

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3561)

Now he just wants to avenge his parents, so that his parents can watch.

At this point, Abbas, like Charlie, were both filial sons, both harboring the deep hatred of their parents, and both had a determination to subvert everything and recover everything.

At this time, Abbas stepped out of the room and stood in the courtyard, looking at the dozens of cheap coffins in the courtyard, his eyes full of murder.

At this moment, his capable man, Salmaan, walked up to him and asked, "Hall Master, why haven't you rested yet?"

"Can't sleep." Abbas murmured, and said unwillingly: "If Bruce was still alive, it would be great. I will sit in front of my parents' grave and cut off his head with my hands to comfort them. The spirit of the sky!"

Salmaan hurriedly said: "Hall Master, you don't have to think about it this way. If Bruce lives to this day, wouldn't he live for another 20 years? That's really cheap for him!"

As he said, Salmaan said again: "Furthermore, according to my investigation, Bruce was very tragic when he died. It is said that when the car crashed, all his internal organs were broken by the steering wheel, and his wife was even more miserable. , Stuck in the co-pilot and couldn't escape, and was burned alive."

"Yeah..." Abbas nodded lightly, and said lightly: "I feel a little more comfortable thinking that they died so miserably."

Salmaan said: "Hall Master, if you feel unhappy in your heart, I will now take people to Wade's house with these coffins!"

Abbas waved his hand and said, "This kind of thing, or doing it in broad daylight, can shock everyone. Tomorrow I will not only let the Wade Family realize that the disaster is imminent, but also let all Eastcliff's family know that Manar back then. son is back!"

After all, he stared at the coffins and snorted with disdain: "Tonight, let the Wade Family have one last good night's sleep. At ten o'clock tomorrow morning, carry all these coffins to Wade's house!"

"Yes, the lord!"

The next day, Charlie got up from bed very early.

Today is the plenary meeting before the Wade Family Ancestor Ceremony. All the Wade Family members, including the collateral branches outside, will attend.

If it were yesterday, Charlie still felt it didn't matter, as long as he arrived by himself, it wouldn't be a big deal sooner or later.

But today, for him, the meaning of all this has changed drastically.

If you want to become the Patriarch of the Wade Family, it is especially important for Charlie today.

Because today is the first time he has officially returned from the Wade Family for twenty years.

Therefore, today is very important to him.

Orrin Sun and Angie got up earlier.

Seeing that Charlie came out of the guest room after packing, and wearing jeans and a T-shirt, Angie hurried forward and said, "Charlie, didn't you bring a suit with you this time?"

Charlie hurriedly said: "Auntie Angie, Stephen Thompson told me before that the costumes for the ancestor worship ceremony were uniformly customized by the Wade Family, so I didn't bring them myself."

Angie nodded, and said seriously: "The first time you go back to Wade's house today, what kind of first impression you leave on them is very important. You can't wear too casually and let others look down on you!"

As she said, she pulled Charlie and said with a smile: "Auntie asked someone to customize a suit for you a few days ago. Come and try to see if it fits!"
