

At School 1361

Chapter 1361 Why Did He Look Familiar?

Time passed second by second, but none of them had any intention of leaving. They all stood guard outside the emergency room without a word.

Half an hour later, urgent footsteps came from the end of the corridor. Then, Jian Yu and Chen Jin ran over one after another.

Seeing this, everyone stood up. Everyone present was Jian Ai's best friend, but only Guan Tao was the most familiar with Jian Yu.

"Brother Yu!" Seeing Jian Yu, Guan Tao was the first to go up to him. "You're here."

There was no time to greet or stand on ceremony. Jian Yu was still wearing a suit and leather shoes. It was obvious that he had rushed over from the company. He immediately asked, "What happened? How's Xiao Ai?"

When Jian Yu asked this, Guan Tao couldn't help but cry again. "We don't know what happened. A second ago, we were chatting and she was fine. Who knew that Xiao Ai would suddenly say that she wasn't feeling well and run to the bathroom alone?"

"Qinghuan and I chased after her but found that she had locked herself inside. The waiter opened the door and found Xiao Ai unconscious inside."

"Brother, don't worry. Xiao Ai will be fine." Although Chen Jin didn't know what had happened, he still comforted him.

Jian Yu was not an impulsive and emotional person, especially after becoming the general manager of Rose Entertainment. He was even calmer when something happened.

Although this concerned his sister, whom he doted on the most, Jian Yu didn't think too much about it. Moreover, Guan Tao also said that the entire matter happened suddenly, and it didn't seem to have anything to do with his sisters' classmates.

"Thank you for sending her to the hospital in time," Jian Yu looked at them and said softly.

As soon as he finished speaking, the emergency room door suddenly opened. A doctor in a white coat walked out first. Seeing this, everyone quickly surrounded him.

No one spoke first. Instead, they knew that Jian Yu should understand the situation first.

Jian Yu looked at the doctor and said, "Doctor, how's my sister? What's wrong with her body?"

The doctor slowly took off his mask and did not look worried at all. This made everyone heave a sigh of relief.

He glanced at the children in front of him and said to Jian Yu, "I found nothing wrong, except for the red and swollen bump on her head."

“There’s no problem?” Lin Yi couldn’t help but ask, “But she fainted after saying that she wasn’t feeling well. Is there really no problem?”

The doctor shook his head. “We’ve done all kinds of examinations on her. Her physical indicators are normal. If you’re worried, do a more comprehensive examination after she wakes up.”

As soon as the doctor finished speaking, the nurse pushed the unconscious Jian Ai out of the emergency room.

Jian Yu quickly asked, “Doctor, when will my sister wake up?”

“She should wake up soon. This kind of coma won’t last long. Don’t worry,” the doctor said.

The nurse pushed Jian Ai to the ward, and Jian Yu followed. Behind her, Yan Tian couldn’t help but mutter, “Could Jian Ai have accidentally slipped in the bathroom and knocked her head against the sink?”

When everyone heard this, they couldn’t help but look at Yan Tian at the same time. Although his words sounded a little strange, it was still possible.

However, no matter what, they were relieved to hear the doctor say that Jian Ai was fine.

However, another person attracted Xia Qinghuan’s attention.

“Brother Jin, why does Xiao Ai’s brother look so familiar?” Xia Qinghuan walked to Chen Jin’s side and couldn’t help but ask in a low voice.

When Chen Jin heard this, his heart thumped. He thought to himself, ‘Oh no.’

Qinghuan didn’t know that she signed with Xiao Ai’s company, let alone that the general manager of the company was Xiao Ai’s brother. When Chen Jin found out about this, Xiao Ai specially instructed him not to tell Qinghuan yet. Now that it was so sudden, he forgot about this.

Although Qinghuan rarely went to the company, she occasionally saw Brother Yu. Although they only glanced at each other or brushed past each other, it left some impression on Qinghuan. Otherwise, Qinghuan wouldn’t have suddenly asked him.

“Oh, I can’t remember. I just think he looks familiar.” Qinghuan was still immersed in the familiarity. She frowned and thought hard.

Chen Jin looked at Qinghuan and couldn’t help but sigh softly.

Qinghuan had two endorsement advertisements to film during the winter break. When the time came, she would definitely frequent the company. When she saw Brother Yu again, she would recognize him at a glance.

With this thought in mind, Chen Jin knew he couldn’t hide this matter for long. He immediately said truthfully, “That’s the company’s general manager, Jian Yu!”

Chen Jin’s straightforwardness stunned Qinghuan for a moment. “The company’s general manager? Which company?”

Chen Jin said, "Which other company could it be? Our company! Rose Entertainment!"

"What?!" Qinghuan couldn't control her voice, and it instantly increased by an octave, causing others to notice her talking to Chen Jin.

"What's wrong, Qinghuan?!" Yan Tian couldn't help but go forward with a curious expression.

Qinghuan looked at Chen Jin with wide eyes.

Chen Jin shook his head at her slightly, hinting at her not to tell anyone.

Suppressing the shock in her heart, Qinghuan slowly retracted her expression and shook her head at her other curious companions. "Nothing. I just know some incredible gossip!"

Chen Jin was a manager, so he knowing some gossip would not arouse suspicion. No one had the mood to ask about gossip now, so they didn't continue to ask.

They arrived at the ward and saw Jian Yu coming out. Seeing his sisters' classmates, Jian Yu couldn't help but thank them again. "Thank you for tonight."

Qinghuan stared at Jian Yu carefully. After all, Jian Yu was indeed handsome. Now that Qinghuan knew the truth, she immediately overlapped him with the figure she had accidentally seen in the company and instantly regained her memory.

It was the young general manager of the company!

Guan Tao said, "You don't have to thank me, Brother Yu. I was so scared."

Jian Yu smiled and said, "It's getting late. Go home early. I'm here. When she wakes up, I'll ask her to report her safety to you."

Yan Tian and the rest nodded first. Lin Yi wanted to stay behind and take care of her, but with Jian Ai's brother around, he didn't seem to need him much. It was also easy for Jian Ai's brother to misunderstand, so he didn't say anything.

They left the hospital together.

Jian Ai woke up in the latter half of the night. In her hazy consciousness, the smell of disinfectant unique to the hospital came first. Her eyelids moved, and she pulled the red and swollen blood bump on her forehead, waking Jian Ai up.