Chapter 351: When Are You Going to Tell Her?

Jian Ai felt a little emotional that her mother had safely survived liver cancer. In her previous life, the fear of losing her mother made her feel uneasy. Wang Yunmei was one of the few people who could make her show a weak side.

Fortunately, all of this was in the past. Jian Ai thanked Xiao Zhen from the bottom of her heart.

“Alright, Xiao Ai, let go of Mom. I can’t cook anymore if you continue to hug me,” Wang Yunmei said with a smile.

“What are you making for dinner?” Jian Ai craned her neck to look.

“They’re all your favorites. Get your brother to call your aunt’s family over later. I haven’t seen them in a while. She must be thinking too much.”

As she spoke, Wang Yunmei chased Jian Ai out of the kitchen. “Quickly go and do your homework. Don’t get in the way.”

Jian Ai smiled and left the kitchen. She saw Jian Yu waving at her at the door.

In the room, Jian Yu closed the door and turned around to ask Jian Ai, “Where’s Erzi?”

Erzi was Chen Jin’s nickname. Only Jian Yu would call him that.

Jian Ai said, “He just moved away this weekend.”

Jian Yu was stunned for a moment before asking, “He found a job?”

Jian Ai nodded slightly and told Jian Yu what had happened to Chen Jin during this period.

The more Jian Yu listened, the more shocked he became. His handsome face was filled with surprise.

A manager for an actor? A salary of over twenty thousand yuan a month?

This...

Jian Yu didn’t know what to say. After all, this sounded too dramatic.

Moreover, the profession of a manager sounded very distant. He couldn’t link it to Chen Jin.

“Brother, you didn’t tell Mom about my company, right?” Jian Ai’s words pulled Jian Yu back to reality.

Jian Yu came back to his senses and quickly shook his head. “No. Besides, you didn’t tell me in detail that day. I haven’t figured out what happened yet.”

“Aunt already knows,” Jian Ai said.

Jian Yu was shocked again. “You told Aunt?”

Jian Ai nodded. “I wanted to hide it for a while and tell Aunt after I told Mom. In the end, Aunt got laid off at the clothing factory, so I thought I would tell her first. I arranged a job for her in my company. It’s her first day at work today.”

“So... Aunt went to your company?” Jian Yu asked.

Jian Ai: “What else can I do? If I don’t take her to the company, she won’t believe me easily.”

“When do you plan to tell Mom?”

Jian Ai paused and thought for a moment before saying, “Aunt is already working in my company. I don’t think we can hide it anymore. Why not... today?”

Since she would say it sooner or later, she might as well confess while her aunt’s family was around today.

Jian Yu didn’t have any ideas. It was mainly because he didn’t know much about his sister’s current situation. Other than knowing that she opened a company, he didn’t know anything else.

“It’s up to you. You decide.”

Jian Ai nodded, but she was already thinking about what to say.

At around six in the evening, Wang Yunzhi and Yao Feng arrived with Jiachi. As soon as they entered, Wang Yunzhi went straight to the kitchen.

When she saw Wang Yunmei, Wang Yunzhi couldn’t help but say, “Sister, why do you seem to have disappeared these days? I came here a few times, but you weren’t at home.”

Wang Yunmei had a smile on her face. When she heard that, she answered, “You see me now!”

As she spoke, Wang Yunmei noticed that Wang Yunzhi’s appearance today was different from before. She was wearing a black professional suit.

She was stunned. “Why are you dressed like this?”

Chapter 352: Demolition

It was Wang Yunzhi’s first day at work today. East Sea Real Estate provided her work outfit. As soon as she got home from work, Jian Yu called them over, so she couldn’t change her clothes.

Wang Yunzhi pursed her lips and smiled, but she didn’t tell Wang Yunmei directly. She only said, “You haven’t seen me these days. There are so many things that can’t be connected, right?”

Wang Yunmei stopped what she was doing and couldn’t help but look at Wang Yunzhi. “What’s going on? What happened?”

Wang Yunzhi smiled. “I was laid off, so I changed to a new job. I didn’t have time to change out of my work clothes.”

“Work clothes?” Wang Yunmei was shocked. She sized up Wang Yunzhi again. Was this lady’s suit work clothes?

Wang Yunzhi nodded but didn’t say anything. She carried the dishes Wang Yunmei had prepared and left the kitchen.

Xiao Ai had to say it herself. She couldn’t say anything.

In the living room, Yao Feng called Jian Ai to him as soon as they met. Jian Ai didn't have to guess to know what her uncle was going to say. She immediately said, "Uncle, don't thank me. We're family. I want you, Aunt, and Jiachi to lead a better life."

Yao Feng was clumsy with words and was uneducated. When he got agitated, his entire face would flush red.

Jian Ai was afraid that her uncle would be like this. She quickly said, "Are your legs better?"

Yao Feng nodded. "I've been rubbing alcohol these two days. I feel much better."

"Did my aunt tell you about work?" Jian Ai asked Yao Feng.

When Yao Feng heard this, he nodded in embarrassment. "She did, but Uncle doesn't have much ability. What can I help you with?"

Jian Ai smiled. "Uncle, don't worry. I'll arrange something for you."

Wang Yunzhi had already talked to Yao Feng yesterday, so Yao Feng had decided that no matter what job Xiao Ai arranged for him, as long as he could do it, he would listen to Xiao Ai.

He nodded at Jian Ai.

Wang Yunmei made a table full of dishes. After serving the last soup, she called out to everyone, "Let's eat!"

It was a rare reunion between the two families, and everyone had a smile on their faces.

"It's been a long time since I've eaten Sister's dishes!" Yao Feng sat down and smiled at Wang Yunmei.

When Wang Yunmei heard this, she couldn't help but smile at him. "Isn't your leg injured? You can eat more pork trotters to nourish your body!"

Everyone was about to start eating when the door was suddenly pulled open from the outside. Then, they saw Wu Shaoqi walk in with a smile.

"I haven't even entered the yard yet, but I can already smell the fragrance!" Wu Shaoqi smiled and said.

"Uncle Wu!"

Jian Ai and the rest quickly stood up and greeted him.

"Old Wu, your nose is sharp! You came because of the smell, right?" Wang Yunmei quickly called out, "Xiao Ai, go to the room and get a stool for your Uncle Wu!"

Jian Ai answered and was about to get a stool when Wu Shaoqi waved his hand. "Don't bother much. I have business here!"

The few of them couldn't help but be stunned as they looked at Old Wu.

Wang Yunmei said, "What's wrong, Old Wu? Is it a good thing or a bad thing?"

Wu Shaoqi raised his eyebrows. "Of course, it's a good thing!"

Without waiting for them to ask, Wu Shaoqi didn't keep them in suspense. He said, "The news of South City's demolition has been released. I think everyone will know in the next two days!"

Everyone was shocked when they heard that. They did not expect the news of the demolition to be so sudden!

Wang Yunmei was stunned for a moment before letting out a cry. She looked at Wang Yunzhi and said, "Zhi, you haven't found a house yet, right?"

Wang Yunzhi and Yao Feng couldn't help but look at each other. For a moment, they didn't know what to say to Wang Yunmei, so they could only look at Jian Ai.

Chapter 353: Confession

"Tsk!" Wang Yunmei couldn't help but look at the two of them. "Why are you looking at Xiao Ai?"

Jian Ai couldn't help but secretly hold her forehead. She had initially planned to talk about this after dinner when everyone was sitting together. However, now that things had progressed to this stage, it seemed that she had to say something.

"Everyone, sit down first," Jian Ai called out to everyone before entering the room to get a stool for Wu Shaoqi to sit on.

Surrounding the dining table, Wang Yunmei was the first to speak. "Why is it so sudden? Old Wu, is the news accurate?"

Wu Shaoqi nodded. "Of course. If it's not accurate, why would I be in a hurry to tell you?"

Everyone still trusted Wu Shaoqi. His tofu stall was an established brand. People from various districts in Baiyun City went to buy tofu from him every day. The people he interacted with were many and varied, so his news was naturally updated the fastest.

When Wang Yunmei heard this, she couldn't help but look at Wang Yunzhi and Yao Feng. "Look, the two of you aren't paying attention to this matter. Once the news of the demolition is released, the property prices in Baiyun City will rise. It's been almost two months, but the two of you haven't taken a liking to a suitable house?"

"If there's something suitable, then settle it. I'll pay for it," Wang Yunmei said.

Wang Yunzhi didn't know if she should say anything. She hesitated and looked at Jian Ai, but Jian Ai nodded at her.

Could she say it?

Without waiting for Wang Yunzhi to say anything, Jian Ai spoke first. She looked at her mother and said, "Mom, Aunt has a house. You don't have to worry."

"Ah?" Wang Yunmei was stunned for a moment before looking at Wang Yunzhi. "Really?"

Wang Yunzhi smiled helplessly and nodded.

“This... When did this happen?” Wang Yunmei was a little stunned. Her sister’s bankbook only had tens of thousands of yuan. Where could she buy a house? She didn’t ask her for money!

“It happened during the weekend. It’s quite sudden,” Wang Yunzhi whispered. For a moment, she couldn’t find the right words to relate this matter to Jian Ai.

Jian Ai knew that her aunt didn’t know what to say. She immediately said to her mother, “Mom, I want to tell you something today.”

As soon as she spoke, everyone looked at Jian Ai. Jian Yu, Wang Yunzhi, and Yao Feng knew that she was going to say it.

Wang Yunmei and Wu Shaoqi, who were unaware, were a little puzzled.

“What is it?” Wang Yunmei asked.

Jian Ai paused for a moment and slowly said, “Actually... I own a company now.”

Jian Ai’s expression was serious, but Wang Yunmei blinked.

As if doubting her ears, Wang Yunmei asked again, “What?”

This reaction was the same as when Jian Yu heard this news.

This time, Jian Ai didn’t have to repeat herself. Jian Yu said, “Mom, Xiao Ai opened a company and didn’t dare to tell you.”

When Jian Yu opened his mouth, Wang Yunmei widened her eyes in shock and disbelief.

Even Wu Shaoqi was stunned. He opened his mouth but couldn’t say a word.

This reaction was too natural, and Jian Ai had expected it.

She was only fourteen years old, but she did such a big thing behind her mother’s back. It was unbelievable.

At this moment, Wang Yunzhi said, “Sister, Xiao Ai arranged for my new job. She brought me to her company this weekend. It’s formal and huge. It’s a real estate company!”

As she spoke, Wang Yunzhi told her about Jian Ai giving her the house. She even emphasized that Jian Ai’s partner gave this house to her for free.

Chapter 354: Confession (2)

The more Wang Yunmei listened, the more shocked she became. It was as if she was listening to a story.

After a long while, she finally regained her senses. She couldn’t help but look at her son, sister, and brother-in-law and ask, “You all... know about this?”

As Jian Ai’s mother, she did not know!

They nodded silently.

“Mom, I’m sorry. I didn’t mean to hide it from you. I didn’t know how to tell you, so I’ve been waiting for the right opportunity,” Jian Ai whispered.

She had never thought of hiding it from anyone from the beginning. She did all this for these people in front of her.

However, it was always difficult to speak. After all, she was still a child in the eyes of others.

The impact of this matter was not small for Wang Yunmei. It was not that she did not believe in her daughter, but as a mother, she was worried as her daughter had silently caused such a huge commotion.

She was worried that she would be cheated or go astray.

After all, her daughter was only fourteen years old. How could she... open a real estate company?

She did not even have an identity card!

Moreover, where did she get the money?

It was no wonder Wang Yunmei thought poorly of things. This was her most instinctive reaction as a mother. She couldn’t help but look at Jian Ai seriously. “Xiao Ai, tell Mom the truth. Do you own this company?”

Jian Ai also nodded thoughtfully.

Wang Yunmei said, “Where did you get the money?”

She had to clarify this matter. If someone used her daughter to do something illegal, she would call the police immediately.

“Mom still remembers what happened between Li Yunmei and me, right? Actually, at the police station, I asked for more than one million yuan from Li Yunmei’s father. I asked for three million yuan. I asked him to write two checks and left the two million yuan one for myself!”

Jian Ai pursed her lips and said, “Actually, I already had plans to start my own business at that time!”

Wang Yunmei’s heart thumped when she heard this. Her usually obedient daughter was hiding such a significant matter from her?

Three million yuan...

The one million yuan check Jian Ai received shocked Wang Yunmei, which was not the only truth.

Her daughter asked Li Qiang for three million yuan. How did she dare to ask for that?

For a moment, Wang Yunmei felt that she never truly understood her daughter.

Looking at her mother’s reaction, Jian Ai felt her heart ache. She quickly said, “Mom, I know that all of this is unacceptable, but I hope you can believe me. I’m starting a business. I have the ability.”

“Xiao Ai, it’s not that your mother doesn’t believe you. She’s just worried about you,” Wu Shaoqi suddenly said. As a parent, he could empathize with Wang Yunmei’s thoughts.

Wang Yunmei came back to her senses and tried her best to tone down as she said to Jian Ai, "It's not that I don't believe you, but you're only fourteen years old. How can you do these things alone?"

"Xiao Ai said that she established the company with the help of a friend." Wang Yunzhi quickly spoke up for Jian Ai.

However, it was okay if she didn't mention it. When Wang Yunmei heard that there was another person, she immediately became more vigilant. "Who?"

She was worried that her daughter was too young and people would take advantage of that.

Jian Ai opened her mouth, but Bai Zhou's appearance in her mind instantly changed to another person. "Ji Haoyu!"

Wang Yunmei was instantly stunned when she heard this. This name sounded familiar, but it suddenly appeared in her ears, causing her to be stunned for a moment.

Three seconds later, Wang Yunmei came to a realization. Her expression was even more surprised than before. "Young Master Ji, Ji Haoyu?"

Chapter 355: The Perfect Candidate

It was no wonder Wang Yunmei was so shocked. She could not imagine that her daughter had become friends with Young Master Ji.

Jian Ai nodded solemnly. "That's him."

As she spoke, she apologized to her mother in her heart. At this moment, she had no choice but to lie.

Just as her mother had said, she could not set up a company alone at fourteen because she did not even have an identity card.

However, if she said Bai Zhou's name at this moment, no one present knew him except her. Bai Zhou was like a person who appeared out of thin air. It would only make her mother feel that this person was even more suspicious.

There was another choice, and that was Brother Wu Bi. However, Jian Ai still changed Wu Bi's name to Ji Haoyu when she blurted it out.

Firstly, Uncle Wu was present today. The two families were close, and Jian Ai was afraid that this lie would be exposed one day. Moreover, she did not want to drag Brother Wu Bi down with her to lie.

These thoughts flashed across Jian Ai's mind in an instant. She knew that she had to find someone whom her mother knew but could not verify the truth. This person also had to have the ability to help her set up a company.

Ji Haoyu was simply the perfect candidate.

Therefore, what appeared in her mind was Bai Zhou, the person in her voice was Wu Bi, but the person whom she blurted out, in the end, was Ji Haoyu.

As expected, when she heard Ji Haoyu's name, Wang Yunmei's heart inexplicably calmed down.

Although she did not know Young Master Ji, Old Ji had visited her three times during her stay in the hospital. Because of Old Ji, Wang Yunmei would not doubt Young Master Ji.

Moreover, with the Ji Group's ability, there was no need to use a fourteen-year-old girl like her daughter.

Moreover, she was also a member of the Ji Group.

Looking at Wang Yunmei's expression, Jian Ai knew that she was relieved. She couldn't help but secretly heave a sigh of relief.

Although she still lied, she had no choice but to use a temporary measure. Otherwise, if her mother asked about it, she would not explain it even if she had a lot of mouths.

She couldn't possibly say that she was a reborn sect master. If that happened, she would probably be sent to the psychiatric department for treatment. No one would believe her.

Taking advantage of the situation, Jian Ai quickly looked at Wang Yunmei and said, "Mom, if you're still worried, I'll take you to my company to take a look."

Wang Yunzhi nodded. "Yes, Sister, you have to go take a look. Xiao Ai did something incredible."

Wang Yunmei sighed and nodded gently.

Now that things had come to this, she could not force her daughter to close the company. From what they said, this company had more than a hundred employees.

Since her daughter was the boss, she naturally had to be responsible for these people.

Seeing this, Wu Shaoqi couldn't help but look at Wang Yunmei and say, "Xiao Mei, this is a good thing. Xiao Ai is amazing. She already has her own company when she's just a teenager!"

Yao Feng chimed in, "That's right, Sister. No child is that capable. We should be proud of Xiao Ai."

"Mom, Xiao Ai did this for our family. She had this ambition and acted early. It's apparent that she's grown up," Jian Yu said.

Everyone chimed in and talked about this matter in a good way. When Wang Yunmei heard this, she felt much better.

Yes, this was a big deal for their family and Xiao Ai. If her daughter could succeed, then as a mother, she should be proud of her.

As long as everything was formal and her daughter's company operated legally, she had no reason to object or stop them.

Chapter 356: What? Divorced?

At that moment, the Wang family, which was only a kilometer away from Jian Ai's house, was also bustling with activity.

Since both her sons were back for dinner today, the old lady naturally had to cook a few more of her sons' favorite dishes. Li Xia was also helping out in the kitchen.

“What? Brother and Sister-in-law got divorced?”

As Old Madam Wang cooked, she mentioned Wang Yunzhong and Jiang Chunfen’s divorce to Li Xia, and it surprised her.

She was still holding the green beans that she had not finished plucking in her hand. She blinked at the old lady in disbelief. “Mom, why is it so sudden?”

Not long ago, she went to her elder brother’s house with Yunfa. At that time, her elder brother and sister-in-law looked fine. It had only been a month, so why did they suddenly get a divorce?

The old lady was not too affected. After all, her son still had the company and Zichen was left with the Wang family.

However, she wouldn’t blame her son, so the old lady didn’t mention anything about Wang Yunzhong’s adultery. She only said calmly, “If they can’t live together anymore, then get a divorce. It’s been so many years. I reckon he’s tired of it.”

When Li Xia heard this, although she did not ask much, she disapproved of the old lady’s words in her heart.

Although she had only married into the Wang family for a month, she had long understood what she needed to know. She had seen Jiang Chunfen more than once. In her eyes, Jiang Chunfen was a good-tempered and supportive person. She would not agree to divorce without reason.

Moreover, the two of them were almost forty years old, and they had two teenage children and a big company. How could they get a divorce so easily?

Although the old lady’s words were smooth, Li Xia could guess that her elder brother must have done something unforgivable.

The old lady favored Wang Yunzhong. This was something everyone in the Wang family knew, so Li Xia knew it in her heart. However, she didn’t say anything and only asked tentatively, “Mom, what about the company? Won’t there be a division of assets after the divorce?”

The old lady couldn’t help but sneer with a disapproving look. “The company belongs to your brother, so of course, it has to be left to him! However, your brother isn’t that ruthless. He gave your sister-in-law a villa and a car and even gave her two million yuan. That’s already considered benevolent!”

It was as if Wang Yunzhong had given everything to Jiang Chunfen.

Li Xia was silent when she heard that. Wasn’t the company divided? This seemed like something her sister-in-law would do.

At the same time, Wang Yunfa heard this from his old man. Like Li Xia, he was also in disbelief.

The old man smoked. Compared to the old lady, he looked worried. Although he doted on his elder son, he was also very satisfied with his elder daughter-in-law. If his elder daughter-in-law and son had not worked hard over the years, they would not have been able to lead such a prosperous life.

“Dad, tell me clearly. Have they already divorced or are they planning to?” Wang Yunfa didn’t understand!

The old man looked at him and sighed. “It’s over. The procedures were completed this morning.”

Wang Yunfa looked frightened. This news came too suddenly. They had gotten a divorce without any warning!

The old man couldn’t help but remind Wang Yunfa, “When your brother comes back later, pretend that you don’t know. Don’t ask about everything.”

Although he felt it was a pity, the old man still sided with his elder son.

Wang Yunfa nodded. His brother was definitely in a bad mood now, so there was no need for him to provoke him.

Chapter 357: Losing Face

However, Wang Yunfa and Li Xia both thought that Wang Yunzhong would appear in front of them with a solemn expression. Unexpectedly, the truth was the opposite.

“Dad, Mom, I’m back!”

Wang Yunzhong’s voice came from the yard, and he couldn’t hide the joy in his tone. It was as if the person who went for a divorce in the morning wasn’t him.

The kitchen door was facing the yard. When Old Madam Wang heard this, she quickly put down the rice spatula in her hand and wiped her hands on her apron as she hustled out.

“Yunzhong is back!”

The old lady responded and walked out of the kitchen. However, the moment she saw Wang Yunzhong, the smile on her face instantly froze.

Beside Wang Yunzhong, a young and pretty woman was holding his arm intimately. The woman was stunning, and her makeup was very exquisite. She was wearing a fashionable outfit, and it was evident that she knew how to dress up.

It was none other than the third party who interfered in Wang Yunzhong’s marriage, Xu Qianqian.

“Hello, Auntie. I’m Qianqian.”

Facing the old lady’s expression, which changed instantly, Xu Qianqian was very calm. The smile on her face was like a flower as she nodded and greeted the old lady.

Li Xia also walked out of the kitchen. “Brother is back!”

Compared to the old lady, Li Xia was only slightly stunned when she saw Xu Qianqian. She did not have much of a reaction. However, when her gaze landed on Xu Qianqian’s hand holding onto Wang Yunzhong’s, the doubts in her heart immediately cleared up.

It turned out that he had an affair. This did not seem like something her elder brother would do.

However, this was too arrogant. He had just gotten a divorce in the morning and was now bringing his new lover home in the afternoon. Did he have any sense of shame? Was he afraid that others would not know that he had cheated?

It was an eye-opener.

Li Xia felt disdain for Wang Yunzhong in her heart but did not dare show it on her face. After all, she still had many uses for her brother in the future.

The old lady came back to her senses, but she didn't know how to control her expression. She only waved her hand. "Come in. I'm still cooking."

With that, she turned around and returned to the kitchen.

In the end, she was still a little angry at Wang Yunzhong.

It was true that her son had gotten a divorce. She also knew that he had an affair, but there was no reason for him to bring his lover back so quickly.

Li Xia also followed her back to the kitchen. At this moment, the old lady looked at Li Xia and only felt embarrassed. Just now, she had even sworn to speak up for her son, but in the blink of an eye, her son had thrown her face away.

Fortunately, Li Xia was smooth in dealing with things. She had already seen through everything, so there was no need to ask the old lady anymore and make her unhappy.

The atmosphere at the dining table was not as lively as before. The old lady's expression was indifferent, and Li Xia and Wang Yunfa did not dare say anything.

The person who was the angriest was none other than the old man. He liked Jiang Chunfen, a daughter-in-law who knew etiquette and was capable. He initially thought that since they wanted to get a divorce, everything he said would be too late.

Unexpectedly, their son brought back a woman with thick makeup and fragrance in the afternoon.

People were afraid of comparing themselves to others. Xu Qianqian was indeed young and beautiful, but one could tell at a glance that she was not someone one could lead a life with and serve her son.

In the old man's eyes, she was inferior to Jiang Chunfen!

Feeling the atmosphere freeze, Wang Yunzhong had no choice but to smooth things over. He quickly looked at the two elders and said, "Dad, Mom, this is Qianqian's first time here. She bought a lot of things for you. They're all in my car. I'll leave them for you when I leave later."

Chapter 358: Parting Unhappily

"Yes."

The old lady answered indifferently, but she knew very well that her son's money was spent to buy these things.

Seeing the two elders' reactions, Wang Yunzhong immediately felt a bit embarrassed. His parents had favored him the most in all these years, so when did they make him lose face like this?

Furthermore, it was in front of his new lover.

For a moment, Wang Yunzhong's expression also turned cold. It was obvious that he did not feel that he had gone overboard at all.

1

Li Xia and Wang Yunfa were sandwiched between the two sides. They couldn't help but look at each other secretly, but neither of them said anything.

The meal was quite oppressive, and no one could taste anything.

As soon as dinner ended, Wang Yunzhong left with Xu Qianqian without even greeting them.

Li Xia helped the old lady tidy up before bidding farewell to the two elders and leaving.

On the way back, Li Xia finally couldn't hold it in anymore. She looked at Wang Yunfa, who was driving, and said, "Brother went a little overboard today. How can you divorce in the morning and bring your lover home in the afternoon? Look at Dad's expression. I was so scared that I didn't eat my fill."

Wang Yunfa felt the same. He felt that he was a bastard enough, but he didn't expect his brother to be even more unreliable than him.

"Dad was very satisfied of Sister-in-law. Of course, he can't accept this newcomer immediately. Brother didn't have to be so anxious. Did he want to get married again as soon as he got a divorce? Wouldn't that be telling everyone that he cheated?!" Wang Yunfa said.

Li Xia shook her head with disdain. "Brother will regret it eventually. Sister-in-law is such a good person. How could he do such a thing?"

2

Even in the eyes of a woman like Li Xia who was willing to scheme, she had to give Jiang Chunfen a thumbs up.

Wang Yunfa couldn't help but sneer. "We'll be in an awkward situation in the future. That girl looks to be in her twenties, right? Brother is already forty-one years old. How much is the age difference? If they get married in the future, how are we going to address each other? Call her Sister-in-law? I can't call her that!"

Li Xia shook her head again and was too lazy to think about it.

On the other hand, Xu Qianqian could not help but cry when she got into the car. She looked extremely wronged.

That was true. She was Wang Yunzhong's girlfriend now. In the end, the first time she followed him home, the two elders treated her coldly. No one would be able to stand it.

Wang Yunzhong's heart ached for her. He quickly stopped the car by the road and comforted her. "Alright, Qianqian. I was wrong today. I didn't consider everything."

It was fine if he didn't coax her, but once he coaxed Xu Qianqian, she cried even harder. "It's all your fault. I said it was too fast, but you didn't listen. Now, how am I going to face your parents in the future?"

Wang Yunzhong also regretted it. He initially thought that his parents would not be angry because they favored him. Who knew that the two elders would have such a huge reaction?

Even the old lady who usually doted on him the most did not smile during the meal.

"Yes, yes. It's all my fault. I didn't consider it well." Wang Yunzhong apologized and wiped Xu Qianqian's tears. He even comforted her. "I was too anxious today. I wanted to bring you back to see my parents too early, but I was too anxious. It's understandable that they couldn't accept it, right?"

"Qianqian, don't worry. My parents doted on me the most since I was young. Look at how angry they were today, but they didn't say harsh words, right?"

"When they come back to their senses after a while, they will definitely accept you. I promise!"

Xu Qianqian sniffled, and her fake eyelashes flew from crying. She looked at Wang Yunzhong pitifully.. "Really? I'm afraid that they won't like me. If that happens, I won't be able to marry you!"

Chapter 359: Preliminary Mathematical Olympiad Competition

"No, no," Wang Yunzhong quickly said. "I know them. As long as I like you, they will accept you."

"Besides, you're so beautiful. Why wouldn't they like you?"

Wang Yunzhong coaxed Xu Qianqian for a long time.

Xu Qianqian stopped crying but looked at Wang Yunzhong and asked, "What about your son? We have to live together in the future. I'm afraid that he won't accept me."

At the mention of his son, Wang Yunzhong couldn't help but sigh in his heart. The expression on his face also became a little dejected.

After the divorce, Jiang Chunfen left with Wang Zimeng. Wang Zichen naturally knew about this and couldn't accept it immediately. He even fought with Wang Yunzhong because of this.

It had been three days since he spoke to his father.

"Let's wait a while longer. I definitely can't let you meet him at this juncture. The child is still in adolescence and has a terrible temper. He's still angry now," Wang Yunzhong explained to Xu Qianqian in a gentler tone.

He did not dare to be rash now. Even the two elders who usually doted on him could not accept Qianqian, let alone his son.

Xu Qianqian also knew her limitations. She was also a little afraid to see Wang Yunzhong's child. After all, she didn't give birth to him herself, so she would more or less have some grudges.

“Yunzhong, I know you have a son and daughter now, but I still want to ask you. When we get married in the future, will we give birth to a child that belongs to both of us?”

Xu Qianqian’s eyes were red as she looked at Wang Yunzhong with deep love. She was exceptionally lovable.

Wang Yunzhong’s heart melted. Without thinking, he nodded and agreed. “Of course. We’ll give birth to as many as you want.”

Xu Qianqian blushed and pouted. “You’re so annoying.”

Seeing her like this, Wang Yunzhong felt a particular part of his body flush with blood. His eyes lit up as he said, “Let’s go to your place today?”

Xu Qianqian lowered her head and nodded gently with a charming appearance.

The car started and soon disappeared on the dim road in South City.

...

The next day, the preliminary Mathematical Olympiad competition in school.

The organizer of this Mathematical Olympiad was Baiyun City’s Education Bureau, so all the schools emphasized it. They used the school’s selection method to choose five students who represented the school.

Because they could score extra points for the college entrance examination, the students who were initially not interested in such competitions were very active. Every class had students who signed up.

The preliminary competition was on Tuesday afternoon. The venue was the most extensive lecture theater in the school building. There were more than a hundred students from Year One to Year Three who had signed up.

On average, three to four students signed up from each class.

As the top class, Class One only had four students registering. Jian Ai, Lin Yi, Jian Yiyi, and Gao Yang were all the top ten students in the monthly examination.

“How was your preparation?”

Lin Yi asked Jian Ai outside the lecture hall.

Jian Ai couldn’t help but smile and shake her head. “I’m not prepared.”

Jian Ai was telling the truth. There were a lot of things going on these days. It was already good enough that she could finish her daily homework on time. She had no time to prepare for this competition.

However, the Mathematical Olympiad questions were different from the ones they usually did. It might not be effective even if they were prepared.

“Everyone, do your best. The competition this time is fierce. There are so many people competing for the five spots,” Gao Yang said calmly.

As he spoke, the six teachers in charge of invigilating the examination had already arrived.

Chapter 360: Preliminary Mathematical Olympiad Competition (2)

Because the Year One cohort had the most people registered, the first round was for the Year One students, with more than fifty students participating.

Everyone followed the invigilators into the lecture theater and sat down according to the teacher's instructions.

Jian Ai sat in the third row and casually looked around. Because the lecture theater was huge, eight people could sit in each row, and there was a certain distance between each person. There were three invigilators, each at the back and in front. It was almost impossible to cheat.

Every student was only allowed to bring a pen into the venue. After they handed out the paper, each student received two pieces of calculus paper. Once they hand in the examination papers, they should come along with the calculus papers.

"You have eighty minutes to answer the questions. Eight fill-in-the-blanks questions, each worth eight points. Three problem sum questions worth sixteen points, twenty points, and twenty points, respectively. The full score is one hundred and twenty points. During the examination, no one is allowed to look around. Those who plagiarize or cheat will be disqualified once they are found. The entire school will announce and criticize them!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the stern invigilator looked down at the time and said, "You may start now!"

Jian Ai looked down at the examination papers and saw the complicated formulas and drawings. Although she was a top student who had graduated from Capital University in her previous life, she did not dare to let her guard down. If she was careless, she might fail.

After all, over a hundred people were competing for five participation slots. It could be said to be a huge competition.

The others were the same and didn't dare to relax at all. The temptation of bonus points for the college entrance examination was self-evident. If one added one more point to one's score among the millions of students in the college entrance examination, one's ranking would rise by tens of thousands.

When one was focused, time would pass unknowingly. After fifty minutes, people started to hand in their papers.

People kept walking past her, but it did not affect Jian Ai at all. She was still focused on performing a second round of calculations on the calculator to ensure that her answer was correct.

Jian Yiyi was the first from Class One to submit her papers. Then, Gao Yang and Lin Yi also finished their papers. Before leaving the lecture theater, Lin Yi couldn't help but look at Jian Ai, who had her head lowered and was focused. His eyes were filled with worry.

Lin Yi and Gao Yang weren't in a hurry to leave. Instead, they waited for Jian Ai in the corridor while talking about their answers.

However, neither of their answers matched the last three questions.

"Whose answer is correct?" Lin Yi was a little stunned. Even if the questions were difficult, they shouldn't have different answers for all three questions, right?

Gao Yang was very calm. After all, the Mathematical Olympiad questions were like this. They were much more complicated than the questions they had in the past. Even if they failed, he wouldn't be surprised.

"When Jian Ai comes out later, let's hear her answers and see who matches," Gao Yang said.

At the last moment of the eighty minutes, only Jian Ai was left in the lecture theater.

With the invigilator's announcement, Jian Ai stopped writing at the same time. Then, she handed the examination papers and calculus papers to the invigilator and slowly walked out of the lecture theater.

When he saw Jian Ai come out, Lin Yi immediately went up to her. "Why are you only out now? How did you do?"

Jian Ai nodded slightly. "I got them all. I've checked every question three times. They should be okay."

"The last three questions.. What are your final answers?" Gao Yang looked at Jian Ai and asked.
