

The Amazing Son in Law Chapter (Charlie Wade)

CHAPTER 2629

What made Charlie feel a little surprised was that Lord Banks would even look for people who watched Feng Shui to investigate him.

Although the old man said vaguely on the phone just now, the key points he mentioned still have very clear directions.

For example, he said that he is only responsible for reading, calculating, and correcting. This is the way of a Feng Shui master.

The role of a Fengshui master is, in a larger sense, like the prime minister of the ancient country. He can discover the problems of Jiangshan Sheji and can provide solutions to the problems, but he is not a military commander, cannot kill people, and cannot lead soldiers to fight.

Perhaps, thousands of people will die because of the prime minister's words, but the prime minister's own hands are never bloody.

Of course, not all prime ministers in history are honest gentlemen, so in Feng Shui masters, there are naturally those who seek wealth and kill lives.

However, in Charlie's view, the old man in front of him seemed to be persistent.

It was his attitude that made Charlie decide to wait and see for the time being and let him go.

Otherwise, he will choose to start first.

Mai didn't know that the true dragon fate he was looking for was actually in the same restaurant with himself.

Since they arrived early and the food was served early, when Charlie and Hank first started to eat their food, he and Mike had already settled the bill, and the grandfather and grandson left the restaurant together.

Charlie didn't put too much energy on the two grandparents, but kept asking Hank about his mother's deeds back then.

For a long time, Charlie only understood the side of her mother as a wife and mother, but didn't know what she looked like on the other side.

Now, through Hank's introduction, he can finally make the image of his mother in his memory more three-dimensional.

After eating a meal for more than an hour, Hank has been talking endlessly about Charlie's mother Ava's deeds back then, and Charlie has never tire of listening, and even wished not to go all day, just sitting here and listening to him. Say.

Hank's voice was smoking, and it was not too early again, so he drank his mouth water and said to him: Oh, what happened to your mother back then, it may not be possible to finish it in a few months. Let me stop here. I still have class in the afternoon, so I have to go back early. When Charlie heard this, he said hurriedly: "Okay Uncle Hank, then I won't interrupt your work this afternoon.

Hank nodded and exhorted: "I know the situation there, you must help me pay more attention. Once she has any news, don't worry about how late, you have to tell me the first time, please. "

Charlie agreed without hesitation: "Uncle Hank rest assured, I will notify you as soon as I have news!

Hank said , "Thank you so Much!" When the two came out of the hotel, Hank asked Charlie: "Charlie, what are your arrangements for the afternoon?

Charlie said: "I'll go to Shangri-La and meet someone. "

Charlie plans to go to Shangri-La to see Isaac Cameron. Since Lord Banks wants to find out and kill him now, he will definitely have other tricks. He must take precautions in advance, and at the same time, he must find opportunities to kill them before the trouble occurs. So many places still need Isaac Cameron's cooperation.

Hank didn't think too much, and said: "Then I will go back to school first, let's keep in touch!"
