

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7760

After saying that, he lowered his head and found a low cabinet with a transparent glass door next to the desk. At first glance, it was filled with cigars.

He walked forward and opened it in surprise, and found that it was filled with famous Cohiba cigars.

He carefully pulled out a cigar, held it in his hand, examined it carefully, and exclaimed, "I think I saw someone smoking this series of cigars when I was at Tianxiang Mansion. They said it cost over 20,000 yuan a piece..."

Elaine said in disbelief: "So expensive?! Who is crazy enough to spend over 20,000 yuan on a cigar? What else can't you do with that money?"

Jacob put the cigar under his nose and sniffed it, sighing, "Oh, you don't understand. Rich people make money very quickly. Some people can make millions in a day. How do you think they spend all that money? Smoking two cigarettes a day that cost over 20,000 yuan is nothing. No matter how extravagant you are, your money will always increase. Otherwise, look at who sells all the top-quality food, wine, and cigars in the world? Aren't they all sold to the top tycoons?"

Elaine murmured: "It's great to have money!"

After saying this, she was afraid that all this would disappear, so she quickly warned him: "Jacob, you have to be careful. No matter what, you can't let anyone outside know that we are living so well here."

Jacob found a lighter, and after much hesitation, he finally lit the cigar, took a puff, and then sighed, "Don't worry, even if my own father came to ask me in a dream, I wouldn't tell you."

Elaine said approvingly: "That's pretty good!"

As they were talking, they heard a knock on the door. They went to the living room and opened it. Several girls came over with luggage carts. One of them said respectfully, "Mr. Willson, Mrs. Willson, we have prepared some daily necessities and a change of clothes for you. The clothes are all custom-made according to your body measurements. Would you like us to help you arrange your things first? If you have any other needs, please let us know and we will prepare them as soon as possible."

Elaine said with some surprise: “You are so thoughtful. By the way, I came here in a hurry this time and didn’t bring all the cosmetics. Do you have any good skin care products?”

The girl immediately said: “Yes, Mrs. willson, we have prepared the best top-grade caviar skin care set for you.”

As he spoke, he took out a large gift box containing a complete set of skin care products from one of the boxes.

“Oh my god.” Elaine said in surprise: “You prepared such good skin care products for me? You are so generous!”

The girl smiled and said, “This is all Mr. Ye’s instructions.”

Elaine was delighted and asked her, “How long does this set last? If it lasts for a long time, I will use it sparingly.”

The girl explained, “There’s no limit. Tell me anytime you run out and I’ll refill it for you.”

Elaine widened her eyes and said, “Then... then can I learn to use cream and essence to fill my skin?!”

The so-called skin infusion means using facial cream and essence as a facial mask.

If you normally use a lotion as big as your fingernail to wipe your face, you need to use a lotion as big as a quail egg for skin care.

A bottle of facial cream that costs tens of thousands of yuan can be used for half a year if you use it sparingly, but if you use it on your skin, it can only be used five or six times at most.

Although Elaine’s life is relatively relaxed, it is not to this extent, so she sees people posting various scientific notes every day, but she has always been reluctant to waste it.

Now that she heard that there was no limit on the quantity of these and they could be replenished after use, she immediately thought of this use that she had always been reluctant to give up.

Jacob couldn’t help but ask, “By the way, can I get a refill of the Cohiba in the humidor after I finish smoking it?”

“Of course, sir,” the girl said respectfully. “The cigar cabinet in the room, as well as the wine cabinet, soft drink cabinet, and snack cabinet in the living room, are all equipped with weight sensors. If we detect they’re out of stock, we’ll restock them immediately. You can use them without worry.”

Jacob was also surprised for a moment.

He had never experienced such a relaxed life before.

At this time, Claire did not choose his own room, but walked out of the first floor of the villa alone and went to the beach not far from the sea. He sat on the ground with his knees hugged, staring at the green sea in a daze.

Sun Simi came over and said respectfully, “Mr. willson, my uncle and aunt are settled in. Would you like to go and see the rooms? We still have a few bedrooms to choose from.”

Claire shook his head: “I don’t care, I can live in any room.”

Sun Simi said, “We have prepared a lot of daily necessities and clothes for you and your uncle and aunt. Once you choose a room, I will have someone deliver it to you.”

Claire said calmly: “You can arrange it. I want to be alone and quiet.”

Sun Simi nodded in understanding and said, “Okay, Mr. willson, then you stay alone for a while. I’ll go and help you make arrangements. It’s almost time for dinner. I’ll come and call you in an hour. What do you think?”

Claire nodded slightly: “Okay, go ahead and get busy.”

Sun Simi said goodbye respectfully and left, leaving Claire sitting alone on the beach in a daze.

charlie Wade was almost the only thing on her mind. Looking at the endless sea, she couldn’t help but whisper, “charlie Wade, I really hope that I can meet you again in this life...”
