

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7743

“It’s the master who lied?! Why did Madam wade say that?!”

At this moment, Lin Wan’er (Alani)’s face was full of surprise and confusion.

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) asked Lin Wan’er (Alani), “Senior, do you know anything about Meng Changsheng (Willie)’s life? For example, when was he born and when did he die?”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) blurted out, “My master was born in Chang’an City in the first year of the Linde reign of the Tang Dynasty, which was 664 AD, and died in 1663, which was the second year of the Kangxi reign of the Qing Dynasty, exactly one thousand years ago.”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) shook his head and said, “I’ve had people in Chang’an look up a lot of ancient books and materials. Because Meng Changsheng (Willie) passed the imperial examination and served as an official in the court, some official historical books have records of him. According to the official historical records, Meng Changsheng (Willie) was indeed born in the first year of the Linde era.”

“However, this contradicts what the Taoist priest said, so I hired some tomb raiders to search for clues in the ancient tombs of the Wu family from the Tang Dynasty.”

“After more than a year of searching, until Senior and charlie went to the Shiwan Mountains, we finally found a document from over a thousand years ago from the Wu family. It stated that the 16th generation grandson of the Wu family at that time was named Meng Sheng, with the courtesy name Changming. He was born in the second year of the Qianfeng reign of the Tang Dynasty, which was 667 AD. The surname, name, and courtesy name all match. I believe this Meng Sheng is Meng Changsheng (Willie)!”

Lin Wan’er (Alani)’s eyes widened, her expression no longer calm. She blurted out, “Madam wade, are you saying that Master-shi changed his birthday? He deliberately changed his age by three years?”

“Yes!” Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) nodded and said, “Based on what I have found, this should be the case.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) frowned. “But that doesn’t make sense! I once spoke with you about a man you met by chance. That man’s ancestor was a servant named Jiang whom Master had taken in during his early years. Even that man said Master was born in the first year of the Linde era. So Master must have been less than a hundred years old then. It’s impossible for him to be planning something a thousand years in the future, right? Besides, some scholars in the Tang Dynasty would spend vast sums of money and effort to bribe examiners and lower their ages just to pass the Tongzi exam. Some officials would also lower their ages to delay retirement, but I’ve never heard of anyone actually raising their age.”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) smiled and said, “Why did Meng Changsheng (Willie) claim to be born in the first year of the Linde era? I have analyzed some clues from other records. Senior, please listen to my analysis and see if it makes sense.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) nodded and said seriously, “I’m all ears.”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) said, “First, let me analyze human nature. Meng Changsheng (Willie)’s original name was Meng Sheng, with the courtesy name Changming. Later, after practicing Taoism, he changed his name to Meng Changsheng (Willie) and styled himself Changsheng Jushi. This is like a businessman who was originally named Meng Sheng and later changed his name to Meng Facai. The only difference is that the word Changsheng sounds more ethereal, so it seems less vulgar. But in fact, its underlying logic is the same as names like Meng Facai and Meng Dangguan. I feel that someone who can change his innermost thoughts into his own name must have very strong inner desires and is definitely not the kind of person who has no desires or demands.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) agreed and said, “Mrs. Wade’s analysis is indeed very reasonable.”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) continued, “When Meng Changsheng (Willie) passed the imperial examination and entered the court as an official, the emperor was still Emperor Gaozong Li Zhi. Emperor Gaozong changed his reign title fourteen times in his lifetime. His wife, Empress Wu Zetian, later ascended the throne and changed it seventeen times. Emperor Gaozu and Emperor Taizong of Tang each used only one reign title, and other emperors generally used one or two. It’s said that Emperor Gaozong and Empress Wu both frequently changed their reign titles because they both believed in Taoism and the I Ching and Feng Shui. Each reign title held special meaning for them, and it's likely due to their frequent use of the I Ching and the Eight Trigrams for divination."

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7744

Then she continued, "I had someone calculate Meng Changsheng (Willie)'s birth date and time, which was the first year of Qianfeng. Personally, his career in the government isn't very promising, and it won't be of much use to the country. Given his birth date and time, and Emperor Gaozong's deep belief in Taoism and the I Ching, he won't have any future prospects."

After a pause, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) continued, "As for his birth chart recorded in the official history, that first year of the Linde era, I've had someone calculate it. If we go by that birth chart, he was definitely destined for a top-tier official career. For the nation, he was a rare talent who could save the country from collapse."

"When Meng Changsheng (Willie) was practicing Taoism, he tried his best to achieve immortality. When he became an official, he would definitely try his best to climb up the career ladder. He would definitely change his birth date and horoscope to prepare for a successful official career. He would definitely be able to do such a thing!"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) felt a chill run down her spine as she murmured, her face pale. "If that's true, then in 1663, Master was only 997 years old, three years before his natural death. My father and Sara followed his wishes and arranged his funeral. I think he must have faked his death..."

"That's right," Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) said. "Meng Changsheng (Willie) wouldn't let your father and Sara know his true intentions and plans. He faked his death and deceived his two disciples, giving himself three years to prepare the Blood Lake Hell, which would allow him to disintegrate before his death. That was his true purpose."

After that, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) continued, "I also looked up the county annals surrounding the Shiwandashan Mountains. Between 1664 and 1666, the area suffered a rare natural disaster, forcing a large number of refugees to flee their homes and become displaced, numbering at least tens of thousands."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked at her and murmured, "Could it be that these people were all harmed by Master?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) shook his head and said, "I have no direct evidence for this, but according to that senior, setting up the Blood Lake Hell formation requires the sacrifice of a large amount of blood and wronged souls. Furthermore, I've checked almost every county annals within hundreds or thousands of miles of the Hundred Thousand Mountains. During that same period, and in the year or two that followed, there's no record of any place receiving large numbers of refugees, nor is there any record of a sudden increase in local banditry. These tens of thousands of refugees didn't flee to other towns, nor did they become bandits. So where did they go?"

When Lin Wan'er (Alani) heard this, her whole body couldn't help but tremble violently, and her eyes were soon filled with tears.

She was a smart person and knew that what Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) said, when put together, was enough to prove everything.

Meng Changsheng (Willie), whom his father respected immensely, had actually lost his humanity in his pursuit of immortality.

Using the lives of tens of thousands of people to build a hellish formation, just so that he can die in it and avoid the destruction of his soul, this method is extremely cruel!

She wiped away her tears with her sleeve and choked up, "Master... Oh, no, it was Meng Changsheng (Willie)! He killed so many people and planned all this, just to let someone with the Shenglong Fate appear in this world. Then he would lure them to the Blood Lake Hell in the Hundred Thousand Mountains to possess someone else's body, and then be reborn in the body of someone with the Shenglong Fate... This step-by-step plan, a layout spanning hundreds and thousands of years, just for his own immortality, is... what's the difference between this and a demon?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) sighed, "Even the demons in myths and folk tales rarely contain such wicked people."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked again, "By the way, Madam wade, since Meng Changsheng (Willie) must die in the Blood Lake Hell, does that mean he will never be able to leave that Hell?"

"Yes." Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded and said, "He shouldn't exist in the first place. Only by staying in his Blood Lake Hell can he hide from the Heavenly Dao. If he leaves the Blood Lake Hell, he will be shattered into dust by the thunder of the heavens. However, if he is still in the Blood Lake Hell, he will be the only god in the Blood Lake Hell. The Taoist priest said earlier that he has already refined tens of thousands of wronged souls in the Blood Lake Hell into magical instruments. With the blessing of such a powerful magical instrument, no one can be his opponent no matter where he goes."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) breathed a sigh of relief and said, "This also means that as long as you never go to the Hundred Thousand Mountains and never come to his home turf, he will never be able to do anything to you, because he can't leave his Blood Lake Hell, right?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) pondered and said, "In theory, it is true, but I always feel that everything seems not so simple!"

Seeing Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) still had concerns, Lin Wan'er (Alani) couldn't help but ask, "Madam wade, is there still a way for Meng Changsheng (Willie) to escape the Blood Lake Hell?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) shook his head. "According to that Taoist priest, Meng Changsheng (Willie)'s spirit couldn't leave the Blood Lake Hell after his dissolution. But I still can't help but worry. Meng Changsheng (Willie) has been planning this for hundreds of years. He shouldn't let himself be so passive. I'm afraid he has another killer move."

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7745

Lin Wan'er (Alani) suddenly thought of something and asked, "Madam wade, is there anything strange about the ring I gave you? What if it can teleport you to the Shiwan Mountains?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) said, "That shouldn't be the case. If there was something wrong with it, it wouldn't have saved charlie's life the first time."

As he spoke, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) explained, "Senior, I've always felt that the power of that ring is too incredible. It can teleport a living person directly to another person. Since it has this ability, then the person who refined this ring can definitely refine a ring that triggers itself, and then teleport themselves to any place at will. How can a cultivator with a lifespan of a thousand years create this? If Meng Changsheng (Willie) had such ability, he would probably have found a way to extend his life by fifteen hundred years long ago. Even if he took a step back, he wouldn't have to go to so much trouble to lure Charlie to the Shiwan Mountains. He could just refine a magic weapon and let it circulate together with the Nine Profound Heavenly Scripture. Once the magic weapon encountered someone with Shenglongge, it would directly teleport the person to the Shiwan Mountains for him to possess. Wouldn't everything be much simpler?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) suddenly understood and agreed, "Mrs. Wade's words make perfect sense. The ring can teleport a living person thousands of miles away. Such an ability is truly unimaginable. This shouldn't be a magical weapon refined by Meng Changsheng (Willie) himself. It's very likely that he obtained it by chance, and he probably doesn't even know that this ring has the ability to teleport. Otherwise, since he has already decided to take over another body and be reborn, this magical weapon would naturally be reserved for his own use after his rebirth."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) asked her, "Did your father ever mention Meng Changsheng (Willie)'s legacy?"

"Legacy?" Lin Wan'er (Alani) frowned and said, "My father mentioned that Meng Changsheng (Willie) had many magical instruments, most of which he left in his own secret room. My father never considered looking for them, so after taking care of his funeral, he didn't think of looking for them."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded. "Meng Changsheng (Willie) has practiced for thousands of years, so he must have countless elixirs and magical instruments. However, your father and Sara only received two Eternal Green Pills and a ring. I think these things are of no importance to Meng Changsheng (Willie). If he knew how magical this ring was, he would never have given it to your father."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) sighed, "Based on this deduction, the ring must have been forged by a more powerful cultivator. Master obtained it by chance, but hasn't fully grasped its efficacy."

At this point, she frowned and muttered, "He told my father that this ring holds the secret to living for a thousand years. Perhaps it was from this ring that he obtained the recipe for the Hundred Refinements Pill, enabling him to achieve the breakthrough from a lifespan of five hundred years to one thousand years. Since then, he has been in seclusion in the Hundred Thousand Mountains and has never encountered any real danger, so he hasn't had the opportunity to explore more of the secrets of this ring."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) agreed and said, "I think your analysis is very likely. Meng Changsheng (Willie) accidentally obtained the ring and obtained the elixir from it, so he thought the ring had lost its effect. However, he had already refined the Eternal Evergreen Pill. To him, the elixir, no matter how much was left, was meaningless. Giving it to your father and Sara was as simple as an adult giving two children a candy bean. The elixir became useless garbage, and the ring became useless chicken ribs. So he simply left it to your father and Sara."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled bitterly, "Now it seems that he is not only vicious and cruel, but he is also likely a miser."

After saying that, she waved her hand and said with a smile, "It doesn't matter. As long as the ring does no harm to you, that's enough."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded and smiled, "It's all fate. He left the ring to your father as a gesture of kindness toward this disciple. He passed on the Nine Profound Scripture Preface and the Nine Profound Heavenly Scripture as a grand strategy for his own rebirth. It's like an assassin who, before going out to assassinate his target, sees a child fall at the doorway, helps him up, then pulls out his gun and kills several people in a row. From his personal perspective, the child and his target are two independent individuals, with no subjective connection."

After a pause, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) continued, "Senior, please remind Charlie to find a way to study the secrets of that ring!"

"Madam, rest assured. I will remind you from time to time." Lin Wan'er (Alani) agreed without hesitation, then asked, "Madam, what is the identity of the Taoist priest you mentioned?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) shook his head and said, "I don't know either. He just suddenly appeared to remind me, but he didn't reveal any useful information. However, he did tell me that the reason he stayed in the Shiwan Mountains was to find a way to break the sinful Blood Lake Hell Formation."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said with some relief, "This can be considered a potential ally, Young Master. Perhaps she can provide some help to you in the future."

“Yes.” Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) said, “Perhaps one day, charlie will also be able to receive his guidance.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) nodded, checked the time, and said, “Madam wade, it’s getting late. I should prepare to return. A young girl has been in there for so long. If someone is paying attention, they might notice something.”

As she spoke, Lin Wan’er (Alani) laughed at herself again and said, “I’m always so timid and cautious. I’m just making fun of Madam wade.”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) didn’t think Lin Wan’er (Alani) was timid at all. Instead, he said seriously, “Senior, you’re absolutely right. We should never be careless in anything. Countless people’s careers have been ruined by one or two careless mistakes. Senior, you’re all alone, yet you’ve caused Sara to search for over three hundred years in vain. This alone makes me bow down to you. I’m truly honored to be able to speak so openly and face to face with you today!”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) smiled slightly, slowly stood up, bowed slightly, and said, “Mrs. Wade, you are so kind.”
