

At School 411

Chapter 411: Famous Person?

Liao Bo rubbed the back of his head and shook his head. "I'm fine."

As he spoke, he couldn't help but look at Jian Ai again.

Jian Ai seemed to have noticed the commotion and looked up. However, she only glanced at them faintly before looking away.

A classmate noticed Liao Bo's intentional action. The boy at the side followed Liao Bo's gaze and saw that he was looking at three girls. He couldn't help but laugh. "Oh, Young Master Liao, who do you like?"

Usually, these boys wouldn't avoid such things when they were together. Liao Bo only smiled and raised his chin at Jian Ai. "The one on the left!"

The boys looked over at the same time. In terms of looks, the three of them had their unique points and were of different types.

However, compared to the other two, Jian Ai had a little more indifferent temperament. That temperament was very subtle, and only those who had the will would notice it.

At that moment, Jian Ai said something to the rest and smiled. Her side profile shone under the sunlight, making it difficult to look away.

"Not bad, Young Master Liao. She's your type!"

A few of them seemed to have some understanding of Liao Bo's likes and dislikes. Compared to his previous girlfriends, they all were the same type.

Liao Bo raised his eyebrows, and his heart thumped.

"These three girls are all in Year One!" someone suddenly said, as he seemed to recognize Jian Ai and the rest.

Liao Bo turned around and saw that it was Chen Qidong. He couldn't help but ask, "Qidong, do you know them?"

Chen Qidong was Chen Lei's son. At that time, Jian Ai went to Chen Lei's house for dinner once and Chen Qidong bumped into her.

Chen Qidong nodded and looked at Liao Bo. "Liao Bo, I advise you not to provoke her. She's a famous person in school."

"Famous person?"

Liao Bo frowned. He knew little about Jian Ai.

Chen Qidong and Liao Bo had a good relationship. His friends knew he was a person who didn't care about external affairs and wasn't interested in gossip. Even if he heard it unintentionally, he would forget it after hearing it.

Chen Qidong said in a low voice, "Have you forgotten about Liu Na's family's bankruptcy?"

With Chen Qidong's reminder, the others beside him instantly reacted. Some boys who had seen Ji Haoyu in the cafeteria couldn't help but exclaim, "Class One, Jian Ai!"

When this name was mentioned, Liao Bo had some impression of it. It seemed that he had always heard his classmates mention this name before.

"Liao Bo, you're done for this time!" A boy hooted. "We've all heard about Jian Ai. She has a strong backing. She easily bankrupted Liu Na's family!"

Liao Bo couldn't help but sneer in disdain at his classmate's provocation. He raised his eyebrows and said, "Why? I can't touch her just because she bankrupted Liu Na's family? I want to see if she can make my father step down!"

The others couldn't help but look at each other when they heard this. They thought to themselves, 'Does this Young Master Liao really want to provoke Jian Ai?'

Chen Qidong reached out to pull Liao Bo and said, "Forget it, Liao Bo."

Chen Qidong still remembered Chen Lei's instructions that he should take care of Jian Ai in school. Although Jian Ai did not leave a good impression on him, she was still a girl and the daughter of his father's friend. He could not just sit and watch as Liao Bo harassed her.

Moreover, Liao Bo's identity was not simple. No one in Erzong dared to go against him because his father was the governor of Jin Province, Liao Junxiong.

No matter how powerful Jian Ai was, it was impossible for her to go against Liao Bo.

Chapter 412: Hitting on Me? I Reject!

"You're nervous about her?"

Liao Bo looked at Chen Qidong and smiled crookedly. He raised his eyebrows and said, "Qidong, don't tell me you like her too?"

His words frightened Chen Qidong so much that he quickly retracted his hand. "Liao Bo, don't talk nonsense. That's not true."

What a joke. He had only seen Jian Ai twice, so why would he like her?

It was just because of his father's instructions.

"That's good!" Liao Bo smiled and patted Chen Qidong's shoulder. "Don't worry, I just want to get to know her. I won't do anything to her."

No matter what he wanted to do, it wouldn't be at this time and place.

As he spoke, Liao Bo walked towards Jian Ai. The others quickly followed with interest.

There was no one that Young Master Liao could not get his hands on. It was not just because of his father's status, but Liao Bo was also tall, handsome, and had a good figure. He was a sporty man that many girls liked.

On the other hand, he was very fickle. From junior school until now, he had as many girlfriends as there were stars in the sky. He had also trained his ability to pick up girls, and very few people could withstand his tricks.

A group of people walked over and blocked the sunlight above Jian Ai and the rest's head.

Jian Ai and the rest looked up and saw a group of Year Two seniors piled in front of them. Although there were many people it was obvious that these people surrounded one particular person in the middle.

"What's the matter?" Jian Ai asked calmly, without a trace of panic or nervousness.

Her gaze landed on Liao Bo.

Chen Qidong was standing beside Liao Bo, and he was winking at Jian Ai as if sending her a signal.

Jian Ai glanced at Chen Qidong and ignored him.

"Your name is Jian Ai?" Liao Bo curved his lips and smiled. He was not old, but he could already master the evilly charming smile.

Jian Ai frowned and said nothing.

Xia Qinghuan glared at Liao Bo and said unhappily, "Senior, is anything the matter?"

Liao Bo shrugged and looked at Jian Ai. "Liao Bo from Year Two, Class One. Can we get to know each other?"

"No."

Jian Ai was still sitting on the stone steps. She only raised her eyes slightly and rejected him without thinking.

Liao Bo did not expect to be rejected so quickly. For a moment, he was stunned, and then his expression turned stony. "Heh... Are you aware that no one in Erzong would dare to reject me?!"

Jian Ai slowly stood up and looked at Liao Bo with disdain. "Congratulations, you have one now."

As soon as she finished speaking, disdain flashed across Jian Ai's eyes. She didn't want to say anything else and turned to leave.

A girl like this had never humiliated Liao Bo before. Jian Ai looked gentle and quiet, but he didn't expect her to have a bad temper.

However, the more this was the case, the more Liao Bo wanted to get her.

He was the son of the governor. Even those rich businessmen had to praise him whenever they saw him. No one in the entire Jin Province dared to say no to him.

As Jian Ai turned around, Liao Bo instinctively reached out to grab her shoulder.

Lin Yi and the rest also saw the abnormality over here and rushed over. Seeing this, they were about to go forward to stop Liao Bo's excessive action. Unexpectedly, everyone suddenly felt a black shadow flash in front of their eyes, and someone had already appeared behind Jian Ai.

Before Liao Bo could touch Jian Ai, a well-defined hand grabbed his hand.

Chapter 413: The Strange Person Strikes Again

Everyone was shocked at first, but then their eyes widened in unison.

That person was in a black outfit. His half-length hair was smooth and layered. He lowered his head slightly, and his eyes were as if they were soaked in ice and could devour one's bones. They were hidden behind his fringe.

His aura was fierce and murderous.

When she saw who it was, Xia Qinghuan couldn't help but cover her mouth and exclaim, "Si Yuehan!"

Jian Ai, Lin Yi, and the others also recognized this person. It was Si Yuehan, who, out of nowhere, transferred to their class not long ago.

Liao Bo's wrist was very strong, but at this moment, Si Yuehan's fair and slender fingers tightly gripped it. His hand looked weak and tender, but in reality, it was like a pair of tightly screwed pliers.

Liao Bo tugged hard a few times, but he did not move. He could not break free at all.

"Let go of me. Mind your own business!" Liao Bo had an angry look on his face. There were so many students around him, but this Year One junior was making a fool out of himself. His self-esteem naturally could not bear it.

Si Yuehan looked up and a cold light shot at Liao Bo.

Liao Bo instantly felt a chill hit him, making him feel cold from head to toe.

"She said no. Don't you understand human language?"

Si Yuehan spoke softly, with an invisible pressure in his tone. Not only Liao Bo, but even the others present couldn't help but feel a chill run down their spines.

"What does it have to do with you? Do you know who I am? I... Ah..."

Before Liao Bo could finish speaking, he felt a heartbreaking pain coming from his wrist, making him unable to hold back his scream.

Cold sweat instantly seeped out. Liao Bo's face was pale, and his body twisted involuntarily. "Let go... It hurts... Damn..."

The people at the side were afraid and worried, but no one dared to say a word.

"Apologize!" Si Yuehan said coldly, and the strength in his hands increased.

"Ah..." Liao Bo was in pain. He felt as if something had sucked all the strength in his body out. His body bent, and he almost knelt on the ground.

Everyone watched from the side, and no one dared to speak. The main reason was that Si Yuehan's aura was too oppressive. There was no reason for them to be implicated as well.

Jian Ai stood at the side. She was the only one who was absent-minded now.

At this moment, she was thinking about Si Yuehan's background. First, he saved her in South City, and now, he suddenly appeared to help her resolve her trouble.

The strangest thing was that they have never said a word to each other—not only to her, but Si Yuehan had never said a word to anyone.

He was so cold that it was unbelievable.

However, if he was really an indifferent person, why would he help her out now?

Jian Ai couldn't figure it out.

Liao Bo kept howling. He gritted his teeth and stammered, "So... Sor... Sorry!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Si Yuehan let go.

Liao Bo lost his balance and fell to the ground. Fortunately, the person beside him caught him quickly.

His entire arm had already gone numb, and Liao Bo's breathing was slightly chaotic. He felt as if he had just survived a disaster. If this person had used a bit more strength just now, he would have crushed Liao Bo's bones to pieces.

Si Yuehan only treated him as a pile of trash. After letting go, he didn't say a word. He didn't even look at him before turning around and leaving.

When he passed by Jian Ai, he didn't stop for a moment.

Jian Ai looked confused. What the hell?

"Oh my, he's too cool!" Xia Qinghuan was rarely infatuated. She looked at Si Yuehan's back with heart-shaped eyes!

Chapter 414: This Isn't Over

"Jian Ai, are you okay?"

Lin Yi came up to her and asked with concern.

He couldn't help but feel a little upset. He should have gone up to help Jian Ai just now, but Si Yuehan beat him to it.

Jian Ai shook her head gently and couldn't help but look in the direction Si Yuehan left with a slight frown.

"This person looks cold, but I didn't expect him to be so kind-hearted," Yan Tian muttered at the side.

The others didn't know that Si Yuehan had already saved Jian Ai once on the morning of the transfer. They only thought that he had helped her because they were classmates.

They no longer had the mood to play basketball and immediately accompanied the girls back to the classroom.

The Year Two boys watched Jian Ai leave but didn't dare to say anything.

"Liao Bo, are you okay?" someone asked worriedly.

At that moment, Liao Bo felt his entire arm go numb. That person had so much strength just now that he felt like his bones were about to shatter.

However, the pain in his body was not as bad as the frustration in his heart. Someone taught him, the dignified Young Master Liao, a lesson. He even apologized. If word got out, people would laugh their heads off.

"Don't tell anyone about what happened today." Liao Bo's eyes were filled with gloom as he warned the others fiercely.

These people didn't dare to offend Liao Bo. They echoed, "Don't worry, no one will say anything."

Chen Qidong pursed his lips. He had already warned Liao Bo not to provoke Jian Ai. Who asked him to not listen? He tried to steal a chicken, only to end up losing the rice. He was in so much pain that he almost knelt down.

Of course, Chen Qidong could only mutter this in his heart. He was on good terms with Liao Bo and knew what kind of person Liao Bo was. This matter would probably not be resolved so easily.

As expected, Liao Bo gritted his teeth angrily and said, "Just wait. This isn't over."

Everyone looked at each other. If Liao Bo was serious, someone would suffer.

Jian Ai and the rest returned to class. Si Yuehan was lying on the table with his eyes closed, as if he had fallen asleep.

Xia Qinghuan gently bumped Jian Ai with her shoulder and pouted at Si Yuehan. "Hey, aren't you going to thank him?"

Jian Ai shook her head and thought to herself, 'Forget it.' She wanted to see what Si Yuehan wanted to do.

At this moment, she had some reasonable guesses about his identity.

...

After school in the afternoon, Jian Ai didn't go home directly. Instead, she planned to go to Wang Yunzhi's house for dinner.

After leaving the school, Jian Ai walked for a while before turning to an alley, planning to take a shortcut.

She had only taken a few steps when footsteps suddenly came from behind her, accompanied by an arrogant voice. "Hey, stop right there."

Jian Ai stopped in her tracks and turned around.

At this moment, four people had blocked the entrance of the alley. These people were wearing ragged pants and had different hairstyles. One of them even had a head of red hair. One could tell at a glance that they were not students from school.

Jian Ai's expression turned stony. Just as she was wondering why these people were looking for trouble with her, she saw the four of them turn sideways. A person she had almost forgotten appeared in front of Jian Ai.

That person was burly and had a fierce look on his face. At this moment, his gaze was like a sharp sword as he looked at Jian Ai. He couldn't wait to burn her bones and scatter her ashes with his gaze.

This person was none other than Liu Yong, who Jian Ai had beaten half to death at Starlight Bar more than a month ago.

Chapter 415: Why? Haven't You Been Beaten Enough?

Liu Yong lay in the hospital for more than a month before he gradually recovered. Even now, his face had not completely recovered, and there was even a permanent concussion.

It was obvious how ruthless Jian Ai was.

Seeing Liu Yong suddenly appear, Jian Ai was a little surprised. Because more than a month had passed, yet she had already forgotten about this matter.

"Damn girl, you made me look for you everywhere!" Liu Yong looked at Jian Ai and gritted his teeth.

The past month was the most aggrieved period in Liu Yong's life. Every day in the hospital, thoughts of revenge filled his mind. Therefore, the first thing he did after being discharged was to find all his brothers. Even if he had to turn Baiyun City upside down, he had to find Jian Ai.

Liu Yong's father, Liu Zhigang, had reminded Liu Yong more than once that he could not rush into this matter. They could not afford to challenge the person behind this.

However, hatred had already occupied Liu Yong's heart, and he had long forgotten Liu Zhigang's warning.

After more than half a month, Liu Yong's men finally found out that Jian Ai was a student from Erzhang, so this scene happened.

Today, he would make her pay for all the humiliation he had suffered previously.

Liu Yong was furious, but Jian Ai only looked up and said coldly, "Why? Haven't you been beaten enough?"

Facing five adult men, Jian Ai did not show any fear.

Liu Yong hit her brother. In Jian Ai's heart, she would hit him every single chance she would see him. And yet, coincidentally, he came knocking on her door again.

Jian Ai's arrogance was undoubtedly challenging Liu Yong's bottom line. Ruthlessness filled his eyes as he looked at Jian Ai and said, "Let's see if you can still be arrogant later."

As soon as he finished speaking, he waved his hand. "Beat her up. If she dies, count it on me!"

The five men rushed forward with fierce expressions. They did not treat Jian Ai as a fourteen-year-old girl.

Jian Ai stood on the spot, not intimidated by the other party's aura at all. At this moment, a transparent gas had already condensed in her hand. Just as she was about to swing it, she felt a cold aura coming from behind her.

In the next second, Si Yuehan stood in front of Jian Ai.

He said coldly, "Stand back. Be careful not to be covered in blood."

Again and again.

This was the third time, and Jian Ai no longer felt surprised. She could only roll her eyes helplessly.

She should have expected this scene.

She pursed her lips. "Don't kill them."

With that, Jian Ai quickly dodged to the side, looking like she was ready to watch a show.

When Liu Yong and the rest saw a brat suddenly appear, they had no intention of stopping.

Whoever stopped him today would die!

In the blink of an eye, a few people had already arrived in front of Si Yuehan. The person in front raised his hand and threw a punch—which was like an iron fist with a gust of wind. It was obvious that he had used enough strength.

However, Si Yuehan only raised his hand slightly and caught the entire fist.

A look of shock flashed across the other party's face. Before he could react, he heard a crack...

"Ah..."

That person screamed heartbreakingly as Si Yuehan crushed his joints.

Si Yuehan raised his leg and kicked the other party's stomach. The man, who was about one hundred and sixty pounds, flew out like a feather and knocked his two companions to the ground.

Chapter 416: Brother, I'm Wrong

Accurate, ruthless, and efficient.

The entire action was done in one go, and Si Yuehan did not move an inch from the beginning to the end. He finished one off in the blink of an eye.

Once someone made a move, one would know if he was an expert or not.

When Liu Yong and the rest saw this, their auras shrank, and they stopped in their tracks. One of them had horror in his eyes and thought to himself, 'What the hell is this monster?'

"Brother Yong, what... what's going on?" the person asked with a trembling voice.

When Liu Yong heard this, he gritted his teeth. "What the hell are you thinking of? There are so many of us here. Do we need to be afraid of him alone? Everyone, attack!"

As soon as he had finished speaking, Liu Yong pushed the two people in front of him out. Seeing this, the two of them could only brace themselves and charge at Si Yuehan.

However, the two of them had just taken two steps when they felt a blur in front of their eyes. They saw that Si Yuehan had instantly disappeared from the spot. Because his speed was too fast, it only left an afterimage behind.

Without waiting for them to react, Si Yuehan's figure had already flashed behind the two of them. He raised his hands and pinched their heads. Then, he exerted strength and made them collide with each other!

The two of them immediately rolled their eyes and fainted.

Of the five people, one had fallen, and two had fainted. Only Liu Yong and another person were left.

The two of them looked at each other. Liu Yong's arrogance had already disappeared and fear had replaced it.

He had seen it clearly just now. The person in front of him was not a person at all. How could anyone disappear into thin air?

Afraid, Liu Yong instinctively wanted to run away. However, as soon as he turned around, he realized that Si Yuehan had already appeared behind him.

"Ah..."

Liu Yong screamed and fell to the ground in shock.

He looked at Si Yuehan as if he had seen a ghost and quickly retreated to the ground. "You... don't come over!"

Seeing this, the other person wanted to run, but just as he took a step, Si Yuehan grabbed the back of his neck.

He exerted strength and flung him away. He hit the ground with a bang and raised a puff of dust.

When Liu Yong saw this scene, he felt like the sky was about to collapse.

"Brother, I was wrong. Brother! Please forgive me this time!"

Liu Yong's voice trembled, and he cried. He quickly lowered his head and admitted defeat. "I won't dare to do it again. Spare my dog life. Spare me this once!"

Si Yuehan's expression did not change. He did not look like someone who would show mercy. With every step he took, Liu Yong would move back an inch.

At this moment, Liu Yong seemed to have thought of something and twisted around to look at Jian Ai not far away. His gaze was as if he had seen his savior as he crawled towards Jian Ai. He even said, "Miss,

I failed to recognize a formidable person. Let me off this time. I promise not to appear in front of you again. Ask him to let me off!"

Jian Ai saw everything. Liu Yong's snot and tears made her frown.

He was someone who bullied the weak and feared the strong!

Jian Ai waved her hand and gestured at Si Yuehan. "Forget it. Let them go."

Not that her heart had softened, but she felt it was better for Liu Yong to kneel and beg her than to use her fists.

It was time to stop. She didn't want to have anything to do with such a person anymore. What if Si Yuehan didn't hold back and crippled him again?

Jian Ai's words sounded like nature to Liu Yong. He quickly got up from the ground and thanked her while looking at Si Yuehan warily as he walked towards the intersection.

Chapter 417: The Shadow Asura, Si Yuehan

"Wait!"

Jian Ai suddenly spoke, and Liu Yong was so scared that he quickly stopped in his tracks. His entire body tensed up, and he didn't dare to move.

"What else do you want?!" Liu Yong looked like he was about to cry.

Jian Ai sneered in her heart but looked around indifferently and said, "Leaving them alone?"

Only then did Liu Yong realize. He immediately went forward to shake the unconscious people awake and pulled them up. Then, the five of them supported one another and quickly disappeared in front of Jian Ai as if they were running for their lives.

After they left, Jian Ai's gaze landed on Si Yuehan.

He was expressionless, as usual. Perhaps it was because he had already helped Jian Ai resolve her trouble. He turned around and was about to leave like the previous time they came across each other.

Jian Ai raised her eyebrows. Trying to leave?

Raising her hand, Jian Ai waved it gently. Si Yuehan felt his body lose weight, and he instantly flew backward towards Jian Ai.

In the next second, Jian Ai clutched his collar.

With a smile in her starry eyes, Jian Ai curled her lips slightly. "Where to?"

This was the first time Jian Ai had used it on a person after absorbing the mental cultivation techniques. Looking at Si Yuehan's expressionless face, Jian Ai was even more certain of his identity.

Si Yuehan lowered his head and let Jian Ai hold his collar, but he said nothing, as if Jian Ai wouldn't know if he didn't say it.

Jian Ai couldn't help but sneer. He was just deceiving herself!

Releasing her hand, Jian Ai looked at Si Yuehan indifferently and said, "Tell me your identity."

Si Yuehan turned around, not wanting to say anything.

"Why? You're not willing to tell me?" Jian Ai narrowed her eyes. "I order you as the sixteenth Sect Master of the ancient sect to reveal your identity!"

When she spoke again, Jian Ai's voice was already cold and commanding.

As expected, Si Yuehan's expression changed slightly. In the next second, he slowly bent down and knelt on one knee. His cold voice sounded, "I'm ranked sixth among the twelve guards of the ancient sect. I'm The Shadow Asura, Si Yuehan. Greetings, Sect Master!"

Shock filled Jian Ai's eyes. Although she had already expected Si Yuehan to be a disciple of the ancient sect, she did not expect him to be one of the twelve guards!

A fourteen-year-old was a guard?

Putting Bai Zhou's ranking aside, his ranking was even higher than Xiao Zhen's!

"You are one of the twelve guards," Jian Ai said in surprise. Then, she said, "Get up and talk!"

When Si Yuehan heard this, he slowly stood up.

He kept his head lowered, as if afraid to look at Jian Ai.

"Did Bai Zhou tell you my identity?" Jian Ai asked.

Among the ancient sect members, only Bai Zhou, the prophet, could sense her. It was impossible for others to find her.

Now that Jian Ai was talking to her as the Sect Master, Si Yuehan naturally did not dare to refuse.

He nodded gently. "Brother Bai Zhou wanted to find someone to protect you by your side. Among the twelve guards, only my age is the most suitable, so he asked me to pretend to be your classmate."

Jian Ai: "..."

Are you kidding me?!

Bai Zhou was usually so smart, so why would he do such a stupid thing?

It was true that Si Yuehan was her age, but wasn't he too weird? It was hard not to attract her attention.

Couldn't he find someone with better acting skills? He was full of flaws. To think that Bai Zhou could think of that.

Jian Ai was so angry that she wanted to laugh!

Chapter 418: It's Only Been a Few Days, but He Has Been Exposed!

However, it was not difficult for Jian Ai to guess Bai Zhou's intentions. She had once told him that the time was not ripe yet, and that she was still adapting to the new identity of the sect master, so he should not inform the other ancient sect members for the time being.

Bai Zhou had always obeyed her orders. He was not willing to go against her words, but he wanted someone to protect her by her side. Hence, he had this idea to let Si Yuehan disguise as her classmate to protect her.

In the end, Bai Zhou acted on his own. After all, he hid this matter from Jian Ai.

However, Jian Ai understood Bai Zhou's thoughts, so she did not blame him. Moreover, she had been in constant trouble recently, and it was Si Yuehan who had helped her settle it.

Sighing softly, Jian Ai looked at Si Yuehan's ice-stony face and thought to herself, 'It has been hard on him.'

As soon as he reached school, he became a popular person in school because of his cold image. His personality was also strange, so it was difficult for her not to notice him.

"You're living at Bai Zhou's now?" Jian Ai asked softly.

Si Yuehan pursed his lips and nodded. "Yes."

Jian Ai raised her eyebrows in understanding. From the moment Si Yuehan appeared in South City, she could tell that he was not from South City.

She initially planned to go to her aunt's house for dinner today, but she didn't expect such a thing to happen. Now that she had exposed Si Yuehan, it wouldn't be right for her not to look for Bai Zhou.

Jian Ai said, "I'll go back with you."

When Si Yuehan heard this, a rare trace of hesitation appeared on his face.

Seeing this, Jian Ai couldn't help but smile. "So you have an expression too!"

As if knowing what Si Yuehan was worried about, Jian Ai said faintly, "Don't worry, I will not denounce you. I miss Chi Yang's cooking. I'm going to have a meal!"

Si Yuehan remained silent, but he relaxed slightly.

In the apartment, Bai Zhou was flipping through the business reports in Baiyun City. He was drinking the coffee that Chi Yang had just brewed.

At this moment, Chi Yang poked his head out of the kitchen in a rainbow-colored apron and said to Bai Zhou on the sofa, "Master, how do you want to eat the bass today?"

Bai Zhou answered without looking up, "Steam it. Si Yuexi likes his food light."

When Chi Yang heard this, he couldn't help but remind him, "Master, Lord Si doesn't like to eat fish. I bought this fish especially for you."

Bai Zhou realized and said calmly, "Sweet and sour."

Chi Yang: "Alright."

When Chi Yang retreated into the kitchen, someone opened the door of the apartment from the outside.

Bai Zhou was holding a newspaper in his hand. When he heard that, he casually said, "You're back."

Although he didn't look up, he knew who had returned. After all, only he, Chi Yang, and Si Yuehan had the key to this apartment.

Jian Ai followed Si Yuehan into the apartment. Seeing that Bai Zhou was reading the newspaper without looking up, she couldn't help but say, "What are you looking at? You're so engrossed."

Bai Zhou bounced up from the sofa in shock.

He looked up and saw Si Yuehan's cold face. Jian Ai was standing at the side, looking at him with a faint smile.

"Sect... Sect Master!"

As Bai Zhou spoke, his heart thumped. He thought to himself, 'Oh no, he was exposed so quickly?'

He glanced at Si Yuehan nervously and saw Si Yuehan nod dejectedly.

Bai Zhou: "..."

It had only been a few days, but he had already been exposed!

However, this was not the most important thing now. As one of the twelve guards, letting Si Yuehan, who was also one of the twelve guards, appear in front of Jian Ai without her permission—it was already a huge crime!

Chapter 419: Stay By My Side

With this thought in mind, Bai Zhou couldn't help but look terrified.

He dashed up to Jian Ai and knelt on one knee. "I have overstepped my boundaries. Please punish me, Sect Master."

Seeing this, Si Yuehan also knelt down. "Please punish me, Sect Master!"

Jian Ai had already expected Bai Zhou's reaction. Seeing this, she couldn't help but smile. She said lazily, "Forget it. You're just being kind. I won't blame you."

"Get up!" Jian Ai said as she walked to the sofa and sat down. Her expression was indifferent, with no anger.

Bai Zhou and Si Yuehan only stood up when they heard this. Bai Zhou felt uneasy and looked at Si Yuehan helplessly.

Si Yuehan lowered his head, and he could not see his expression.

Seeing this, Jian Ai couldn't help but shake her head and laugh. "Forget it. Don't blame him. More trouble happened to me recently. In just a few days, he had already helped me several times. I'm not blind, so it's normal I got suspicious."

Indeed, if Si Yuehan's personality was just a little weird, Jian Ai wouldn't think too much about it.

The reason she thought of Si Yuehan as a member of the ancient sect was that his moves were not ordinary martial arts but special abilities.

Bai Zhou had said that apart from himself, all the twelve guards had unique skills that ordinary people could not compare to.

Si Yuehan's movements were strange, and his speed was so fast that when he disappeared, he would leave behind a black shadow. It was almost the speed of light, and taking someone's life was just a snap of his fingers.

The name of The Shadow Asura was very similar to him.

Bai Zhou nodded helplessly. In fact, Si Yuehan was already very careful. Last weekend, he had arranged to meet Yun Buyao and Xiao Zhen. But one of the twelve guards did not turn up because they had something at the last minute, and it was Si Yuehan.

The reason was simple. That day after school, Si Yuehan planned to secretly escort Jian Ai home as usual. However, Jian Ai, Lin Yi, and the rest went to Xiang Tuo Tuo for a gathering after school. Coincidentally, Bai Zhou instructed Chi Yang to book a restaurant. Chi Yang knew that Yun Buyao and Xiao Zhen liked spicy food, so he also made a reservation at Xiang Tuo Tuo.

Si Yuehan watched Jian Ai and the rest enter Xiang Tuo Tuo. He was afraid that Jian Ai would see them inside and expose him, so he didn't enter the restaurant that day.

This was also the reason Bai Zhou inexplicably said to Chi Yang, "Look at the good place you've chosen!"

Of course, Jian Ai did not know these things.

Jian Ai raised her head at the sofa opposite her and gestured for the two of them to sit down. Then, she looked at Si Yuehan and said, "Since you already know my identity, you can be by my side openly in the future. There's no need to worry about anything else."

She seemed to have been unlucky. Troubles came one after another. With Si Yuehan by her side, she could be less worried.

After all, after absorbing the mental cultivation techniques, she could only use a few basic abilities freely. She could not control the rest completely, and she still needed some time.

When Si Yuehan heard this, he nodded silently.

It seemed that his indifferent character was not faked, but he was born with it.

Bai Zhou, who was at the side, also relaxed. He was most concerned about Jian Ai's safety. Seeing that she had left Si Yuehan behind, he had resolved a worry in his heart.

Among the twelve guards, Si Yuehan was ranked sixth. Although he was not the strongest, he was still one of the top few experts.

With him by the Sect Master's side, there was almost no one in the world who could hurt her.

Chapter 420: The Other Person Was Yun Buyao

After handling this matter, Jian Ai looked at Bai Zhou.

When Bai Zhou saw this, he blurted, "What other instructions does the Sect Master have?"

Jian Ai smiled playfully and looked at Bai Zhou. "I don't have any instructions. I just want to ask if anyone else knows about my existence other than Si Yuehan?"

Not that Jian Ai was suspicious, but she was just curious. After all, since Bai Zhou could tell a person, there might be a second, or even a third, or a fourth.

Jian Ai was just asking casually, but it shocked Bai Zhou so much that he broke out in a cold sweat. Did the Sect Master suspect him?

As he thought this, his body wanted to kneel as well. However, Jian Ai saw the signs and quickly raised her hand to help him up. She smiled and said, "Hey, hey. Don't kneel so easily."

Bai Zhou looked embarrassed and bent his knees. He didn't know if he should kneel or not.

Seeing his expression, Jian Ai quickly said, "I'm just asking. Just tell me the truth. If there is, there is. If there isn't, there isn't. There's no need to be so nervous. I won't take my anger out on you."

Jian Ai did not think too highly of this matter. Although she told Bai Zhou that she did not want to meet anyone else for the time being, she did not say it so firmly. If anyone else knew of her existence, they would meet eventually.

When Bai Zhou heard this, he sat back on the sofa in embarrassment. Jian Ai said, "From your expression, there are others."

Bai Zhou nodded and whispered, "There is indeed another person who knows."

Afraid that Jian Ai would misunderstand, Bai Zhou quickly explained, "But Sect Master, I didn't say this. She sensed it herself."

The reason Yun Buyao was called a jade-eyed fox was not only because she was a spiritualist with unparalleled ocular skills but also because she was cunning and very sharp.

Bai Zhou was not good at lying. At that time, Yun Buyao exposed him on the spot with just a phone call.

"Besides, Sect Master, you might know this person," Bai Zhou added.

Yun Buyao's reputation was not only in China, but also in the entire Asia. She was a famous superstar.

Jian Ai was stunned. "I do?"

Bai Zhou nodded and didn't beat around the bush anymore. He said bluntly, "She's a current A-list celebrity in the entertainment circle, the actress who won the three grand awards, Yun Buyao."

Jian Ai was speechless.

!!!

What?

Jian Ai's starry eyes widened. It was as if she had heard a fantasy, and her face was filled with disbelief.

"Yun... Yun Buyao?" Jian Ai exclaimed. When she said this name, she couldn't help but have goosebumps.

Bai Zhou nodded solemnly. "That's right, it's Yun Buyao. She's the jade-eyed fox, ranked fifth among the twelve guards."

Jian Ai was shocked again. Ranked fifth? She had a higher ranking than the three people she had seen before.

Si Yuehan was ranked sixth, and Xiao Zhen was ranked seventh.

It took Jian Ai a while to digest this news.

Yun Buyao was one of the twelve guards, which surprised her.

"However, Sect Master..." Bai Zhou continued, "She only knows that you've appeared, but she doesn't know who you are."

Jian Ai nodded in understanding. These people did not dare to investigate her in the dark, and Yun Buyao was naturally no exception.

"Sect Master... do you want to see her?" Bai Zhou asked nervously.

Yun Buyao had long wanted to meet the Sect Master, so he was asking on behalf of Yun Buyao.
