

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7759

Since ancient times, the means to make someone keep a secret are nothing more than coercion and inducement.

But overall, inducement is much more effective than coercion.

Just like the 108 heroes of Liangshan Marsh, without exception, they were all forced to become bandits. In this situation, the more they were forced, the more they resisted.

In the end, it was the inducement that worked.

Although Elaine is not a hero, she can't overcome the difficulties that even heroes can't overcome.

This luxurious tropical island in the South Pacific was right before her eyes, and even at gunpoint, she didn't dare contact the outside world.

So, Claire breathed a sigh of relief.

Anyway, this is settled. I just hope that being away from my family will allow Charlie Wade to devote himself to his revenge without distraction.

But when she thought of Charlie Wade, her heart was immediately filled with longing.

In fact, people are not afraid of passionate love. The more the love comes like a tsunami, the more vigorous and earth-shaking it is, the faster it tends to dissipate. Yesterday, you could die for the other person, but today you feel like a fool, so you can no longer muster that energy.

What people fear most is love that is like boiling a frog in warm water.

After being together for a long time, they didn't feel that much love, but in fact, the two of them had developed a strong dependence on each other during their long time together. It was just that everyone was familiar with this feeling, and no one felt how important the other was.

But once you leave, you will know how painful it is to lose the other person.

Claire felt that her feelings for Charlie Wade were especially like the relationship between water and fish.

When living in water, we feel that everything is very ordinary. We can breathe by moving our gills and swim by shaking our tails. We don't know that all these are because of the water. But suddenly one day we leave the water, and only through the loss of water do we truly understand the meaning of water's existence.

So when she thought of this, her eyes turned red and she couldn't help but shed tears.

Jacob and Elaine were not as melancholy as Claire. Like two wolves, they were busy getting familiar with every inch of their territory. The villa was so big that it was impossible to fully construct its outline in their minds at once.

However, Elaine still found the best bedroom suite with her excellent talent, and then proudly announced that she would take it for herself.

Of course, her relationship with Jacob has eased a lot, and now they are no longer separated, so this best suite has become their bedroom.

It is called a suite, but it is actually just like a big house.

The first thing you see when you enter the door is a living room of over 100 square meters. It is 15 meters long and 8 meters wide, and is extremely luxurious.

The living room is connected to a large semicircular terrace which is also 15 meters long and has a radius of more than 6 meters. The terrace faces the sea, and the hot and humid tropical sea breeze blows on your face, opening every pore and making you feel extremely comfortable.

Entering from the left side of the living room, there is a large bedroom facing the sea. The two-meter-two-wide bed faces the sea, and there is a top luxury brand bathtub next to the floor-to-ceiling window. In Elaine's opinion, lying here and taking a bath can make her heart fly to the sky.

Behind the bedroom is a walk-in closet. The wardrobe panels are not visible, and all panels are covered with leather, which feels very good. The handles and hardware of the cabinets are so exquisite that when you take them apart, you would think they are custom-made accessories from some high-end brand.

The two of them touched and looked around in the bedroom and bathroom. After they finished, Elaine came out with tears in her eyes and said to Jacob, "I thought I was living a life of luxury in Tomson Yipin, but only after coming here did I realize that life can be so refined...”

Jacob also sighed: “Look at those cabinets, they fit almost perfectly with the surrounding walls. The gaps are not only so narrow that they are almost invisible, but also completely consistent from top to bottom. This kind of craftsmanship is not something that ordinary luxury brands can achieve. Even the cabinets in the finely decorated villas at Tomson Yipin can’t achieve such extremes.”

After saying that, he quickly said, “There’s another room to the right of the living room. Let me take a look.”

Elaine immediately followed: “Wait, I’ll go with you.”

Entering the room on the right, there is a room that is comparable to Marlon Brando’s study in the movie “The Godfather”.

The room was decorated entirely in solid wood. The floors, walls, tables, and chairs were all top-grade walnut, giving it a retro American feel. The large American-style desk was even more exquisite. Jacob couldn’t help but sit on the swivel chair, resting his legs on the tabletop, and sighed, “The only difference between Marlon Brando and me is a good Cuban cigar.”
