

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3504)

When Charlie returned to Hunter (Hamid) base by helicopter, Hunter (Hamid), who had learned about his return trip in advance, could not wait to come out to greet him.

As soon as Charlie got off the plane, he couldn't wait to step forward and ask: "My scout! My scout said that the drone saw that the government army seemed to have captured all the people in the Wanlong Temple. What is going on?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "The government army has turned against Wanlong Temple. Now all the soldiers in Wanlong Temple have been captured, and they have also agreed to a truce with you. If there are no special circumstances in the future, you try to fight with them Maintain the neutral attitude of the well water not offending the river water."

Hunter (Hamid) was a little stunned, and asked, "Brother...how did they turn their faces with Wanlong Palace? This...this is too sudden..."

Seeing him very horrified, Charlie told Hunter (Hamid) about the incident in detail.

Hunter (Hamid) was stunned when he heard the whole person, and blurted out: "Brother...After you left, I imagined countless possibilities, but I didn't expect such a thing to happen..."

Charlie smiled and said: "I didn't expect that, what I thought was that after I went, I would control Chen , and then force him to escort me and Zayne away, but he didn't expect that when the Wanlong Palace situation was revealed, he would take the initiative to attack. That Said just gave me a chance to kill them all."

Hunter (Hamid) couldn't help but give Charlie a thumbs up, and exclaimed: "Brother , you are really a lot of money!"

With that said, he couldn't help asking Charlie: "Brother, do you really want to truce with the government forces?"

Charlie nodded and said firmly: "Of course, there is a truce. Don't think that you have a strong defense force and a lot of strategic reserves, and when you run out of them, continuing to stand in a stalemate is absolutely not good for you."

Hunter (Hamid) said embarrassingly: "In fact, I am not saying that I must fight them to the end, but I am afraid that they are willing to truce now. It is just a kind of slowing down. manage?"

Charlie said seriously: "I asked you to stop, but I didn't make you surrender.

Once the war ceases, you can continue to expand your armaments and continue to build your defense line, and after the truce, they will definitely not surround you again.

You can resume the transportation of materials, and even hire more construction teams to help you build your base, so that your strength will become stronger and stronger, even if they turn your face someday, you will have more initiative right."

Hunter (Hamid) thought about it carefully, and found that what Charlie said really made sense.

No matter how strong one's strategic reserves are, the days of being besieged by the enemy are always the most dangerous and difficult.

Since the opponent will withdraw troops after the armistice, it is equivalent to giving yourself a chance to breathe, and you must seize this opportunity to continue to improve your defensive capabilities.

So he said excitedly: "Brother, I understand, don't worry, I will go all out to make the base construction more solid!"

Charlie nodded slightly and then said: "I believe it will not be long before Said will personally come over and sign the armistice agreement with you.

I have asked him to send Chen over at that time. When you sign the armistice agreement, I will take it with you. Zayne and Chen have returned to China."

Hunter (Hamid) hurriedly asked: "My brother, are you in such a rush? Don't stay for two more days?"

Charlie waved his hand and said, "No, there are still many things to do when I go back, especially the Ching Ming Festival, which specializes in paying homage to the ancestors of China, is approaching. I want to go back and worship my parents, so I won't delay here."
