, and even the combined destructive power I've brought to the Poqing Society might not even be comparable to what you've planned for this skit. If you need any help from me, I'll definitely do my best!"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "It's easy. I can just write the script myself. Even if Sara can tell at a glance that I wrote it, it doesn't matter. As long as she can't find me, she'll just be worried. As for Bitcoin, I have over 100,000 Bitcoins spread across hundreds of electronic wallets. This is enough to keep her busy. I can even keep her busy for decades."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled playfully and continued, "I'm planning on keeping Sara's name Sara in the script I'm writing. I won't even change her name. I'll let her experience what it's like to be socially dead!"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) sighed, "This move is enough to cause great chaos in the Poqing Society's army. It's truly a perfect strategy to capture their hearts and minds!"

After she finished speaking, she remembered that Lin Wan'er (Alani) had seen her talk for so long, but the topic of their conversation had not yet mentioned Ye Chen, so she took the initiative to stand up, bowed deeply to Lin Wan'er (Alani), and said, "By the way, Senior, you once saved Charlie Wade's life. As a mother, I am grateful to you. Today I finally have the opportunity to thank you in person!"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) was somewhat surprised and asked, "How did Madam know about Lord Changsheng's self-destruction of his Niwan Palace? Besides the young master and I, the only other person who knew about this was Lord Dingyuan, who was present at the scene.”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) said shamefacedly, “Actually, I was slow to realize this. I originally thought that with charlie Wade’s strength, dealing with a mere Changshengbo shouldn’t be a problem. But I didn’t expect a loud bang to suddenly come from the mountainous area outside Aurous Hill City that day. When my people arrived, the place where the two men had fought had been razed to the ground. It was then that I realized that Changshengbo must have a trick up his sleeve that I didn’t know about.”

Without waiting for Lin Wan’er (Alani) to ask, she spoke bluntly, “At first, I didn’t know whether charlie Wade was dead or alive. Later, when charlie Wade was found safe and sound, I began to speculate that it must have been you, Senior, who saved him, or perhaps it was the ring your father left you that saved him. I wonder if what I said is correct?”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) smiled sweetly and nodded gently, then sighed, “Communicating with Madam Wade is truly a pleasure. She’s straightforward, no beating around the bush.”

As she spoke, she put away her smile and said solemnly, “Sara has been hunting me for so many years, all for the sake of that ring. I’ve long been tired of this life of hiding, and the only thing that keeps me from committing suicide is that ring.”

“Although I am a weak woman and cannot kill Sara, the murderer of my father, I absolutely cannot and will never allow Sara to get that ring.”

“So, I originally planned to guard the ring until Sara’s five-hundred-year-old lifespan expired. This has been my belief and mission for the past three hundred years.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) (Alani) eyes held a resolute look, yet at the same time, she spoke with a touch of contempt, “In a war, the stronger one doesn’t necessarily win. As long as they can’t kill me, whoever survives to the end will be the ultimate winner. After all, I’m younger than she is. Even if she reaches her five hundred year lifespan, I still have twenty years left to live.”

At this point, Lin Wan’er (Alani) sighed softly and continued, “However, I didn’t expect that when I was in Northern Europe, Sara almost captured me, and this ring almost fell into her hands. Fortunately, you appeared in time and saved me from danger.”

“At that moment, I realized that I might not have the ability to safely protect the ring until Sara turned five hundred years old, so I simply gave the ring to you, young master.”

“If you go further, that ring can help you.”

“If you take a step back, that ring can save your life.”

“If I take another step back, I can also ensure that even if Sara catches me one day, she won’t be able to get the ring.”

“Without that ring, Sara would have less than a hundred years to live.”

After hearing this, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom)’s admiration for Lin Wan’er (Alani) grew even stronger. He couldn’t help but sigh, “Senior, your thoughtfulness and courage are truly remarkable. I truly admire you.”

After saying this, she asked Lin Wan’er (Alani), “Sara is so desperate to get that ring. Is it because it contains the recipe for the Hundred Refinements Pill?”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) knew that Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) had found a breakthrough within the Wu family and must have obtained a lot of key information, so she was not surprised when Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) mentioned the Baizhuan Qianhui Pill.

She replied calmly, “According to what my father said back then, my master did mention that the key to the Hundred Refinements Pill was in that ring, but my father didn’t know how to find this crucial clue, and my master didn’t explain any of the ring’s benefits. If Sara hadn’t suddenly challenged my father, he wouldn’t even have known that the ring could save his life at a critical moment.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) hid nothing and told the whole story of how her father was injured by Sara and how the ring was given to her.

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) was filled with gratitude and amazement. He excitedly said, “So this ring actually has such magical effects! Your father used it once, and charlie also used it once. This proves that this ring can be reused. With it, wouldn't charlie be immortal?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) shook her head and said, "Nothing is certain yet. Young Master had a large amount of spiritual energy drained away by the ring, and he managed to survive by relying on rounds of elixirs. It seems the ring consumes a large amount of spiritual energy each time it's activated. Furthermore, it's unknown how many times the ring can be used. The best outcome is that Young Master no longer needs its help."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded lightly with a serious expression and sighed, "Senior is right. In this kind of thing, there is no room for trial and error. One wrong step will lead to eternal damnation."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled faintly, looked at Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) and said, "When I came here today, I thought of many possibilities, but I never thought I would be facing Madam wade. However, since we have met and discussed the Master, many things should be discussed openly and honestly. If we discuss the issues clearly and thoroughly, it will achieve twice the result with half the effort for both of us and the Master. What do you think, Madam wade?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded respectfully, "Senior, you are right. I have decided to meet with you and am prepared to tell you everything I know. Besides that, I also have some questions that I need to ask you."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "Then let me ask first."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) raised his right hand and made a gesture of invitation: "Senior, please speak."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "Since Madam wade wasn't murdered as the outside world believes, then it seems Madam wade must have been behind the scenes orchestrating the Young Master's life trajectory over the years, including his acquisition of the Nine Profound Heavenly Scripture. Then, since she arranged for the Young Master to marry Claire, why is she going to the trouble of separating them now?"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7740

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) smiled bitterly and said, "To be honest, Senior, although I have been behind the scenes, I am far from being able to plan and strategize, nor do I dare to do so. When my master foresaw the danger, he had already prepared a way for me to escape, but I was kept in the dark at the time. Otherwise, I would never have agreed to his use of this method in exchange for my survival.”

“By the time I learned the truth, my husband had already been murdered. I could only follow his wishes and remain anonymous. I didn’t dare to contact any of his relatives or friends.”

“Several important milestones in charlie’s life, such as entering the orphanage, receiving the 10 billion from the Wade family, and obtaining the Nine Profound Heavenly Scripture, were all planned in advance by him. I, the younger generation, dare not interfere too much.”

“You mentioned the matter of marriage, which was completely unexpected. Neither my teacher nor I myself expected that charlie would meet Claire’s grandfather, let alone that he would be found out by others.”

“Claire’s grandfather was a servant of the Wade family many years ago. He recognized charlie from the Wade family based on his appearance and surname at the construction site, and took it upon himself to make charlie his son-in-law.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) suddenly understood and nodded gently, then said, “But if Madam wade is not satisfied with this marriage, with Madam wade’s ability, there are many ways to avoid it from the root, right?”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) nodded and said, “To be honest, in my opinion, charlie is a descendant of the Wade family and the grandson of the An family. His background is definitely distinguished. Moreover, he has the Dragon Fate bestowed upon him by his father, making him a rising dragon. If being trapped in shallow water is the inevitable path to growth, then I can sit back and watch charlie live in an orphanage, or I can watch him carry bricks on a construction site and be bullied. But what I least want to see is him becoming someone else’s son-in-law.”

“So, I tried many ways to indirectly stop it, including secretly arranging for many wealthy people to pursue Claire before the marriage, and even lobbying the Willson family, but nothing worked. If I had taken one more step at that time, it might have been seen as deliberate, and forceful interference would only make charlie notice... So, I had no choice but to call a halt.”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded and asked, "So Madam Wade is not happy with their marriage, right?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) shook his head and said, "I can't say I'm dissatisfied with Claire, but I can't say I'm satisfied with him either."

"Objectively speaking, the root cause of many strained relationships between mothers-in-law and daughters-in-law in China is that the mother-in-law doesn't have the right mindset. A son is not a puppet controlled by his mother-in-law. It's not the mother-in-law's place to interfere with who he wants to marry and how he wants to live his life. A mother-in-law shouldn't choose a wife for her son, let alone dislike her. I didn't choose Claire, but I have no right to dislike her either."

At this point, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) looked at Lin Wan'er (Alani) and confessed, "The reason I went to so much trouble to separate them is because I don't want Claire and his family of three to hold Charlie back any longer. I've also secretly observed Charlie's movements. He's basically centered in Aurous Hill, radiating across the globe. But every time he leaves home, he seems so hasty, returning immediately after finishing his business. Even after returning, he commutes home every day. Let me ask you, senior, if a cultivator has no time for seclusion all day, how can he ever improve his cultivation?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded gently and mused, "My father once said that practicing Taoism is about slowing down one's lifespan like the ten-thousand-year-old redwood. One spends all day practicing meditation and entering a state of trance. Often, a single retreat can unknowingly last for months or even over a year. To a cultivator, it's just the blink of an eye. My master once told him that by the time he reached his level of cultivation, a glance of a hundred years would be enough. If one truly reached the highest level, a glance of ten thousand years wouldn't be surprising."

After saying this, she couldn't help but sigh, "Young Master's previous situation did have a huge impact on his cultivation. He never had enough time to retreat. His cultivation progress and breakthroughs may have stagnated because of this..."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) felt a little relieved after hearing her say this, but he couldn't help but sigh, "I don't want to interfere with Charlie like this, but if he doesn't hurry up, I'm afraid that when Sara is about to die, Charlie will still be no match for her."

After saying this, she said with a serious expression: "Based on my understanding of Sara, if her life is really on the countdown, she will definitely take crazy revenge on everyone, the Wade family, the An family, I'm afraid no one will be spared by then. Time left for charlie is running out!"
