

The Amazing Son In Law (The Charismatic Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3627)

Therefore, they sent Brenden Wade out overnight to buy a batch of filial service, intending to take Yeling Mountain with them.

Their plan is that if the old man really refuses to lose when the time comes, everyone will change their filial obedience on the spot and turn around on the spot, and at the same time agree to all the requirements of the Wanlong Palace.

In any case, fate is the most important thing.

Lord Wade didn't have any confidence in his heart, so he could only summon everyone to Yeling Mountain first and pin all hopes on Charlie.

...

At 6:20, Charlie got into Stephen Thompson's car, and Orrin Sun personally drove another car to Yeling Mountain.

After driving, Stephen Thompson said to Charlie: "Master, last night, Master Jon and Master , as well as your fourth uncle and aunt, all sneaked out quietly. My people were following all the way and found that they were all from different places. I bought in varying quantities."

Charlie snorted and said: "Okay, when I solve the Abbas, I will punish and punish their unscrupulous descendants in front of the ancestors of the Wade Family!"

Stephen Thompson said again, "Master, there's another thing. They are members of the Wade Family's side at Shangri-La. Since yesterday afternoon, they have been escaping one after another, and they have basically run away now."

Charlie nodded lightly, and said indifferently: "This is all expected, it's okay, when I take over the Wade Family, I will settle this account with them carefully."

After speaking, Charlie asked again: "By the way, Stephen Thompson, are these collateral branches still related to the Wade Family in business?"

"Of course." Stephen Thompson said hurriedly, "Most of their business is related to the Wade Group, and most of them are the suppliers or distributors below us. At least half of the profits come from the Wade Group."

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said, "Then it will be much easier. In this society, not many people still care about family honor, so they have to get their necks stuck in their interests to make them obediently submit."

...

It's six forty-five.

The morning after the rain was a bit chilly.

Charlie took Stephen Thompson's car and drove into the gate of Yeling Mountain.

Outside the gate at this time, more than thirty middle-aged men with gray hair, uniformly dressed in black suits, stood in three rows in the middle of the road.

Of these thirty people, it seems that the oldest is in his sixties, and the youngest is in his forties.

They looked solemn and solemn, and at the same time they looked like death.

Stephen Thompson's car approached, and the more than thirty people immediately stepped aside to give way to the sides.

Charlie suddenly discovered that among the thirty-odd people outside, one of them was the former dean of the Aurous Hill Welfare Institute!

The dean's surname is Zhang, who is also one of Stephen Thompson's subordinates. Charlie had to be transferred to the orphanage as the dean not long after he entered the orphanage, and he did not leave until some time ago to work in the post. For nearly two decades.

Recognizing the Dean Zhang, Charlie asked Stephen Thompson: "Stephen Thompson, these are all my father's subordinates back then?"

Stephen Thompson nodded: "Yes, they are all."

Charlie hurriedly said, "Quickly stop."

Stephen Thompson stopped the car immediately.

Before Stephen Thompson came down to open the door for himself, Charlie had already opened the door and walked out.

The crowd outside, seeing Charlie coming, were suddenly surprised and excited, and many of them were already in tears.

"Master! You are back!"

"Master! It's really you..."

"Master..."

Everyone was a little emotional for a while.

Unlike the Dean Zhang of the orphanage, the others have never seen Charlie again for so many years.

Although they knew that Charlie had been living in Aurous Hill, they had never seen him because of the principle of not disturbing Charlie.

However, Charlie looked too much like his father Bruce after all.

Therefore, when Charlie got out of the car, everyone immediately recognized his identity.

Charlie saw these elders all red eyes, and he felt a layer of mist in his eyes.

Immediately, he looked at the crowd, knelt on one knee, clasped his fists in his hands, and said in a very serious voice: "Uncles and uncles, you have worked hard over the years! Please accept Charlie!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 3627