

At School 1411

Chapter 1411 Roommate (2)

Turning around, the noble lady casually sized up the dormitory environment and nodded gently. "It's okay, but it's a little small."

"Mom, you can leave now. Aren't you going to a gathering with your old classmates?" Chu Jiaojiao said impatiently.

The noble lady couldn't help but look at her daughter with an aggrieved expression. "What? Are you chasing Mom away?"

Chu Jiaojiao pursed her lips and said, "If you're not leaving, why are you staying here? Are you helping me pack my things?"

!!

"Oh, why would Mom tidy up these things?" When the noble lady heard this, she quickly waved her hand and walked out in her high heels. "Mom is leaving. Call Mom if anything happens."

Chu Jiaojiao waved her hand without looking up. "I won't send you off!"

The moment the noble lady left, the entire world seemed to have fallen silent.

Luo City's accent was like this, making people feel it was very noisy.

Chu Jiaojiao squatted down and opened the suitcase as she said, "Don't mind her. My mother is too talkative."

Chu Jiaojiao's understanding of her mother was very good.

Yang Xiaoman smiled and said, "Auntie is quite cute..."

As soon as she finished speaking, she heard a bang. The suitcase under Chu Jiaojiao's hand exploded.

The clothes inside instantly popped out.

Only then did Jian Ai and Yang Xiaoman realize that there were so many things in the small suitcase. It had been hard on the suitcase!

Chu Jiaojiao was also frightened. She sat at the side and quickly patted her chest. She muttered, "I was scared to death..."

Coincidentally, the nanny at home applied for leave this month and went back to her hometown. Chu Jiaojiao packed this suitcase herself. She didn't know how to fold clothes, so she stuffed everything together and this scene happened.

One could tell at a glance that she was a little princess who had never done anything.

Yang Xiaoman could not bear to see her in such a sorry state, so she quickly walked forward. "Jiaojiao, let me help you."

When Chu Jiaojiao heard this, she couldn't help but look grateful. At this moment, she looked at Yang Xiaoman as if she had seen her savior.

"Thank you, Jian Ai. I really don't know..." Chu Jiaojiao said.

Yang Xiaoman couldn't help but nod awkwardly. Then, she whispered, "My name is Yang Xiaoman, and her name is Jian Ai."

Chu Jiaojiao was stunned when she heard that. Her big eyes blinked twice. When she reacted, she stuck out her tongue in embarrassment and quickly put her hands together to apologize. "I'm sorry. I remembered wrongly..."

Looking at Chu Jiaojiao's lively appearance, Jian Ai and Yang Xiaoman couldn't help but laugh.

It was obvious that although she was a pampered little princess, she was very innocent. How could the two of them bear to blame her for her unintentional mistake?

It was a good thing to have such a lively person in the dormitory.

Yang Xiaoman helped Chu Jiaojiao tidy up her things, and Jian Ai tidied her bed.

“Where are you from?” Chu Jiaojiao asked about the two of them.

“I’m from the capital,” Yang Xiaoman said.

Jian Ai also answered, “I’m from Baiyun City.”

“Baiyun City!” Chu Jiaojiao was delighted when she heard that. She quickly asked, “Don’t you have a Hotel M there? The entire hotel is made of colored steel glass?”

Jian Ai was stunned. She didn’t expect Chu Jiaojiao to suddenly mention Hotel M.

Jian Ai nodded and said calmly, “That’s right. It should be opening soon!”

“Ah, I have to go take a look when the time comes. It’ll be so beautiful!” Chu Jiaojiao cupped her fists and placed them on her chest with a look of yearning.

Yang Xiaoman blinked in confusion. It was obvious she did not know what the two of them were talking about, let alone what colored steel glass was.

“Jian Ai, Xiaoman, I’ll treat you to lunch. Let’s go out to eat!” Chu Jiaojiao suddenly suggested.

Jian Ai and Yang Xiaoman couldn’t help but look at each other. Their original plan was for the two of them to go out to eat so that they could chat.

However, with just a look, they reached a tacit agreement to accept Chu Jiaojiao's invitation.

After all, they would be roommates in the future and needed to slowly improve their relationship.

There would be many opportunities for them both to talk alone in the future, so there was no hurry.

Jian Ai nodded, but her gaze landed on the last empty seat. Then, she said, "There's still one more who is still not around. Let's wait for her to come before going together."

When Chu Jiaojiao heard this, she couldn't help but look down at the time. Then, she answered, "Then we'll wait for her until half-past eleven. If she's not here by then, then we will go."

Jian Ai and Yang Xiaoman nodded in agreement because they couldn't be sure if the other party would only report in the afternoon.

In the end, five minutes later, the dormitory door was pushed open.

She had long black hair that reached her shoulders, fair and shiny skin, exquisite facial features, and an outstanding figure. For a moment, they thought it was a celebrity standing at the door.

Unexpectedly, in the next second, the 'celebrity' held her forehead weakly. Her body went limp, and she pulled a chair and collapsed on it. "No, it's so hot. I can't breathe."

Jian Ai: "?"

Yang Xiaoman: "?"

Chu Jiaojiao was speechless.

Hot?

It was March, and the cold in the north had not subsided. She said it was hot?

Moreover, what was with her sickly temperament? It did not match her beautiful appearance, right?

Before they could react, the middle-aged man behind her walked in with a big suitcase.

“Oh, your roommates are all here!” The man was shocked to see Jian Ai and the rest. Then, he smiled and greeted, “Hello.”

“Hello, Uncle!” the three of them said in unison.

...

Looking at the ‘celebrity’ at the side, her limbs hung from the chair like a puddle of mud. Those who did not know would think that she was about to die.

Her father was already used to his daughter’s attitude. He pushed the big suitcase to the bed and took out a stack of one hundred yuan in cash from his bag and placed it on the writing table.

“Daughter, Dad is leaving. I’ve placed the money on the table for you. I’ll transfer more to you when you’ve used it.”

The man waved at Jian Ai and the rest and left.

He was gone?

‘Your daughter doesn’t look right. Aren’t you going to interfere?’

The three people in the dormitory looked at one another. For a moment, they didn’t know what to do.

There was no movement at all. Could she have fainted?

Should they send her to the hospital?

In the end, Jian Ai shook her head and whispered, “She might be too tired. Let’s pack first.”

Yang Xiaoman and Chu Jiaojiao nodded when they heard that. They looked at their lifeless roommate again and continued to tidy up.

...

Half an hour later, Chu Jiaojiao stared at her watch. When there was only a minute left before half-past eleven, the ‘corpse’ finally moved!

She slowly raised her head, and her black hair was stuck to her beautiful face. She looked like a beautiful female ghost.

“Hi, my name is Yao Daiyu!”

Chapter 1412 Sister Lin Fell From the Sky

Daiyu.

This name matched her entire condition perfectly. It was unknown what kind of calamity she had to encounter to make a person hang on the chair and not move for half an hour.

She initially thought that Chu Jiaojiao was already special enough, but she did not expect Yao Daiyu to be even more exaggerated.

“Jian Ai.”

“Yang Xiaoman.”

“Chu Jiaojiao.”

They came back to their senses and introduced themselves.

Yao Daiyu tidied her hair and instantly became a beautiful ‘celebrity.’ Then, she said to them, “I was too weak just now. I’m sorry. I’m fine now.”

Jian Ai and the rest blinked. They could tell.

Chu Jiaojiao was the magnanimous one. She immediately called out, “We’re waiting for you to go out for a meal. Let’s go. I’m starving.”

Jian Ai and Yang Xiaoman immediately looked at Yao Daiyu, as if waiting for her to nod.

Fortunately, Yao Daiyu was not an unsociable person. Hearing this, she quickly nodded and answered, “I’m hungry too.”

Jian Ai and the rest secretly heaved a sigh of relief. They almost thought that Yao Daiyu was an otherworldly fairy. That would be too embarrassing.

Capital University was in the prosperous West City District. There were many shopping malls and restaurants around it. Every time it was time to welcome the new students, these restaurants were full.

Because almost all the students in every dormitory would have a gathering on the first day of moving, they would go to the restaurant in the perimeter.

“This one then.”

The school gate was less than two hundred meters away. They stopped outside a large restaurant with floor-to-ceiling windows. From the outside, they could see that there were many customers inside, and they were all students from Capital University.

This was the first time Chu Jiaojiao had treated someone. She initially wanted to find a more decent place, but when she looked at Daiyu, who seemed to be about to faint from exhaustion, she could only find someplace near.

After all, the school gate was so crowded that it was difficult to take a taxi.

When Yao Daiyu heard this, it was as if they had granted her amnesty. She grabbed Chu Jiaojiao's hand and said gratefully, "I can't thank you for saving my life!"

She really could not take it anymore. She was so tired!

Chu Jiaojiao was speechless. She did not understand how Yao Daiyu could be so tired when they were less than a kilometer away from the dormitory building.

Moreover, they could tell that Yao Daiyu was not pretending because her face gradually turned pale, and she looked like she was about to die.

When they entered the restaurant, they happened to enter with three boys.

"Oh, I'm sorry. There's only a small table left in the shop." The female boss looked at the two groups of people in front of her and smiled in embarrassment.

The look on her face meant that a group of people had to line up or go to another restaurant.

Go to another restaurant?

Chu Jiaojiao didn't want to. She was worried that Yao Daiyu would die on the spot after leaving this door!

Jian Ai and Yang Xiaoman also didn't want to change places.

Fortunately, the boys exchanged glances. One of them said, "Let the girls have it. We'll change locations."

They came in together, so the other party gave in. This action was gentlemanly enough.

Jian Ai quickly said, "Thank you."

The boys also said for them not to stand on ceremony. Their gazes swept past Yao Daiyu's beautiful face, which was still pale. A look of surprise subconsciously flashed across their faces.

When they reached their seats, the dining table had just been cleared. There were traces of a cloth on it, and it was greasy.

Chu Jiaojiao frowned in disdain. As she wiped the table with a napkin, she tried her best to salvage her taste. "The situation today is special. I'll treat you to Japanese food next time."

She could not lose her status as a little princess. Today, it was all to accommodate Yao Daiyu.

Jian Ai and Yang Xiaoman didn't care. Moreover, the two of them were from the north, so they were naturally used to northern food.

"Daiyu, don't tell me you're Lin Daiyu's reincarnation? You get tired too easily. I feel like you're going to faint anytime!" Chu Jiaojiao finally couldn't help but voice the doubts in her heart.

What was going on with this girl?

Jian Ai and Yang Xiaoman were also curious. Although Yao Daiyu was easily tired and weak, it did not seem to be a big deal. Yao Daiyu did not seem to care and did not faint.

When Yao Daiyu heard this, she could only smile in embarrassment. However, she also explained, “I’m sorry. I’ve had this physique since I was young. My family also brought me to see many doctors in China and abroad, but we couldn’t find the reason.”

“But don’t worry. Although my body is relatively weak, I won’t die easily. As long as you let me rest for a while, I’ll recover.”

Yao Daiyu was not lying. She was born with this constitution and had been like this since she was born.

She could not bear fatigue, heat, or hunger.

She could carry nothing over ten pounds in her hands or walk more than a kilometer. She had to sleep for ten hours a day. Otherwise, she would not be able to catch her breath.

It was not asthma, but her chest felt stuffy as if something had sucked away the oxygen in front of her.

It was also because of this that Yao Daiyu, who was born so beautiful, had never been in a relationship. Even when she was known as the school belle in junior high and high school and countless boys pursued her, she never agreed.

With her physique, she shouldn’t cause trouble for others.

Fortunately, her family background was good, and they could raise such a weak daughter.

Jian Ai couldn’t help but find it strange. She had never seen or heard of such an illness.

“Do you usually need to take medicine?” Yang Xiaoman couldn’t help but ask.

Yao Daiyu shook her head. “I don’t know what’s going on. How can I take medicine?”

As soon as she finished speaking, Yao Daiyu said, “Besides, I’m already used to it. If I’m tired, I’ll rest for a while. Besides, I’ve never fainted in my entire life. The most uncomfortable time is when I feel a little dizzy. Then, my chest feels stuffy. Nothing big happened.”

Hearing Yao Daiyu’s words, they couldn’t help but secretly heave a sigh of relief. Otherwise, they would have to worry about whether she would faint.

...

However, although Yao Daiyu’s body was weak, she was not weak at all when ordering!

“Roast meat!” “Fried fish!” “Chicken stewed with mushrooms!” “Meat with garlic!”

Good lord, they were all meat dishes.

The female boss quickly said, “That’s enough, you girls. Our portions are huge.”

Only then did Daiyu stop.

After understanding her, Jian Ai learned that Yang Xiaoman applied for a financial management major, Chu Jiaojiao applied for international trade, and Yao Daiyu applied for what was recognized as the most difficult major – clinical medicine.

“Computer science?”

When they learned that Jian Ai was in the computer science course, they widened their eyes in shock.

“Jian Ai, you might be the only girl in your class!” Chu Jiaojiao said.

The computer science major was famous to be a Shaolin Temple major. The majority in almost every university were boys.

Few girls were interested in computer science, and as a university major, it was rare for them to use it to earn a living in the future!

...

With Jian Ai's delicate and beautiful appearance, she chose such a major. It shocked them!

Chapter 1413 The Gaze of a Single

In her previous life, Jian Ai also majored in finance, so she went to work in real estate thereafter.

However, why did she change her major now? It was because she still remembered everything she had learned in her previous life, so she had long thought of changing her major in university.

Secondly, she was more concerned about the future. Artificial intelligence and the Internet were the trend in China's future market. She needed to become more professional so that her future path would be smoother.

Therefore, even if she was not interested in computer science, in the long term, she still applied for this major.

!!

Of course, she would not tell her roommates this.

Therefore, Jian Ai smiled and said, "I'm interested."

Yang Xiaoman couldn't help but laugh. "You're indeed special. I felt that way the first time I saw you."

Jian Ai gave Yang Xiaoman a look and smiled. "I'm just ordinary!"

“You two knew each other long ago?” Yao Daiyu asked after getting some clues from their conversation.

Jian Ai and Xiaoman nodded at the same time. Xiaoman said, “Two years ago, my family opened a roast duck shop in an alley in Huagang District. One day...”

This story was exciting enough. Yang Xiaoman told it to the other two in detail as if it was a conversation during a meal.

In the end, Yang Xiaoman looked at Jian Ai and said, “So, if Jian Ai didn’t stand up for us and let her family help us settle those things, my family wouldn’t be where we are today.”

“Even if I get into Capital University, I probably won’t have the money to stay in a four-person dormitory, let alone know you!”

It was as if they did not expect the two of them to have such a magical relationship. Moreover, Jian Ai helped Yang Xiaoman’s family resolve such a big problem, so much so that Yang Ji Roast Duck had grown like an enormous tree in the past two years and occupied an unshakeable position in the capital’s food world.

The way Chu Jiaojiao looked at Jian Ai had changed. Her big eyes were sparkling as if she was looking at a hero.

Jian Ai chuckled and said, “It’s not as incredible as she said. At that time, I couldn’t bear to see bad people succeed every time, so I interfered in this matter. However, Xiaoman’s duck is delicious, which is why she has today’s achievements!”

“Is Yang Ji Roast Duck yours?” Yao Daiyu reacted half a beat slower and immediately looked at Yang Xiaoman in disbelief.

Yang Xiaoman nodded. “You’ve eaten before?”

“I just ate last night!” Yao Daiyu slapped the table agitatedly. “Don’t you think this is a coincidence?!”

When Yao Daiyu and her father arrived in the capital yesterday, they took a taxi to eat at night and asked the driver if there was anything recommended locally.

The driver was from the capital, so he said the roast duck was a must. To eat roast duck, it had to be Yang Ji Roast Duck!

At that moment, the daughter of the roast duck restaurant was her roommate.

“It’s true. Jian Ai isn’t lying. That roast duck is superb. It’s too delicious!” Yao Daiyu couldn’t help but gulp when she thought of the taste last night. Then, she pulled Chu Jiaojiao and said, “Jiaojiao, you have to eat it. I’ll treat you next time. It’s too delicious and cheap!”

Father Yang had never forgotten his roots. Even if his business expanded, the price of roast duck was still the same as in the alley back then. It did not increase by a single cent.

This was also what many regular customers admired about him.

Fortunately, there were many shops for Yang Ji Roast Duck now, and there were other stir-fried dishes in the shop. Although the profits of the roast duck were not high, it was a signboard restaurant that depended on small profits and high sales.

“Then I have to try it!” Chu Jiaojiao was tempted.

When Yang Xiaoman heard this, she smiled and said, “With me around, there’s no need for you to treat us. If you want to eat, I’ll bring you there anytime.”

Jian Ai listened from the side with a smile.

This was the feeling of being in a university. Although they were all the same age, Jian Ai could feel the difference between being with them and being with Qinghuan and Guan Tao.

She could not say what was different. Perhaps it was her state of mind, but in short, it was different.

“Jian Ai!”

At this moment, a familiar voice came from behind.

Jian Ai didn't need to turn around to hear who was behind her. She couldn't help but smile and turn around. “Lin Yi, what a coincidence!”

There was no one besides Lin Yi, only himself.

Jian Ai couldn't help but stand up and look around curiously. “By yourself?”

Lin Yi quickly denied it with a smile. “My three roommates and I have no seats. I'm queuing up here. They went to the supermarket opposite to buy some daily necessities.”

Only then did Jian Ai nod in understanding. Then, she quickly introduced him to her new roommates. “This is Lin Yi, one of my best friends. We were high school classmates and applied to Capital University together!”

“This is Yao Daiyu!”

“This is Chu Jiaojiao!”

“This is Yang Xiaoman. They're all my new roommates!”

Jian Ai introduced them one by one, and they nodded and greeted him politely.

However, Yang Xiaoman couldn't help but look at Lin Yi a few more times. When he smiled, his eyes curved slightly, making him look exceptionally good.

Like a small sun.

“I'll contact you when I'm free later. Call Qinghuan and the rest to gather sometime.”
Lin Yi didn't want to disturb Jian Ai and her new roommates, so he said nothing more.

Seeing that he was not alone, Jian Ai nodded and waved goodbye to him.

“Childhood sweethearts?” Chu Jiaojiao instantly turned on her gossip radar.

It was no wonder Chu Jiaojiao was gossipy. Seeing that the two of them were classmates, best friends, and even got into the same university together, their relationship was not ordinary.

“Jiaojiao, Xiao Ai has a boyfriend!” Xiaoman said.

Chu Jiaojiao was stunned for a moment before nodding in understanding. “It’s my fault for talking too much.”

Jian Ai looked at Chu Jiaojiao and smiled. “Lin Yi and I only became classmates in high school. We’re not considered childhood sweethearts. However, you’re right. My relationship with him is even higher than that of a friend. He’s someone I cherish more than a friend.”

Jian Ai didn’t deny the weight of Lin Yi in her heart. Although it wasn’t love, it was precious.

For love was the white moonlight that could not be easily forgotten.

Chu Jiaojiao blinked, not understanding. For a moment, she couldn’t digest Jian Ai’s words.

Yao Daiyu didn’t seem to have gotten into the situation at all. After a while, she said, “So Jian Ai has a boyfriend! I don’t!”

As soon as she finished speaking, she looked at Yang Xiaoman and Chu Jiaojiao and asked, “Do the two of you have one?”

The two of them shook their heads in unison, showing that there was no such thing.

In the end, the three of them looked at Jian Ai together. At this moment, Jian Ai was being watched like a visitor from outer space.

“What’s wrong?” Jian Ai blinked.

They retracted their gazes at the same time. Coincidentally, the waiter brought the dishes over. They said nothing and started eating.

Jian Ai was speechless.

What had happened just now? Why did it seem like they gave her a look so that she could experience it herself?

Why was it that only she had a boyfriend?

As if understanding something, Jian Ai suddenly smiled.

The gaze of a single.

Chapter 1414 Class Belle

In the afternoon, the four people in the dormitory did not idle. They first packed the things they had brought and then started the cleanup.

They wiped the windows, washed the toilet, and wiped the cabinets.

The corners were very troublesome, and it took some effort to clean them.

Fortunately, they all liked to be clean. Even the little princess Chu Jiaojiao did it without complaint.

Yao Daiyu also directly explained that they should not treat her differently in a group activity. Even if it was work, she had to participate.

Therefore, after ten minutes of work, she rested for ten minutes, testing the boundaries of fainting.

Finally, after their efforts, the dormitory looked brand new. It looked much more comfortable.

However, they were too tired to go out. They ate instant noodles in the dormitory for dinner.

The welcome day at Capital University lasted for three days. Class officially started on the seventh.

The cold winter air was still lingering in the north during this season, and the temperature difference between morning and night was greater. This morning, all the students in the school who were rushing to class were wrapped in thick coats, and their footsteps were faster.

Different majors were in different parts of the university. The four people in the dormitory went downstairs together. After crossing an intersection, they separated.

Jian Ai looked up at the morning sun, which had quietly poked its head out. A smile filled her beautiful face. The cold wind blew her hair that had fallen to her shoulders. She tightened her collar and walked forward quickly.

Noisy voices came from the doors of the various classes when they stepped into the corridor. The freshmen were interacting with their new classmates. It was very lively.

Year One of the computer science and information technology major, Class One!

The moment Jian Ai stepped through the door, the entire class stopped talking.

At a glance, they were all boys.

The only girl standing at the door was Jian Ai.

Everyone looked at her as if waiting to see her next move.

Was she looking for someone?

Or...

Jian Ai smiled and swept her gaze across the classroom before landing on an empty seat in the middle.

In the next second, she walked over calmly and slowly sat down.

A series of deep breaths sounded around them. All the boys' eyes lit up as they looked at each other excitedly.

Was this girl from their class?

In the next second, a fair boy with a buzz cut reacted first. He grabbed his bag and flipped it from behind Jian Ai to her side!

Anyway, they sat casually on the first day, so the boy instantly became Jian Ai's deskmate.

The only girl in the class was sitting at the same table as him. Needless to say, he instantly aroused the hatred of the entire class!

"Hi, Yu Dong."

The boy was outgoing and didn't seem embarrassed at all. He even took the initiative to greet Jian Ai.

Jian Ai naturally wouldn't be afraid. She replied with a kind smile, "Hello, Jian Ai!"

"Jian Ai..." Yu Dong muttered this name softly as if he remembered it.

“Did you enter the wrong classroom?” Yu Dong asked.

It sounded like a joke, but it was not entirely a joke.

Because Jian Ai was the only girl in the class. What if she went to the wrong classroom?

After all, the computer science and information technology major was famous for being a Shaolin Temple. Even civil engineering schools and agricultural technology majors couldn’t compare to it!

In the end, which girl was willing to be a coder in the future?

How could Jian Ai not know what Yu Dong was thinking? She couldn’t help but nod and say with certainty, “No, I applied for this specialization.”

As if to make Yu Dong more certain, Jian Ai emphasized, “Computer science and information technology!”

The person at the desk in front of her immediately turned around and looked at Jian Ai. “I fantasized if there would be one or two girls in the class, but I didn’t expect them to be as beautiful as you.”

The girls they fantasized about must look old-fashioned and dazed, or they had boring personalities and were wearing thick glasses.

This stereotype existed for a long time. Correspondingly, the boys would be fair, thin, and weak.

Therefore, when a beautiful girl with a good temperament like Jian Ai appeared in class, these boys were naturally excited.

“Thank you.” Jian Ai accepted all her classmates’ praises and acted naturally and unrestrained, instantly increasing her favorability.

The students at the desks behind also poked their heads over. “From your accent, you’re from the north? Where are you from?”

“Baiyun City,” Jian Ai answered truthfully. “Baiyun City, Jin Province!”

The other party was delighted. “I’m from a distant city in the suburbs. We can be half-considered to be from the same hometown.”

This city in the suburbs was also in Jin Province. It was close to Baiyun City.

Everyone came to talk to Jian Ai, and the other boys in the class surrounded her. Jian Ai’s position instantly became the focus of the entire class.

Jian Ai did not refuse anyone and chatted with her classmates in full swing. She remembered everyone who had told her their names!

In the end, someone announced that Jian Ai would be the class belle in Class One.

Jian Ai gladly accepted this honor.

Everyone screamed and cheered. For a moment, Jian Ai became Class One’s favorite.

It was not until a middle-aged man with glasses and a beer belly walked into the classroom that the students quickly dispersed.

Because this person was their teacher.

...

The man walked to the podium without a word. Then, he took out a piece of chalk from the chalk box and turned around to quickly write three words on the blackboard.

Yang Guozhong!

Then, he wrote a string of numbers under his name. It was a phone number!

“I’m your form teacher. This is my name,” Yang Guozhong said slowly. His voice was exceptionally deep, making people feel at ease.

“University is a brand new starting point in students’ lives. Use four years to decide your life for the next forty years.”

As soon as he finished speaking, Yang Guozhong raised his hand and knocked on the string of numbers on the blackboard. “This is my phone number. I ask each of you to memorize these numbers. Most of the students are from other places, so during the time you’re studying at Capital University, no matter what problems or difficulties you have, be it studying, living, or even emotionally or financially, you can call me.”

When the students below heard this, they could not help but subconsciously become serious.

The form teacher’s pressure was strong, and he controlled the entire scene with just a few words.

However, without a doubt, from his words just now, it was not difficult to tell that he was a good reliable teacher.

Without talking too much nonsense, Yang Guozhong said, “There’s no need to take attendance. I’m old, so I won’t be able to remember any names. I’ll remember after slowly interacting with all of you in the future.”

“Let’s choose a class monitor.” Yang Guozhong adjusted his glasses and looked down. “Does anyone recommend themselves?”

...

Unexpectedly, someone suddenly jumped up and pointed at Jian Ai. “Teacher, the class belle!”

Yang Guozhong couldn't help but raise his eyes slightly when he heard this. His sharp gaze looked down through the glasses.

As the only girl in the class and sitting in the middle, Jian Ai was naturally eye-catching.

"Oh, there's a female classmate in our class!" When Yang Guozhong saw Jian Ai, his tone softened.

As expected, in this Shaolin Temple, girls were not only precious in the eyes of the students but also in the eyes of the teachers!

!!

Jian Ai was a little embarrassed and forced a smile.

"What's your name?" Yang Guozhong looked at Jian Ai and asked.

Jian Ai could only quickly stand up to show her respect to the teacher. "Teacher Yang, my name is Jian Ai."

When Yang Guozhong heard this, he picked up the student list in his hand and quickly found Jian Ai's name. "Jian Ai, she scored over seven hundred points!"

"Wow..."

The students widened their eyes and exclaimed. At this moment, Jian Ai's image became even more goddess-like.

She was so beautiful, had a good personality, and was a top student!

A smile also appeared on Yang Guozhong's face. It had to be known that he had been teaching at Capital University for so many years that he could count the number of female students under him with ten fingers.

He knew very well what kind of role a girl would play in a group of boys. For the entire class, it added a different color and fun.

“Does anyone have any objections to Jian Ai being the class monitor?” Yang Guozhong suddenly asked.

The students: “No!”

Jian Ai immediately cowered. “Teacher, I can’t...”

She was too busy. How could she have time to be the class monitor?!

If anything happened in class and she did not have time to do it, wouldn’t she let everyone down?

Therefore, Jian Ai rejected him not because she was not capable, but because she felt she had little energy to do this.

Moreover, there were dozens of boys in this class for her to take care of?

“Why not? Are you afraid that you can’t control these boys?” Yang Guozhong looked at Jian Ai and asked.

Jian Ai quickly nodded.

Unexpectedly, Yang Guozhong smiled when he saw this. “With my experience, I’ll tell you that you, a girl, are in charge of this group of boys!”

It had a miraculous effect!

Yang Guozhong knew and had seen such a scene!

“Class belle, we’ll be obedient!” A boy built the atmosphere.

As expected, everyone responded!

“That’s right. We’ll do whatever the class belle says!”

“We have to dote on our class belle!”

“You’re the class monitor on the surface, but the emperor, in reality. We’ll listen to your instructions!”

...

The boys in this class did not look like nerds at all. They cheered and spoke glibly, making Jian Ai laugh!

The atmosphere immediately became happy.

Yang Guozhong looked at Jian Ai and smiled. “Did you see that? In our class, girls are stronger than me, a teacher.”

He waved his hand and gestured for Jian Ai to sit down. “It’s settled then. Jian Ai will be our class monitor in the future. Don’t let me see her cry. Otherwise, everyone sitting here will be punished!”

Good lord, the teacher doted on the class belle too!

This was the first time Jian Ai felt she could receive such good treatment as a girl.

Of course, this situation was only limited to here. As the saying went, the rarer something was, the more valuable it was. At this moment, Jian Ai was Class One’s protected animal.

No one could hurt her!

“Jian Ai, what do you usually like to do? Is it related to computers? Or do you like to study codes yourself?”

During class, Yu Dong leaned on the table and chatted with Jian Ai.

Teacher Yang didn't mention changing seats, so Yu Dong became her deskmate in the end.

However, this boy was quite cute. He was strong and had a particularly good-looking canine tooth. He had a cheerful and easygoing personality.

Jian Ai looked at him and smiled as she shook her head. “I usually like to practice martial arts.”

Yu Dong: “...”

He didn't take Jian Ai's words seriously. Yu Dong pursed his lips. “I'm being serious.”

Jian Ai said in amusement, “I'm not joking with you!”

In the past few years, she had never stopped practicing martial arts. After returning to China, she especially went to the martial arts school a few times and learned a few new sets of fist techniques from her master and eldest senior brother.

Hearing that Jian Ai was serious, Yu Dong sat up. “You know martial arts?”

Jian Ai nodded without denying it. “I've been learning for a few years.”

As soon as she finished speaking, Jian Ai sized up Yu Dong's small body and said bluntly, “I can fight ten of you!”

Yu Dong: “...”

“Good lord, our class belle knows martial arts. Who can withstand this?!” Yu Dong exclaimed. He suddenly felt that Jian Ai was like a treasure that could always surprise people.

However...

Yu Dong frowned and looked puzzled. “Why didn’t you get into a sports school? Or a martial arts school? There doesn’t seem to be a martial arts school for the college entrance examination...”

“I have to get into a martial arts school just because I want to learn martial arts? How did you get into Capital University with your logic?” Jian Ai smiled and said, “I naturally have my reasons for getting into this major. I’m here to learn because I’m not very proficient in computer science!”

Yu Dong pursed his lips and said disdainfully, “You think too simply of this profession. Let me tell you this. If you’re not interested in this thing, you won’t be able to learn it!”

“That pile of codes can make you autistic!”

Jian Ai believed it!

However, she was sorry. She was not here to learn how to write codes.

What she needed was to understand this field. Although she could not escape learning to write codes in the end, compared to her goal, codes were just a passerby. The core of the entire field was the focus she had to master.

Moreover, Jian Ai could withstand this boredom and loneliness.

“What about you? What do you usually like to do? Study codes?” Jian Ai asked Yu Dong.

Yu Dong shrugged without denying it and said with a casual expression, “Yes, but not entirely. You also know that boys have fixed hobbies. I like motorcycles and usually like to play games.”

“Online games?”

...

Yu Dong nodded. “Everyone is playing it now, right? However, the popular games among us boys differ from the ones you girls play, but they’re all online.”

“What types?” Jian Ai was suddenly interested and continued to ask.

“I’m playing the Cold Winter Throne now. It’s the kind with sieges and snatching of territory...” Yu Dong was halfway through his words when he suddenly felt that something was wrong.

He stared at Jian Ai for a few seconds before suddenly reacting. “Have you never played online games before?”

Jian Ai was speechless.

“Damn!” Yu Dong looked as if he had discovered a new continent. “No way. You’ve never played it before? You girls like to play dancing games. Have you never played it before?”

Jian Ai frowned awkwardly and shook her head.

“You’ve never been to an Internet cafe?” Yu Dong asked again.

“I’ve never been there!”

Yu Dong: “...”

Good lord, a new-era mutant. A human who had gone to university but had never been to an Internet cafe.

What Yu Dong did not know was that this human who had never been to an Internet cafe opened an Internet cafe chain called Fantasy World Technology.

“I want to play. Can you teach me?” Jian Ai suddenly said.
