

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2787

Throughout Aurous Hill, many people were thinking about Stefanie Sun's concert.

Among them, the eldest master of the Banks Family, Fitz.

At this time, Fitz did not know the news that his mother and sister were safe.

He was still at the Aurous Hill Olympic Center and was constantly communicating with the venue about the small details of the concert.

In fact, his company is just the sponsor of Stefanie Sun's concert. Generally speaking, this kind of sponsor only needs to pay for it.

The real performance scheduling, stage construction and promotional materials are all matters of Stefanie Sun's own management company.

He has no relationship with half a dime.

However, he quietly reached a cooperation with the venue.

The venue clearly leased the venue to Stefanie Sun's agency for the concert. However, Fitz had already bought it back and took Fitz's money. , Prepare surprises for Stefanie Sun everywhere in the venue.

Fitz tried his best to pursue Stefanie Sun.

Originally, he wanted to directly buy all the advertising spaces in Shangri-La, but Isaac refused.

So he reached a cooperation with the venue and directly rented all the billboards in the venue, including several large LED advertising screens outside the venue, which he quietly rented.

On the day of Stefanie Sun's concert, these advertising screens will display courtship posters carefully prepared by Fitz.

In addition, he also specially customized tens of thousands of lucky bags, which contained glow sticks, light signs and

T-shirts specially for Stefanie Sun's support.

These are all made by Fitz from the best manufacturer.

In addition to these items to be used in the lucky bag, there is also a color poster.

The content printed on the poster is consistent with the courtship poster that Fitz wants to put on the big screen.

However, Fitz did not reveal his name in the courtship poster.

He signed himself in the poster as Mr. B, who loved Stefanie Sun.

The letter B is naturally the first letter of Fitz's surname.

He believed that when Stefanie Sun saw the content of the courtship poster, she would be able to guess that she did it, but other people would definitely not think of her.

In this way, he would be able to confess to Stefanie Sun under the witness of thousands of people, but at the same time, he would kill two birds with one stone without revealing his identity.

Moreover, he felt that he took such pains to express his love to Stefanie Sun in such a grand manner, Stefanie Sun would definitely be moved by then.

What's more interesting is that in order to cause a sensation, Fitz specially prepared millions of cash, according to the ticket price of each seat of the concert, put the corresponding cash into this seat. In a lucky bag.

This is a way for him to please Stefanie Sun's fans.

In his opinion, he passed, and tens of thousands of spectators showed their love to Stefanie Sun.

Naturally, it would not arouse the disgust of these tens of thousands of spectators.

So in his opinion, spending money is the best solution.

Anyway, I will reimburse you for the money you watched the concert.

I wooed my goddess through the concert. What can you say?

This kind of behavior, in the eyes of others, may not be any different from being taken advantage of, but to Fitz, this amount of money is not even a fart. .

After so much preparation, Fitz still felt that it was not enough.

He instructed his assistant: "By the way, I must find the marketing team when the time comes.

When the concert audience starts to enter the venue, I will make this a hot topic for me.

It must be published on Weibo and short videos. Take the top spot on the platform!"

The assistant said without hesitation: "Master, don't worry, buying hot searches and hot topics are familiar to our team.

It's nothing more than spending a little money. I will help you realize it when the time comes."
