Chapter 3527 )

Just when he was puzzled. Suddenly I thought of the records about the quality of the spirit pills in the "Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures".

After the pill is formed, the body shape and color are not even enough, and the aura is very strong, and it is a low-grade pill;

The body shape, color and luster are relatively uniform, but not perfect and uniform, and the aura is relatively strong, it is a middle-grade spirit pill;

The body shape, color and luster are perfect and uniform, and if there is no aura, and it is not strong at all, it is a high-grade spirit pill.

However, if the body shape and color are perfect and even, but there is no aura at all, then it is the best elixirs!

turn out to be. In the system of elixir, the stronger the aura leaked by the elixir, the more proof the quality of the elixir is not good enough.

Because. In the final analysis, the essence of the refining of the spirit pill is only two words, collapse.

Reiki. It is very similar to the universe.

The essence of the medicine collapses into an elixir, the process is like a huge star, and finally it collapses into a small, extremely dense white dwarf star.

The interior of a white dwarf always has an extremely powerful gravitational force, which squeezes all its atoms together to bring its own density to a limit. Under the restraint of this powerful gravitational force, no object can escape from its interior.

The same is true of the best spirit pill.

The best spirit pill has not only reached the limit of the aura's density, but also can firmly lock the inner aura and squeeze the aura into the inner core, and will never leak any aura.

And those spirit pills with insufficient quality can't do this at all.

The aura inside cannot be firmly squeezed and concentrated, let alone locked tightly. Therefore, the aura will continue to dissipate over time, and over time, the aura contained in it will become less and less, and eventually it will completely lose all its effects.

Only the best spirit pill can be preserved for a long time, even for decades or hundreds of years. The efficacy of the medicine will not be affected in any way.

Charlie didn't expect that the first time he tried to refine the spirit pill, he would be able to harvest twenty-five top-grade cultivating pill at a time.

It's just that at this time, he still doesn't know what kind of effect the Supreme Pei Yuan Dan has.

Charlie didn't hesitate to pick up one of them and put it in his mouth, intending to experience the magic of this pill.

What he didn't expect was that as soon as the Pei Yuan Dan entered it, it immediately turned into an extremely powerful and pure aura, which instantly poured into his body.

Originally, the aura in Charlie's body was relatively exhausted, as if a pool of water had dried up and was about to bottom out, and this Pei Yuan Dan was like an upstream dyke that suddenly opened the gate to release the flood, and the amount of water that poured in at once was far more than that. The pool originally had the largest water storage capacity.

Charlie only felt that after the surging spiritual energy poured into his body, he quickly filled his dantian and the eight channels of the odd meridian to the full.

But it's not over yet!

That powerful spiritual energy was extremely domineering, and quickly opened his dantian and meridians like a balloon.

When Charlie felt that the dantian and meridians had almost reached their limit, this powerful aura began to penetrate into the dantian and meridians themselves, quickly increasing the strength of the dantian and meridians by more than one level, and then, more auras began to move towards The enhanced Dantian gathers.

Charlie felt that his dantian had been built into a gas tank by Aura. After a lot of gas was filled in, because the powerful pressure changed from gas to liquid, the capacity became more and more, and the internal pressure became bigger and bigger!

However, this is the case, the efficacy of this Peiyuan Pill has only just played out only half!

The remaining spiritual energy really had nowhere to go, and immediately began to change direction, from the inside of the dantian, began to penetrate into his internal organs, bones, skin and flesh!
