

At School 1331

Chapter 1331 Was It Already That Obvious?

In a high-class private hospital in the suburbs of Baiyun City.

A silver-gray Maybach slowly stopped in the parking space. The door opened, and Ji Haoyu alighted with sunglasses.

It was already late winter in Baiyun City. Ji Haoyu was wearing a suit jacket and a black coat. His short hair had some fine patterns, making him look a little cold today.

After locking the car, Ji Haoyu strode towards the inpatient department.

The old man had revived from the dead and had just woken up a few days ago. The news of his death had long spread. Even if Ji Haoyu clarified it in front of the reporters later, only a few people believed it.

Fortunately, the old man was already awake, so those unnecessary rumors were naturally resolved.

At this moment, a faint voice came from the VIP ward.

“Old Master, take care of your body the most at your age. If anything happens to your body in the future, you can’t ignore it.”

The person who spoke was none other than Wang Yunmei, who had specially come to visit Old Master Ji when she had time.

The old man leaned against the bed. His body was still a little weak, but he looked good. Hearing this, he smiled weakly. “I’ve lived for decades, and I haven’t been idle. Many illnesses accumulate over the years.”

When Wang Yunmei heard this, she couldn’t help but sigh. “My father is about your age, but he rarely falls ill. Old Master, you have to be more careful. Sometimes, these old age illnesses are the most dangerous.”

“You’re right...” The old man smiled and nodded. He looked like he had a good mentality.

At this moment, Ji Haoyu pushed the door open and entered.

“Auntie Mei?”

Seeing Wang Yunmei in the ward, Ji Haoyu couldn’t help but be surprised. Then, he said, “Why are you here?”

This private hospital was in the suburbs, far from the city. It would take more than an hour to drive back and forth.

“Haoyu is here.” Seeing this, Wang Yunmei stood up and said, “I was thinking about Old Master Ji and always wanted to find time to come and see him. I happened to be free today, so I rushed over.”

When Wang Yunmei was hospitalized for liver cancer, Old Master Ji visited her a few times. Wang Yunmei always remembered this in her heart. Now that such a big thing happened to the old man, she naturally had to come.

"Your Auntie Mei suddenly came. I was shocked too," the old man answered. "It's not convenient to come from the city. Don't torment yourself next time."

"No. The taxi driver knew it was here when he heard it," Wang Yunmei said.

Ji Haoyu casually took off his coat. The temperature in the room made his body heat up. He walked to the bed and said, "It's easy to come, but it's troublesome to go back. Taking a taxi in the suburbs depends on luck. It's even harder in the winter."

"Haoyu is right." The old man looked at Wang Yunmei and said, "Let Haoyu send you back to the city later."

Wang Yunmei was about to refuse when she heard Ji Haoyu say, "Coincidentally, I still have to go back to the company later."

Only then did Wang Yunmei nod.

"Grandpa, how do you feel? Do you feel uncomfortable anywhere?" Ji Haoyu immediately sat on the chair by the bed and asked the old man.

The old man tried his best to smile naturally. When he heard this, he shook his head. "I'm fine, but I don't have much strength in my body. However, the doctor said that it's because nutrients were injected on me during my coma and I ate nothing. I'll be fine in a few days."

Ji Haoyu was slightly relieved when he heard this, but he did not forget to remind him, "If you feel uncomfortable anywhere, tell me."

"I know, I know." The old man understood what Ji Haoyu meant. He was afraid that something would happen if he tried to put up a strong front.

Just like this acute heart attack, it had hurt a few times before, but he did not take it seriously. In the end, he almost lost his life.

To be precise, it had already taken his life, which was why everyone was so nervous.

"I'm just lying here feeling uncomfortable. I don't know when I can go home," the old man said.

When Ji Haoyu heard this, he looked at the old man and said as if he was talking to a child, "Don't think about being discharged yet. Before your physical indicators return to normal, you can't go anywhere."

Wang Yunmei smiled when she heard that, but she chimed in, "Haoyu is right, Old Master. The most important thing now is to recover. When you recover, you can naturally be discharged."

The old man was just complaining casually. Naturally, he did not really want to be discharged immediately. He immediately nodded. "I know."

At this moment, Wang Yunmei took the warm water bottle from the bed and stood up. "I'll get some hot water."

"Sorry to trouble you, Auntie Mei," Ji Haoyu quickly said.

Wang Yunmei smiled and left the ward.

After Wang Yunmei left, the old man couldn't help but look at Ji Haoyu and say, "I've heard from your second uncle what happened that night. Is it as evil as he said?"

When the old man suddenly mentioned what had happened that night, Ji Haoyu was slightly stunned.

After being silent for a few seconds, Ji Haoyu took a deep breath and nodded. "Things looked a little strange. Grandpa, you weren't breathing at that time."

"I heard he's Xiao Ai's friend?" the old man asked.

Ji Haoyu nodded without hiding anything. However, he said, "Grandpa, I think we shouldn't pursue this matter. Xiao Ai has her own secrets. If she doesn't want to say it, I won't ask."

The old man naturally understood what Ji Haoyu meant, but no one could help but be curious about such a surprising thing.

Because this was not as simple as treating illnesses and saving people. He heard from his second brother that when he was saved that night, there were twenty-nine candles by the bed and ashes left behind by burning paper.

This made everything suspenseful, as if it summoned a soul.

However, on second thought, Ji Haoyu was right. If not necessary, Xiao Ai would not have asked her friend to help with such a mysterious and powerful power because once word got out, it would cause a huge commotion.

"Don't worry. I've already instructed the family not to tell anyone about what happened that night," the old man said.

Ji Haoyu was not worried because he felt the people present that night would not dare to say it even if they wanted to because everything was too strange.

"How's your progress with Xiao Ai?" The old man suddenly asked about their relationship.

Ji Haoyu was stunned when he heard this. He blinked at the old man inexplicably.

Other than Yuan Ye and Qiu Jiahao, no one else knew that he was pursuing Xiao Ai.

Seeing Ji Haoyu's expression, the old man couldn't help but laugh. "You grew up by my side. Do you think I don't know you? If you didn't like Xiao Ai, you wouldn't have done so many things."

Ji Haoyu's handsome face turned red. Was it already so obvious?

Chapter 1332 The Chosen One

The old man looked at Ji Haoyu as if he had long seen through everything. "Why? Are you embarrassed?"

"No..." Ji Haoyu smiled when he thought of the smile on Jian Ai's face. "We're alright."

These words were a little ambiguous, and the old man raised his eyebrows. "You're already together?"

Ji Haoyu shook his head. "It hasn't reached that stage yet."

Without waiting for the old man to ask, Ji Haoyu said, "But she said that she would consider it carefully. I think..."

As soon as he finished speaking, a trace of shyness filled Ji Haoyu's face. He lowered his head slightly, and even his voice was like bubbles. "She has me in her heart."

The old man's eyes widened when he saw this attitude. He knew his grandson the best. When had he seen Haoyu like this?

It seemed that he truly had feelings for Jian Ai.

"The girl is still young. Know your limits," Old Ji suddenly said.

Ji Haoyu looked up and was about to say something when Old Ji said bluntly, "It's not that Grandpa doesn't agree to you being with Xiao Ai. This girl has her charm. I'm not surprised that you like her."

"But this girl is not an adult yet, after all. There are some things she can do and some things she can't. You know this very well."

These words were quite obscure. Ji Haoyu was so smart that he naturally knew what his grandfather meant.

He quickly explained, "Grandpa, what are you thinking? I naturally won't do anything out of line. Besides, Xiao Ai hasn't agreed to me yet. As long as she agrees to be with me, I'll treat her well."

Seeing Ji Haoyu's anxious look, Old Ji smiled helplessly and said, "Look at you. At the mention of Xiao Ai, you've changed completely. Since you were young, you've never been so concerned about a girl."

"That's good too. You're already twenty-three years old. It's time for you to fall in love."

Ji Haoyu pursed his thin lips and said nothing.

If he had not met Jian Ai, he would not have known how it felt to be tempted by a girl. It was the feeling that others would say when they thought of someone and couldn't help but smile. Their hearts would be filled.

Now, he had experienced it and was deeply infatuated.

On the way back to the city, Wang Yunmei sat in the front passenger seat and texted Jian Ai back with a smile.

"Auntie Mei, how's Xiao Ai recently?" Ji Haoyu suddenly asked.

When Wang Yunmei heard this, she looked up and turned to look at Ji Haoyu. Then, she said, "She went abroad. Didn't she tell you?"

Went abroad?

Ji Haoyu was slightly stunned. He did not know about this.

Because after he confessed that night, Jian Ai said that she would consider it. After that, Ji Haoyu did not contact Jian Ai.

He wanted to give Jian Ai enough space and time to think about their relationship.

Therefore, during this period, Ji Haoyu had been working obediently and did not disturb Jian Ai. Even on New Year's Day, he only sent her a message.

"She didn't tell me she went abroad. What's the matter?" Ji Haoyu quickly asked.

Wang Yunmei answered, "I didn't ask about the details, but when Xiao Ai goes abroad, it's usually about the company's business."

"Where did she go?" Ji Haoyu asked again.

Wang Yunmei: "Yemen!"

Yemen?

Ji Haoyu immediately frowned. Ji Haoyu did not believe that Jian Ai's company would have any business in such a small European country.

"Why don't you call her? Her number is activated for long-distance calls," Wang Yunmei suggested.

However, Ji Haoyu rejected her. "No need, Auntie Mei. I'll wait for her to come back."

Seeing Ji Haoyu want to say something but hesitated, Wang Yunmei understood. After a moment of silence, she finally couldn't help but ask, "Haoyu, you and Xiao Ai..."

Halfway through, the meaning was obvious.

Wang Yunmei's sudden words shocked Ji Haoyu. His heart thumped. "Auntie Mei..."

"Don't be nervous," Wang Yunmei quickly said. "Auntie Mei has no intention of questioning you. Auntie Mei has been through this before, so she can tell."

The more Wang Yunmei was like this, the more ashamed Ji Haoyu felt. After all, Wang Yunmei was Jian Ai's mother. Her daughter was still underage, but he had already targeted her!

Wang Yunmei exposed him.

Ji Haoyu's good-looking Adam's apple moved. He wanted to smile but couldn't. However, he heard Wang Yunmei say, "You're a good child."

These few words contained countless content, making Ji Haoyu even more uncertain.

Because he didn't know if the words 'you're a good child' were an exclamation or a statement.

Ji Haoyu did not dare to say anything and waited for Wang Yunmei to continue.

However, after a while, Wang Yunmei said nothing. Only then did Ji Haoyu heave a sigh of relief. The words 'you're a good child' seemed to be a statement.

"Auntie Mei." Ji Haoyu mustered his courage and said, "I really like Xiao Ai. Don't worry about this."

"If Xiao Ai gets together with me in the future, I'll dote on her and love her. I won't let her be bullied."

This promise sounded old-fashioned, but to the inexperienced Ji Haoyu, it was already his sincerest and truest inner thoughts.

Ji Haoyu calmed himself down and continued, "I know Xiao Ai is not an adult yet. I might be a little anxious to do this, but I can't control myself. I'm afraid she'll run away..."

As soon as he finished speaking, Wang Yunmei couldn't help but chuckle.

Ji Haoyu turned to look at Wang Yunmei in a panic, thinking that he had said something wrong.

Wang Yunmei shook her head with a smile. "You're overthinking. Auntie Mei has no intention of objecting. I believe in Xiao Ai's judgment. What she decides can't be wrong."

"And Xiao Ai is not young anymore. She should date at seventeen years old. It's just right."

Hearing Wang Yunmei's words, Ji Haoyu couldn't help but feel relieved. "Auntie Mei, do you really think so?"

Wang Yunmei nodded gently. "I know my daughter. She can always make the right decision. Even in the face of relationships, I believe she will make a rational choice."

"Besides, Auntie Mei has feelings for you. If you can be with Xiao Ai, Auntie Mei will be very happy."

If he were not driving, Ji Haoyu would probably jump up in excitement. However, even so, his heart could not be described with words.

With Auntie Mei's approval, what was there to be afraid of?

His grandfather supported him, and Auntie Mei approved of him. At this moment, Ji Haoyu felt he was simply the chosen one. With just a nod from Jian Ai, he could bring his wife home!

However, at this moment, Jian Ai was still on the other side of the Earth, nervously waiting for the signal for the operation to start.

Another two days passed, but Robert and Gale still could not find the right time to attack the target. Jian Ai had already received news from Si Yue, Yun Buyao, Zhi Tong, and Duo that they already completed the mission.

Chapter 1333 Ambush!

In less than a week, three mission targets had died. This was undoubtedly exciting news for them.

However, even so, a tricky problem still appeared. Luan Qingyang also told Jian Ai about their situation. In addition, Jian Ai's target was not someone they could attack immediately.

However, it was not easy to find a suitable opportunity, especially since the other party was a careful person. It was not wise to attack rashly.

Petersburg, Russia.

Two consecutive days of snowstorms trapped Xiao Zhen and the rest in the hotel.

Russia's geographical location was special, and it was common for them to encounter snowstorms in winter. They were not lucky and encountered them the second day after arriving in Russia.

Xiao Zhen's team had the most people. Other than him and Ming Zui, there was also Eugene and Louise.

The reason the four of them formed a team was that their target was Lei, who had fought with Jian Ai and the rest before!

Because Si Yue, Xiao Zhen, and Chi Yang didn't gain any advantage over Lei when they joined forces, Jian Ai sent four people this time.

With an expert like Ming Zui, who was comparable to Chi Lian, Jian Ai was relieved.

"It finally stopped."

Louise was wearing a silk sleeping robe. She stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window of the hotel with her arms crossed, looking at the sun that had not appeared for a long time.

Eugene sat on the sofa and drank coffee. She couldn't help but smile. "If it were two more days, we probably wouldn't have been able to get out."

Louise looked down. Pedestrians were walking on the street in the snow. The thickness of the snow was almost at their knees.

At this moment, the doorbell rang. The two of them looked at each other. Eugene stood up and opened the door.

Outside the door was Xiao Zhen in black. He stood at the door and did not enter. He only said to Eugene, "Let's take action in the evening."

Eugene nodded slightly. They had already been delayed for two days because of the snowstorm. To avoid any trouble, it was better to take action as soon as possible.

As for the plan of action, they had long discussed it when they were behind closed doors for the past two days. After all, Xiao Zhen had fought with Lei before, so he had a certain understanding of Lei's ability and strength. This was also their advantage.

At night, a black business car slowly drove out of a villa manor in the suburbs of Petersburg.

Russia was vast and sparsely populated, and the land area everyone owned was shockingly large. A large area in the suburbs was Lei's private property.

As an international killer, Lei was one of the few people who had feelings for the countryside. He liked his country very much, so he would stay at home when he had no mission.

According to his habit, he would drive to the city for dinner at this time every day.

At this moment, snow fell from the gray sky again. The windshield wipers at the front of the car swayed slowly and rhythmically. Under the streetlights by the road, the snow seemed to be covered in a layer of gold, making it look very artistic.

Suddenly, Lei felt a chill run down his spine. He subconsciously turned around to look at the backseat, but it was empty.

However, he felt that something was wrong. Lei frowned slightly, and his handsome face under his blue hair revealed a vigilant expression.

Could it be that he was sensitive? But for some reason, he felt that there was a dangerous aura around him.

However, he was the only one in the car.

However, before he could think too much, a pressure suddenly came from behind him. Almost subconsciously, Lei instantly raised his hand and caught the hidden hand in the air.

That hand had no physical body. Lei held the steering wheel with one hand and hung the other in mid-air, as if he was holding a ball of air.

However, Lei could still feel that he was holding someone's arm. From the thickness of the arm, the other party must be a woman!

A woman he could not see!

The hand he was holding struggled hard a few times, but a woman's strength naturally could not escape Lei's restraints. Lei still gripped it tightly.

"Who are you? Who sent you?!" Lei asked with a gloomy expression.

At the same time, Lei stepped on the brakes. The tires made an ear-piercing screech on the snow before stopping steadily under a street lamp.

The other party said nothing because once she spoke, the source of the voice would expose her location.

Seeing this, Lei couldn't help but sneer. "You're not saying anything? Then don't blame me for not knowing how to show mercy to women!"

As soon as he finished speaking, a few hair-thin lightning bolts suddenly flashed on Lei's fingertips, accompanied by a crackling sound.

In an instant, an electric current followed the hidden hand and quickly attacked the other party's body.

"Ah..." With a muffled groan, a figure vaguely appeared in the car's backseat.

It was none other than Louise, who could turn invisible! She was holding a knife in her hand!

Fortunately, the voltage Lei released was not strong. It was just to provoke the other party to appear. When he saw that the other party was a woman with a European face, Lei's expression darkened.

He had killed many people, so he was naturally prepared for someone to take revenge at any time.

However, the other party's ability was so special. Invisibility? Moreover, she could even hide the knife in her hand. It was interesting and dangerous.

If he was not sharp just now, would he have been killed by this woman silently?

“Wouldn’t it be more thorough to stab it from the back of the chair?” Lei asked.

Although Lei had clamped Louise’s hand, she was not afraid at all. Hearing this, she sneered. “I’ve long checked. There’s a steel plate embedded in the back of your seat. If I didn’t have a thousand kilograms of strength, I wouldn’t have been able to pierce through it!”

Seeing that Louise was still so calm, Lei knew that there was probably someone else besides this woman.

However, in the car, Lei could no longer feel anyone other than this woman. From this, it could be seen that the others were not in his car.

The other party wanted to use the uniqueness of this woman’s ability to launch a sneak attack first. If it succeeded, it would be best.

It turned out that if Lei’s sharp nerves had not saved him, Louise would have used her invisibility ability to almost succeed!

“That’s a pity. Your plan failed.” Lei turned his head slightly and looked at Louise.

Louise looked at Lei’s side profile and couldn’t help but reveal a teasing smile. She smiled and said, “You’re much better-looking than in the photos. However, Xiao Zhen is right. You’re indeed a tricky person.”

Lei heard the key name from Louise: Xiao Zhen!

Lei frowned and thought for a moment. He had no impression.

Just as he was about to continue asking, Louise’s figure flashed behind him and disappeared!

Lei’s hand that was holding her instantly clenched into a fist. She disappeared into thin air just like that!

Chapter 1334 The Space and Time Controller

Seeing this, Lei could not help but be shocked. He became nervous.

Because Louise had disappeared too suddenly, regardless of whether or not a person was invisible, it was impossible for them to escape when one of their hands was clamped.

However, this woman seemed to have disappeared into thin air. This ability was stronger than anything Lei had ever seen.

Lei was not sure what this ability was, nor was he sure if this ability belonged to the woman or her companion.

However, before Lei could think too much, he saw four people standing side by side under the streetlamp in front of him. Their gazes landed on his car. One of them was Louise, who had been in the backseat of his car just now.

She went out without opening the car door!

Lei’s gaze darkened. He knew he had met an expert today.

However, Lei was not afraid. Instead, he opened the car door and got out. The cold wind whistled, accompanied by the dry and cold air and flying snow. This scene had a large atmosphere.

Lei's gaze swept across the other party's faces until it landed on Xiao Zhen.

The scene in his mind quickly flashed across. Lei couldn't help but frown. "It's you!"

It was not a question, but a statement. It was obvious that he remembered Xiao Zhen and recognized him!

"You're Xiao Zhen!" Coupled with Louise's words, he already knew Xiao Zhen's name.

Xiao Zhen looked at Lei expressionlessly. Although it had happened half a year ago, Xiao Zhen remembered this face very well, especially the blue hair.

"We meet again," Xiao Zhen said calmly.

Lei tightened the collar of his coat and couldn't help but take two steps forward. Although his gaze was on Xiao Zhen, a powerful aura attracted him.

It was this man!

Dressed in a strict black trench coat, he had a typical Asian face. He looked to be about his age, but the aura around him was very stern and powerful. Even standing there, Lei felt pressured.

He was ranked fourth among the twelve guards, but his strength was already comparable to Chi Lian, who was ranked third. This was the terrifying thing about Ming Zui.

Lei did not want his aura to affect him, so he forced himself not to look at him. Instead, he looked at Xiao Zhen and said, "What happened before already ended, right? Our mission failed, so we didn't take revenge on you."

Lei was talking about the mission he had taken part in more than half a year ago to kidnap Ji Haoxue. He remembered the process and even the details very clearly.

The man called Xiao Zhen in front of him knew how to use poisonous smoke. He also had an auxiliary ability that could enhance his companions and an extremely fast youth.

However, the mission failed because of the appearance of an extremely powerful girl who defeated him in almost one move. Lei remembered all of this.

Fortunately, the four people in front of him did not have the girl from back then.

When Xiao Zhen heard this, he explained expressionlessly, "I'm not looking for you because of what happened before."

"Then?" Lei immediately frowned in confusion because other than that matter, he didn't remember interacting with the four people in front of him.

"Why do you have to talk nonsense with him?" Louise rolled her eyes impatiently. Then, she looked at Lei and said, "Since he found you, you deserve to die."

Even Ming Zui said nothing else and immediately ordered, "Attack!"

He did not care what Lei had done before. This operation was an order from the Sect Master. The only thing he could do was kill the target!

As soon as Ming Zui finished speaking, Louise instantly hid herself.

Before Lei could react, countless golden light spots suddenly appeared above and around him. Those light spots were Eugene's abilities. She had an explosive ability, and these light spots were her explosive factors.

Bang! It exploded, and countless spots exploded around Lei. Its destructive power could be said to be quite powerful.

However, Xiao Zhen had long revealed Lei's strength to them. Even such powerful destructive power could not hurt him.

Electricity flashed in the smoke left behind after the explosion from time to time. When the thick smoke dissipated, they realized that Lei was wrapped in a nearly transparent shell. The shell seemed to be made of lightning, protecting Lei tightly.

"Although the destructive power is shocking, the explosive factor you used is very similar to my ability. It can't hurt me at all!" Lei said in a low voice.

As soon as he finished speaking, a chill suddenly assaulted his back. Lei's eyes turned cold, and he knew that the invisible woman was launching another sneak attack.

However, this time, he did not dodge or defend. Louise stabbed him with a sharp knife, but the protective shell blocked it.

It was so hard!

Louise, who was invisible, couldn't help but frown. This seemingly corporeal protective shell was so hard that she stabbed it with all her might but left no trace.

"You're courting death!" Lei growled and instantly released his ability. A bolt of lightning smashed down from above Louise's head!

Bang! With a loud bang, a black pit instantly appeared on the ground, and black smoke kept rising.

At this moment, Louise had already returned to Xiao Zhen's side.

Seeing this, Lei could not help but be shocked. It was the same situation again. This woman could teleport to another position.

Why?

In the beginning, Lei avoided Ming Zui because his aura was too strong and would disturb him.

However, at this moment, he had no choice but to look at Ming Zui.

He had seen Xiao Zhen's abilities before. Louise and Eugene had also used their abilities just now, but only this man.

The person who could control others to teleport was him!

Lei's guess was naturally right, but what Ming Zui controlled was not a person. What he truly controlled was space!

As the Space and Time Controller of the twelve guards, he could change the location of space and teleport space. He had already done it to the extreme, so he could let Louise instantly enter Lei's car. After Lei captured her, he could also let Louise instantly escape!

It was the same just now. Although the lightning quickly descended, it did not take Ming Zui much effort to control the space, so the lightning missed!

What a tricky ability. Lei's heart sank.

Especially since he did not know if this man had any other abilities other than being able to teleport.

If he was fighting one against three, he might be able to escape, but with this man, he might not be his match in a one-on-one battle.

However, before he could think too much, Xiao Zhen moved!

Xiao Zhen, who was standing on the spot, instantly turned into a wisp of black smoke and rushed towards Lei at an extremely fast speed.

Seeing this, Lei no longer hesitated. With a wave of his hand, a bolt of lightning descended. However, the lightning was originally aimed at Xiao Zhen's charging position, but it suddenly disappeared in mid-air.

In the next second, the lightning landed behind Ming Zui!

Chapter 1335 The Closest Moment to Death

Lei looked at the scene in front of him in shock, and his heart fluctuated violently.

This man used his ability to change the space where the lightning fell...

The reason he was so shocked was that Lei knew the speed at which the lightning fell. It was the speed of light. Some people did not even have time to capture their gazes, but the man in front of him could instantly change the space it fell into.

What terrifying strength.

Not only was it terrifying, but it was also very troublesome!

There was no time for Lei to think of a countermeasure because in the next second, Xiao Zhen, who had transformed into a ball of black smoke, had already attacked.

Seeing this, Lei instantly used his ability. With himself as the starting point, he instantly released dozens of light bolts. These light bolts were not like shocking lightning, but they could not be underestimated.

The lightning spread out like a spider web and attacked the black smoke that Xiao Zhen had transformed into.

There was a crackling explosion in the air. It was estimated that the voltage was one hundred thousand volts. A normal person would instantly become a dry corpse if they touched it.

However, just as the two sides collided, the black smoke instantly broke through the electric net and rushed towards Lei's face!

Impossible!

Lei cursed in his heart because in his understanding, although Xiao Zhen had turned into black smoke, he still had a physical body. Just like Louise, even if she was invisible, her physical body still existed.

With a physical body, he could conduct electricity. He could not break through his electric net like now.

What he did not know was that when Xiao Zhen's ability was cultivated to the extreme, he could elementalize. In other words, he could turn into his ability—smoke!

When Xiao Zhen elementalized, he could be immune to all physical damage in his black smoke form.

When Louise and Gale sneaked into Xiao Zhen's villa, they used machine guns to fire at his body, but they did not hurt him at all.

The same logic applied to Lei's electric net!

In the next second, thick smoke pounced at him and instantly enveloped Lei.

The black smoke that Xiao Zhen had transformed into contained poison. Wherever he passed, not a blade of grass would grow. If a person inhaled it, they could turn into a pool of blood in thirty seconds. It was very terrifying.

At that moment, Lei was wrapped tightly in the black smoke. It was obvious that he would not live.

"It seems to be over." Louise pursed her lips casually. She thought she could play for a while longer.

Eugene looked at the scene in front of her and couldn't help but frown. "This Lei is indeed very strong. Even if Irene comes, she'll probably have a hard time dealing with him."

They all knew that the lightning released by Lei was physical damage and was ineffective against Xiao Zhen, who had undergone elementalization. However, the lightning summoned by Lei was magical damage. If Ming Zui was not around today, they would not be Lei's match, and Xiao Zhen would not have succeeded so easily.

"He's quite handsome. What a pity." Louise shook her head regretfully.

Not long after, Ming Zui's gaze suddenly darkened. "Something's wrong!"

The black smoke was still pestering the other party, but with Xiao Zhen's ability, thirty seconds had long passed. The other party should have turned into a pool of blood.

Louise and Eugene also realized that something was wrong, but neither of them could help. Eugene's explosive power was also considered magic damage. If she used it now, she would accidentally hurt Xiao Zhen!

If Louise turned invisible and approached, she would be in danger if she accidentally inhaled poisonous gas.

Only Ming Zui could take action!

Ming Zui did not hesitate and quickly raised his hand! However, at this moment, with a loud bang, the black smoke that Xiao Zhen had transformed into instantly dissipated into nothingness.

They focused their eyes and saw a black figure flying over from the sky. It was Xiao Zhen!

Ming Zui immediately waved his hand, and Xiao Zhen instantly disappeared from the air and appeared beside him.

“Pfft...” After Xiao Zhen landed on the ground, he suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood. His clothes were in tatters, and the skin that was exposed was burning. It was charred, and black smoke was emitting.

His entire body felt numb from the electric current. Fortunately, Ming Zui supported him in time. Otherwise, Xiao Zhen would probably have knelt on the ground.

“How are you?” Mingzui asked in a low voice, his eyes filled with anger.

Xiao Zhen endured the metallic taste in his throat and shook his head gently, showing that he was fine.

However, only Xiao Zhen knew Lei had severely injured him and that he had lost his ability to fight.

Even though he had fought Lei before, he was still not his match this time. This man was ridiculously strong!

This was because not only had Lei severely injured Xiao Zhen, but he was also standing there unscathed with no injuries.

“Leave it to me,” Ming Zui said coldly, suppressing the anger in his heart.

As soon as he finished speaking, he instantly raised his hand and called out in a low voice, “The power of space and time—Slaughterhouse!”

With Lei as the center, a semicircle of transparent aura suddenly appeared. This move was a high-level mental cultivation technique of the power of space and time. Ming Zui could instantly cut everything in the slaughterhouse like livestock and teleport them to different spaces.

In other words, he could split Lei’s body into countless pieces and throw them into countless different places. All of this was as simple as moving his fingers!

Those who did not understand Ming Zui’s power of time and space would mistake him for someone who could only change space and teleport others.

However, after understanding how terrifying Ming Zui was, they knew he could kill someone with just a raise of his hand. It did not even cause anyone to feel pain.

Lei felt the surrounding pressure change, and his body became stiff. Even breathing became difficult.

This was because after the slaughterhouse was built, it would gradually become a vacuum. Even if Ming Zui cut nothing, the people would not live long inside.

“Wait!”

At this moment, Xiao Zhen suddenly called for a stop. He looked up at Ming Zui with difficulty. "Brother Ming Zui, wait."

Seeing this, he couldn't help but frown and ask, "What's wrong?"

He did not attack directly, giving Xiao Zhen time.

The anesthesia on his body subsided a little. Xiao Zhen stood up alone and took two steps forward. He looked at Lei, who was in the slaughterhouse not far away, and said, "You... could have killed me just now... Why didn't you do it?"

Lei looked at Xiao Zhen, but his gaze slowly moved back and finally landed on Ming Zui.

Because the air was getting thinner, Lei said with difficulty, "If I kill you, I won't be able to live, so I want to take a gamble!"

Obviously, Lei knew that even if he killed Xiao Zhen, Ming Zui would not let him off.

He was not a match for Ming Zui!

Therefore, he wanted to take a gamble. If he did not take Xiao Zhen's life, would the other party let him off?

After so many years of his career, this was the moment when Lei felt he was closest to death. The invisible pressure and powerful strength were enough to make him tremble.

Chapter 1336 Turning Enemies into Friends

Lei did not hide his desire to live, although as an assassin, he had long been indifferent to life and death and was prepared to die.

However, this did not mean that he did not care about his life. Survival was human instinct. Moreover, this time, he was not trying to survive, but exchanging.

He did not kill Xiao Zhen and exchanged Xiao Zhen's life for his, so there was nothing to be ashamed of.

Lei looked at Ming Zui and said with difficulty, "I spared his life. Can you let me live?"

When Ming Zui heard this, he immediately frowned. He did not expect such a situation. However, according to Xiao Zhen, he had a chance to kill Xiao Zhen just now, but he did not attack.

Therefore, he was in a dilemma. As long as he raised his hand, the target would die. However, he was not such a person.

Louise and Eugene said nothing. This decision was not something the two of them could make.

In the end, he looked at Xiao Zhen. Although he said nothing, his meaning was obvious.

Although assassinating Lei was the Sect Master's order, he obviously wanted to follow Xiao Zhen's instructions. After all, the person the other party had shown mercy to was Xiao Zhen.

It also left Xiao Zhen conflicted. If he nodded and let Lei go, their mission would be considered a failure.

However, Lei did not kill him just now. If he killed him now, wouldn't it be despicable?

The two personalities in his heart pulled back and forth, but the oxygen in the slaughterhouse decreased. Lei's face gradually lost its color and turned pale. He probably had little time.

However, Ming Zui did not attack for a long time, waiting for Xiao Zhen's words.

In the end, Xiao Zhen shook his head in pain and squeezed out three words. "Let him go!"

In the end, Xiao Zhen still followed the true voice in his heart. A life for a life was the right thing to do.

If he killed Lei today, this matter would probably interfere with the rest of his life.

When Ming Zui heard this, he instantly retracted his aura.

Lei breathed in sufficient air again and instantly knelt on the ground. He supported his body with his hands and panted heavily.

It was enough for him to experience that suffocating feeling once. He would never want to experience it again.

Louise and Eugene looked at each other helplessly, but they didn't know how to handle this matter or how to end it.

They were allies, but they were also employees. They were only in charge of contributing.

"I'll explain it to the Sect Master," Xiao Zhen said, enduring the pain.

Although he had violated the Sect Master's orders, Xiao Zhen knew that with the Sect Master's personality, she would understand the reason for his decision.

"Wait."

Just as they were about to let Lei leave, Lei suddenly called out to them.

Lei regained his senses and slowly stood up. Then, he walked towards them.

Xiao Zhen and the rest stopped in their tracks and watched Lei walk up to them. However, they said nothing and waited for Lei to speak.

Lei panted twice before saying, "This shouldn't have ended like this. I don't even know why you're chasing after me."

"You don't need to know the reason," Ming Zui whispered.

Lei was in awe of Ming Zui.

However, he still retorted, "No, I need to know."

Without waiting for Ming Zui to speak, Lei continued, "If I've offended your people or touched benefits I shouldn't have touched without knowing, you can speak bluntly. I'll apologize or avoid it."

Looking at Ming Zui, Lei said seriously, "I'm not your match, so I don't want to be your enemy."

These words were simple and clear. Lei directly expressed his attitude. If he offended them, he could apologize, but he didn't want to fight with Ming Zui anymore.

Louise, who was at the side, couldn't help but raise her eyebrows meaningfully. It was wise to lower one's head to the strong.

This Lei could observe the situation and decide without hesitation.

Ming Zui and Xiao Zhen immediately looked at each other, as if they were not sure if they should tell Lei the cause of the matter.

Seeing that the two of them were hesitating, Lei immediately invited them. "You're seriously injured. If you don't mind, you can stay at my house for the time being."

This was already a blatant show of goodwill. Who would have thought that a second ago, they would fight and use all their strength to take the other party's life? In the next second, they wanted to invite the other party to their house to recuperate?

What was even more strange was that Xiao Zhen nodded and agreed without thinking.

"Alright!"

Ming Zui nodded as if he instantly understood Xiao Zhen's intentions.

They did not kill Lei. The best solution now was to keep an eye on him first. Then, living with him was undoubtedly the most convenient.

"Get in!"

Lei heaved a sigh of relief. As long as the other party accepted his goodwill, there would be room for negotiation.

He had accepted a few missions recently. He had to figure out which mission was related to this. He had to reject it.

Lei's dinner was ruined. The car returned to his manor the same way it came. He called the restaurant he often went to in the city and asked the other party to send dinner to his house.

Xiao Zhen treated his wound briefly in the room Lei had arranged. Fortunately, Lei had commonly used medical medicine at home, which was enough for Xiao Zhen.

After treating his wound, Xiao Zhen immediately reported the situation to Jian Ai.

Jian Ai couldn't react for a long time.

This Lei did not die after meeting them twice. It was as if it was an inexplicable fate.

"Sect Master, I hope you can understand why I did this," Xiao Zhen said helplessly.

Jian Ai came back to her senses and quickly comforted him. "I can naturally understand. If you kill him, you'll feel guilty in the future."

Hearing Jian Ai's words, Xiao Zhen finally felt relieved. Then, he said, "Lei also admitted that he doesn't want to be our enemy anymore, so I was thinking if I could tell him the reason for this and make him back off and postpone the next mission."

The reason they didn't tell Lei was that they were afraid that Lei would leak the news and spread the news of their operation to the other targets, increasing the difficulty for the others.

After all, they had secretly planned all of this. They had only taken action in advance to seize the initiative.

They could not completely believe Lei, so they did not tell him the reason.

Jian Ai thought for a moment before slowly saying, "We can choose not to kill them, but now is not the time to say it. We still have to be careful."

"It's not too late to tell him after the others finish dealing with the targets."

Xiao Zhen agreed. "I understand."

After hanging up, Xiao Zhen left the room. Lei ordered many delicious Russian dishes and treated them like guests.

Xiao Zhen walked to the dining table and sat down. Lei's gaze was on him. It was obvious that he was waiting for Xiao Zhen to tell him everything.

Chapter 1337 Second Round of Bidding

Xiao Zhen sat down and felt Lei's gaze. He immediately looked up.

After a while, he said, "I can't tell you for the time being. Please wait a few days."

Including Lei, half of the targets had been resolved, so the remaining few people shouldn't take long.

Lei said nothing and only nodded. He had expected this result.

As long as he knew the reason, it was fine to wait a few more days.

"You're welcome. Just stay here. Tell me if you need anything else," Lei looked at them and said.

Ming Zui answered on behalf of them, "Thank you."

Baiyun City's City Planning Bureau, in the conference hall on the top floor.

At this moment, the second round of bidding for South City's reconstruction plan was in full swing.

Because of Jian Ai's full marks bid, East Sea Real Estate miraculously broke out of the siege in the first round and became the smallest company among all the real estate companies in the second round.

East Sea Real Estate's scale was not enough to take down such a big project.

If a lucky incident could happen once, it was basically impossible for it to happen a second time. Moreover, there was a third round of bidding.

Therefore, the entire Baiyun real estate world knew very well that although East Sea Real Estate had created many miracles in the industry, this project would not fall into their hands.

Without Jian Ai around, Bai Zhou would handle and decide everything in the company.

The second round of bidding was to make the plan and ideas into a PowerPoint presentation. The company's representatives would compete by running through the presentation. Professionals from the City Planning Bureau would choose the top two from the nominees to enter the third round of bidding.

East Sea Real Estate had an advantage. After all, Jian Ai was a real estate tycoon who started from scratch in her previous life. Her thoughts and ideals far exceeded the current era.

Even so, the scale and experience of the company were East Sea Real Estate's weakness.

Therefore, after almost six hours of bidding, East Sea Real Estate finally failed to enter the final bidding.

The companies that entered the third round of bidding were Jian Changsheng's Jian Group and Lu Youcai's Hongxiang Group.

Even Chen Lei's Century Group fell in the second round and was eliminated with regret.

However, this result was expected by East Sea Real Estate. Jian Ai knew her advantages, but she also knew that their shortcomings were too fatal.

Perhaps only after the company operated for another three to five years, would they be qualified to compete with the Jian Group for such a big project.

After the bidding ended, everyone rushed out like a swarm of bees.

Chen Lei smiled bitterly and shook Bai Zhou's hand at the door. He said, "We're brothers in distress. I didn't expect us to fail together in the second round."

Chen Lei was a little unconvinced. In terms of experience and the scale of the company, their company could completely handle the reconstruction project.

However, the Jian Group was too powerful, and Hongxiang was determined to win. Under a pincer attack from both sides, if Century Group's ideas and creativity could not innovate, it would be very difficult to qualify.

On the other hand, Bai Zhou had a relaxed expression on his face. He did not complain. Instead, he comforted Chen Lei. "Chairman Chen, don't be too regretful. The competition this time is fierce. As long as we do our best, we'll listen to fate."

The overall situation had been decided. Thinking too much would only add to his troubles. Chen Lei nodded helplessly. "You're right. However, I'm afraid this project will belong to the Jian Group again."

In the many years of the Baiyun real estate world, as long as the Jian Group took part in the bidding, there were almost no failures.

Therefore, when East Sea Real Estate was established, the matter of Jian Ai snatching two pieces of land from Jian Changsheng caused a sensation because this had never happened in the Baiyun real estate world.

"Oh, oh. Brother Chen, Manager Bai!"

Without waiting for Bai Zhou to respond, a deliberately raised voice sounded, mixed with unconcealable smugness.

The person who came was none other than the chairman of Hongxiang Group, Lu Youcai!

Lu Youcai walked over with a radiant smile and stood in front of the two of them. He looked at them and smiled. "The bidding today was so intense. I've been on tenterhooks."

Lu Youcai was not lying. He only felt relieved when his company advanced.

When Chen Lei heard this, he naturally had to smile and congratulate him. "Congratulations, Brother Lu. You've finally entered the final bidding."

"Thank you for letting me win." Lu Youcai smiled and nodded.

Bai Zhou smiled but said nothing. Lu Youcai had a smug look on his face and could not enter Bai Zhou's eyes. Moreover, he rarely interacted with him. At the Hongxiang Anniversary cocktail party, only Jian Ai went.

However, Lu Youcai greeted Bai Zhou. "Manager Bai, I've heard a lot about you. Nice to meet you."

"Chairman Lu, nice to meet you," Bai Zhou answered softly.

Lu Youcai looked around and asked curiously, "Eh? Why isn't Manager Jian here on such an important day?"

Lu Youcai initially wanted to show off in front of Jian Ai and let her know that the older the ginger, the spicier it was. He did not expect Jian Ai to not come.

Bai Zhou smiled and nodded. "The CEO went abroad for work and is not in the country now."

"Oh..." Lu Youcai dragged his words and nodded thoughtfully.

However, Bai Zhou didn't give him a chance to speak. He nodded and gestured. "Please get busy. I still have something on in my company, so I'll take my leave first."

As soon as he finished speaking, Bai Zhou turned around and quickly entered the elevator.

On the way back, Bai Zhou calculated the jet lag. He had a premonition that Jian Ai was still awake, so he called her.

"What was the result?"

As soon as the call went through, Jian Ai blurted out.

Bai Zhou did not expect her to pick it up so quickly and was slightly stunned. "You're not asleep, right?"

"Of course not. I'm waiting for the results," Jian Ai said.

Although Jian Ai could accept the results, she naturally hoped to enter the next round.

"Sorry, we couldn't get into the last round," Bai Zhou said gently.

On the other end of the phone, Jian Ai raised her eyebrows in understanding. Because she was mentally prepared, she felt relieved the next moment. "I understand. It's expected."

Even if they were well-prepared, the company's weakness was irreversible. There was no choice.

“Don’t think too much about it. The most important thing is participation. It’s already very amazing that we reached the second round,” Jian Ai comforted him, afraid that Bai Zhou would blame himself.

“I understand. Rest early. I’ll hang up first,” Bai Zhou said.

They published the results of the second round of bidding in the news media and the financial evening newspapers that night. Due to this result, the Jian Group and Hongxiang Group’s shares soared overnight. The Jian Group’s shares also soared by almost two percentage points, and their market value increased.

When Old Master Jian learned of the results, he couldn’t stop smiling.

Once the Jian Group won this project, it would stabilize their position as the leader of Baiyun City’s real estate industry. They would also be further away from the other real estate corporations and become the true overlord of Baiyun City’s real estate.

Chapter 1338 Evil Light Slash

Today, Jian Changsheng brought Qiao Shuyi and Jian Yiyi back to the Jian residence. At the dinner table, Old Master Jian looked at Jian Changsheng and said, “Changsheng, you’ve put in the last bit of effort into this final bidding. Hongxiang Group is not easy to deal with. After all, this project is a big cake. The other party is eyeing it covetously.”

Jian Changsheng nodded and said absent-mindedly, “I understand, Dad. The Jian Group will do its best for this project.”

Jian Changsheng took a sip of red wine as if he didn’t want to talk about it.

Jian Changsheng was present at the bidding meeting today. His original goal was to see his daughter, but Jian Ai was not present today.

He might as well look at the bidding process seriously. East Sea Real Estate’s ideals and ideas were quite advanced. Many of them were new things that had never been seen in the real estate industry today. The novelty of the model shocked him, the CEO of the Jian Group.

However, East Sea Real Estate still failed in the end because of the company’s scale.

Jian Changsheng felt sorry for his daughter because he initially planned to withdraw if East Sea Real Estate could enter the final round with the Jian Group. He wanted to give this project to his daughter.

However, the heavens were not cooperative, and his intentions were ruined.

If East Sea Real Estate was more experienced and bigger, it would not have been Hongxiang Group’s turn.

Therefore, Jian Changsheng had mixed feelings today.

The old man was in high spirits and didn’t notice Jian Changsheng’s abnormality. He said, “This project is no small matter. If the Jian Group can win it, it will be the Jian Group’s largest project in recent years.”

Although the Jian Group also owned the South City demolition project, demolishing and rebuilding a district was not a project of the same level.

Jian Changsheng didn't respond. Qiao Shuyi looked up at him and said nothing.

After dinner, Jian Changsheng went to the yard alone to enjoy the wind. It was already winter, but he was only wearing a suit jacket as he stood by the flower bed.

Qiao Shuyi came out in a fur coat and saw Jian Changsheng's bleak back. Her heart tightened.

"Why didn't you wear another layer? Be careful not to catch a cold from the wind." Qiao Shuyi walked behind Jian Changsheng and draped the coat in her hand over his shoulder.

Jian Changsheng came back to his senses and turned to look at Qiao Shuyi with a smile. "I'm just taking a breather. I'll go in later. Go back to your room. Don't catch a cold."

Qiao Shuyi didn't leave. Instead, she held Jian Changsheng's hand and leaned her head over. "You look distracted. Is there something on your mind?"

Usually, Jian Changsheng said almost everything to Qiao Shuyi. He would even share the company's troubles with Qiao Shuyi. Qiao Shuyi was also happy to listen to him talk about these things.

However, Jian Changsheng couldn't tell her everything about what had happened today. He sighed and said, "I'm fine. I've been too tired from work recently, so I couldn't focus."

Qiao Shuyi didn't care if he was telling the truth. The two of them had a tacit understanding. If Jian Changsheng didn't want to say it, Qiao Shuyi wouldn't ask.

Therefore, Qiao Shuyi only comforted him. "If you're tired, rest. Don't push yourself too hard."

"I understand." Jian Changsheng pulled Qiao Shuyi into his arms and kissed her forehead. "It's good to have you accompany me."

Qiao Shuyi buried her head in Jian Changsheng's chest and was surrounded by happiness.

...

South America, Brazil.

The hot sun roasted the ground, and it immersed the entire city in an invisible heat wave.

There was an abandoned factory surrounded by a large space. Not far away, there was a dilapidated basketball court. The people who often moved around this place were some idle Black youths.

With a loud bang, the entire ground shook. The few pieces of glass on the abandoned factory window shattered, and smoke rose around the entire building.

The Black youths gathered not far away were shocked when they heard this. They all looked in the factory's direction in horror, but no one dared to go forward to check what had happened.

However, the voice just now sounded as if something had exploded.

In the next second, a figure suddenly flew out of the window in the factory.

That figure looked a little slender and delicate. Although it was just an afterimage, it was not difficult to tell that it was a woman.

Her body fell to the ground from the window at the top of the factory like a falling leaf.

“Ah...” The woman couldn’t help but grunt. She had already smashed a shallow pit in the ground below her, but she only frowned and stood up unscathed.

If an ordinary person jumped down from such a height, they would probably die on the spot.

However, a powerful force pushed this woman out. She smashed into the ground and was unscathed.

The woman stood up and looked up at the sky with a gloomy gaze. An elegant and slender figure slowly floated out of the window she had just flown out of.

Yu Wuyuan was wearing a decent black suit. He had soft short hair and exquisite facial features. At this moment, he was floating in the sky like a god against the sun.

His target this time was the American woman called Joey in front of him. She was ranked second among all the mission targets.

Joey looked up at Yu Wuyuan, and a fierce look flashed across her eyes. Then, she waved her hand, and the surrounding abandoned junk smashed towards Yu Wuyuan in the air.

Seeing this, Yu Wuyuan immediately waved a few sword auras. The sword auras were invisible in the air, cutting the miscellaneous items into pieces without being seen by the naked eye.

Then, Yu Wuyuan raised his fingers and said, “Evil Light Slash!”

As soon as he finished speaking, Yu Wuyuan raised his fingers and made a chopping gesture. A huge silver sword slashed down.

The sword was shockingly big and was more than twenty meters long. Although it was an illusion, the pressure and shock it brought could not be underestimated.

Seeing this, Joey was shocked. This Asian-looking man’s strength was so terrifying that she could not withstand him at all, let alone retaliate.

A silver light flashed. The speed of the Evil Light Slash was almost imperceptible. Even though Joey dodged immediately, the sword aura still injured her.

An extremely deep wound appeared on her waist, and blood instantly flowed out.

However, looking at the spot where she was just now, the Evil Light Slash had slashed out an extremely deep ravine. Black smoke was still emitting from the ravine, showing how terrifying the power of this strike was.

If she had not dodged quickly, she would have been split into two on the spot.

However, in just a few seconds, the wound on Joey’s waist healed at a visible speed. This self-healing ability was the most troublesome.

Seeing this, Yu Wuyuan couldn’t help but frown. He thought to himself, ‘As expected.’

Chapter 1339 Joey’s Death

It turned out that Yu Wuyuan had already arrived a few days ago and had already fought with Joey once.

Although Joey was strong, she was facing Yu Wuyuan, after all. Even if she used her full strength, Yu Wuyuan still severely injured her.

However, Joey was very smart last time and ran to a crowded place. Yu Wuyuan was afraid that he would cause unnecessary accidental injuries, so he didn't chase after her.

Moreover, Joey was severely injured at that time. Yu Wuyuan knew that even if she escaped, she would not survive.

Fortunately, Yu Wuyuan was careful. If he had not seen Joey's corpse with his own eyes, he would not have left. Unexpectedly, after today, not only did he not find Joey's corpse, but he also saw her appear in front of him unscathed.

Even if Xiao Zhen treated her, she would not have recovered so quickly or even left no traces.

Seeing the wound on Joey's waist quickly heal, Yu Wuyuan understood. Joey had many abilities. As long as there was no fatal injury, the injuries on her body could heal themselves.

It was a powerful and convenient source of abilities.

"I don't know you. Why do you have to force me?" Joey knew she was no match for Yu Wuyuan. Even if she had the ability to heal herself, Yu Wuyuan could still kill her.

She couldn't help but use a stalling tactic and look at Yu Wuyuan.

When Yu Wuyuan heard this, he said coldly, "We all have different masters. What reason is there?"

As soon as he finished speaking, Yu Wuyuan curled his fair fingers and said, "Tracking Sword!"

The two balls of air in the sky twisted, and then each ball of air condensed a translucent illusory sword aura. After the sword aura formed, it had a clear target and quickly rushed towards Joey.

From the name, one could tell how powerful this move was. Yu Wuyuan's tracking sword automatically locked onto the target. Once the target was locked onto, these two sword auras would not stop until they stabbed the target.

"Damn it!"

Joey cursed in her heart. She initially wanted to stall Yu Wuyuan and find an opportunity to escape, but she did not expect this man to look gentlemanly and refined, but did not give her any chance. Before she could finish speaking, he attacked again!

Seeing the two balls of sword aura attack, Joey opened her hands, and a huge grid-like wall suddenly formed in front of her.

She initially wanted to use this move to block Yu Wuyuan's tracking sword, but she did not expect the tracking sword to quickly change direction as if it had eyes. Just as it was about to touch an obstacle, it quickly bypassed Joey and stabbed her.

Startled, Joey quickly retracted her ability and turned to run.

However, there were two tracking swords coming from two different directions. Joey could not take care of them at the same time.

“Ah...”

With a cry of pain, the two tracking swords mercilessly pierced through Joey’s body one after another. Blood splattered, looking especially dazzling under the burning sunlight.

The sword aura that had tracked the target already dissipated after piercing through Joey. Joey knelt on the ground with a pained expression. She felt a metallic taste in her throat and suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood.

She believed she was capable and had dominated the international killer world for many years. She had never been afraid of anyone.

Unexpectedly, she fell for an Asian man today. The other party’s powerful strength was something she had never seen before. He controlled the sword aura to perfection, and it was not something he could achieve in a day.

However, this man had been pestering her for over two hours. The other party looked like he was not burdened at all, but she was already exhausted. Even the healing speed of the wounds on her body had obviously slowed down.

However, she did not want to die. She had countless wealth that she obtained from carrying out missions all these years. She had yet to enjoy it. She did not want to die here.

A tremendous pressure came from above her head. Joey slowly raised her head and saw Yu Wuyuan slowly landing in front of her.

Joey had already lost her ability to fight before she recovered. She immediately gritted her teeth and said, “Let me go...”

These words were filled with uncontrollable humiliation.

It had to be known that those who could be international killers were not good people, especially someone like her, who had superpowers and was one of the best among the ability users. She was arrogant, so how could she beg for mercy?

However, at this moment, the fear and desire for life in Joey’s heart had already occupied and controlled her brain.

Yu Wuyuan looked at Joey expressionlessly. He could see the desire for life in the other party’s eyes, but he was not someone who would be swayed by emotions.

A golden sword had appeared in his lowered right hand at some point. He slowly said to Joey, “I’m sorry.”

As soon as he finished speaking, Yu Wuyuan raised his sword, and a golden light flashed across his face.

Joey raised her head slightly and maintained her begging posture, but the pupils in her eyes gradually dilated until there was nothing left.

After completing the mission, Yu Wuyuan looked up at the dazzling sunlight and couldn't help but frown slightly. Then, he looked into the distance at the dilapidated basketball court not far away.

When the Black youths in the basketball court heard the explosion, they kept looking curiously in the factory's direction, but there seemed to be nothing unusual about the empty factory.

They couldn't see the dead Joey, let alone Yu Wuyuan, who was standing in the empty space and looking at them.

It turned out that Yu Wuyuan had already set up a barrier around the factory before he attacked. The people outside the barrier could not see what was going on inside.

Retracting his gaze, Yu Wuyuan took out medicine from his suit pocket and quickly cleaned Joey's corpse before leaving the scene.

...

East Africa.

Irene and Luan Qingyang had already stayed here for a few days. The mission target hid in the local terrorist forces and never appeared, so it was difficult for the two of them to find an opportunity to attack.

Now that the others had completed their goals one after another, this imperceptibly gave them pressure.

If not, they could only barge in.

"We can't keep waiting like this." Luan Qingyang had a worried expression on his face. With the harsh climate in East Africa, it was easy to feel anxious.

Hua Chu immediately said, "I have an idea. These international killers have a website to accept missions. We can post a bounty mission at a high price on it and lure Morgery out."

Irene knew this website. She had once taken on an assassination mission on this website, and her employer's identity was completely confidential. The reward for completing the mission would be transferred to the killer's account.

However...

Irene immediately shook her head. "Although this method looks feasible, it's not that easy to operate. A high reward will attract the attention of many killers. Morgery might not accept it. He might not even see this mission, and it's very time-consuming."

"What should we do? If we wait like this, when will it end?" Luan Qingyang said helplessly.

Irene also knew that this could not go on. She immediately decided and said coldly, "Since he's not coming out, I'll go in."

Luan Qingyang: "You..."

Irene smoothed her long silver-white hair and raised her red lips. "A beauty trap!"

Chapter 1340 Beauty Trap!

"No, it's too dangerous!"

When Luan Qingyang heard that Irene wanted to enter the enemy camp and use seduction, he immediately rejected it without hesitation.

When Hua Chu heard this, he shook his head in disagreement. "Lord Qingyang is right. That's a tiger's den. It's too dangerous for you to enter rashly alone."

Not that they did not believe Irene, but the other party had an entire army. It was fine if they did it secretly, but once they were discovered, it would not be easy to escape.

If they failed, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Seeing their reactions, Irene knew what they were thinking.

Irene was already mentally prepared. She had already thought of this solution. The reason she didn't say it was because she knew the two of them wouldn't agree.

However, days had passed, and there was not much time left for them.

"You don't have to be so nervous. Although this method looks dangerous, it's the only way we can approach the target now."

Irene immediately looked at Luan Qingyang and Hua Chu and said, "Moreover, I can protect myself. If my whereabouts are exposed, I can retreat unscathed."

Luan Qingyang and Hua Chu immediately looked at each other, as if they were struggling in their hearts.

After a while, Luan Qingyang finally said, "If you can let me sneak in with you, I'll agree to this plan. Otherwise, no."

This was already his last bottom line. This was the first time he had worked for the Sect Master, and he was a man. How could he let a woman like Irene enter the enemy camp alone?

No matter what, he could not do it.

Irene couldn't help but smile when she heard that, but she didn't refuse anymore. She only looked at Hua Chu and asked, "Mr. Hua Chu, you've been out here for many years. I wonder if there's a way to send the two of us to the other party's headquarters."

Hua Chu thought for a moment and seemed to have thought of something. He nodded gently. "Leave it to me. I'll arrange it."

As such, their team finally made further progress. It had been a week since they arrived in East Africa.

The duration of the mission far exceeded their expectations. Luan Qingyang and Irene wanted to complete the mission quickly and leave.

Although this method was a little risky, if they could complete the mission, the two of them could not care less.

In the evening, Hua Chu returned with a Black man in a suit.

“Lord Qingyang, this is Mr. Leon. He’s a local businessman and a good friend of mine.”

When Luan Qingyang heard this, he shook hands with Leon and greeted him. Then, he looked at Hua Chu and asked, “Does he have a way to let us in?”

Hua Chu nodded and explained, “Leon has a local dance hall. In a barren place like here, there are very few entertainment projects for everyone. Harry’s troops often hold bonfire gatherings, and they will spend money for Mr. Leon to bring the dancers in his dance hall to dance and liven things up.”

At this point, Luan Qingyang understood. He wanted Irene to disguise as a dancer and sneak in with them.

Hua Chu didn’t forget to remind them, “However, the local dancers are all black. Miss Irene’s skin color is special, and she has silver-white hair. When the time comes, she will instantly attract everyone’s attention. This way, it will be even more difficult for her to find an opportunity to attack because everyone’s attention will be on her.”

As they were talking, Irene arrived.

When Leon saw Irene in person, he was stunned. If such a beauty entered Harry’s army, she would probably be ruined until nothing was left!

“This is too eye-catching!” Leon couldn’t help but frown. “If Harry finds out that something’s wrong, I’ll lose my life.”

“Don’t worry, we won’t implicate you,” Irene said.

However, Leon was a little afraid. After all, in this city, everyone was afraid of Harry.

Seeing this, Hua Chu quickly promised, “Leon, as long as you help me, I promise to send you to China to settle down.”

It turned out that the reason Leon took the risk to bring people into Harry’s army was because Hua Chu had promised him.

Although Leon had some businesses here, he had long wanted to leave such a place. However, it was not easy for East Africans to immigrate to other countries, so Hua Chu’s promise made Leon feel sympathetic.

After struggling for a while, Leon thought that leaving East Africa was more tempting than anything else. He gritted his teeth and nodded.

“When can we take action?” Luan Qingyang asked.

They looked at Leon, asking him when the recent bonfire gathering would be.

Leon swept his gaze across everyone and said, “Tonight!”

That was great!

There was no time like the present. Irene and Luan Qingyang looked at each other and smiled.

At night, Irene changed into a sexy dance dress that revealed her waist and shoulders and got on the float at Leon's dance hall. Luan Qingyang pretended to be an entourage.

Hua Chu had been here for many years and was not a stranger, so he did not follow.

On the way there, she learned that most of the dancers in these dance halls were locals. The youngest were in their teens, and the oldest were in their thirties. They were all Black women.

Everyone was already used to dancing in Harry's unit to liven things up. Moreover, it was obvious that this trip was not just a dance. If anyone took a liking to them, these dancers would not dare to resist.

Fortunately, if they did something other than dancing, those people would still give them more money. It was a source of income for the dancers who were forced by life.

Therefore, everyone knew what would happen tonight and was not afraid.

This way, it would give Irene a convenient opportunity. When the time came, as long as she approached Morgery and make him interested in her, she would stay for the night. When they reached the bedroom, it would be her best opportunity to attack.

The float slowly passed through the city. Not long after, it entered a barren land.

Looking up, there was a place that looked like a mud castle in the distance. Leon told the two of them it was Harry's headquarters.

Luan Qingyang immediately looked at Irene and said, "Let's act according to the situation. If you encounter danger, don't fight. I'll pick you up."

Irene nodded. She felt that Luan Qingyang was nervous for her and couldn't help but comfort him. "Don't worry, I won't exchange my life for his."

As they spoke, the float had already arrived at the entrance of Harry's headquarters. Everyone was about to get off.

Because Leon was a familiar face, the soldiers guarding the door knew Leon had brought the women over when they saw the float. They couldn't help but reveal explicit evil smiles. When they saw Irene getting out of the car, their eyes widened, and they forgot to react for a long time!
