

At School 401

Chapter 401: Bickering

Her heart only fluctuated a little. The old lady's feelings for her daughter were indifferent to begin with. In the past, the two families lived so close to each other, but they rarely interacted. She did not feel any sense of reluctance now that they were moving away.

"Let me ask you. What has your elder sister been doing recently? Why haven't I seen her at all?" The old lady couldn't be bothered to ask about them moving. At the moment, she was looking for Wang Yunmei.

"My elder sister isn't at home?" Wang Yunzhi pretended to be surprised. "That can't be. Isn't she usually at home during the day? I saw her yesterday!"

"Nonsense. I went to look at nine in the morning yesterday. The door was locked!" The old lady said.

"I saw her when I went to the stall to buy vinegar at eleven. She probably wasn't around when you went," Wang Yunzhi said.

The old lady naturally did not believe it. She went every day, and the door was always locked. Her youngest daughter could even meet her when she went to buy vinegar?

Who was she trying to scare?

"Tell me the truth. Is she hiding from me?" the old lady asked with wide eyes.

"Mom, what are you talking about? You're not a vampire. Why would she hide from you?"

Wang Yunzhi was mocking the old lady.

The old lady was angry and did not understand the meaning of Wang Yunzhi's words. She only said, "Alright, you're not telling me, right? Then tell your sister later that Li Xia is pregnant now, and she needs to send the deed back to me. If Li Xia gets angry and the child gets hurt because of this, I won't let her off!"

Wang Yunzhi initially planned to quickly send the old lady away with a few lies. Who knew that she would say such words and threaten her elder sister with a child?

"Mom, aren't you going a little overboard? My sister spent money to buy the house. Why should she return it to them after it's demolished? It's unreasonable even if you go to court and sue them!"

"It's fine that you've been biased towards Brother and Yunfa since we were young, but don't bully your two daughters like that. My sister even gave them an extra one hundred thousand yuan back then. That's enough!"

When the old lady heard this, she shouted, "She knew that the place was going to be demolished, so she deliberately tricked your brother!"

Wang Yunzhi retorted, "Who asked you not to take money out for Yunfa's wedding? Elder Brother didn't give him money, so you went to ask Elder Sister for money? Even when Elder Sister is taking care of two children alone? It's fine if you don't want to help her. But when Yunfa got married, she even has to fork out an additional one hundred thousand yuan? If I was Elder Sister, I'll cheat him too!"

“Yunfa deserved it. He knew how to take advantage of others since he was young. This will teach him a lesson this time!”

“Who will let you bully them every day? Even a rabbit would bite when it’s anxious. Go back and tell Wang Yunfa and Li Xia that they have both a car and a house now. Elder Sister’s two hundred thousand yuan paid for those. They have to be grateful and accumulate some merit for the child in Li Xia’s stomach!”

Wang Yunzhi stunned the old lady. Among the four children, Wang Yunzhi’s personality was the softest. Usually, she didn’t even speak loudly.

In Wang Yunzhi’s heart, her elder sister was more important than anyone else. No one should bully her, not even her mother!

The old lady was unreasonable. She blushed for a long time and could only make a scene. “I don’t care. Tell your sister to return the deed to me. Otherwise, I won’t acknowledge her as my daughter!”

In a hurry, she said harsh words.

As soon as she finished speaking, the old lady regretted it.

She was not proud of her daughter, but she did not have the intention of cutting ties with her.

Wang Yunzhi was stunned, and her heart instantly hurt. She looked at the old lady for a long time and said, “Mom? Do you know what you’re talking about?”

At least Elder Sister did not hear this. Otherwise, wouldn’t she die of sadness?

Chapter 402: It’s My Sister’s Birthday Soon

The old lady felt guilty for saying the wrong thing, but she didn’t admit defeat. “I’ll say this. Let your sister think about it herself. I don’t believe that she would still dare to disobey her mother...”

With that, the old lady didn’t want to argue with Wang Yunzhi anymore. She turned around and left.

Wang Yunzhi stood in the yard and was so angry that her heart burned. Thankfully, these words were only for her to hear. Had it been said in front of her sister’s face, how cold would it be?

However, the more this was the case, the more Wang Yunzhi’s heart ached for Wang Yunmei.

At this moment, Yao Feng walked out of the house and patted Wang Yunzhi’s shoulder. “Alright, don’t get angry. Sister is staying at the new house. Even if they’re anxious, they won’t be able to find her.”

“I won’t say a word to Elder Sister!” Wang Yunzhi took a deep breath. “We have to stand with Elder Sister on this matter. I don’t believe that both of us daughters can’t compare to Yunfa, that worthless son.”

Wang Yunzhi’s words made Yao Feng laugh. “Why are you comparing you and Elder Sister to Yunfa? They’re not the same kind of people.”

“Hah...” Wang Yunzhi snorted. “In the eyes of the old lady, a boy is a treasure! Li Xia is pregnant now. If she gives birth to a granddaughter, it would be fine. But if a grandson pops out, the old lady would soar to the sky!”

Yao Feng: “Don’t think about this anymore. We’ve already packed our things. Let’s go quickly. We still have to unpack when we get there.”

Wang Yunzhi nodded. After letting her husband comfort her, her mood wasn’t that bad anymore. However, she didn’t forget to remind Yao Feng, and said, “Don’t tell Sister about Mom’s heartless words today, lest she get angry again.”

Yao Feng smiled and answered, “I know. Don’t worry.”

The new house had everything. Wang Yunzhi’s family only brought some daily necessities and Jiachi’s books. They were preparing to change the rest.

After all, housewarming was a big deal. Although they could still use the things in the old house, the new house had a new atmosphere. Hence, it was also good to change their mood.

After putting everything into the car, Wang Yunzhi locked the house and the yard door. Then, the family drove Yao Feng’s three-wheeler towards Haicheng District.

On the way, Yao Feng drove the vehicle while Wang Yunzhi and Jiachi sat behind.

“Mom, it’s my sister’s birthday soon,” Yao Jiachi suddenly said.

His statement stunned Wang Yunzhi for a moment. After thinking about it, she couldn’t help but slap her thigh. “Oh, that’s right.”

Jian Ai’s birthday was in June. After this birthday, she will be fifteen years old!

“Husband, it’s Xiao Ai’s birthday in a few days. Let’s get it done, okay? Since Sister lives with us, she’ll be celebrating her birthday at our house. Xiao Ai helped us so much, so let’s get her birthday done!” Wang Yunzhi shouted at Yao Feng.

Yao Feng naturally wouldn’t reject it. He nodded and agreed. “Alright, decide whether we go to a restaurant or do it at home. I’ll listen to you.”

Wang Yunzhi: “I’ll think about it!”

...

The next day, Sunday.

Jian Ai and Bai Zhou appeared in the City Hall again.

Bai Zhou informed this matter to Jian Ai a week ago. The person-in-charge of a famous company in another city was sentenced to suspected corruption. Although the company was large scale, it was private. Now that the person-in-charge had fallen, the company was facing a suspension. In just half a year, the company was already heavily in debt and had declared bankruptcy.

This foreign company had several businesses in Baiyun City, including restaurants, supermarkets, and bars. Now that the company was bankrupt, Baiyun City would auction these businesses off on behalf.

This auction was not just a real estate auction. Many successful people in Baiyun City came to see if there was any business they could take over.

Chapter 403: The Auction Begins

Jian Ai's goal in coming here was also very clear. Since they were businesses left behind by a famous company, the system would be at most complete. If there was a suitable one to take over, it might directly bring profits.

In just a few months, Jian Ai had established East Sea Real Estate and Rose Entertainment. And they could also consider Shuiyun Club as an unexpected gain.

However, apart from the money she won in Macau, East Sea Real Estate and Rose Entertainment were both in the early stages of investment. The only thing that could bring profits to the company now was Shuiyun Club.

This was far from enough for M Group's development, so Jian Ai planned to expand her business and suspend investment in development projects. Instead, she needed businesses that could bring in profits now.

"Xiao Ai!"

As soon as she got out of the car, someone called Jian Ai.

She paused and looked up. It was Chen Lei!

"Uncle Chen!" Jian Ai smiled and greeted him. "I didn't expect you to be here too."

Chen Lei had two secretaries with him. When he heard that, he couldn't help but smile and nod. "I'm here to try my luck. If there's any business that I'm interested in, I'll take it down."

"Me too!" Jian Ai smiled.

They chatted casually as they walked in, but then they bumped into Jian Changsheng talking and laughing with his friends at the door.

"Chairman Jian!"

When Chen Lei saw Jian Changsheng, he smiled and greeted him.

Although the two companies were enemies, they were usually friendly when they met.

"Boss Chen!" Jian Changsheng was the same. As he spoke, he saw Jian Ai beside Chen Lei.

Jian Changsheng looked away and said nothing to Jian Ai.

Jian Ai didn't care. Instead, she was happy and relaxed. Perhaps because Jian Yiyi gave her a preconceived impression, she didn't have a good impression of Jian Yiyi's father either. Although the two of them said nothing to each other before, Jian Ai believed in her intuition. For some reason, she didn't like Jian Changsheng.

Compared to Chen Lei, he was far inferior.

“Uncle Chen, Bai Zhou and I will go in first. It’s hot here outside,” Jian Ai said to Chen Lei.

Chen Lei smiled and nodded. Jian Ai left him to talk to Jian Changsheng while she brought Bai Zhou into the venue.

Just like the last time, Jian Ai and Bai Zhou only found a corner seat and sat down. There were more people at this auction than at the previous land auction, which meant that there would be a fierce competition between all of them.

Half an hour later, the auction officially started.

The first business to be auctioned was an American-style restaurant near Baiyun Square in Haicheng District. The location was excellent, and it was still open for business. Once taken over, it could bring in money immediately.

However, Jian Ai had no intention of entering the food and beverage industry, at least for now. As such, she didn’t raise her bid.

After that, there was a huge supermarket. Jian Ai was still indifferent.

The third auction was a high-end entertainment club in Wanbao District.

The commentator’s voice sounded. “Next up, we’ll be auctioning off Venus Entertainment Club in Wanbao District. This club is next to Wanbao District’s landmark, Century Long Corridor. It’s a famous high-end leisure club in Baiyun City. It’s a gathering place for upper-class celebrities. The club has many forms, and the customer flow is stable. The profits are considerable. It’s a rare business.”

“The starting price is four million yuan and the increase per bid is five hundred thousand yuan. Bidding begins now!”

As soon as the commentator finished speaking, everyone started bidding, one after another. It was obvious that this kind of business was the most valuable.

Chapter 404: Clash Between Two Formidable Parties

Jian Ai was a little sleepy sitting in her seat, but she couldn’t help but sit up straight now.

She already had a Shuiyun Club under her name. If she could buy this club now, it would be as if her leisure business had already taken shape.

Even if this club’s location was not Haicheng District but Wanbao District, and the level of high-end was far from Shuiyun Club’s, it was precisely because of this that she should bid for it.

Shuiyun Club had already recruited almost all the billionaires in Baiyun City. Hence, she needed a club that was not of such a top-notch level.

Just like Yaochi!

When Bai Zhou saw Jian Ai’s reaction, he couldn’t help but whisper, “Interested?”

Jian Ai nodded and said decisively, “I want this club!”

In just two minutes, the bid had doubled to eight million yuan. The person who bid was none other than Jian Changsheng.

Jian Changsheng's reputation in Baiyun City's business world was self-evident. Seeing him bid, some sensible people gave up. First, they did not want to offend the Jian Group. Second, under such circumstances, if the Jian Group insisted on bidding, no company could compete with them.

"Eight million yuan going once!"

"Eight million yuan going twice!"

Jian Changsheng was sitting in the front row. Although his expression was cold, he was already confident in his victory.

Unexpectedly, before a decision was made, a voice suddenly sounded faintly. "Ten million yuan!"

Everyone heard this and turned around at the same time. In the last row, Bai Zhou was sitting with a number plate in his hand. He had a faint smile on his face.

"Who is this?"

"I don't know. I've never seen him before!"

"He dares to challenge the Jian Group? Isn't he afraid of offending Jian Changsheng?!"

"Shh, be quiet!"

Private conversations broke out. Many people had never seen Bai Zhou before, so they were naturally puzzled.

However, there were also many people who had seen Bai Zhou at the land auction. With his appearance, it was impossible for them to forget after seeing him once.

"Isn't he from East Sea Real Estate?"

"That's him. He snatched two of the best pieces of land from the Jian Group last time!"

"They're going against the Jian Group. How dare they snatch it?"

Jian Changsheng saw Bai Zhou and the petite figure submerged in the crowd.

Jian Changsheng's eyes were gloomy, but he still turned around calmly.

It was a very normal occurrence to lose something at an auction. However, being a high and mighty existence in everyone's eyes since he hailed from the Jian Group, he was the subject of everyone's ridicule after someone made a big fuss about him losing from the previous land auction.

Jian Changsheng didn't take the previous incident to heart, but someone wanted to see the Jian Group make a fool of themselves.

All of this started because East Sea Real Estate had stolen the territory he valued.

At that moment, this scene repeated itself.

The Jian Group had dominated Baiyun City for many years, but they had never suffered a loss from anyone.

This East Sea Real Estate had jumped out to compete with him time and time again. Even if Jian Changsheng was not an impulsive person, he would not allow himself to make the same mistake.

Jian Changsheng raised his number plate without hesitation. "Eleven million yuan!"

"Twelve million yuan!" Bai Zhou said without hesitation.

"Thirteen million yuan!" Jian Changsheng was the same.

Bai Zhou: "Fourteen million yuan!"

Jian Changsheng: "Fifteen million yuan!"

"Sixteen million yuan!"

"Seventeen million yuan!"

The two of them were at loggerheads, and no one was willing to give in. The others present couldn't help but secretly gasp. They wondered when these two companies had formed a feud.

Chapter 405: At Loggerheads

Jian Ai sat in her seat and looked at everything in front of her. She seemed to have read Jian Changsheng's mind.

Perhaps he wanted this club in the beginning, but now his goal has changed. It was obvious that he did not want her to get this club.

At this moment, Jian Changsheng's bid reached twenty million yuan.

Without Jian Ai's signal, Bai Zhou naturally wouldn't stop. He immediately raised his bid to continue, but Jian Ai gently stopped him.

Jian Ai shook her head at him. "Forget it."

Twenty million yuan had already exceeded the actual value of this club. She had no intention of making enemies or going against the Jian Group. If she continued to bid, it would be a loss even if she won the bid.

She was a business person, so she could not make a loss.

With Jian Ai's withdrawal, the Jian Group won the club for twenty million yuan.

This price had already exceeded the club's actual price. After all, the club's location was not in Haicheng District. Although its scale was like Yaochi, it was not as valuable.

Twenty million yuan. Jian Changsheng gained nothing.

Jian Changsheng naturally knew this, but he didn't lack the twenty million yuan. He just needed to win against East Sea Real Estate!

"This Jian Changsheng is still holding a grudge?" Bai Zhou curled his lips in disdain.

Jian Ai smiled but did not comment.

Jian Changsheng didn't hold a grudge. He wanted face!

Forget it. Although she had finally taken a liking to this club but did not win it, Jian Ai did not take it to heart.

Victory and defeat were common in war. No one would always be satisfied with auction outcomes.

The commentator's voice sounded. At this moment, the auction for the fourth business had already begun.

"Muse Bar is in the center of a street in Haicheng District. It's a fashionable nightclub that is well liked by young people. They renovated the bar just last year and introduced top-notch foreign sound equipment and a dance floor..."

The commentator's passionate commentary didn't arouse Jian Ai's interest, but it made Bai Zhou's eyes light up.

"Boss, this is good!" Bai Zhou said excitedly.

Jian Ai looked at him and smiled. "A bar?"

Bai Zhou nodded. "Young, energetic, passionate, and liberating are synonymous with the entertainment industry at present. Bars have been deeply embedded in the lives of young people in recent years. The system is mature, and the management model is simple. Although the profits are not as much as the clubs, it can still earn money faster than ordinary businesses."

When Jian Ai heard this, she thought Bai Zhou's words were reasonable.

Baiyun City was a top-tier city in China. Nightlife was rich, colorful, and fashionable. There were many nightclubs and bars.

Although there were many of them, some famous nightclubs were still full every day. There was no empty space.

It was the same for low-end nightclubs like Starlight Bar in Zhonglou District.

With this thought in mind, Jian Ai nodded. "Take it down!"

When Bai Zhou heard this, he quickly raised his bid.

Because it was a nightclub in Haicheng District, the starting bid was relatively high. After a few rounds of bidding, it had already reached ten million yuan!

According to the bar's business model, it would take at least half a year for them to earn back their capital with an investment of ten million yuan.

Everyone regretfully retreated. Bai Zhou revealed a relieved smile.

“Eleven million yuan!”

Just as Bai Zhou thought the bar was already in his hands, an unhappy voice suddenly sounded.

Jian Changsheng raised his number plate and sat upright.

Jian Ai frowned and felt unhappy.

Would the Jian Group fancy a bar? Jian Ai didn’t believe that Jian Changsheng really wanted this bar.

Since that was the case, Jian Changsheng’s goal was self-evident!

Chapter 406: Increasing the Price Maliciously

A cold glint flashed across Bai Zhou’s eyes. Jian Changsheng was obviously finding trouble for him.

“Twelve million yuan!”

Bai Zhou shouted. He had already given Jian Changsheng a club. He was determined to get this bar.

Jian Changsheng didn’t stop there. Instead, he continued to bid. “Thirteen million yuan!”

Bai Zhou: “Fourteen million yuan!”

The two of them exchanged blows, neither willing to relent. After a few rounds, the bid for this Haicheng District bar was fourteen million yuan.

For a bar, this price was already close to the limit. If they increased the price, it would not mean much.

Jian Ai sat on the chair and thought that if Jian Changsheng increased his bid, she would not want this bar. She was not an impulsive person.

However, Jian Changsheng didn’t call for a price. In the end, Bai Zhou bought this bar for fourteen million yuan.

Jian Ai and Bai Zhou couldn’t help but look at each other. They already knew in their hearts that Jian Changsheng didn’t want this bar at all. He just deliberately raised the price to the limit so that they could spend more money.

This was obviously giving them a taste of their own medicine.

Bai Zhou had also called for the price of the club to be twenty million yuan before giving it to Jian Changsheng.

Jian Changsheng gained nothing, so he didn’t want them to be happy. He was a petty man.

Jian Ai only bought this bar from the auction and was not interested in anything else.

After that, Jian Ai and Bai Zhou walked out of the venue. At the door, they bumped into Jian Changsheng.

He was talking to someone he knew. Jian Ai walked past him but didn’t look up. Bai Zhou only gave him a sharp look.

The two of them got into the car and left. Jian Changsheng then looked in the direction Jian Ai left in.

“Chairman Jian, what’s East Sea Real Estate’s background?” someone asked curiously.

Jian Changsheng shook his head. “I’m not sure.”

That was the truth. He had once asked his subordinates to investigate East Sea Real Estate’s background. He initially thought that a big corporation from another city had infiltrated Baiyun City, but that was not the case.

This East Sea Real Estate exuded a mysterious aura that made him feel uncomfortable, be it the silver-haired man or the teenage girl.

He was indeed a little impulsive today. In all his years in the business world, he had done nothing like increasing the price maliciously.

However, he always had an inexplicable sense of hostility towards East Sea Real Estate.

At night, the production team of ‘There Will Be an Angel Who Loves You on My Behalf’ was filming at Baiyun River.

Xia Qinghuan had already completed four scenes today and was currently filming the last night scene.

“Cut!”

With a ‘Cut!’ from Director Wang Yiming, Xia Qinghuan instantly pulled herself out of the role. Then, she saw Director Wang Yiming stick his head out from behind the camera and give Qinghuan a thumbs up.

“Qinghuan, you can end the filming now!”

Xia Qinghuan smiled and nodded, then walked towards Chen Jin, who was waiting by the side.

“Brother Jin, we can get off work now,” Xia Qinghuan said with a smile.

Chen Jin handed her water and said softly, “I have something to tell you.”

Qinghuan stopped drinking water and asked, “What’s wrong?”

“It’s about you signing the contract,” Chen Jin said in a low voice. He first looked up at the surroundings before pulling Qinghuan to a corner. “A few days ago, an entertainment company suddenly contacted me and wanted to sign you.”

“Ah?” Xia Qinghuan was stunned. She asked, “It’s not a company that any actor in the production team belongs to?”

Chen Jin shook his head. “No, it’s a new company called Rose Entertainment!”

Chapter 407: Set a Time to Meet

“Rose Entertainment?” Xia Qinghuan thought about it, but this was the first time she had heard of this company.

She was puzzled. “How did they know about me?”

This drama was her first drama, which meant that she had not entered the public eye yet. Other than the actors in the production team, the other companies would not know about her.

Especially when Chen Jin said that this was a new company.

“The other party said that someone recommended you. Moreover, you’re the first artist they’ve locked onto. The conditions they offered are very suitable for a newcomer like you,” Chen Jin said.

He had been hesitant before because he wanted to find Xia Qinghuan the most suitable company for her.

As a newcomer, it was not a good thing for Qinghuan to sign with a big company as soon as she started. In an intense competition environment, there would be very few opportunities for newcomers to choose from.

Chen Jin also didn’t want Qinghuan to quickly overdraw herself after she became famous. It was best if she could develop step by step. After all, she was still young, so there was no need to be anxious about everything.

Although there were disadvantages to a new company, they were still relatively friendly to newcomers. The other party’s conditions also gave Qinghuan more room for development. This was what Chen Jin cared about the most at the moment.

Chen Jin was in charge of Qinghuan’s contract with the company. She was willing to listen to his arrangements.

“Alright, then let’s arrange a time to talk to them in person!”

Qinghuan agreed readily. It was mainly because she trusted Chen Jin one hundred percent now.

Chen Jin smiled and nodded. “I’ll contact them later!”

The next morning, Wang Yunmei and Wang Yunzhi made breakfast in the kitchen.

“Sister, Xiao Ai’s birthday is coming soon. Yao Feng and I discussed it. We’ll hold it this year,” Wang Yunzhi said to Wang Yunmei.

Wang Yunmei didn’t object and only smiled and nodded. “Anything is fine. Anyway, it’s only just us and it’s good to have fun together. Your housewarming is also a big deal. Hence, we can do it together when the time comes.”

As she spoke, Wang Yunmei stopped what she was doing and looked up at Wang Yunzhi. She said seriously, “Has Mom gone to look for you recently?”

Wang Yunzhi’s expression froze before she shook her head. “No, I don’t know what she’s busy with.”

Wang Yunzhi hid the fact that the old lady was looking for her because she was afraid that it would upset Wang Yunmei. After all, the words she said were harsh.

Wang Yunzhi then said, “Sister, just stay here. They won’t be able to find you, anyway.”

"I can hide for a while, but we can't never see each other again." Wang Yunmei sighed.

After all, she was her mother. Even if she avoided this matter, they would still meet in the future. Or could it be that they would never meet again?

Although her daughter said that she would handle this matter for the time being, Wang Yunmei didn't know what Xiao Ai could do. She knew her mother very well and knew that she wasn't easy to get rid of.

"Relax, Sister. You can't be soft-hearted now," Wang Yunzhi said. "Xiao Ai is right. If you give in, they'll push their luck in the future."

Wang Yunmei naturally knew this logic. She didn't want to back down, but when she thought of this, she felt upset.

Not wanting her sister to think too much, Wang Yunzhi changed the topic. "Sister, how long will the renovation work for your new house be?"

When Wang Yunmei heard that, she said, "It won't be so soon. It's already considered fast if we can stay there this year."

The new house was two hundred square meters and had two floors. It was not an easy task to renovate it.

Chapter 408: The Image of a Good Father Collapses

On the other hand, at Jiang Chunfen's house.

Wang Zichen and Wang Zimeng were eating breakfast. The two of them were in the same school as Yao Jiachi and were studying at Baiyun City's Yizhong.

Jiang Chunfen lived in Wanbao District, but since she was now the financial manager of Rose Entertainment, which was in Haicheng District, she could send the two children to school every morning before going to the company.

It had been almost half a month since Wang Zichen came to look for Jiang Chunfen. So many days had passed, but Wang Yunzhong didn't even call.

Jiang Chunfen was angry, but she didn't contact Wang Yunzhong.

In the past, he doted on his son so much, but now that his son had left for half a month, he did not even notice at all.

It was obvious that Wang Yunzhong had not been home these days.

At the dining table, Wang Zimeng ate while secretly observing Wang Zichen.

Wang Zichen seemed to have noticed something. He immediately looked up at Wang Zimeng. "What are you looking at?"

Wang Zimeng pursed her lips and asked carefully, "Brother, didn't Dad call you?"

"No!" Wang Zichen looked unhappy, but he didn't appear too agitated.

In the first few days, he would be so angry that he would not eat. However, it had been almost half a month, and he was gradually getting used to it.

Moreover, Jiang Chunfen doted on him very much and made delicious food for him every day. Compared to Wang Yunzhong, the father who had changed drastically after his divorce, Wang Zichen felt it was better to follow his mother.

Wang Zimeng wanted to ask something, but Wang Zichen suddenly said, "If you miss him, call him yourself. Why do you keep asking me?"

As he spoke, Wang Zichen couldn't help but sneer at himself. "He didn't even notice that I, his son, was missing. So most probably, he had long forgotten about your existence already."

Wang Zimeng pouted and said nothing.

When Jiang Chunfen heard her son's words from upstairs, she couldn't help but sigh. She thought to herself that Wang Yunzhong was too much. The image of a loving father that her son had built in his heart for so many years had completely collapsed in just a few days. Now, her son would scoff at the mention of his father.

Although Jiang Chunfen hated Wang Yunzhong, she didn't want him to have such an image in her son's heart.

After all, the child was innocent.

After dinner, Jiang Chunfen sent the two children to school and drove towards the company.

As soon as Jiang Chunfen parked the car outside the company, she saw Wang Yunzhi among the crowd.

Thinking that she had seen wrongly, Jiang Chunfen looked closer. After confirming that it was Wang Yunzhi, she quickly chased after her.

"Yunzhi!"

Jiang Chunfen chased for two steps before shouting.

Wang Yunzhi was wearing East Sea Real Estate's work clothes. She was wearing a small suit, a white shirt, and a short black skirt. When she heard someone calling her, she couldn't help but be stunned. Then she turned around and looked.

Seeing that it was Jiang Chunfen, Wang Yunzhi couldn't help but be shocked. "Sister-in-law?"

Jiang Chunfen quickly walked over. The two of them looked at each other in unison and said, "Why are you here?"

Wang Yunzhi regained her senses and spoke first, "I work here!"

"You work in this building?" Jiang Chunfen was surprised. She remembered that Wang Yunzhi was a tailor at a clothing factory.

Wang Yunzhi nodded. "I'm at East Sea Real Estate on the seventeenth floor."

Jiang Chunfen knew about the real estate company on the seventeenth floor. Hearing this, she blurted, "I'm upstairs at Rose Entertainment."

Chapter 409: Don't Mess with Her

"Rose Entertainment?"

When Wang Yunzhi heard this, she was surprised.

Why was Sister-in-law working here? Wasn't she working in Brother's company?

Obviously, Wang Yunzhi still did not know that she had gotten a divorce with Wang Yunzhong. Not only did she not know, but Wang Yunmei also did not know.

Jian Ai didn't think of this, so she didn't tell them.

"Sister-in-law... you..." Wang Yunzhi couldn't figure it out.

Seeing Wang Yunzhi's reaction, Jiang Chunfen knew that she probably didn't know about her divorce with Wang Yunzhong.

"Xiao Ai... didn't tell you?" Jiang Chunfen asked.

Wang Yunzhi was even more confused and shook her head. "No! Sister-in-law, what happened?"

For some reason, Wang Yunzhi's heart beat faster, and she felt nervous.

Jiang Chunfen didn't hide it and said calmly, "Your brother and I... divorced."

"What?" Wang Yunzhi was shocked.

Divorce? Why wasn't there any news about such a big matter?

Jiang Chunfen nodded and said calmly, "It has been almost a month."

Wang Yunzhi said nothing for a long time. It was obvious that she was shocked.

Her elder brother's family led the best lives. Her sister-in-law was also good. She did not expect her elder brother and sister-in-law to get a divorce.

Jiang Chunfen also told Wang Yunzhi about the job Jian Ai arranged for her. However, Wang Yunzhi was so shocked that she couldn't say anything.

That Rose Entertainment on the nineteenth floor was Xiao Ai's property as well?

Similarly, Jiang Chunfen also knew that the East Sea Real Estate on the seventeenth floor was Jian Ai's.

"Xiao Ai..." Jiang Chunfen opened her mouth but didn't know what to say.

Wang Yunzhi was in the finance department of East Sea Real Estate, while Jiang Chunfen was the financial manager of Rose Entertainment. Both of them entered Jian Ai's company, which was arranged by Jian Ai.

The two of them talked as they entered the company building.

Jiang Chunfen told Wang Yunzhi everything about her and Wang Yunzhong, including Wang Yunzhong's adultery.

After all, Wang Yunzhi was not a child. Some things could not be said to a child, but there was no need to hide it from Wang Yunzhi.

"Brother is too silly. How could he do such a thing?!" Wang Yunzhi did not expect that her brother, who usually looked serious, would cheat!

"No one told me about this. Sister doesn't know either!" Wang Yunzhi looked at Jiang Chunfen and said, "Sister-in-law, you also know what's going on with our Wang family. Don't blame Sister and me for being kept in the dark."

How could Jiang Chunfen blame Wang Yunzhi and Wang Yunmei? Moreover, Wang Yunzhong and the two elders of the Wang family didn't interact much with them, so it was expected that they didn't know.

"What are you talking about?!" Jiang Chunfen smiled and didn't look worried. "It's not something honorable in the first place. It's normal for the old lady to hide it from you."

Jiang Chunfen sighed and smiled. "I thought I wouldn't have anything to do with the Wang family after my divorce. Coincidentally, I found a job at Xiao Ai's company."

"She wanted to help me. I should thank her!"

When Wang Yunzhi heard this, she couldn't help but say, "Sister-in-law, that's good. It's Xiao Ai's birthday this week. I'm arranging it with my husband. You can bring Zichen and Zimeng over too!"

Chapter 410: Invitation

"Alright!" Jiang Chunfen agreed.

Although she had divorced Wang Yunzhong, Jiang Chunfen admired Wang Yunmei sincerely. She also had a good impression of her sister, Wang Yunzhi.

They were many times stronger than those two brothers from the Wang family.

Since she was working at Xiao Ai's company, she had to interact more in the future. Even if she was no longer the Wang family's daughter-in-law, it did not stop her from being friends with Wang Yunmei and Wang Yunzhi.

"We haven't decided on the exact date yet. I'll tell you when it's settled," Wang Yunzhi said with a smile.

When the elevator reached the seventeenth floor, Wang Yunzhi got off first and separated from Jiang Chunfen.

When the elevator door closed, Wang Yunzhi couldn't help but sigh.

Yunfa had just gotten married when his brother got a divorce. Her sister-in-law was such a virtuous and capable person that anyone who saw her would give her a thumbs up. Even the old man, who had a bad temper, was very satisfied with this daughter-in-law.

Her brother had cheated on her. This was something she never expected.

However, Wang Yunzhi could only think that one day, her brother would regret it.

At noon, at the basketball court of Erzong.

Jian Ai and the rest had finished their lunch and were chatting on the stone steps.

On the basketball court, Lin Yi, Yan Tian, and Gao Yang were playing basketball with the boys from the other classes.

Xia Qinghuan told Jian Ai and Guan Tao what Chen Jin had told her last night. "The company is called Rose Entertainment. It's a newly established company. I've never heard of it before."

Jian Ai smiled and said nothing. After the company was established and operated, she gave the first order to make sure that the company signed Xia Qinghuan. It seemed that the signing department had already taken action.

Guan Tao asked, "What do you plan on doing? Is the new company reliable? What if they don't have the resources after signing?"

Xia Qinghuan shook her head when she heard that. Actually, she knew little about the management company, and she could not be bothered to know. The only thing she wanted to do was to be an actress.

"I was a little worried at first, but Brother Jin analyzed a lot of things for me. I think he's right. Although the new company is not as influential as the more established ones, the competition between the established companies is too fierce. I'd rather be a chicken's head than a phoenix's tail." Xia Qinghuan smiled.

Hearing Qinghuan compare her company to chickens, Jian Ai had no choice but to say, "That might not be the case. This company was recently just established, yet the first artist they wanted to sign is not an artist who had established themselves as famous, but you. It just shows that this company has good taste."

"Brother Jin said so too!" Xia Qinghuan quickly nodded and looked at Jian Ai. "Xiao Ai, do you think I should sign it?"

Jian Ai said ambiguously, "You have to ask Brother Jin about this. I'm not your manager. I can't help you decide."

Xia Qinghuan chuckled and said, "Yes, I'll listen to Brother Jin. I'll follow him wherever he takes me."

The three girls sat together and chatted, glancing at the boys on the court from time to time.

There were two basketball hoops on the right side of the court. At this moment, a group of boys was playing basketball as well. These boys were not from Year One, but seniors from Year Two.

One of the tall and handsome boys with short hair glanced at Jian Ai from time to time. When he was not paying attention, a basketball flew over and hit his head.

"Damn!"

Liao Bo held his head in pain and gasped.

“Liao Bo, what were you thinking? You can’t even catch this ball?” The boy in the same class saw this and ran forward. He frowned and asked, “How are you? Are you okay?”
