

The Amazing Son in Law Chapter (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2621

Charlie Wade didn't expect Ziva to reject him as soon as he brought the cooperation up. However, it's impossible for him to so easily admit defeat. His response was swift:

[I thought you were in the United States, why are you now in Syria?]

Ziva replied:

[Some of my college classmates and I came together to make a movie. It's a documentary about war. We're prepared to use the documentary as an opportunity to launch an anti-war charity fund.]

Charlie Wade hurriedly said: [If Miss Hank is interested in an anti-war charity fund, I can personally donate a large sum of money: If you're able to cooperate with me for a period of time, then I can donate 30 million U.S. dollars to your charity fund.]

Charlie Wade said again:

[To be honest with you, a financial genius like you shouldn't be in Syria, shooting war documentaries. Professional talents should do professional things, not make documentaries. Leave that to a professional documentary team. Financial talents like yourself should do everything possible to create more jobs and wealth for society.]

Ziva Hank replied:

[Mr. Wade, what you've said makes sense, but to be honest, the situation in Syria is very dangerous. Even many professional documentary filming teams are unwilling to go deep into the conflict and film from the front lines of war.

We've also seen some the European and American documentary team's methods of filming. They generally try to stay as far from the front line as possible. Their shooting angles are also very narrow, and don't show the full impact of war. They praise and glorify the war!

It is impossible for people outside to realize how cruel wars are when events are filmed by such people, it makes it impossible for people living in a peaceful age to realize the meaning 'of anti-war.']

Charlie Wade said immediately:

[Miss Hank, would you consider this? I can personally sponsor your team 20 million dollars to better help your team shoot this documentary, but I only have one request. Miss Hank, you can't stay in Syria anymore. The money goes to your team, but you have to come to Aurous Hill to help me establish my ocean transportation business. What do you think?]

Charlie Wade just finished saying this, and Mr. Hank on the side immediately pointed at him, thumbs up, and praised: "A good way to turn the tiger away from the mountain!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I'm not turning the tiger from the mountain, I'm turning a lamb away from a wolf pack."

Ziva Hank's response came through, interrupting Charlie Wade and Uncle Hank's conversation:

[Leave my team!?! We all promised one another that none of us would back down.]

Charlie Wade smiled and said:

[It's not about backing down, it's about giving your team a better choice.]

With that, Charlie Wade deliberately changed the subject and asked her:

[Miss Hank, how is your life going in Syria? Do you have adequate supplies and personal safety guarantees?]

Ziva Hank replied:

[It's been pretty difficult being deep in the middle of a war. We're severely short on supplies, but as for our personal safety, the government sent a few soldiers to protect us. Overall, we're relatively safe.]

Mr. Hank on the side was relieved when he heard this.
