

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3344-3345

So he said to the soldier angrily: "Young man, can I discuss something with you?"

The soldier looked at him warily and asked, "What do you want to do?"

Zayne opened the mouth and said, "I want a pair of earplugs for noise isolation, so that when you go back and open the mountain, my influence will be smaller!"

"No!" The soldier gave him a blank look, took out a crumpled pile of toilet paper from his pocket, threw it from the wall to the foot of Zayne, and said: "You can make do with this!"

"F*ck." Zayne said with a gloomy look: "This is the fuck, and what the hell do you use the rest of the toilet paper? Why is it so disgusting? Could it be you who finished it? Is it in your pocket?"

"You fart!" The young soldier flushed with anger and blurted out: "I pulled off a piece and put it in my pocket when I came to change the guard. You don't have to, don't use it, stop talking nonsense there!"

After listening to Zayne, he bent down suspiciously, pinched the edge of the pile of toilet paper very carefully, spread it out a little bit and found that it hadn't been used before he breathed a sigh of relief, and put the toilet paper into his pocket.

He is not afraid of other people's jokes when he speaks it out. He has never used such soft toilet paper since he came from Syria.

Seeing him put his toilet paper in his pocket, the soldier said with contempt: "Okay, I don't bother to talk nonsense with you, hurry up and get back to your house!"

Zayne was also upset, turned his head and was about to go back, when suddenly the entire base sounded a harsh air defense alarm.

Zayne is still very sensitive to the sound of air defense sirens. Although he has not personally experienced wars, Eastcliff used to conduct air defense drills in the past, so as soon as the movement came out, he nervously questioned the soldier: "What's the matter? The enemy came air strikes Up?"

The soldier was also very nervous and blurted out: "The air defense alarm is not necessarily an air attack. Our commander has stipulated that as long as the enemy is found within 30 kilometers of the vicinity, the air defense alarm will be sounded!"

"F*ck..." Zayne panicked. He can't remember how many dirty words he said today. He only knows that once Hunter (Hamid)'s base is attacked, he will face danger to his life. The bullets and shells are not long. Well, if a shell is bombed down and blows up to death, who do you want to make sense?

At this moment, a voice suddenly came from the soldier's walkie-talkie. The soldier immediately picked it up and listened for a while, then immediately jumped off the wall, grabbed Zayne's collar, grabbed him, and walked outside. Said: "A large number of government troops were found 30 kilometers south of the base. It is estimated that war will begin! You must follow me up the mountain!"

Zayne slapped his forehead, and said depressedly: "F*ck...I won't go! I don't know how to fight, why do you let me go up the mountain? The bullet doesn't have long eyes, if I kill it, how can your commander talk to Charlie?"

The soldier blurted out: "Who told you to go to war? I took you up the mountain, of course I took you to hide in the reverse slope tunnel! The commander just issued an order to ask everyone to enter the designated reverse slope immediately within 30 minutes.

Tunnel, if you want to stay here and get a cannonball, then you stay!"

After that, the soldier released him, turned his head and walked out.

Zayne just remembered, isn't the reverse slope tunnel itself a fortification? It is very difficult for the shells to hit the reverse slope. Even if they hit, they won't be able to blast the tunnels dug in the mountains and reinforced with reinforced concrete!

Therefore, if the army really comes, it must be the safest to hide in the tunnel on the reverse slope!

Thinking of this, Zayne hurried to catch up, and said with a face: "Brother brother, don't be angry, can't I go with you?"
