

At School 361

Chapter 361: First Place

Jian Ai had checked each question three times, so she naturally remembered the answers clearly and immediately told the two of them.

Among them, Gao Yang had the same answer as Jian Ai for one question, but the remaining two were different.

Lin Yi was the worst. Not only did he not have the same answer as Gao Yang for any question, but he also did not have the same answer as Jian Ai.

“Oh my, did I get all three questions wrong?” Lin Yi was frightened.

There were fifty-six points for the three questions. If all of them were wrong, he would stand no chance at all.

Jian Ai smiled. “Don’t think in such a manner. You might be the only one who answered the remaining two questions correctly.”

Lin Yi’s heart had already turned cold. Hence Jian Ai’s words didn’t comfort him at all.

In the end, it turned out that Jian Ai’s words were really just to comfort him.

“Students, the results of yesterday’s preliminary Mathematical Olympiad are out. Four students from our class signed up. Two of them stood out from over a hundred students and will represent the school in the city’s Mathematical Olympiad!”

After Sun Dasheng finished speaking, the students in the classroom immediately went into an uproar.

Four students signed up, and two were chosen. The probability was as high as fifty percent.

They were indeed the most outstanding top students in the Year One cohort. Humans often fall short with these types of questions in most competitions. The people who were chosen were too powerful!

“Student Jian Yiyi, you scored ninety-two points out of the perfect score of one hundred and twenty points. You’re ranked fourth!” Sun Dasheng said. His gaze landed on Jian Yiyi in the first row, and his eyes were evident with praise. “You got a twenty-point problem sum question and an eight-point fill-in-the-blank question wrong. Overall, you performed very well. I hope you can achieve excellent results in the upcoming competition.”

“When I was in junior high, I took part in the school’s Mathematical Olympiad and scored forty-six points. We are both in Class One. Isn’t the difference too big?”

“Jian Yiyi transferred here and took second place in the monthly examination. She even scored full marks in mathematics. She’s much better than us.”

The teacher's encouragement and the students' praise entered Jian Yiyi's ears. She couldn't help but sit up straight like an arrogant peacock. She looked at Sun Dasheng with a faint smile and said, "Teacher, I will do my best to win honor for the school and class."

Sun Dasheng couldn't help but nod in relief when he heard that. Then, he said, "Student Jian Ai, your final score is one hundred and twelve points. You're ranked first in the entire school. Everyone, clap and cheer!"

The classroom froze for a moment, and in the next second, there was enthusiastic applause.

One hundred and twelve points!

Xia Qinghuan clapped and smiled at Jian Ai. "Xiao Ai, you're amazing. You almost scored full marks for such an examination!"

The applause stopped. Sun Dasheng was a little excited, which was rare. He looked at Jian Ai and said, "Jian Ai, you got a fill-in-the-blank question wrong this time. However, I looked at your calculus paper. Your way of solving the problem was right. It's just that you reversed the two values for the last step. It's a pity. Otherwise, you might have gotten full marks."

"However, this result is also very outstanding. Of all the students who signed up, you are the only one who answered all three problem sum questions correctly. It's rare!"

Chapter 362: Stolen the Limelight

Faced with Sun Dasheng's praise, Jian Ai only said humbly, "Thank you for your affirmation, Teacher."

The students also felt admiration for Jian Ai. It was nothing new for her to be good at her studies. After all, Jian Ai always ranked in the top five in every examination that she even got first in the monthly examination last time.

However, this Mathematical Olympiad was not like ordinary examinations. Those who had taken part in it knew how abnormal the questions were. Jian Ai almost scored full marks and ranked first in the school.

They had no choice but to acknowledge her.

Before Jian Yiyi could enjoy her classmates' praise, Jian Ai stole the limelight. Compared to Jian Ai's results, her fourth place was nothing.

It was Jian Ai again. Why was she always inferior to her?!

Jian Yiyi gritted her teeth and snorted at Jian Ai in her heart. Unexpectedly, she turned around and looked into Si Yuehan's cold gaze.

Jian Yiyi subconsciously shrunk her neck. His eyes were cold, as if they could see through her soul.

Jian Yiyi had no intention of appreciating such a handsome face. Every day, when she sits beside Si Yuehan, she would feel half of her body go numb.

In the cafeteria at noon, Lin Yi looked dejected. His chopsticks stabbed countless holes in the rice, but he didn't eat at all.

If not for this competition, he wouldn't have known that the difference between him and Jian Ai was so big!

"Alright, it's not like you're the only one who failed. There are over a hundred people in the entire school, but there are only five spots. Isn't it normal that you wouldn't get chosen?" Yan Tian looked up at Lin Yi and counseled him with an expression that said, 'Take it easy.'

Gao Yang also failed, but he was much calmer than Lin Yi.

Just as Yan Tian had said, it was too normal to fail in such a competition.

The two of them secretly asked Sun Dasheng about their results. Gao Yang scored sixty-seven points and didn't pass.

Lin Yi was the worst. He only scored fifty-two points.

Although this result was not good compared to Jian Ai and Jian Yiyi, among the over a hundred people who had signed up, it was not considered bad.

Sun Dasheng said that the questions this time were very difficult. Few people scored above eighty points, and the lowest score was only eight points.

However, it was because of Sun Dasheng's words that Lin Yi could see the difference between him and Jian Ai more clearly in terms of studies. Although he was also in the top ten in the cohort for the monthly examination, he could not even touch Jian Ai's heel when it came to real skills.

"Yiyi, Jian Ai beat you again this time. You have to work hard during the city competition. Otherwise, she'll steal all the limelight!"

Xi Jie and Li Linlin nodded in agreement. "That's right, Yiyi. You have to beat her."

Jian Yiyi wanted to stomp on Jian Ai in her heart, but she had to maintain her white lotus-like persona on the surface. Hearing this, she pursed her lips and smiled. "It's not that exaggerated. I'll do my best. We're all classmates, so there's no need to compare."

In the end, it was because she knew herself. She didn't have full confidence in winning against Jian Ai, so she didn't dare to boast.

Li Yunmei's gaze landed on Jian Ai and the rest, who were sitting by the window not far away. She subconsciously snorted. "Look at her character. She's just a poor girl from South City. She can only work hard in her studies. Tsk!"

Chapter 363: Go Learn to Drive

At the mention of Jian Ai's background, they couldn't help but think of what had happened in school a while ago.

Xi Jie immediately whispered to Li Yunmei, "Be quiet. Have you forgotten what had happened a while ago?"

Li Linlin also reacted. "Jian Ai's rich second-generation heir boyfriend?"

Although the popularity of this matter had passed, it had happened recently. Whenever Jian Ai was mentioned, people would always think of this.

That afternoon, Jian Yiyi and Li Yunmei were not in the cafeteria, so they did not see Ji Haoyu. However, the girls in school praised the man who appeared in the school cafeteria as the best in the world.

Since they did not see it with their own eyes, Li Yunmei and Jian Yiyi were indifferent.

It was just skin. How handsome could he be?

However, it seemed that Liu Na's family going bankrupt was true. After that day, Liu Na disappeared from Erzong. It was said that she had transferred schools, but no one had concrete news.

"Maybe he already dumped her? Otherwise, it's been so many days. Have you seen that man appear again?"

Xi Jie and Li Linlin looked at each other and didn't dare to gossip anymore. If Jian Ai heard this, they would suffer.

On Saturday, Jian Ai woke up early as usual.

However, when she left the room, she realized that her mother had already gone out, and her brother was alone at home.

"Where did Mom go?" Jian Ai asked Jian Yu.

Jian Yu stood up and went to the kitchen to heat breakfast for Jian Ai. He answered, "She went to the new house. Uncle Wu said that the news of the demolition will come soon. Nothing's done for the new house yet. She must be anxious."

"There's no use in rushing about the renovation. Even if it's fully renovated, we can't move in immediately!" Jian Ai said.

Jian Yu couldn't help but smile. "It's not like you don't know Mom. She can't stay idle! She's been lying in the hospital for a month. Now that she's finally discharged, she naturally has to get busy."

He paused for a moment before continuing, "But don't worry, Uncle Wu went with her. Uncle Wu was worried that Mom would get tired after being discharged from the hospital. Coincidentally, his tofu stall is closed, and he's looking for a new shop."

Jian Ai nodded and sat down on the sofa. She thought for a moment and looked at Jian Yu. "Brother, it's good that you're going out with me today. I'll take you to the company."

Hearing that he was going to Jian Ai's company, Jian Yu's eyes lit up, and he nodded quickly.

He had long wanted to go to his sister's company to look around, but his sister usually went to school, so he could only wait for the weekend.

Jian Ai bringing him to the company was not a tour per se. On the other hand, Bai Zhou was preparing for the entertainment company, which was located just right above East Sea Real Estate, and it was still an entire floor of an office building.

All preparations were ready. Recruitment for employees would start this weekend, but the company had yet to be registered.

The reason that Jian Ai brought Jian Yu to the company was because she wanted to use Jian Yu as the legal person of Rose Entertainment.

Jian Yu had been accompanying their mother on the bed in the hospital for a while, so this matter had dragged on until now. Just the other day, Bai Zhou had urged Jian Ai about the registration, so Jian Ai brought her brother along to register as soon as possible.

After breakfast, Jian Ai changed her clothes and walked to the junction of South City with Jian Yu to take the three-wheeler.

On the way, Jian Ai felt the bump of the three-wheeler under her buttocks. An idea suddenly occurred to her.

"Brother, why don't you go learn to drive?"

As soon as she thought of this, Jian Ai blurted out.

Jian Yu was stunned. "Huh? Learn to drive?"

Chapter 364: There's Another Company

Jian Ai nodded gently. "If you don't learn it now, you'll have to learn it in the future, anyway. It's better to learn it early then."

Being able to drive in the future was a necessary life skill. She was still too young now, otherwise, she would have learned it.

Jian Yu was stunned. He had never thought about this.

He had a motorcycle at home, and in the past, when he was working at the bar, he would ride the motorcycle there. It was also convenient to travel.

"It's almost June. If you learn quickly, you'll get your driver's license in a month. Otherwise, it'll be the hottest period of summer soon." Jian Ai analyzed the weather as if she were very experienced.

Jian Yu nodded. He had nothing to do now anyway, and he couldn't find a suitable job for the time being. Since his sister suggested for him to learn how to drive, it was something worth considering. He might have a car at home in the future. As the only man in the family, he had to know how to drive.

With this thought in mind, Jian Yu agreed, "Alright, I'll go to the driving school tomorrow to ask around and register."

Seeing that her brother agreed readily, Jian Ai couldn't help but smile at him.

Jian Ai brought Jian Yu to East Sea Real Estate first. Just like the last time she brought Wang Yunzhi here, as soon as they walked out of the elevator, the receptionist at the front desk quickly stood up and greeted, "CEO!"

Because Jian Yu was mentally prepared, he didn't react as strongly as Wang Yunzhi. However, he couldn't help but feel shocked.

Jian Ai's expression was the same as usual. She nodded at the person and asked, "Is Manager Bai here?"

"He's here!" The receptionist nodded quickly. "He said he's waiting for you in the office."

Jian Ai brought Jian Yu into the company. When everyone saw Jian Ai, they stopped what they were doing and greeted her. Jian Yu followed behind her and could hear these words constantly ringing in his ears: Hello, CEO.

The youngest of these people looked to be in their twenties, but they were all so respectful to her sister. They did not treat her as a teenager at all.

When he had time, Jian Yu couldn't help but whisper into Jian Ai's ear, "Xiao Ai, does your company occupy this entire floor?"

Jian Ai couldn't help but smile and nod. "The floor you're on now is a real estate company. There's also an entertainment company upstairs. They're hiring today."

"What? There's another company?" Jian Yu was shocked. His sister had never mentioned this before!

Jian Ai stopped in her tracks and couldn't help but remind her brother, "You alone can know about the new company. Don't tell Mom. I'm afraid of scaring her."

Her mother was already on tenterhooks when she opened a company. If she knew she had opened a second one, it would only make her more worried.

No matter how capable she was, she was still a child in her mother's eyes.

If there was a suitable time in the future, it would not be too late to tell her. But now was not the time. She had not even digested the real estate company's matter.

Before he could recover from his shock, Jian Ai said to Jian Yu, "I plan to use your name as the legal person for the entertainment company. From now on, you will be the general manager of Rose Entertainment!"

Jian Yu: “!!!”

“Me?” Jian Yu shook his head like a rattle-drum. “No, no. Xiao Ai, don’t mess around. Don’t you know your brother’s standards? You want me to be the general manager? Your company will probably go bankrupt soon!”

Chapter 365: Learn From Her First

Translator: Atlas Studios Editor: Atlas Studios

Seeing her brother’s resistance, Jian Ai couldn’t help but chuckle and comfort him. “Don’t be nervous. It’s not as incredible as you think.”

As the two of them walked towards Bai Zhou’s office, Jian Ai explained, “The company has specially established an assistant team for you to help you familiarize and learn related knowledge. If you have questions you don’t understand, ask them. Otherwise, you still have me above you!”

Despite Jian Ai’s words, Jian Yu was still not confident. He was not yet nineteen years old. Although he was an adult, he had never experienced such a big scene.

She wanted him to be the general manager of the company?

“Xiao Ai, it’s not that I don’t agree, but I really can’t adapt to this identity. You’ve pushed me to such a high position. I don’t know what to do!” Jian Yu said what he was thinking.

Jian Ai couldn’t help but stop in her tracks and turn around to look at her brother.

Jian Yu couldn’t help but panic. He didn’t have his sister’s courage, and he was afraid that he wouldn’t be able to handle the pressure and ruin his sister’s situation.

Sensing that her brother was at a loss, Jian Ai thought for a moment and nodded gently. “Alright, I’ll vacate the position of general manager for now. However, you still have to enter the company and learn from the assistant team. When you think you can do it, you can take over anytime.”

Jian Ai had already made an enormous concession. She knew her brother and knew that he was not a timid person, but he was not someone who would show off or take the initiative. There were many things that if you did not push him to a corner, he would not know how much potential he had.

Hearing Jian Ai’s words, Jian Yu knew he couldn’t shrink back anymore. As long as he didn’t become the general manager of the company as soon as he got here, he had nothing to worry about.

Learning was nothing to be afraid of.

Jian Yu nodded and agreed.

In the office, Bai Zhou was watering the plants. When he heard this, he couldn’t help but put down the watering can in his hand and say, “Please come in.”

“Boss!”

When he saw Jian Ai, Bai Zhou blurted out and looked at Jian Yu.

He had never seen the Sect Master’s brother, but the two of them looked somewhat similar. It was not difficult for the smart Bai Zhou to guess.

Jian Ai also said, “This is my brother, Jian Yu!”

Then she introduced him to her brother. “Bai Zhou, the general manager of the real estate company.”

The two of them shook hands and greeted each other as a greeting. Then the three of them sat down on the sofa.

“I’ve brought him here for you. When it’s convenient, take him to complete the registration of Rose Entertainment,” Jian Ai said.

Bai Zhou nodded slightly when he heard that. “I’ve already informed them over there. The procedures are also quick. Let’s do it this afternoon!”

As soon as he finished speaking, Bai Zhou looked at Jian Ai and said, “The entertainment company upstairs is hiring today. Shall I bring you up to look?”

Jian Ai nodded. Bai Zhou was still the one who organized the establishment of Rose Entertainment. Other than taking out twenty million yuan for the registered capital, Jian Ai didn’t ask about anything else. In less than a month, the company had already entered the recruitment phase. It could be seen that Bai Zhou was very efficient.

The three of them got into the elevator together. East Sea Real Estate was on the seventeenth floor, while Rose Entertainment was on the nineteenth.

The elevator door opened. Just like the real estate company, the front desk of the company was facing the elevator. The artistic words, Rose Entertainment, were written beautifully.. In the upper left corner, M Group’s logo was very striking.

Chapter 366: Why Was She Here?

The overall structure of the company was almost the same as that of the real estate company. However, because of the unique nature of an entertainment company, the overall renovation style was more distinctive and bold. All kinds of office supplies, sofas, chairs, and tables were of different colors, and they were full of vigor and vitality.

However, the company had not officially started operations yet, so the enormous company was still empty. They could only start operations after the company was officially registered and the hiring process was completed.

The recruitment was held in the company’s conference room. At this moment, thirty-four people had gathered outside the conference room, and this was only the first batch in the morning.

Most of these people were young and looked like they had just graduated from university. An entertainment company not only needed experienced market veterans, but also young and creative people.

“Many people are coming for the interview. These are only the first batch. The schedule for next Monday is also full. Most of them are fresh graduates. These fresh graduates like a newly established company like ours the most. There’s a lot of room for promotion and the environment for competition is much better than the other companies,” Bai Zhou said to Jian Ai casually.

Jian Ai understood and nodded gently.

In her previous life, when she established East Sea Real Estate in the capital during her university years, the scene of the recruitment day was like the one in front of her. Just like today, a large number of fresh graduates rushed in. At that time, Jian Ai was only a girl in her early twenties. It was this group of youths who worked hard for several years in the capital’s real estate industry and finally won a place for East Sea Real Estate.

“Professionalism is at the top, followed by creativity and ideas. An entertainment company is different from others. To make the company’s artists famous, these people behind the scenes have to think of something others can’t think of,” Jian Ai said.

Bai Zhou nodded in agreement.

As the two of them were talking, Jian Yu, who was following them, suddenly raised his hand and patted Jian Ai’s shoulder.

Jian Ai turned around and said, “What’s wrong, Brother?”

Jian Yu said nothing. He raised his chin and looked shocked.

Seeing this, Jian Ai couldn’t help but follow his gaze. She saw that the people waiting for the interview were sitting on the chairs outside the long corridor. In the crowd, a woman in black clothes with a solemn expression was especially eye-catching.

It was not because she was young and beautiful. Among the young interviewees, the woman looked to be in her forties. She was the oldest.

Jian Yu also muttered in a puzzled tone, “Why is Aunt here? Isn’t she working in her own company?”

Jian Ai didn’t know why Jiang Chunfen would appear at her company’s interview. Just as her brother had said, her uncle and aunt had a large-scale renovation company, and her aunt was the company’s financial manager.

At this moment, Jiang Chunfen had her head lowered and was holding a document in her hand. It was obvious that it was her resume. She had no expression on her face, but she looked up at the tightly shut door of the conference room from time to time, as if waiting for the human resources assistant to call her name.

Perhaps sensing that someone was walking towards her, Jiang Chunfen couldn't help but look up. She was shocked and quickly stood up from her chair.

"Xiao Yu, Xiao Ai?"

Chapter 367: Didn't Tell You

Jiang Chunfen was shocked. As she spoke, she couldn't help but look around. When she didn't see Wang Yunmei, she couldn't help but ask, "Why are you..."

"Aunt, what are you doing here?" Jian Yu frowned and asked Jiang Chunfen.

Jiang Chunfen looked embarrassed, but she still said truthfully, "I'm here for an interview."

When she divorced Wang Yunzhong, only the old lady was present. The old lady would naturally tell Old Master Wang when she got home. As for the others, Jiang Chunfen didn't know if the old lady would tell them.

This was especially true for Wang Yunmei and Wang Yunzhi's family. Jiang Chunfen had been married to the Wang family for so many years and knew the Wang family's situation very well. The two elders rarely interacted with their two daughters. Then, it was likely that others did not know about her divorce with Wang Yunzhong.

However, as meticulous as Jian Ai was, even if she didn't know that Jiang Chunfen and Wang Yunzhong had gotten a divorce, she felt that something was amiss. Otherwise, why would her aunt come to an entertainment company for an interview instead of being a senior manager in her company?

"Aunt, can we talk in private?" Jian Ai suddenly asked.

Jiang Chunfen had done their family a favor in her previous life. When her mother was hospitalized for liver cancer, she was the only one who had secretly sent fifty thousand yuan. It was undoubtedly a timely help for them. Jian Ai had always remembered her kindness.

Therefore, no matter the reason Jiang Chunfen appeared in her company for an interview, Jian Ai would not sit idle.

Jiang Chunfen couldn't help but feel a little embarrassed. She looked up at the office door in the distance, afraid that she would miss it if she was called.

Jian Ai couldn't help but give Jiang Chunfen a comforting smile. "Aunt, don't worry. This company is mine. Follow me to the lounge."

"Wh... What?"

Jian Ai's voice was neither loud nor soft. The people around them, who were waiting for the interview, looked up in surprise.

Jiang Chunfen looked surprised and forgot to react.

Jian Ai didn't explain further and just said, "Follow me."

As soon as she had finished speaking, she turned around and walked towards the lounge. Jiang Chunfen was stunned for a moment before she regained her senses and quickly followed.

In the lounge, the sofa and furnishings were brand new. Jian Ai walked straight to the sofa and sat down. Jian Yu also sat down.

Jiang Chunfen was still confused. After sitting down with Jian Ai, she asked with uncertainty, "Xiao Ai, did you just say that this company is yours?"

Jian Ai smiled and nodded without denying it. "It's mine. I'm just not an adult yet, so the legal person is my brother."

"What... What's going on?" Jiang Chunfen found it unbelievable.

Although she had few interactions with Wang Yunmei's family before the divorce, she still had a rough understanding of the situation.

Opening a company would require at least a million yuan of registered capital. How could a child like Jian Ai have so much money?

It would be troublesome to explain these things to Jiang Chunfen, so Jian Ai didn't, since she didn't think it was necessary.

She looked at Jiang Chunfen and asked, "Aunt, did something happen to Uncle's company? Why are you here for an interview?"

Jiang Chunfen was stunned for a moment before smiling bitterly. "It seems that your grandmother didn't tell you about this!"

Chapter 368: Aunt, You're a Good Person

An idea suddenly popped up in her mind. Jian Ai immediately looked at Jiang Chunfen and blurted out, "Aunt, you and Uncle... divorced?"

Even Jian Ai was shocked.

Jian Ai felt it was too sudden. Just as she was about to apologize, Jiang Chunfen nodded in relief. "Xiao Ai is right. Your uncle and I... have already divorced. The procedures were done last Monday."

Jian Ai was speechless.

After a while, Jian Ai calmed herself down and thought to herself, 'No wonder Aunt came out to look for a job. So such a big thing happened at home.'

However, Jiang Chunfen was not sad at all. In fact, she was more carefree than ever.

Without needing Jian Ai to ask one question after another, Jiang Chunfen took the initiative to say, "Yes, I left the company and Zichen to him. I brought Zimeng along and asked for a house and a car. I also have two million yuan in savings."

As she spoke, Jiang Chunfen revealed a relieved smile. "But I still have to come out to work. I can't possibly sit idle and eat nothing."

Jian Ai nodded slightly. Although she couldn't feel what Jiang Chunfen was feeling now, she felt inexplicably heavy.

They were speechless. Jian Ai and Jian Yu didn't know what to say.

In Jian Ai's heart, she had never understood why a kind, down-to-earth, knowledgeable, and reasonable woman like her aunt would marry her uncle.

Now that they were divorced, Jian Ai didn't feel that it was a pity at all. After all, she had seen her uncle's adultery more than once. At that time, she had hoped that her aunt would be more decisive and divorce him.

In Jian Ai's heart, Jiang Chunfen deserved better.

"Aunt, let me see your resume!"

Jiang Chunfen was a university student who had graduated from a decent university. In their era, university students were very valuable.

Moreover, she had learned popular professional accounting, so even if she divorced Wang Yunzhong, Jiang Chunfen could rely on her education and professionalism to find a suitable job to support Wang Zimeng.

Especially since she had been a financial manager in a company with a market value of over a million yuan, her resume looked more luxurious than her peers.

At the very least, it was an experienced and indispensable accounting position.

Jiang Chunfen was still very curious about Jian Ai's company, but she resisted the urge to ask further. She just watched her flip through her resume quietly.

Jian Ai only scanned through it briefly and handed the resume to Bai Zhou.

Bai Zhou received it and roughly scanned it. He already had an idea.

"How is it?" Jian Ai raised her eyebrows at Bai Zhou. It was obvious that she had some selfish motives.

Bai Zhou smiled and nodded. "She can be the financial manager."

Jian Ai then looked at Jiang Chunfen and said, "Aunt, I can give you the position of the financial manager of the company. You have a rich working experience, and I believe you are fully capable of taking on the role."

"Manager?" Jiang Chunfen was stunned.

She was here to apply for an accountant position!

Chapter 369: She Was Here to Apply for an Accountant Position!

Jian Ai said nothing and stood up. "If there's no problem, Aunt, leave a phone number. The company hasn't officially started operations yet. You can only go to work after the recruitment ends and everything is ready. The company's human resources colleague will contact you then."

Jiang Chunfen looked at Jian Ai, then at Jian Yu and Bai Zhou. She didn't know what to say.

She had already divorced Wang Yunzhong, so she was no longer a member of the Wang family. Why would Xiao Ai help her?

Even in the past, because of Wang Yunzhong, she had never been too close to them. She would only help Wang Yunzhong say a few words when he slandered Wang Yunmei. That was all.

Unexpectedly, Jian Ai suddenly looked at Jiang Chunfen and said seriously, "Aunt, you're a good person."

This short sentence felt like a thousand kilograms of weight had smashed into Jiang Chunfen's heart.

She looked at Jian Ai in a daze. Her emotions were at their peak. Her lips moved, but she couldn't say a word. Her eyes were red.

Jian Ai said nothing and just smiled. "There's no need to feel burdened. Your ability is worthy of this position."

"Aunt, I still have something on, so I won't talk to you anymore. You can just go back and wait for the call. If you have any problems, look for me at my house," Jian Ai said.

Jiang Chunfen nodded. Since Xiao Ai had already said this, she naturally had no reason to refuse. Xiao Ai was trying to help her and Jiang Chunfen could tell.

The sun was strong, and the wind blew a trace of warmth on her face, making her feel exceptionally refreshed.

Jiang Chunfen stood by the road and turned around to look at the office building behind her. She couldn't help but heave a sigh of relief.

She knew very well how fierce the competition for this job was, so she didn't have any intention of getting the manager's position. She just wanted to start with an accountant position and let nature take its course.

Unexpectedly, such a thing happened. The company was Xiao Ai's. If she had not experienced it herself, Jiang Chunfen would never believe it.

Fortunately, everything went smoothly. She had long abandoned the past when they got divorced. Now, it was time to live for herself and her daughter.

To celebrate the fact that she had found a new job, Jiang Chunfen first went to the supermarket to buy some ingredients. Today was the weekend, and Zimeng was also at home. She could make a table of dishes to celebrate with her daughter.

That person lowered his head, and his back looked a little bleak. When Jiang Chunfen saw this, her heart tightened, and she quickly honked.

The person in front turned around, and his eyes were filled with loneliness, without the pride of the past.

It was none other than Jiang Chunfen and Wang Yunzhong's son, Wang Zichen!

Wang Zichen recognized Jiang Chunfen's car at a glance and quickly waved at her with a smile on his face.

The car stopped beside Wang Zichen. He quickly got in and called out to Jiang Chunfen, "Mom..."

Jiang Chunfen's eyes stung. She held back her tears and looked at her son. "Why are you here? Why didn't you call me? I could have picked you up!"

Wang Zichen lowered his head with a wronged expression. He pouted and gritted his teeth. "My father doesn't care about me anymore. I don't want to follow him. I want to follow you."

Chapter 370: He Wanted to Follow His Mother Too

There was a hint of anger in Wang Zichen's tone. It was unknown if he was angry at Wang Yunzhong or Jiang Chunfen.

Or both.

Jiang Chunfen's heart ached for her son. She couldn't help but reach out to stroke Wang Zichen's head dotingly. She said, "What's wrong? Why would your father not care about you?"

No matter how much of a bastard Wang Yunzhong was in her heart, Jiang Chunfen knew he doted on his son very much. Therefore, she was very relieved to leave Wang Zichen for the Wang family after the divorce.

However, she did not expect that in just a week, her son would come to look for her.

Wang Zichen's eyes were red, as if he had been wronged. He couldn't help but lower his head and say, "My father isn't at home every day, and he doesn't cook for me. I eat outside and stay at home alone at night."

As he spoke, Wang Zichen looked up at Jiang Chunfen and said, "Mom, I don't want to go back. Let me stay here. Dad doesn't care about me, anyway."

Wang Zichen sounded pitiful, but Jiang Chunfen was shocked. She did not expect Wang Yunzhong to leave their son alone at home every day.

It turned out that after the divorce, Wang Yunzhong was even more blatant about going out with Xu Qianqian every day. He also spends the night at Xu Qianqian's place and usually, after work, he would go out on a date with Xu Qianqian. She indeed was a fair and gentle lady that he had forgotten about their son for a moment.

Wang Zichen was already angry with Wang Yunzhong because of the divorce. In the end, not only did Wang Yunzhong not give him an explanation, but he also ignored him. In a fit of anger, Wang Zichen went to look for Jiang Chunfen.

After all, he was her son. How could Jiang Chunfen bear to let him go back? She wanted to see when Wang Yunzhong would discover that their son was missing.

"Then stay at Mom's place for now. Your father might be busy in the company recently. He'll apologize to you when he's done."

Jiang Chunfen didn't take this opportunity to slander Wang Yunzhong in front of her son. After all, they were father and son, and they would be living together in the future. The image of a father in her son's heart had to be positive in order to set an example for him.

This was also the reason Jiang Chunfen had never told the two children why they got a divorce.

However, Wang Zichen didn't care about Jiang Chunfen's words. The company was busy, so how could he not go home for the night? He was already sixteen years old and wasn't a child who knew nothing. He had long developed some hateful thoughts in his heart, but he had never had evidence.

Wang Zichen said nothing else and just nodded silently. He knew that although he was angry, he couldn't possibly not go back for the rest of his life.

When they reached home, Wang Zimeng heard the voice and rushed downstairs. When she saw her brother had returned with her mother, she couldn't help but be stunned. "Brother!"

Wang Zimeng called out in surprise.

Wang Zichen had been pampered since he was young in the Wang family and was cherished by everyone. Especially in the hearts of the two elders of the Wang family and Wang Yunzhong, even though they shared the same mother, Wang Zimeng was treated much worse than him.

He also wanted to follow his mother.

Wang Zimeng looked behind the two of them, thinking that Wang Yunzhong was also here. However, she did not see Wang Yunzhong.

Jiang Chunfen entered the house with a shopping bag and smiled at the two children. "You two can play first. I bought pork ribs and lobster. I'll make them for you now. Let's have a good meal later!"
