Chapter 1426 Legend Wasp

In the past ten hours, none of the four people in Jian Ai's dormitory left. Instead, they accompanied each other.

Although waiting always made people anxious, fortunately, ten hours later, Xiao Zhen sent news that the so-called doctor who was even more powerful than him had already arrived in the capital and was on his way to the hospital.

Jian Ai quickly told Yang Xiaoman this news to reassure her.

Until...

They looked at the woman in front of them who looked even more like a doll than Chu Jiaojiao. A girl?

Sixteen big question marks appeared on their heads.

According to Xiao Zhen, the medical expert he was talking about was already twenty-five years old, but why did this cute girl in front of them look like she was eighteen years old?

Or even younger.

Her lively and harmless eyes inexplicably made people lower their guard.

However, no matter what, they could not link the person in front of them to the expert of the medical world Xiao Zhen mentioned!

"You're... Miss Wasp?" Jian Ai muttered. Even if many strange things had happened to her, she didn't seem to have the right to question some other strange phenomena.

However, Jian Ai still subconsciously confirmed it.

Wasp blinked her big eyes and nodded gently. Then, she said, "Xiao Zhen asked me to help him save someone."

As soon as she finished speaking, Wasp raised her slender and fair wrist and looked at the yellow cartoon watch on it. She whispered, "I'm flying back at noon, so... where's the patient?"

As soon as she finished speaking, she blinked her big eyes again.

Jian Ai was speechless. Because of Miss Wasp's attitude and tone, it was as if the person she wanted to save had a cold!

She was calm and did not show any sense of crisis.

From the corner of her eye, she noticed the clock on the wall. It was already eight in the morning. Other than the time she went to the airport, this meant that Miss Wasp had less than three hours to treat Uncle Yang!

It could be completed?

After a few seconds of mental activity, Jian Ai quickly turned around. Behind her was the intensive care unit, and Father Yang was lying attached to an oxygen tank.

Yang Xiaoman and the rest were even more nervous than Jian Ai. The main reason that the miracle doctor Jian Ai moved here was...

Everything was obvious.

However, there was no other way. She could only believe in Jian Ai, and Jian Ai was the same. She could only believe in Wasp in front of her and tell herself to believe in Xiao Zhen!

Wasp walked to the glass window of the intensive care unit and looked inside. Then, she said calmly, "Report the patient's condition to me!"

Jian Ai quickly said, "Wait for me. I'll get it immediately!"

As soon as she finished speaking, she turned around and ran to look for the attending doctor who operated on Father Yang.

Five minutes later, not only did the medical report come, but the attending doctor also followed when he heard that the family had found a solution.

When he learned that this girl in front of him, who was dressed in fancy clothes and had big yellow curly hair, was the method, the doctor was petrified on the spot.

However, Wasp did not care about anyone else at all because as long as she entered a state, there would only be two people left in the entire world, her and the patient!

Five pages of the medical report listed Father Yang's condition in detail. Red lines were even used to mark the especially dangerous and troublesome areas. However, Wasp only glanced at them briefly, and a sneer immediately appeared on her lips.

At this moment, an insufferably arrogant aura suddenly appeared around her. Only Jian Ai noticed and felt it.

Seeing this smile, Jian Ai felt that this matter was settled!

She casually returned the medical report to the dumbfounded attending doctor. Wasp turned her head slightly and said to Jian Ai, "Prepare the operating theater!"

Jian Ai immediately nodded. Fortunately, Yu Wuyuan had established a connection with the hospital in advance. As long as they needed it, the hospital would do its best to cooperate!

"Doctor, please be my assistant later," Wasp suddenly said to the doctor, who thought all of this was just a dream.

The so-called assistant was usually the assistant chief surgeon.

However, Wasp never needed an assistant chief surgeon for surgery, so the assistant she was talking about was to let this expert doctor from a tertiary Grade A hospital in the capital enter the operating theater to be her nurse.

The function was to hand over surgical tools!

The doctor suddenly came back to his senses. "You... what did you say?"

Wasp knew he had heard her, so she nodded and smiled as a courtesy. Then, she followed Jian Ai and the rest toward the operating theater.

The doctor felt a foul breath in his chest. If not for the hospital director's words that all the departments and medical staff would cooperate with this patient's family unconditionally, he would not have accompanied this group of girls to cause trouble.

He wanted to see what this blond girl was up to. Could it be that this patient's enemy sent her to silence him?

The operating theater was ready. Wasp said nothing and walked straight in.

Not long after, the staff pushed Father Yang, who was filled with tubes, in. Then, the unrelated people quickly retreated. In the end, the doctor pushed the surgical tools into the operating theater.

The lights were switched on!

There were only Wasp and the doctor in the operating theater.

Yang Xiaoman's heart tightened again. She said worriedly, "Xiao Ai, is that okay?"

"Don't worry!" Jian Ai had a firm expression on her face and did not panic at all. This was because she believed in Wasp and wanted to stabilize Xiaoman's mentality.

To put it bluntly, to Xiaoman, she had no choice!

Bai Zhou's call came. After Jian Ai learned that the person who came to help today was called Wasp, she immediately instructed Bai Zhou to check Wasp's information.

Not that she had any intention of investigating Wasp's personal information. She just wanted to reassure herself.

However, she did not expect Wasp to be one step ahead of Bai Zhou. The news came, but Wasp had already entered the operating theater.

"Wasp, the legendary killer, ranked second in the International Killer Group. The word 'Wasp' is just a code name and isn't a real name. In her career, she completed over four hundred missions without defeat. Among them, there was no lack of political leaders, big shots in the business world, and gangsters who died at her hands."

"She escaped from Country M alone when EDI's four hundred police officers surrounded her. She slaughtered over four hundred police officers, and no corpses were left! This was the Hornet incident that shocked the world at that time. Because of this, she was listed as an international SSS wanted criminal!"

"However, she has long retired. She was one participant in the previous International Killer Group hunting plan. She overturned the organization she was once loyal to."

"Currently, she lives in Country Z and is one of the top leaders of Hongfan Society, one of the three largest gangs in Asia!"

Chapter 1427 Suspicion

As she listened to Bai Zhou talk about Wasp's 'glorious deeds,' Jian Ai combined the harmless-looking cute girl with this information bit by bit in her mind.

In an instant, she had goosebumps.

There was only one word in her mind: terrifying!

If she had not seen this person with her own eyes and heard this news from Bai Zhou, even someone like Jian Ai, who had been reborn, would not believe everything that had happened to Wasp.

She was a living body of flesh and blood. She had no mental cultivation techniques or superpowers, but she could do so much. How powerful was she?

"I've broadened my horizons today," Jian Ai muttered and sighed in her heart.

"Since she's someone Xiao Zhen found and has such a shocking past, she should be trustworthy. Sect Master, don't worry too much," Bai Zhou said.

Jian Ai chuckled. There was no need for her to worry. Just the amount of information in her mind was enough for her to digest for a while.

After hanging up, Jian Ai exhaled and smiled bitterly. So what if she had awakened the power of blood and grasped a high-level mental cultivation technique?

There were some things that others could do, but she could not.

Perhaps this was also the reason the twelve guards had different abilities. Everyone had something irreplaceable. Even Chi Yang's auxiliary mental cultivation techniques were unique, and as the Sect Master, she was no exception.

Two hours was not a long time, but the wait was often long. It was not until Jian Ai looked at the time for the sixth time that the lights in the operating theater suddenly went out.

The door opened, and Wasp walked out expressionlessly. Then, she saw the attending doctor, who was her assistant, following behind her with admiration. He differed completely from the frown he had when he entered.

Jian Ai and the rest quickly surrounded them. "How was it?"

Wasp smiled casually. "It's over. I nailed six silver nails into the patient's lower limbs. We can't remove the silver nails for a year, so he'll limp a little."

"Find a hospital to take out the silver nails a year later. Then, work harder for rehabilitation. His limp will slowly recover."

Her tone was so calm that she did not sound like she had saved a life-threatening patient.

Yang Xiaoman and the rest heaved a sigh of relief. They finally smiled and quickly thanked her.

Wasp only looked at the time and said, "If you have questions in the future, you can look for this doctor, but there shouldn't be any problems. I still have a plane to catch. Goodbye!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Wasp nodded at Jian Ai and left.

Jian Ai wanted to ask her to stay, but she didn't say it in the end. She felt from the bottom of her heart that a person like Wasp didn't need anyone else's response. She had her rhythm.

"It's amazing," the doctor exclaimed as he looked at Wasp's petite back. His eyes behind his glasses were glowing.

He had been in the industry for decades and was already an expert in the industry. However, today, he had seen how there was no end to learning. What had happened in the operating theater two hours ago was a height he could not reach even if he spent his entire life.

If he had not seen it with his own eyes, he would not have believed it. However, after seeing it with his own eyes, he felt extremely lucky and even proud. This was because he had also taken part in it, even if he was just passing tools.

"I'll remove the silver nails here a year later. I want to keep these silver nails," the doctor suddenly said to Jian Ai.

Jian Ai seemed to understand why the doctor was so agitated. He must have seen a miracle, so she immediately nodded.

Wasp left the hospital. After getting into the car, she went straight to the airport. However, she suddenly thought of something on the way and took out her phone to make a call.

"Oh, I thought I was seeing things. Why did Sister Wasp suddenly think of calling me?" The voice on the other end of the phone was roguish and sounded sloppy.

"I came to China to help a friend today and operated on someone." Wasp's small body curled up in the spacious backseat of the huge van. She said in a relaxed tone, "I only suddenly thought of you after I was about to leave, so I quickly called you. Don't blame me for not telling you I came to China, lest Young Master Ji feels unhappy."

It was none other than Ji Haoyu on the other end of the phone.

"You're in China?" Ji Haoyu suddenly became serious. "In the capital?"

"I'm almost at the airport. I'll be flying back at noon."

"Don't!" Ji Haoyu quickly said, "You came so suddenly. No matter what, you have to meet me and let me do my best as a host, right? If Sister Yao finds out, she'll say that I'm insensible!"

Wasp chuckled and said, "Let's not talk nonsense between us. Sister Yao is pregnant, and many things are going on in society. If not for a very important person asking this time, I wouldn't have been able to take the time to come over."

"Ah? She's... pregnant again? This is the fourth time, right?" Ji Haoyu said in surprise, "Master Ting is not bad. This production rate!"

"This time, there are two in her stomach." Wasp rolled her eyes and said helplessly, "At the current Hongfan Society headquarters, Sister Yao has three children, Fire Fox has four children, and Black Cat has three children. It has become a kindergarten."

"Who would have thought that after these female killers who once dominated the international scene retired, they started giving birth to children for fun?" Ji Haoyu smiled and said, "You're the only one left. Aren't you getting married?"

"Don't rub your nose in it. I'm almost at the airport. Xing Yun and Xing Li are at our Hongfan Society. Don't worry, there won't be any danger," Wasp said and hung up.

Two days later, Father Yang woke up faintly. His mental state was not bad, and he did not look like he had been saved from death.

Yang Xiaoman told Father Yang everything that had happened. Father Yang thanked Jian Ai profusely. Jian Ai said it was good that he was fine, and asked him not to take it to heart.

Yu Wuyuan suppressed all the news of this incident. Other than some witnesses on the day of the incident affecting things a little, there was no other commotion. It was as if this had never happened. The other branches of Yang Ji Roast Duck were operating normally with customer flow still as long as before.

Bai Zhou was ordered to investigate the cause of the incident and found something suspicious.

"Four people were in the roast duck room, including Boss Yang. Three of them are Boss Yang's disciples. After this happened, only he was still safe and sound!"

That photo was a group photo at the entrance of Yang Ji Roast Duck on the opening day. That man was beside Father Yang. Father Yang placed his hand on his shoulder intimately and smiled. It was obvious that the two of them were very close.

Jian Ai frowned slightly. There were four people in the roast duck house, including Uncle Yang. After she saved Uncle Yang that day, she returned and saved two more people in the roast duck house.

There was indeed one less person!

Chapter 1428 Welcome Everyone

“What was the situation then?” Jian Ai asked subconsciously.

When Bai Zhou heard this, he answered, “At first, we didn’t think that this was a man-made accident. Although there was one less person in the roast duck house, I thought someone didn’t go to work that day, so he dodged the bullet.”

“However, after our investigation went deeper, we learned this person went to work normally that day. The cause of the incident was indeed the explosion of the hanging furnace in the roast duck house, and this person was not at the scene. He was not even in the shop!”

Jian Ai couldn’t help but nod.

That day, she was eating in the shop. The accident happened at the busiest time in the shop at noon. This person was working normally that day, but he left the shop at the busiest time when the accident happened. That had to be suspicious.

“Have you found him?” Jian Ai asked.

Bai Zhou nodded. “I found him. He’s a local in the capital. He’s been learning roast duck skills from Master Yang for almost two years. He’s working in the main shop now. I think he’s a disciple that Master Yang values very much.”

“Follow him first and find out if this has anything to do with him,” Jian Ai said calmly. “If it does, find out if it’s his act or if it implicates someone else.”

Bai Zhou nodded.

Jian Ai had to get involved in this matter to the end. Because of this, Uncle Yang almost lost his life. If this matter was caused by someone, not only for Uncle Yang but also for Yang Xiaoman, she would avenge the Yang family.

She looked at the time. It was almost noon. It was Saturday, and there were still many people in the company waiting for her to go to a meeting.

“Boss, you’ve been too tired these few days. Why don’t we change the meeting to next week?” Seeing that Jian Ai still wanted to go to the company and looking at her tired expression, Bai Zhou couldn’t help but stop her.

Jian Ai only waved her hand gently. “I’m fine. I’ll go back to school to catch up on sleep after the meeting. This meeting has been delayed for a few days because of me starting school. I can’t delay it anymore.”

Seeing Jian Ai’s firm attitude, Bai Zhou could only nod.

M Corporation had established two new companies in the capital. They were Roaming Online Gaming Company and MD Model Management Company.

The online gaming company was Jian Ai’s idea. It took a long time to import many game production talents, so the company had already started operations before the new year. In the past few months, the company had used its rich financial resources to recruit over ten experienced and innovative talents from all over the world. They were currently jointly developing the first large-scale online game that belonged to the company!

The idea of MD Model Management was Jian Yu’s idea.

The modeling industry was still relatively behind in the Chinese market. There were only a handful of famous supermodels in China internationally, but this did not mean that this industry had no development potential.

Moreover, her brother was the one who suggested this idea. Jian Ai highly affirmed her brother’s courage to try a new direction and gave substantial support. After her discussion with the professional team, they unanimously felt that this industry would be a big cake in the future, and they were looking at the international market.

Therefore, Jian Ai transferred Jian Yu from Rose Entertainment to the capital. Now, he was the general manager of MD Model Management Company, and Qiao Yuan was promoted to the general manager of Rose Entertainment.

The subsidiary was established in an office building in the capital's Yangming District. Just like when they were in Baiyun City, it was convenient for the two companies to be neighbors.

They went straight to Roaming Online Gaming Company. Jian Ai followed Bai Zhou into the conference room.

People from the various departments of the company had been waiting for a long time. When they saw Bai Zhou, they stood up one after another. When they saw Jian Ai behind Bai Zhou, everyone couldn't help but look surprised.

Although Manager Bai had long revealed that the boss behind the scenes was a girl who had just entered university, they still found it unbelievable to see it with their own eyes.

Jian Ai came to the master seat in the conference room and slowly swept her gaze across the over ten people in the conference room. Most of them were Asian, but they came from various countries. There were also a few European faces. These were the top talents Bai Zhou mentioned.

"Everyone, please sit down," Jian Ai said softly and gestured for everyone to sit down and talk. However, she didn't sit down. Instead, she said to everyone, "My name is Jian Ai. I'm the founder of M Corporation. I'm currently studying in the computer science department of a university in the capital. This is the first time I've met everyone since the company was established. I'm very happy and honored. All of you are top experts in the industry. I believe in everyone's abilities and hope that everyone can unleash their talent and potential. Let us inject the strongest new blood into the Chinese online game market."

"On behalf of M Corporation, on behalf of Roaming Online Gaming Company, and on behalf of me, welcome everyone!"

Her calm but sincere opening statement received thunderous applause in the conference room. This encounter left a good first impression on the employees who were curious about her.

With no-nonsense, Jian Ai slowly sat down and announced, “The meeting begins!”

...

Baiyun City, Jian Group.

Jian Changsheng had been a little distracted recently. That day, he couldn’t help but agree with his son.

Although he didn’t admit it directly, Jian Changsheng knew his son was so smart and sensitive. He must have understood.

This matter was like a nightmare that haunted him, making him feel terrible recently. He regretted it sincerely. No matter what, he should not let Yichen suffer this.

Jian Changsheng wasn’t in the mood to handle the mountain of documents on the desk. He sat there for a long time, but he didn’t know what to do next. He didn’t even know how to face Yichen in the future.

Jian Changsheng pretended to be calm when someone knocked on the office door.

The person who came was the director of the marketing department, Vivian. Two years ago, the director of the marketing department, Han Wenjing, got into a car accident in the capital and became a vegetable. Until now, she was still in a coma.

Han Wenjing’s assistant, Vivian, was ordered to temporarily take over Han Wenjing’s position. Later, because of her outstanding ability and Han Wenjing’s lack of improvement, Jian Changsheng officially appointed Vivian as the marketing director a year ago.

“CEO.”

Vivian's image was still bright and beautiful. With her good figure, she looked like a model. She was the recognized goddess of wisdom and beauty in the Jian Group.

"What's the matter?" Jian Changsheng asked casually. He took a document and read it.

Vivian walked forward and placed a beautifully wrapped gift bag on Jian Changsheng's table. Then, she smiled and said, "Our colleagues in the company have booked a place tonight. It's your birthday tomorrow. Spend it with your wife. Leave tonight to us!"

Chapter 1429 Discovered

Birthday?

Jian Changsheng was stunned for a moment before understanding.

Tomorrow was his birthday. A few days ago, Shuyi mentioned this, but he had been busy recently and did not care.

"You guys play. I won't be going," Jian Changsheng said to Vivian. "The company will cover all expenses. Thank everyone on my behalf."

!!

When Vivian heard this, she couldn't help but quickly say, "Don't, CEO. Everyone specially prepared it for your birthday. Why aren't you going?"

As she spoke, Vivian wrapped her arms around her shoulders and tilted her head to soften her tone. "Go, CEO. It's been a long time since we've had a gathering with you. We're looking forward to it."

Jian Changsheng was not in a good mood, but he hesitated when he heard Vivian's words.

In the end, he nodded. "Alright."

Seeing that Jian Changsheng had agreed, Vivian was delighted. She patted the small gift bag on the table with her red nails and said happily, "I hope you like my gift."

Jian Changsheng wanted to say that there was no need for a gift, but Vivian beat him to it. "I especially chose it for you. It's not anything valuable. You have to accept it!"

Jian Changsheng swallowed his words and nodded. "Thank you."

Vivian left the office with a glowing face and long legs. Lili, who was at the secretary's desk, looked up at Director Vivian's back and rolled her eyes.

That night, Jian Changsheng went to the birthday party the company had prepared for him with a stomach full of worries. After a few rounds, he had drunk too much.

Qiao Shuyi waited until past one in the morning before the chauffeur sent the unconscious Jian Changsheng back.

"Why did you drink so much?"

When Qiao Shuyi saw Jian Changsheng being held by the chauffeur at the door, she reached out to help.

Jian Changsheng had always drunk alcohol regularly. Even if it was an especially important social gathering, he wouldn't drink like this. At most, he would talk nonsense, but today, he drank until he was unconscious.

The chauffeur quickly said, "The CEO might have drunk a few more glasses because he was happy."

Qiao Shuyi had always been gentle and would never lose her temper with others, let alone make things difficult for a driver.

She only said, "It's been hard on you. Quickly go back and rest. Leave him to me."

"I'll help Madam help the CEO in first."

The two of them helped Jian Changsheng, who had lost his center of gravity, to the sofa and lay down. Only then did the chauffeur leave.

Looking at Jian Changsheng, who reeked of alcohol and had no reaction, Qiao Shuyi sighed softly. Recently, because her daughter suddenly left her side, she had been in a terrible state and neglected her husband and son. Looking at Jian Changsheng's face, Qiao Shuyi's heart ached, and she blamed herself.

She turned around and got a wet towel. She squatted down and wiped Jian Changsheng's face.

"Xiao Yu... Forgive... Oh..."

Jian Changsheng started talking in his sleep and said something unclear. Qiao Shuyi paused and frowned. Jian Changsheng stopped talking.

She vaguely remembered that because of Han Wenjing's accident last time, Changsheng was also very drunk. In the car, Qiao Shuyi still remembered hearing him say happy birthday...

When he was drunk, he said something he didn't understand. Qiao Shuyi sighed and ignored him.

The next day, Jian Changsheng woke up on the sofa in the living room with a splitting headache. When he opened his eyes, he couldn't help but press his temples.

His head felt as heavy as lead, and it was still buzzing. His stomach felt uncomfortable as if he had been tortured.

"Husband, you're awake." Qiao Shuyi walked forward. Seeing Jian Changsheng like this, she couldn't help but ask with concern, "What's wrong? Are you not feeling well?"

"My head hurts a little. Perhaps I drank too much," Jian Changsheng muttered. Then, he looked at Qiao Shuyi and asked, "I didn't vomit when I came back yesterday, right?"

Qiao Shuyi smiled and shook her head. Then, she said, "Go back upstairs and rest again. Don't go to the company today."

"No, I still have a few documents waiting for me to sign on my desk. Some of them are urgent. I have to go," Jian Changsheng said and stood up.

Seeing this, Qiao Shuyi pushed him back down. "If you feel so uncomfortable, don't go. It's your birthday today. Just treat it as a day off for yourself."

Looking at the time, Qiao Shuyi said, "Yiyi is especially rushing back from the capital today. She should have already boarded the plane. Yichen would come over with Dad and Mom tonight as well. Be energetic. Don't let the children come back and see your tired face."

Hearing that his daughter was back, Jian Changsheng hesitated.

Seeing this, Qiao Shuyi said, "How about this? I'll get Xiao Chen to send over the documents from your office later. Eat something later. When you're in good spirits in the afternoon, sign the documents at home."

Jian Changsheng shook his head. "That won't do. They're all private and important documents. Why don't you go to the company and help me get them back?"

Half an hour later, Qiao Shuyi drove to the Jian Group.

"Madam, why are you here?"

As soon as she reached the office door, the secretary, Lili, welcomed her warmly.

This secretary was very familiar with Qiao Shuyi. Back then, Qiao Shuyi gave her a high-class supermarket shopping card with a denomination of over ten thousand yuan and asked her to help her pay more attention to Jian Changsheng's condition.

Lili did as she was told. Usually, when Jian Changsheng was not in good condition or was angry at the company, Lili would report it to Qiao Shuyi.

In the blink of an eye, over two years had passed. Qiao Shuyi had given her a lot of things, and Lili gradually understood her true use.

Qiao Shuyi said nothing. She knew what she should pay attention to now.

When Qiao Shuyi saw Lili, she also revealed a friendly smile. Then, she said, “Changsheng drank too much at the gathering yesterday and has a headache today. I came over to help him bring some documents back. He said it was quite urgent.”

Lili quickly nodded and opened the door for Qiao Shuyi.

Qiao Shuyi walked to the desk and took out two blue document folders, a red one, and a black one according to Jian Changsheng’s instructions. The document folders were labeled with the words ‘confidential.’ Jian Changsheng said that these were documents for the South City project and were very important.

No wonder it could not be handled by others.

After putting away the documents, Qiao Shuyi noticed an exquisite gift bag on the table.

With just a look, she knew it was a gift. A gift from someone to Jian Changsheng.

Qiao Shuyi picked it up with a calm expression and opened it. Inside was a golden box. When she opened it, it was a man’s tie with a refined color.

It didn’t look like anything valuable, but this tie was indeed suitable for Jian Changsheng. It was obvious that the person who chose the gift had thought about it.

...

A card fell onto the table. On it was written: Happy birthday to you! Vivian.

Chapter 1430 Let's Get Married!

If a man looked at this short sentence, he might not discover anything and would only think that it was just an ordinary birthday blessing.

However, in a woman's eyes, these small words contained countless content and metaphors.

Qiao Shuyi's expression was impermanent as if she did not care at all. She slowly closed the card, put the gift away, and put it back in its original position.

When she walked out again, she was still dignified.

"Madam, let me do it..." Lili helped Qiao Shuyi press the elevator button. Then, she lowered her head respectfully and said, "Take care."

Qiao Shuyi looked at her and said casually, "Has Changsheng been in a bad state recently?"

When Lili heard this, she subconsciously became serious and quickly answered, "I think so. He's been distracted a lot these few days, and he always forgot to sign the documents the departments sent over."

Lili said truthfully that this was indeed Jian Changsheng's recent condition.

Qiao Shuyi nodded in understanding and said nothing.

Jian Ai woke up early in the morning. Although she tried her best not to disturb her roommates, Chu Jiaojiao still woke up.

"Sister, what time is it? Aren't you going to sleep a little longer?" Chu Jiaojiao poked her head out of the sleeping curtain. Seeing that Jian Ai had light makeup on, she couldn't help but ask seriously, "Where are you going? Are you going on a date?"

Jian Ai chuckled and whispered, "My boyfriend is coming today. I have to accompany him."

"From Baiyun City?" Chu Jiaojiao asked.

Jian Ai nodded.

Chu Jiaojiao immediately rolled her eyes. "That's good. Doesn't he think it's torture?"

Not to mention Chu Jiaojiao, but even Jian Ai felt so. However, Ji Haoyu did not think so. He said that he would die if he did not see her for a week.

Jian Ai believed him!

"If the two of you have nothing on today, remember to accompany Xiaoman." Jian Ai was still thinking about Yang Xiaoman.

Chu Jiaojiao extended an OK gesture, and her voice floated out from the top bunk. "Don't worry, Daiyu and I agreed yesterday that it would be your turn to rest today. The two of us will accompany her."

Jian Ai was relieved. Fortunately, Uncle Yang's condition had stabilized.

Perhaps because it was the weekend, there were few people on campus.

Ji Haoyu booked an early flight, so he did not ask Jian Ai to pick him up. At this moment, he was already on the way to the city.

Jian Ai went straight to the apartment and tidied the room briefly. Not long after, the doorbell rang.

Jian Ai went forward to open the door. Ji Haoyu appeared outside, travel-worn, and wrapped in a cold aura.

Dressed in a simple and clean casual outfit, he looked at her with a smile in his peach-blossom eyes.

In the next second, Ji Haoyu strode forward and picked Jian Ai up. He hooked his feet and closed the door.

Jian Ai subconsciously hooked her arms around his neck and wrapped her legs around Ji Haoyu's waist. A passionate and deep kiss assaulted her. In an instant, Ji Haoyu's aura overwhelmed her and wrapped Jian Ai tightly.

"Did you miss me?"

Heavy breathing and ambiguous words came out of the gap between their passionate kisses. Jian Ai was dizzy from the kiss and could only grunt.

This voice was as charming and lazy as a cat's, making Ji Haoyu's passion rise and almost cross the line.

The last bit of rationality suddenly pulled him. Ji Haoyu slowly stopped and realized that he had pressed Jian Ai on the countertop in the dining room. Her entire posture was extremely evil.

Ji Haoyu gritted his teeth and looked at Jian Ai unwillingly. "I feel uncomfortable!"

Jian Ai couldn't help but sneer. She looked up at him. "It's good that you feel uncomfortable."

Taking a long breath, Ji Haoyu's soul slowly returned to his body. He stood up and pulled Jian Ai up. Then, he gently kissed her lips and said, "Did you specially prepare such a good place for me?"

Jian Ai rolled her eyes at him but didn't deny it. "Otherwise? I asked someone else to find this house. In the future, when you come to the capital, just come here. I'll give you an additional key."

Ji Haoyu nodded and carried Jian Ai to the sofa to sit down. Beside the sofa was a large floor-to-ceiling window, and he could see the scenery in the capital.

“Where do you want to go today?” Jian Ai raised her hand to touch Ji Haoyu’s smooth face and asked.

Ji Haoyu turned his head and quickly and accurately bit Jian Ai’s finger. His smooth tongue swept across her finger, making Jian Ai quickly pull it back.

Ji Haoyu revealed a wicked smile and said, “I just want to nest with you. I don’t want to go anywhere.”

As soon as he finished speaking, he said, “But if you want to go out for a walk, I’ll accompany you!”

Jian Ai sighed softly and thought for a moment. Then, her eyes lit up. “Let’s go for Italian food at noon? I know an especially delicious restaurant.”

Ji Haoyu naturally agreed and nodded.

The two of them stayed in the apartment for the entire morning and didn’t go out until past eleven.

This Italian restaurant had a lot of history. It was a restaurant Jian Ai often came to in her previous life.

The two of them sat down in the shop. Then, Jian Ai skillfully ordered some things before finally having time to talk to Ji Haoyu. After all, she had little chance to talk this morning.

Although this week was not long, too many things happened. Jian Ai told Ji Haoyu about the explosion at the roast duck restaurant.

“Is he okay?” Ji Haoyu asked with a frown.

Jian Ai shook her head. “He’s fine for now, but I’m looking for someone to investigate the cause of the accident. There might be unexpected results.”

“You suspect that someone did it?”

Jian Ai nodded without denying it, but she still said carefully, “But I’m not completely sure. We’re still investigating.”

At this moment, enthusiastic cheers and applause suddenly broke out in the restaurant, scaring Jian Ai.

The two of them looked over at the same time. It turned out that a boy in the cafeteria was proposing, and the girl was nodding in agreement with tears in her eyes.

The surrounding customers cheered and applauded again. Jian Ai also applauded with a blessed smile.

Ji Haoyu retracted his gaze and looked at Jian Ai’s faint and indifferent profile. He said softly, “I’ll give you an unforgettable proposal in the future.”

...

When Jian Ai heard this, she paused and turned to look at Ji Haoyu, only to see him looking at her seriously.

Jian Ai’s heart was burning, but she shook her head and smiled. “There’s no need to be in public!”

When Ji Haoyu heard this, he couldn’t help but laugh. “Will it be awkward?”

“If you were the one proposing, I wouldn’t be embarrassed, right?” Jian Ai looked at Ji Haoyu and said, “After all, it’s not the first time you’ve embarrassed me in public. I’m already used to it.”

As she spoke, Jian Ai couldn't help but think of her past with Ji Haoyu and couldn't help but laugh. However, she didn't expect to meet Ji Haoyu's peach blossom eyes.

"Xiao Ai, why don't we get married?!" Ji Haoyu suddenly said in a serious tone.
