

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3551)

Seeing that Charlie hadn't come back with him, Lord Wade immediately asked, "What's the matter? What about Charlie? Didn't come back with you?"

Jon was waiting to come back to file a complaint, and when Lord Wade asked him, he immediately complained angrily: "Grandpa, Charlie is too much! We have so many people, so many people come to pick him up. Speaking badly to you! I said to him time and time again, saying that you were at home and waiting for him to go back, and he actually told me who he loved, and he was utterly defiant!"

Lord Wade frowned slightly and asked him, "Where did he go?"

"Go to sun's house." Jon said angrily: "The Stefanie Sun from the sun's family drove to pick him up, and the two of them left together."

Lord Wade nodded lightly, and said calmly, "Go and go. It's a good thing to be close to sun's family."

As he said, he looked at Stephen Thompson and asked, "Stephen Thompson, have you told Chen'er to let him come home anyway tomorrow?"

Stephen Thompson immediately took a step forward. Respectfully said: "Going back to Master, I have already told Master charlie that he will come home on time in the morning."

"That's good." A stone in Lord Wade's heart fell, and he said: "Since he wants to come over tomorrow, then wait for him."

Jon didn't expect that he had just filed a complaint with the old man, saying that Charlie disobeyed his old man, but the old man was not at all angry.

He couldn't help cursing in his heart: "The old man usually pays the most attention to the house rules, but when I get to Charlie, why do you start a dual-track system? If you work with Charlie, you can not abide by the rules and directly disobey him? Why?"

Jon, who was not upset in his heart, immediately said: "Grandpa! There is another thing, I have to ask you to be fair to me!"

Lord Wade frowned: "What's the matter?"

Jon said angrily: "At the airport today, after Charlie met Helena, he actually did some active and frivolous behaviors on Helena!"

Speaking of this, Jon's emotions became more and more excited, and he blurted out: "Moreover, he was still talking about Helena! He was directly scared! Helena was originally going to come back with him, but because I was offended by Charlie and was in a bad mood, so I went back to the hotel early."

Lord Wade couldn't help frowning and asked, "Is this? What's the matter, tell me in detail!"

Jon immediately told the truth about the situation at that time.

Because Stephen Thompson was there, he didn't dare to add too much fuel and jealousy.

However, he felt that Charlie took the initiative to grab Helena's hand and even talked nonsense, which in itself was already very impolite.

Lord Wade did feel a little uncomfortable after listening.

Helena is Charlie's future sister-in-law, and Charlie should naturally keep her distance and take the initiative to touch other people's hands. It is indeed a bit languid.

So, he frowned and asked Jon: "You said Charlie was talking nonsense, what did you say?"

Jon angrily said: "He said that Helena is not doing well. He should pay more attention to something in the near future. He also touched Helena's hand and said that Helena should bite the fingertip of her right middle finger in a critical moment! Isn't this damn nonsense? I have never heard that biting a finger in a sudden illness can help! I think he deliberately wants to take advantage of Helena!"

At this time, Jon's father, Corran Wade, immediately took a step forward and said with a sad face: "Dad! Helena is from the Nordic royal family, and she has more rules and etiquette. If today's events make her feel bad about our Wade Family, she said Maybe our Wade Family is going to cause an international scandal! In that case, our Wade Family will lose face and go abroad!"
