

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3534 )

On the morning of April 3rd of the next day, Charlie simply packed a few pieces of clothes, bid farewell to his wife and father-in-law, and set off again on the journey back to Eastcliff.

This time he did not take the Wade Family's private jet again, but took the Boeing business jet that Orrin Sun gave him, and together with Isaac Cameron, he was ready to set off for Eastcliff.

After boarding the plane, Charlie called Stefanie Sun and told her that she was about to take off and landed at Eastcliff Airport in about an hour.

Stefanie Sun was naturally very happy, and said on the spot to leave immediately and go to the airport to prepare to meet.

And just when the plane had slowly rolled out and was about to accelerate at the end of the runway, Charlie received a call from Lord Wade, the old man.

On the phone, Lord Wade couldn't hide his excitement and asked, "Charlie, when will you come to Eastcliff?"

Charlie said lightly: "I'm on the plane now, and I will take off immediately."

"Great!" Lord Wade said very excitedly: "The entire Wade Family is missing you now! Tonight I will host a banquet at home to entertain all the people in charge of the Wade Family's side and branch families, as well as the Wade Family ourselves. Spokespersons from all over the country and even around the world, I will tell them your identity in front of everyone at that time and let them know that you are the son of Wade family!"

Charlie said, "Forget it, that would be too high-profile, and it doesn't fit my habit as a person."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "I will live in Uncle sun's house today. Tomorrow I will return to wade's house to attend the meeting before the ancestor worship ceremony. The day after tomorrow's ancestor worship ceremony will also be on time. Not participating anymore."

Lord Wade hurriedly said: "Charlie, you are the son of Bruse, my grandson, and the second young master of the entire Wade Family. You must know that your future performance will belong to you young people. In time, you will belong to the Wade Family. The second person, such an important occasion, only once in 12 years, you must seize the opportunity to convince those Wade Family branch members to convince you."

Charlie smiled and said, "No, I don't plan to inherit the Wade Family's fortune. Let others do the things that show up."

As he said, he heard the roar of the aircraft engine and the aircraft had begun to sprint at the end of the runway, and said to Lord Wade: "The aircraft is about to take off. Let's not talk about it. See you tomorrow."

After saying this, Charlie hung up the phone without waiting for wade Old Master to respond.

In fact, he didn't deliberately want to be rude to his grandfather, mainly because he knew what the old man was thinking about.

He knew that the old man definitely wanted him to take the opportunity of this ancestor worship ceremony to officially return to the Wade Family, thus completely abandoning his orphan status in Aurous Hill two decades ago.

But this was unacceptable to Charlie.

Twenty years have passed. In his mind, he is no longer the young master named Charlie from the Wade Family, but he is the orphan named Charlie from Eastcliff.

After all, his parents have been away for nearly 20 years, and the bond between himself and the Wade Family has also been broken for 20 years. In his opinion, it is unnecessary and impossible to forcibly take this bond back.

At this moment, Lord Wade felt a little unhappy when he saw Charlie hung up his phone.

But he still knew why Charlie did this.

He also knew that Charlie didn't want to officially change back to the status of Wade Family Young Master.

If only as a grandfather, he really didn't want to force Charlie when his second son had passed away for so many years and he had finally found the whereabouts of his grandson.

It might not be a good choice to let Charlie live the life he wants to live happily.

In that case, not only is it a good thing for Charlie himself, but for his parents, if some one knew it, it would be very gratifying.
