

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3606)

Right now, Ito Yuhiko, who has lost his legs, has already announced his retirement and has handed over the actual control of the Ito family to his daughter Ito Nanako.

However, he didn't immediately become a hand-scraping shopkeeper.

Instead, the former head of the Ito family has become Ito Nanako's current assistant, providing her daughter with some help in judgment and resources.

But Nanako Ito is very capable of working, so most of the time his staff is actually at home.

At this time, he was in his yard in Tokyo, fiddling with some Japanese potted plants with his faithful servant Tanaka.

A servant suddenly ran in with a panic expression and blurted out: "Master, the eldest lady suddenly summoned the four ninja families, so that all the ninjas of the four ninja families will gather at Narita Airport tonight and fly to China!"

"What?!" Ito Yuhiko was dumbfounded, and asked with a look of surprise: "Nanako suddenly summoned so many ninjas to Huaxia for what?"

"I don't know..." The subordinate said in a flustered manner: "There are at least a hundred ninjas in the four major families. The subordinates don't know why the lady is fighting so aggressively, so I should inform you quickly..."

Koichi Tanaka was also shocked, and he said, "President, would you like to make a phone call to ask the eldest lady, she suddenly summoned so many ninjas, it is a bit unusual..."

Ito Yuhiko said, "Tanaka, I am no longer the chairman, so I will change my name in the future."

After speaking, he said: "The current president is Nanako. The Ito family's affairs and all external resources should be determined by her alone. In theory, if she does not take the initiative to tell me about this, I am not. It should be questioned."

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded a little, and said: "What you said is correct, but...this fact is too unusual. If there is no major incident, the eldest lady will never call a ninja, and she will call four at a time. All the ninjas of the Great Ninja family, if they don't grasp well, it is easy for big things to happen..."

Yuhiko Ito sighed and said: "I have already given the long position to Nanako. In theory, I must trust her unconditionally, support and respect every decision she makes. , Has always been the starting point for internal affairs to break up. The Ito family has been able to come to this day. The past presidents have tried their best to avoid such a thing from happening, and I can't set this precedent."

Hiroshi Tanaka hesitated for a moment, then nodded and said, "Your subordinate understands what you mean..."

Yuhiko Ito nodded slightly, and instructed the servant who came to report: "Go ahead, don't tell anyone about this matter."

The servant immediately bowed deeply and shouted respectfully: "Hey!"

After that, he quickly turned and left.

Ito Yuhiko continued to play with the potted plant in his hand, but found that Koichi Tanaka next to him seemed very absent-minded, so he put down the potted plant in his hand and said calmly: "Tanaka, trust Nanako, she will not rashly do anything irresponsible. Decide."

Hiroshi Tanaka said ashamed: "You are right, your subordinates shouldn't worry too much..."

Yuhiko Ito nodded slightly and said with a smile: "Okay, these pots of landscaping must be done today, hurry up!"

"Hi!"

At this moment, Ito Nanako walked in unconsciously, and saw Ito Yuhiko and Tanaka Hiroichi playing with potted plants in the yard, he immediately stepped forward, bowed and said, "Father! Nanako just didn't have your permission. , Summoned all the ninjas of the four major families, and please forgive me!"
