

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3555)

Helena hurriedly asked: "Is it so serious? What exactly is going on?"

"Very serious" Helena's mother said: "The specific situation is very complicated, mainly because she is older, and many organs in the body are on the verge of exhaustion. I heard that she has two or three months left at most. In the past few days, in private, your uncle has begun quietly preparing for your sister's enthronement ceremony."

Helena nodded lightly and said seriously: "If Olivia becomes the throne, it will be a good thing for us. At least she will read about the sisterhood relationship between me and her for so many years, and be nice to my mother."

"I hope." Helena's mother gave a wry smile, and said: "Since your father passed away, the royal family has no longer regarded me as a member of the royal family. If Olivia inherits the general rule, nothing will change. ."

Helena hurriedly said: "When Olivia takes the throne, I will find a chance to talk to Olivia, at least I must restore the standard of living given to you by the royal family every month when his father is alive. If it doesn't work, I'll take You received Huaxia."

"Forget it." Helena's mother said distressedly: "You haven't married into the Wade Family yet. Everything is still unknown. I won't bother you."

Helena sighed and was about to speak when the doorbell rang suddenly.

She said to her mother: "Mom, someone rings the doorbell, I'll go see it."

"Go." Helena's mother warned: "You don't have to worry about me, you must pay attention to your body."

"I know mom."

After hanging up the video, Helena came to the door of the room and observed through the cat's eyes, and found that standing outside the door turned out to be Jon Wade's aunt Cynthia Wade and the Wade Family's housekeeper Stephen Thompson.

She hurriedly opened the door and said politely: "Ms. wade and Stephen Thompson, why are you here?"

Cynthia Wade looked at Helena, stepped forward, grabbed Helena's hand, and said with a smile: "Oh Helena, Jon, his grandfather heard that you are not feeling well, so he told me to come and see you quickly. "

With that, Cynthia Wade asked with concern: "Helena, how is your situation now? Do you want to go to the hospital? If necessary, you can tell me and I will arrange it."

Helena hurriedly shook her head and said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, for your kindness. My body has nothing to do with it. I have not adjusted the jet lag in the past few days. I went to the airport again today, so I feel a little tired. Take a break. It should be fine."

Cynthia Wade nodded and smiled: "Yes, yes. This jet lag is really the most painful thing. We are also worried that if your body does not get enough rest for a long time, you will definitely be overwhelmed. And you know, the day after tomorrow. The ancestor worship ceremony of the Wade Family is about to be held. The Wade Family's ancestor worship ceremony is very cumbersome. It is not an exaggeration to say that it will take a whole day, and then you will definitely be more tired."

Speaking of this, Cynthia Wade said with concern: "So Jon's grandfather asked me to bring a few medical experts from our own hospital, and asked them to do a systematic and comprehensive examination for you first, so as to avoid you. On the day of the ancestor worship ceremony, what symptoms will suddenly occur due to fatigue."

When Helena heard this, her heart suddenly became tense.

She knows her condition very well, and she can't hide it from professional doctors. The doctor only needs to make an electrocardiogram for herself, and through the abnormalities on the electrocardiogram, she can see the huge hidden problems in her body.

The Wade Family suddenly wanted to send someone to do a physical examination for herself, and of course Helena did not dare to agree.

So she blurted out almost without thinking: "Ms. Wade, thank you and Mr. Wade for your kindness, but there is really nothing wrong with my body, so I won't bother you!"
