

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3069

Rishab was buzzed by this slap in the face.

The brutal force just now was directly slapped out of the sky by the two slaps.

He was born with a golden key. He has never been beaten since he was a child. He was slapped in the face as soon as he got off the plane today, and he was choked on his face. This feeling made him feel like he was dead.

At this moment, he was like a rooster surrounded by wolves.

In the face of such a large number of fierce and violent men, he was already shocked.

The bodyguard has long been useless, and now he is completely reduced to the opponent's plaything, so he can only tentatively ask: "Brothers, is there any misunderstanding in this..."

After all, I clearly saw hundreds of beauties waiting to be picked up on the video just now, but after I came out, I found that there was no one beauty, and there were hundreds of rascals. This look was not quite right!

"No misunderstanding!" The man pinching his face said coldly: "We are all your fans, and love you so much. I heard that you are coming to Aurous Hill, so we rushed over to greet you, how about us? Is this pick-up lineup still satisfactory?"

Rishab said with a sad face, "Big brother, don't be joking...I am such a person, there is nothing that elder brothers like. If there is something wrong with my younger brother, please say, I will change it, but it really didn't. I have to play with me like this..."

The man smiled and said, "Oh, brother smelly said that is too far-fetched. We came all the way to greet you, of course, because we adore your musical talent. In addition, we also prepared a rich reception banquet for you, and the time is almost the same. Come, hurry over!"

After speaking, he winked at the other strong man beside him, the two of them looked at each other and smiled, and immediately bent down, one of them carried Rishab on one leg, and directly carried Rishab up.

Afterwards, a large number of strong men walked out surrounded by Rishab who was lifted up. A group of people followed and shouted, and the scene was very spectacular.

The assistants and bodyguards accompanying Rishab were all frightened. Seeing that his young master was kidnapped in this way, he didn't know for a moment whether he should follow up or stand still. After all, there were a large number of each other, and one by one. They don't seem like good people. If this really provokes the opponent, wouldn't it be a pebble hitting a rock?

Just when this group of people hesitated, the remaining dozens of strong men directly surrounded these people and pushed them out of the airport's business jet terminal.

When Rishab was carried out, he realized that something was wrong!

Because there are no passengers at the gate of the terminal, the terminal itself is also very small, not as large as a railway station in a small city.

Immediately afterwards, he found the magnificent main terminal building not far away. The main terminal building is not only large in scale, but also has a surging traffic at the door, and there are also many passengers coming in and out.

At this moment, he immediately realized that from the moment he got off the plane, he was completely calculated by others!

He couldn't help but wondered: "Could it be that Wandy shaved me up? Damn, this woman is so brave, even I dare to play?!"

"No! It should not be Wandy, because I originally planned to leave the airport from the main terminal, and the three hundred female fans who were greeted were also waiting for me to appear in the main terminal..."

"But the people at the airport took me to the business jet terminal..."

"Damn it! No wonder the windows of that shuttle bus are all sealed, just don't want me to see that it was pulled to the corporate jet building! It's clear that I'm trying to trick me!"

"Who is so bold that even I dare to play?! Could it be the dog that the Wade Family placed in Aurous Hill?! He is just a subordinate of the Wade Family, how dare to do it directly on me?!"

When Rishab was puzzled, a group of strong men had already stuffed him into a bus.

The most damn thing is that in the bus with more than forty seats, he didn't reserve his place at all. All the seats were filled with fierce and brawny men, and he was thrown into the bus along with his assistant and bodyguard. In the long narrow aisle.

As soon as they got in the car, the attitude of the evil guys changed immediately. One of them immediately said to several people: "Oh, please hand over your phone, or don't blame me for being polite!"

Rishab was nervous and asked subconsciously: "Are you from the President Isaac from Shangri-La?"

The strong man who had slapped him before said coldly, "Where do you have so many problems? Where's the phone? Get it out for me!"

While trembling, Rishab handed the phone over, and bit his head and said: "You...you are kidnapping! Even Mr. Isaac can't do this in broad daylight?! What's more, I am Rishab. My eldest master, have you considered the consequences of doing this?"

The brawny man took the phone and said contemptuously: "To tell you the truth, we don't bother to care who you are. As long as you come to Aurous Hill, it's a tiger, you have to lie on your stomach, and a dragon, you have to hold it! Are you arrogant?"

When Rishab saw him say this, he guessed that the other party must have been sent by Isaac Cameron, and blurted out: "My father is still very familiar with your Wade Family. Cynthia Wade from your Wade Family is old classmates with my father for many years. No, let me call my dad and ask him to communicate with Aunt Wade. If there is any misunderstanding, it would be better to just talk about it."
