

At School 33

Chapter 33: To Be Honest, He's the Most Good-looking

"Ah... Ah... Let go... It hurts..."

Because of the sharp pain from his wrist, Boss Liu felt that something had sucked all the strength in his body away. His tall body twisted into a weird arc, but the person who suddenly appeared and grabbed his hand didn't show any expression.

"Huazi!"

Sister Xia rushed over at this moment. She was the public relations manager in charge of these escorts in the club. These ladies were all her subordinates.

Sister Xia naturally saw the man at first glance and was shocked. After confirming that she was not seeing things, she said, "Ji... Young Master Ji... why are you here..."

Ji Haoyu frowned slightly. He flung Boss Liu to the side and said impatiently, "Where is Xiang Chunlai?"

Sister Xia quickly looked around and realized that Xiang Chunlai was not around. She panicked and said to Ji Haoyu, "Young Master Ji, I... I'll go get CEO Xiang now."

With that, she turned around and ran away in her high heels.

"Mom!"

Jian Ai squeezed through the crowd and immediately saw Wang Yunmei, who had fallen to the ground. She didn't know what had happened, but when she saw her mother sitting on the ground, she instinctively panicked and rushed forward.

"Mom, what's wrong? Where are you hurt?" Jian Ai asked anxiously. She held onto Wang Yunmei's shoulder and carefully looked at her up and down to see if she was hurt.

When Wang Yunmei saw Jian Ai, she was shocked. "Xiao Ai? You... why are you here?"

Everyone's attention was suddenly on the two of them. They looked at Wang Yunmei's beautiful figure and then looked at the fourteen or fifteen-year-old girl beside her.

They were mother and daughter? They looked more like sisters, right?

Ji Haoyu naturally noticed Jian Ai and Wang Yunmei as well. When he heard the conversation, he chuckled in amusement. "Xiang Chunlai doesn't want to work anymore? And someone brought her child to work?"

When Jian Ai heard Ji Haoyu's teasing voice, she immediately turned around to look. However, her heart skipped a beat.

Ji Haoyu had short hair that was neat and tidy. His eyebrows were smooth and thick, and his nose bridge was high. His thin lips curved slightly, leaving a faint smile on the corner of his lips.

Looking down, she could see his tall figure, long legs, and tailored suit pants that accentuated his perfect buttocks. He was wearing a white, crease-free vintage shirt with two gold cufflinks on the sleeves. The shirt was unbuttoned to the third button on his chest, vaguely revealing the firm muscles of his chest. A black totem necklace crawled over his sexy collarbone and settled at the base of his Adam's apple, which was filled with masculinity.

Jian Ai finally looked up and met his eyes.

1

It was a pair of peach blossom eyes that could instantly make one drown in them. The ratio of eye whites and pupils could be said to be perfect. The dark luster between the pupils was like an obsidian king, and it was even more like a mysterious black hole that came from the vast universe, dangerous and fascinating.

1

However, this man was displaying the attitude of a rich playboy. The smile in his eyes and the smirk on his lips conflicted with his entire temperament.

The existence of contradictions was still perfect and flawless!

In both her past and present lives, Jian Ai had seen many handsome men, but the one in front of her was, in all fairness, the most good-looking.

"Young Master Ji..."

At this moment, Xiang Chunlai ran over with a flushed face. Behind him were several security guards from the club.

Chapter 34: Pack Your Things and Get Lost Immediately

The situation was chaotic, but Xiang Chunlai couldn't care less. The person in front of him was the most important.

"Young Master Ji... why didn't you tell me you were coming..."

Xiang Chunlai's face was flushed, and he reeked of alcohol. It was obvious that he had been having some fun in a private room in the club.

Ji Haoyu frowned but ignored Xiang Chunlai. Instead, he said to the security guards at the side, "Clean up all these broken glasses."

By the side, Boss Liu seemed to have sobered up. He had never seen the person in front of him before, but who in Baiyun City did not know Young Master Ji's name? When he thought about how he had gotten drunk and caused trouble in the Ji Group's nightclub, he broke out in cold sweat. Currently, he was hiding at the side, trying his best to reduce his presence, hoping that Young Master Ji would ignore him.

Unfortunately, although Ji Haoyu did not take Boss Liu seriously, he definitely would not forget about him. He immediately raised his well-defined fingers to the side. "And this person, the vase that he broke was an antique. Leave two million yuan as compensation and throw him out."

The security guards did not say a word and swiftly went forward to pick up Boss Liu. The surrounding onlookers watched the commotion but did not dare to comment. They had all heard that this Ji Group's Young Master Ji's personality was gloomy and unpredictable. He seemed to be cynical, but was actually fickle and easily angered. If he did not agree, someone would suffer.

Everyone was muttering in their hearts. As expected, Ji Haoyu's gaze landed on Xiang Chunlai, who was smiling apologetically. Then, he said impatiently, "And you, pack your things and get lost now!"

The smile on Xiang Chunlai's face froze, and he looked at Ji Haoyu in horror. After a while, he reacted and hurriedly shouted, "Young Master Ji, give me another chance. I won't dare to do it again..."

Everyone was shocked. Xiang Chunlai was quite famous in Baiyun City because he was the general manager of Yaochi Club. The entire nightclub was under his management. With Yaochi's reputation in Baiyun City, almost all the upper-class people knew Xiang Chunlai.

Unexpectedly, it was because of this matter that Young Master Ji frowned and fired him without hesitation?

Jian Ai saw everything. The man in front of her, who looked to be in his early twenties, seemed to be exaggerating. However, in reality, he had an invisible dominance.

His words and actions made others feel that he did as he pleased. However, that was not the case. He knew very well what he was doing.

Ignoring Xiang Chunlai, Ji Haoyu's gaze landed on Huazi. Then, he looked at Wang Yunmei and Jian Ai beside him. Then, he said in a casual tone, "If you're injured, get someone to send you to the hospital. Find the finance department to reimburse the medical fees."

Just as he was about to turn around and leave, he suddenly stopped in his tracks. He looked at Wang Yunmei and said, "From now on, you can't bring your child to work."

"Young Master Ji... Sister Mei is here today to resign. She... she didn't bring her daughter to work."

Sister Xia, who was standing at the side, blurted out. Although Wang Yunmei was one of her subordinates, she was still older than her, so Sister Xia usually called her Sister Mei. It was also because she was one of her own that Sister Xia didn't want Young Master Ji to misunderstand and wanted to explain.

On the other hand, Ji Haoyu raised his handsome brows when he heard this. Following this, his pair of peach blossom eyes were filled with a smile. He looked cunning and handsome. He tilted his head and asked, "Resign? Why did you resign?"

Chapter 35: Could This Person Be a Fool?

When Sister Xia heard this, she wanted to explain, but Wang Yunmei beat her to it. “Young Master Ji, I’ve been working in the club for twelve years. I’m not young anymore, and it’s not suitable for me to do this job anymore. Moreover, I have to drink a lot every day in the club, and my children are always worried about my health. I resigned because I didn’t want my children to worry.”

Wang Yunmei’s two reasons were very reasonable. At least in the eyes of others, although Wang Yunmei still had her charm, the club was filled with teenage girls. In comparison, she was indeed quite old.

“Twelve years?”

However, Ji Haoyu’s way of thinking was completely different from others. The main point in Wang Yunmei’s words was twelve years in Ji Haoyu’s ears! He blinked in shock. “Let me think. Twelve years ago, I was still a child! You’ve been working here for twelve years? If you work in a state-owned enterprise, you’ll get two houses!”

Just as everyone was looking at Ji Haoyu, not knowing what he wanted to do, they saw him suddenly take a long stride forward to Wang Yunmei. He raised his hand and scratched his head as he thought about it. “How about this? Don’t leave. Xiang Chunlai’s gone now. I’ll let you be the general manager!”

It could be said that his words were shocking to the extreme. A single sentence was like a thunderclap that stunned everyone on the spot, and their mouths and eyes were wide open like copper bells.

It was said that Young Master Ji was willful and did whatever he wanted. This scene was indeed better if seen with one’s own eyes!

Wang Yunmei and even Jian Ai were stunned. Looking at the man in front of them, Jian Ai couldn’t help but wonder, ‘Is this man a fool?’

1

The general manager of Yaochi Club?

“No... I can’t... Young Master Ji... I...” Wang Yunmei regained her senses and quickly waved her hands to reject him. She was here to resign today, so why did he still let her be the general manager?

However, before Ji Haoyu could take back his words, he said firmly, “It’s decided then. You’ve been working here for twelve years, so you must be more familiar with the club than your own home. As for business matters, Xiang Chunlai’s assistants will be allocated to you. You just need to slowly familiarize yourself with them. The salary and treatment are the same as Xiang Chunlai’s.”

After he had finished speaking, he did not give Wang Yunmei a chance to speak. Ji Haoyu regained his senses and called out to everyone, “From now on, she will be the new general manager.”

With that, he strode towards the elevator without looking back.

Jian Ai reacted and immediately chased after him. This was the first time she had seen such a person. He did not even ask for her opinion. He just opened his mouth and waved his hand, and everything was already decided?

“Hey!”

Ji Haoyu had long legs, and Jian Ai couldn't catch up even if she jogged. In a moment of desperation, she called out.

Ji Haoyu heard the sound and stopped. He looked back and saw Jian Ai quickly walking forward. Her body looked especially petite in front of Ji Haoyu's height of nearly 1.85 meters. She had to tilt her head slightly to look at him.

There was a smile in Ji Haoyu's eyes. It was that kind of flirtatious smile. Jian Ai was in a trance and almost forgot what she was here for.

2

“My mom won't be working at the club anymore. She already resigned, so you should find someone else to take over the position of general manager.” Jian Ai calmed herself down. She knew that she couldn't afford to offend the man in front of her, so she tried to make her tone sound gentler.

Unexpectedly, when Ji Haoyu heard this, he curled his lips. The evil smile that suddenly appeared was simply captivating. His low and magnetic voice sounded above Jian Ai's head, but it was only five words. “What you say doesn't count!”