

The Amazing Son in Law Chapter (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2601

Claire's words made Charlie couldn't help but feel a warm current in his heart.

Over the years, Claire has given him too much tolerance. Even when he was accused by thousands of people a few years ago, Claire never complained about him, let alone the idea of divorcing him.

Now, Claire said this from the bottom of his heart, which moved Charlie even more.

However, he knew very well that Claire did not know his identity, his current wealth, and the ocean transportation project he planned.

He estimated that Claire should feel that he wanted to be a small-scale studio when he started his own business. He didn't know what he was going to do was a large project with a unit of tens of billions.

Charlie didn't want her to worry too much, so he smiled and said, "Okay, just listen to his wife. I don't want to start a business anymore. Concentrate on doing the work at home!"

Claire was relieved and said with a smile. "Okay, anyway, my current career has made a big improvement, and I will be responsible for raising my family in the future."

Charlie said seriously, "But don't be too tired, my wife. The Emgrand Group project is too big. If you are too busy, you can do less, or subcontract out to other companies."

"That's not good." Claire said seriously: "Vice Chairman Doris Young gave me such a big project, that's right. My trust, how can I fail others? I must do my best for this project."

After speaking, she checked the time and said, "I have to go out quickly. If you are a lazy pig, Thinking of it, just sleep for a while."

Charlie sat up, stretched his waist, and said, "I won't sleep anymore."

Claire nodded and said, "Then you go wash first, I change my clothes and go to the company. . the "

Charlie busy:" Do not forget the meal before you go. "

Claire waved his hand: "I won't eat at home. I'm wasting time. I will order a meal and deliver it to the company directly. When I arrive at the company, the meal will arrive."

Charlie sighed helplessly, "Well, then. Pay attention to yourself, don't get tired."

Claire smiled and said, "Don't worry, I know."

Charlie remembered the thing that Matilda "adding ingredients" to the millet porridge yesterday, and suddenly he had an idea and blurted out. "By the way, my wife, the genius doctor has prepared a prescription that can relieve fatigue. Should I go back and prescribe you some prescriptions for you to eat?"

Claire looked a little worried, and said diligently: "It's Chinese medicine. Isn't it? I'm most afraid of drinking Chinese medicine. It's really bitter, can I not drink it..."

Charlie said hurriedly, "Don't worry, it's not a decoction, it's a honey pill made into small particles, like "Magic pills."

Claire breathed a sigh of relief and said with a smile: "That's good... as long as it is not boiled into a decoction."

Charlie nodded: "Then I will go to the genius doctor in a moment. Let's go and get you back. You won't be so tired after eating a little every day."

"Okay." Claire smiled sweetly, "Thank you, husband, I'm leaving now!"

Claire Then he drove away from home in a hurry, Charlie took out his mobile phone and called Doris Young after a brief wash.

Regardless of whether Doris Young is allowed to do the ocean shipping business, he needs Doris Young to give him some advice.

After all, Doris Young is a professional management talent and has more experience in this aspect than Charlie.

The call was connected, and Doris Young's voice came: "Master, why are you calling me so early?"

Charlie asked her, "Doris, are you still in Hong Kong?"

"Yes." Doris Young said, "What happened in Hong Kong? It's finishing, it's almost over. If you find me in a hurry, Master, I can fly back at noon as soon as possible."
