

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3603 )

Angie hurriedly said: "Stefanie! You girl, you can't help much when you go. You still stay at home honestly. In case of any accident between me and your dad, you can at least continue our blood. Go down, Mom and Dad can't let you take risks if they say anything!"

"I won't!" Stefanie Sun cried and said, "Whether you agree or not, I will accompany Charlie! If something happens to you tomorrow, Stefanie Sun will never live alone!"

After speaking, she immediately took out her mobile phone and blurted out: "I will call Charlie, if you don't let me go, I will go to Yeling Mountain and wait now!"

Orrin Sun hurriedly said: "Don't call Charlie first! He must have something important to discuss with the Wade Family at the Wade Family now. Isn't it messy if you call him crying now? If you have anything to ask, wait for Charlie. Come back tonight to talk about it!"

Immediately, he said: "You two will wait at home first. I will go out to meet a few people and see if I can find more helpers!"

Angie hurriedly said, "Let me call my natal family too, and see if I can send some people!"

"No need." Orrin Sun shook his head and said seriously: "You have to follow me up to Yeling Mountain. I can't refuse. After all, both of you and my wife have been favored by Brother Wade and Charlie. It is reasonable for both of us. I have to desperately repay this love, but tomorrow, life and death will be unclear. If we really have any accidents, I can no longer explain to your parents, how can I hurt your mother's family again..."

Having said that, he smiled slightly and said softly: "You and your daughter are waiting for me at home!"

Angie hesitated for a moment, so she nodded, and exhorted: "Be careful about everything..."

Although the entire Eastcliff was completely shocked by the incident between Abbas and the Wade Family, it takes time for the message to pass, so cities other than Eastcliff have not received the news yet.

At this time, he was in the office of the chairman of the Moore Group in Aurous Hill.

Jasmine, who was busy with official duties, suddenly received a video call from Ito Nanako.

After the video was connected, Ito Nanako over there, also wearing professional attire and sitting in the office of the chairman of the Ito Group, smiled and asked her: "Sister Jasmine, are you busy these days?"

"Busy... I'm so busy." Jasmine smiled bitterly and said: "Since I took over the Moore Group, I have no time to be busy."

After speaking, she asked, "How about you? Have you had much trouble in the past few days?"

Nanako Ito stuck out her tongue and said with a grin, "Just like you, so busy."

Jasmine smiled and said, "You still send me a video when you are so busy, do you miss your sister?"

"Yes." Nanako Ito said with a smile: "I've been back for the past few days, but I miss Sister Jasmine every day."

As she said, she hurriedly said again: "By the way, Sister Jasmine, have you contacted Charlie these days?"

"No." Jasmine said, "There have been a little more things in the last few days, so I didn't contact Master Wade. What's wrong?"

Nanako Ito hurriedly said: "Sister, it's April 4th today! Tomorrow is the Ching Ming Festival, have you forgotten what we speculated before? Have you paid attention to whether Charlie is still in Aurous Hill?!"

Jasmine suddenly had an epiphany, slapped her head, and blurted out: "Oh! Look at my memory... If you don't remind me, I really want to forget..."

At the beginning, Ito Nanako and Jasmine had speculated about Charlie's identity.

Nanako Ito prefers that Charlie is the young master of Eastcliff Wade Family, but suffers from no real evidence to support it.

She happened to know about the Wade Family Ancestor Ceremony, so she felt that if Charlie went to Eastcliff during this time period, then he must be Wade Family Young Master.

If he didn't go, he might have guessed the wrong direction.

Jasmine has also been very curious about this matter.

But she has been so busy lately that she didn't remember when she was confused.

Now I heard Nanako's reminder that it suddenly dawned on me.

So she hurriedly said: "Nanako, I don't know where Master Wade is now. Should we call him and ask?"

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "That's what I meant, but I am in Japan. If I call to ask where Charlie is, it seems a bit deliberate. If Sister Jasmine asks you, it will be more natural. You can say you want to ask. He eats, or some other reason."

"Okay." Jasmine said with a smile: "Then I'll call Master Wade and ask. When the time comes, I will get back to you as soon as possible."

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "Sister Jasmine, you know me best, then I'll wait for your news!"
