

The Amazing Son in Law Chapter (Charlie Wade)

CHAPTER 2618

After a while, he waved his hand and said helplessly: "Forget it, forget it, it's a shame to talk about it, I don't have the face to tell others."

Seeing his pain on his face, Charlie comforted: "Professor Hank, In fact, you don't have to be too angry. It's normal for young people to be rebellious. And as far as I know, geniuses in many fields are somewhat rebellious in character. Perhaps the more such a child, the stronger independence. Thinking, the more you can do some earth-shattering big things.

Hank suddenly covered his chest and said angrily: "You don't know how rebellious this stinky girl is! She wants to just go to Syria, I will bear it. Forbearance, after all, although the place is chaotic, it is generally a civil strife, and it is still relatively friendly to Chinese and overseas Chinese, but this girl, she, she.

Even talking about her, Hank suddenly got stuck again.

He blushed and became angry at her for a long time before he let out a long sigh and said dejectedly: "This stinky girl, I told her the year before, she is now a big and young, it's time to find someone to marry and have children, you know she told me What am I?"

Charlie shook his head with a look of doubt, but asked a little curiously: "What did she say?"

Hank said depressedly: "She actually told me that she doesn't like men!!! Tell me, A slim girl of twenty-seven or eighteen years old, she didn't want to find someone, she said she didn't like men and women! Isn't this going to piss me off?"

Charlie didn't expect it to be such an answer, embarrassing "Professor Hank, I think she might be joking with you deliberately. After all, you also said that she has always been rebellious. You let her go east and she will go west. Maybe she didn't really want Going west, I was just acting and deliberately pissing you off. Hank covered his face and said, "Hey! I thought so at the beginning, but who would have thought that she brought her girlfriend to the house last year and told me Planning to get married with his girlfriend in a few years.

Charlie couldn't help but marvel when he heard this.

Hank sighed depressed at this time: "You said that I only have such a child in my life. If she really married a girl, how can I go to see the ancestors and ancestors?"

After that, he hurriedly looked at Charlie. Seriously said: "Charlie, uncle, this is all up to you. This girl can't communicate with me now. She won't listen to what I asked her to do. You help me get her to Aurous Hill and make her honest You really work here, as long as you can help me do this, uncle, I will definitely repay you in the future!

Charlie hurriedly said: "Professor Hank, you are serious, you are my mother's classmate and friend. It's my elder, even if you don't do anything for me, I will do my best to help you. "

Charlie said, and then said: "Professor Hank, how about this? Give me your daughter's contact information, and I will communicate with her to see if she is interested in my work.

'That's great!' Hank slapped his chest and said, "Don't worry, although I'm a daughter and I'm not very reliable when I get along with me, she's still very, very responsible in doing things."

From her point of view, this girl is indeed an individual talent. If she comes to help you, plus my backing support, I believe it will definitely help you do the transportation business in Shenyang. Therefore, if she is advised to come to Aurous Hill this matter, Thank you so much.

Charlie nodded and said seriously: "Professor Hank, don't worry, I will try my best."

Hank waved his hand hurriedly and said seriously: "Hey! Don't call Professor Hank such a student, call Uncle Hank!"

Charlie smiled slightly, said : "Okay, Uncle Hank."

Hank took out his cell phone and said to Charlie, "Come on, let's add a WeChat account. When the matter is finished, I will push her WeChat business card to you. When you add her, don't say it was recommended by me, just say that you happened to see her. I am interested in cooperating with her in depth on papers in financial journals. With that, Hank said with some embarrassment: "This girl is a little arrogant, you should praise her a lot. If you can't find her, this matter It's half done!"
