

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3590)

“Wanlong Palace?!”

Hearing these three words, Lord Wade’s younger brother Cash Wade shook his whole body into chaff, and said in a panic: “How could it be... how could it be Wanlong Palace...”

After that, he looked at Lord Wade with trepidation and blurted out: “Big brother...you...how could you offend the Wanlong Temple?!”

Lord Wade didn’t know much about the Wanlong Temple at first, but some time ago, the news about the Wanlong Temple was so low that he also knew a lot about the Wanlong Temple.

Although the Wanlong Palace experienced a tragic failure in Syria some time ago, even so, the strength of the Wanlong Palace cannot be underestimated.

There are tens of thousands of elite soldiers in the Wanlong Palace, and all the high-level insiders are martial arts masters. With such strength, some small countries may not be their opponents, let alone a business family like the Wade Family!

Therefore, except for Charlie, everyone present was frightened by the name of Wanlong Temple and their legs became weak.

Lord Wade, who has always been calm, was also a little flustered at this time. He said with a blank look: “I don’t remember any feasts between us and this Wanlong Temple. My Wade Family has been in business for so many years, although there are many assets overseas. But I have never been to a war-torn place to make money... and this kind of mercenary organization are completely two worlds...”

Corran wade was also terrified, and couldn’t help but ask: “Dad, as a mercenary organization with tens of thousands of soldiers, why do they come to trouble us?!”

“I don’t know...” Lord Wade couldn’t help but asked, “Is there any misunderstanding?”

After speaking, Lord Wade asked again: “Have any of you ever had any friction with Wanlong Palace?”

Everyone looked at each other.

They have never dealt with Wanlong Temple.

Even Cash Wade, who lives overseas all year round, has only heard more about the Wanlongdian deeds, but has never had anything to do with the Wanlongdian.

Jon Wade couldn’t help looking at Helena next to him, and couldn’t help asking: “Helena, do you have any conflicts between the Northern European royal family and Wanlong Palace?”

Helena immediately shook her head and said: “Although I have heard of the Wanlong Temple, I have never heard that the royal family has any connection with them. In order to maintain its image in front of the people, the royal family will never have any relationship with organizations in this gray area. Any contact."

"That's really weird..." Jon Wade said nervously: "Ten Thousand Dragons Palace can't come to the door for no reason, they must be targeted!"

Just when the Wade Family were at a loss, Salmaan was no longer ready to give them time to think.

He whispered outside the door: "Listen to me all the people surnamed wade! I will give you ten seconds at the end. If I don't come out again, I'm going to kill!"

When the Wade Family heard this, they were even more panicked.

Everyone looked at Lord Wade and hoped that he, the head of the family, could come up with a solution.

But Lord Wade didn't know what to do at this time.

At this moment, Charlie stood up and said faintly: "Let's go out together. Since the other party has already reached the door, it proves that the Wade Family's nursing home has been resolved by the other party, or all turned over. This house is now It can't provide any protection. Instead of waiting passively here, it's better to go out and see what the other party wants to do."

When the Wade Family heard this, all of them were even more panicked.

They are not martial arts masters. At this time, even if they are hiding in the villa, they feel that their legs are weak, let alone let them go out to face the evil star of the Wanlong Temple.

Lord Wade also felt that it was inappropriate to go out directly, so he said to Charlie: "Charlie, don't be impulsive!"
