

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3500)

Hearing that Chen was preparing to show off his muscles to the negotiator sent by Hunter (Hamid), the 15,000 soldiers in the entire Wanlong Temple immediately began to prepare quickly as if they were beaten up with blood.

Except for a handful of middle-level and high-level officers in the Wanlong Temple, who were thinking of shame and revenge for their dead brothers, most of the soldiers in the Wanlong Temple had no feelings about revenge at all.

After all, everyone is a mercenary. The whole world gathers to fight side by side in the Wanlong Temple just to make money. Whoever is dead and who is injured does not actually touch them.

The issues they really care about are closely related to them. For example, how much money should be given, whether it is dangerous or not, and whether it is hard or hard.

Others are completely irrelevant and hang up high.

Therefore, they are so interested in showing their muscles at the moment. It's not for a sense of collective honor, but they have long been bored in this place where birds don't shit, just want to end it quickly.

Right now the other party has come to negotiate, seize the time to show off in front of the other party, it is best to frighten them down and let them surrender obediently.

I heard that the government army was for this review. Even more painstakingly, specially drew 20,000 to 30,000 people from other places. These Wanlong Temple soldiers are even more excited. The two sides add up to 50,000 to 60,000. Don't they scare the negotiators sent by Hunter (Hamid)?

As for not allowing live ammunition to be loaded with guns, it is nothing unusual. There are almost no live ammunition inspections in this world. There is only one inspection of live ammunition for the entire army, and that is the Soviet military parade in 1941. Over 100,000 soldiers participated in the military parade. , He immediately set off over there and rushed to the battlefield to defend his country.

In addition, all inspections must ensure that there is no live ammunition. Otherwise, if anyone leaves a bullet in the gun and is killed when the enemy representative arrives, the situation is really out of control.

As a result, the soldiers of the Wanlong Temple consciously removed all ammunition from their guns, and the superiors also issued orders. It is required that officers at all levels must conduct a second inspection and confirmation of the firearms of grassroots officers and soldiers.

At the same time, the government forces are also actively preparing, but they are diametrically opposed to the Wanlong Temple. What they want to confirm is that all weapons and ammunition are on standby at any time.

Subsequently, soldiers from both sides began to line up in a large open space in front of the camp.

The government forces that originally fought side by side with the Wanlong Temple were assembled on the right side of the Wanlong Temple, while the government troops specially drawn from various places were arranged to assemble on the left side of the Wanlong Temple. At the same time, a large number of armored vehicles all lined up and parked in front, which is equivalent to wrapping the 15,000 people in the Wanlong Temple as dumpling stuffing.

However, the soldiers in the Wanlong Temple did not feel any abnormality.

Chen walked out of the negotiation room under Charlie's instruction.

He came directly to the front of his soldiers, with his hands behind his back, and repeatedly emphasized the sentence: "Everyone listens! We must show our strongest posture, and strive to suppress the enemy from the momentum!"

All the mercenaries in the Wanlong Palace responded one after another, standing tall and upright.

At the same time, they also despise the government forces on the left and right. These guys, one by one, don't look like a soldier.

But who could have imagined that when the army was assembled and 15,000 soldiers in the Ten Thousand Dragon Palace were waiting for the Hunter (Hamid) negotiator to appear, all government troops suddenly pointed their guns and gunpoints at 15,000. A soldier of the Wanlong Temple. Immediately afterwards, someone shouted with a loud speaker: "All Ten Thousand Dragons Temple soldiers must raise their hands and surrender unconditionally! Anyone who dares to resist and refuses to surrender will be killed!"
