

The Amazing Son In Law (The Charismatic Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3623)

Stephen Thompson was puzzled and said, "Master, if you even defeated the Wanlong Temple, why not take advantage of this excellent opportunity to directly declare your identity and at the same time declare to be the head of the Wade Family?"

Charlie said earnestly: "Except for a large number of people, the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace has no real influence at all. Look at the top Jewish families on Wall Street in the United States, which can control the economy of most of the world and can easily use it. Financial laws ruin a country's twenty years of economic construction. It is true strength that can use Congress to mobilize hundreds of thousands of troops and aircraft carrier battle groups to attack a country."

Speaking of this, Charlie sighed and said: "The Rothschild family, which is all-pervasive in the Western world, is such a giant, so I want to hide it in the dark first and touch them."

"Understood!" Stephen Thompson said immediately, "Tomorrow I will lead people to block Yeling Mountain in advance. No one will be allowed in except the Wade Family and Wanlong Temple."

Charlie asked him: "Stephen Thompson, you are in Eastcliff now, how many people are still available?"

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said, "Back to Young Master, I still have nearly a hundred reliable people under my staff, ready to be dispatched at any time!"

Charlie asked curiously: "Why are there so many? Wanlongdian gave out cruel words this time, didn't they escape?"

"No." Stephen Thompson said respectfully: "We are all people who have received the great favor of your father. We gather together and our greatest wish is to avenge your father! Even if we sacrifice our lives, we don't hesitate to do so. Now some people try in vain. Disturbing the quietness behind your father, we have been prepared to fight to the end, how can we escape!"

After speaking, Stephen Thompson said again: "Among them, you know some people, and some of them are the same people who lurked in the Aurous Hill Welfare Institute and pretended to be employees of the welfare institute. After they withdrew from Aurous Hill in an orderly manner, they all when I returned to Eastcliff, many of them were just like me, they were older, but there were also some who were as young as you, or even younger than you."

Charlie asked puzzledly: "Since they are all my father's old ministry, how can anyone be younger than me?"

Stephen Thompson explained: "Some of them are the orphans rescued by your father, and there are also children of your father's other old men. If it weren't for your father, most of them would have died long ago, including me, our lives, it was all given by your father."

Speaking of this, Stephen Thompson said with emotion: "Your father has been away for so many years. The reason why we did not leave the Wade Family is to wait for you to come back!"

When Charlie heard this, he was not only full of emotion, but also full of admiration and admiration for his father.

One person has been dead for nearly twenty years, and there are still so many people who are willing to die for him. It can be seen that when his father was alive, he was definitely a righteous and great person.

When he sighed, Stephen Thompson had already parked his car at the door of sun's house.

Stephen Thompson got out of the car, opened the door for Charlie, and said respectfully: "Master, take a good rest tonight and recharge your energy. Other trivial matters will be handled properly next time!"

"Okay." Charlie nodded slightly: "Stephen Thompson, you have worked hard, and you can rest well when you go back."

"Thank you Master for your concern!"

After Charlie bid farewell to Stephen Thompson, Stefanie Sun rushed out as soon as he entered sun's house.

She ran up to Charlie with red eyes, hugged Charlie, and choked pitifully: "Charlie, tomorrow I will accompany you to Yeling Mountain!"

Seeing her eyes were red from crying, Charlie couldn't help asking: "What's the matter? You cried like this?"

Stefanie Sun choked and said, "Charlie, you haven't left for a long time today. Dad heard that Wanlong Palace was looking for trouble for you, so he ran outside for a day and asked for help, but no one was willing to help. Dad came back. At that time, the blood pressure high and it couldn't stand anymore..."
