

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3242–3243)

Taking advantage of this happy day, the two families can just get together to eat a meal and completely relieve the previous suspicion, what do you think?"

After listening to her, Charlie said with a sneer: "I don't want to have anything to do with you anymore.

My family is the same, so you don't want to play this wishful thinking."

With that said, in order to completely put an end to the old lady's thoughts, Charlie seriously warned: "Today's matter and the matter that I gave etiquette company to Wandy to take care of, if you dare to disclose it to Claire, or my father-in-law Mother-in-law, I'm sorry, I will take everything back!"

As soon as Lady Wilson heard this, her heart suddenly trembled.

She knew that Charlie was aware of his intentions.

For the old lady, she learned that Charlie was Wandy's nobleman. He realized that not only did Charlie have no thunderstorms, but even his ability and influence were far above his previous cognition, after realizing this.

The old lady began to worry about taking the opportunity to repair the relationship with Charlie's family.

In this way, the benefits that she would get in the future would be much more than it is now.

But she didn't expect that she was thinking about it. Seeing through Charlie, Charlie not only rejected him, but even blocked his chance to find Claire, Jacob and even Elaine Curve to save the country.

At this time, she felt 10,000 regrets in her heart: "Hey! I knew that Charlie could have such a great ability.

Why did I keep targeting him and targeting their family of four? Everyone is offended and dead, and it seems that there will be no chance to repair the relationship in the future..."

Seeing that the old Lady Wilson had a weird expression, Charlie asked without a word, "Do you understand what I said just now?"

"I understand..." How dare the old lady disobey Charlie, after all, Wandy's current job is to guarantee the survival of her family of four, if he offends Charlie, there is absolutely no good end.

So, she nodded sadly and said, "Okay...I see..."

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said: "You know it, remember what I said just now.

From now on, the water in the well will not be offended by the river!"

After speaking, he looked at Wandy again and said, "You take her back."

Wandy nodded lightly, and said obediently: "Good brother-in-law, I will take grandma back."

After that, he helped the old Lady Wilson and said: "Grandma, let's go home."

Old Lady Wilson is like a cock that has been defeated in a fight. Nodded lightly.

Seeing this, Charlie closed the courtyard door directly and stepped back to the villa.

Outside the door, as soon as the old Lady Wilson turned to leave, she saw the Hermès bag Wandy was holding. The bag was not big, and there was an Hermès box inside.

So, she subconsciously asked: "Wandy, why did you still buy Hermès?

Our family's current economic situation, how can we afford this luxury!"

Wandy suddenly said in a flustered manner: "Ah, this...grandma...this is what I bought for someone else, so just leave it alone..."

"Bought it for someone else?!" Lady Wilson suddenly said angrily: "Now the whole family is saving money.

I also hope that your dad and your brother will get better soon and can go out to work and subsidize the family.

But you Fortunately, I just made some money and started buying luxury goods as gifts?!

Are we a family that can give away other people's Hermes like that?"

As she said, she reached out and grabbed the bag, took out a small ticket, exclaimed: "! A belt is nearly ten thousand yuan?! Are you crazy?!

I almost can't get enough food, still There is a poor burn bag here, so hurry up and return it to me!"
