much contact with each other. In addition, Charlie's mother has passed away, and An's family and Charlie have been alienated For many years, if you want them to recognize their relatives again in the future, you really need a bond, and you are naturally the best person for that bond!"

"And this time kagura is looking at Anjia's face. Coming to make you a wedding dress is a very good breakthrough opportunity in itself. If you go to the United States this time and visit kagura, everything will come naturally."

Stefanie Sun nodded suddenly, and said hurriedly: "Okay Dad, I see."

At this time, Charlie and his wife Claire had already returned home.

Claire, because he still couldn't accept Stefanie Sun's sudden withdrawal from the music scene permanently, while holding his mobile phone to participate in the new top-searching activity on Weibo, thousands of fans jointly asked Stefanie Sun to stay in the entertainment circle.

When she was busy swiping her mobile phone for help, Charlie came to the yard alone and called Orrin Sun.

He knew that Orrin Sun would leave Aurous Hill and return to home tonight. But at the concert just now, because his wife was there and there were too many people, he didn't have much communication with Orrin Sun. So I called him quickly, wishing him and Angie all the best.

After the phone was connected, Orrin Sun smiled and said, "Charlie, are you home now?"

Charlie hurriedly said, "Yes, Uncle Orrin (Sun). I'm already home, where are you and Aunt Angie? Have you set off for the airport?"

"Yes." Orrin Sun said with a smile, "We are already on the road, and it just so happens that the nun and nun have to go back with us tonight, so our family of three will go together."

"Huh?" Charlie asked in surprise: "The girl has gone too? She was so tired just after the concert, why didn't she take a rest and go back?"

Orrin Sun smiled and said, "I and your Aunt Angie also advised her to do the same, but this child has to come back with us, saying that there is nothing wrong here, so I can take a good rest when I go back."

Charlie felt a little empty in his heart, and said helplessly: "Well then, you tell her, after landing, send me a WeChat."

“Okay.” Orrin Sun said: “Charlie, it’s late, so you should rest earlier.”

Charlie said with shame: “Uncle Orrin (Sun), I’m really sorry, you and Aunt Angie have tossed over so far today. I didn’t entertain you, and I couldn’t go to the airport to see you when you left.”

Orrin Sun casually laughed and said: “It’s okay, it’s all a family, don’t be so polite, and it won’t take a month, you will come to Eastcliff to participate in the ancestor worship ceremony of the Wade Family, then you will be living at your uncle’s house, let’s The two of you have a few more drinks.”

“Okay.” Charlie agreed without hesitation. Going back to participate in the ancestor worship ceremony, he had already promised his grandfather before. Since he has already promised others, he naturally has to fulfill his promise.

However, Charlie didn’t want to have too much contact with the Wade Family, so he didn’t plan to live in the Wade Family.

Otherwise, if you lower your head and look up, you can see your aunt Cynthia Wade, not only will she be upset, but also upset.

If you live in Orrin Sun’s house by then, it will naturally be much more convenient.

Seeing Charlie’s promise, Orrin Sun immediately said very happily: “Then let’s say that. When you set off for Eastcliff, tell your uncle in advance!”
