

At School 421

Chapter 421: I'm an Orphan

Jian Ai thought for a while and nodded.

Since she already knew, there was no need to hide. Furthermore, three of the twelve guards had already seen her, so she did not want to treat Yun Buyao differently.

However...

Jian Ai said, "I'm about to take my final examination. If we want to meet, arrange for us to meet during the summer break."

Yun Buyao was still filming in Baiyun City, so there was no hurry.

When Bai Zhou heard this, he quickly nodded in agreement and in delight. "Alright, Sect Master. She will be thrilled upon knowing this."

Jian Ai smiled but couldn't.

Yun Buyao, that superstar who was doted on by millions, was actually from the ancient sect.

...

The next morning, Jian Ai ate breakfast and went out as usual. However, she saw Si Yuehan carrying his school bag and leaning against the tree outside the yard, waiting for her.

"Have you eaten breakfast?" Jian Ai asked as she walked forward.

Si Yuehan's expression was still cold, even when facing the Sect Master—Jian Ai. He only kept his respect for her in the bottom of his heart but did not show it on his face.

Compared to Xiao Zhen, Si Yuehan's had a more eccentric personality.

He nodded and said, "Yes."

The two of them walked towards the bus stop side by side. Jian Ai suddenly felt that this feeling was good. Guan Tao's family had already moved to Zhonglou District, so she had been going to school alone during this period. It was also good to have someone accompanying her.

"Aren't your parents worried you came to Baiyun City like this?"

The two of them were walking when Jian Ai suddenly asked.

When Si Yuehan heard this, he only answered softly, "I'm an orphan."

Jian Ai was stunned and couldn't help but turn to look at Si Yuehan. She saw that his expression was indifferent and with no fluctuation, as if he was talking about something that didn't concern him.

Knowing that he was a man of few words, Jian Ai thought he wouldn't say anything else. Unexpectedly, Si Yuehan suddenly said, "I started wandering since I was six years old. At ten years old, the power of darkness awakened. After that, Brother Bai Zhou found me. According to the ranking list of the twelve guards, I learned I was ranked sixth, 'The Shadow Asura.'"

“Have you been living with Bai Zhou ever since?” Jian Ai asked.

Si Yuehan answered, “I followed him to Qiusi and lived there for four years.”

So that was how it was. Jian Ai didn’t know what to feel. He started wandering around when he was six years old. Society was vicious. As a boy, he could live alone for four years.

When they reached school, the two of them entered Erzhong.

“Xiao Ai!”

Xia Qinghuan’s voice called to her from behind.

When she got closer, Xia Qinghuan’s smile froze on her face because an expressionless Si Yuehan was standing beside Jian Ai.

“Hi...” Xia Qinghuan greeted awkwardly.

However, there was no response.

Jian Ai smiled and said to Si Yuehan, “Go back to the classroom first.”

Si Yuehan nodded and turned to leave.

Xia Qinghuan saw this and was so shocked that her eyeballs were about to fly out. “Damn, what’s going on, Jian Ai? Don’t tell me you subdued Si Yuehan in just a day?”

Jian Ai sweated and pretended to be angry as she glared at Xia Qinghuan. “Don’t talk nonsense.”

“No... Then what’s going on? Tell me quickly, or I won’t be friends with you anymore!” Xia Qinghuan looked agitated.

What a joke. This was Si Yuehan. When he transferred here, he didn’t say a word to anyone. Now, he appeared with Jian Ai and looked very obedient!

Chapter 422: Gold Award

Translator: Atlas Studios Editor: Atlas Studios

If Xia Qinghuan did not gossip, then she was not Xia Qinghuan.

Jian Ai held her arm and said as they walked, “He helped me yesterday, so I went to thank him. Then, we chatted briefly, and I felt he was a good person, so we became friends.”

Nonsense!

This was Xia Qinghuan’s reaction.

They even chatted briefly? Did Si Yuehan know how to talk to people? She wouldn’t believe it.

Seeing Xia Qinghuan’s expression of disbelief, Jian Ai also felt that her lie was a little cheap. She couldn’t help but laugh embarrassedly and pretended to be spoiled. “Oh, don’t ask so much. Anyway, I’m his good friend now.”

“Just good friends?” Xia Qinghuan turned on her radar and asked with a frown.

“Otherwise?” Jian Ai glared at her. “Can’t you think of something clean in your head? Can’t a man and a woman have pure friendship?”

“Stop joking!” Xia Qinghuan said, “Then why did you enter school together?”

Jian Ai: “He’s also from South City.”

“Ah?” Xia Qinghuan was stunned and looked surprised. “Si Yuehan is from South City?”

No way. He looked so elegant and stylish, yet he was from South City District?

Most importantly, Si Yuehan had lived with the royal family of Qiusi for four years and had an indescribable noble aura. He did not look like a child from a poor family at all.

“It’s true,” Jian Ai lied without blinking.

Because after this, she might go to school with Si Yuehan every day. If she didn’t say that, she wouldn’t be able to explain herself in the future.

Fortunately, South City was about to be demolished. By then, she would move to Haicheng District.

Xia Qinghuan was skeptical. Just as she was about to say something, the school broadcast suddenly rang.

“Students, we will broadcast an important piece of news now. Recently, our city’s Education Bureau held a Mathematical Olympiad. Our school’s representative team won the team gold award with the highest overall score.”

“Class One’s Jian Ai received the individual gold award with full marks. Class One’s Jian Yiyi and Class Four’s Yang Fei received the individual bronze award with a score of one hundred and seven points. Congratulations to the students who achieved outstanding results.”

“Today, during the inter-school exercise, Principal Sun will present the awards to the winning students personally.”

Jian Ai was in school. As soon as the broadcast ended, many people who knew Jian Ai couldn’t help but look at her.

Full marks?

Was this person a monster?

A perfect score for the Mathematical Olympiad?

Jian Ai was also confused. After all, this news came so suddenly that it caught her off guard.

The gold award!

Full marks!

“Oh my, Xiao Ai, you got the gold award!” Xia Qinghuan regained her senses and hugged Jian Ai excitedly.

Jian Ai was also very excited. This was the first time she had taken part in such a competition in her two lifetimes. She didn’t expect to receive the gold award.

Most importantly, she could score extra points for her examination!

The two of them returned to the classroom. As soon as they entered, the classroom burst into enthusiastic applause, scaring Jian Ai.

“Jian Ai, congratulations!”

“Jian Ai, you’re amazing!”

“You’ve really done our class proud!”

...

The students applauded and congratulated Jian Ai, making Jian Ai not know how to respond.

Her grades had always been good, and this was nothing new. However, in the eyes of her classmates in the past, that changed nothing. She was still that poor girl from South City.

However, at that moment, these people seemed to praise her from the bottom of their hearts.

Chapter 423: It Was Difficult

Translator: Atlas Studios Editor: Atlas Studios

This made Jian Ai feel a little uncomfortable. After all, in both her previous and current lives, her classmates in Erzong never liked her.

Feeling a little embarrassed, Jian Ai quickly thanked everyone and pulled Xia Qinghuan back to her seat.

Jian Yiyi looked at Jian Ai’s back with unwillingness in her eyes. She gritted her teeth. It was Jian Ai again. Why did she always suppress her?

She could not win against her in the monthly examination or the Olympiad.

Jian Yiyi was unwilling to accept this. She clenched her fists secretly.

At this moment, praise rose and fell in the teachers’ office. The teachers congratulated Year One, Class One’s form teacher, Sun Dasheng.

“Teacher Sun, the Jian Ai in your class is a good seedling.”

“That’s right. There has never been a situation where someone scored full marks in such competitions. This child’s brain is superb.”

“Jian Ai was also the top student in our school during the preliminary competition.”

Sun Dasheng also had a smile on his face today. As the form teacher, he was naturally proud that his students had won the gold award in such an important competition.

He couldn’t help but nod and praise. “Jian Ai is usually very serious in her studies and is honest and obedient. Last time, she was distributed to Class One by clinching the first place in the monthly examination.”

The teachers discussed fervently again before dispersing to prepare for class.

Not long after, Sun Dasheng appeared in Class One with an energetic and happy expression. Xia Qinghuan said, "Stand up!"

The students stood up one after another. "Hello, teacher!"

Sun Dasheng usually had a serious expression on his face. Today, he had a rare smile on his face. He nodded and said, "Hello, students. Please sit."

After everyone sat down, Sun Dasheng said, "I believe everyone knows that our class' Jian Ai and Jian Yiyi represented Erzong in our city's Mathematical Olympiad. They both achieved excellent results."

"Especially Jian Ai, who won the gold award with full marks. Everyone, clap and encourage her!"

As soon as he finished speaking, another round of applause sounded.

Jian Yiyi's expression shattered. Although the bronze award was already an excellent result, who would care about a mere bronze award when compared to Jian Ai's gold award?

Jian Ai had stolen all the limelight. This made Jian Yiyi, who liked to be the focus of attention, furious. However, she still had to maintain a smile on her face. How infuriating!

Looking at Jian Ai, who had already quickly gotten used to the students' applause and sat in her seat with a calm smile, looking neither arrogant nor rash, Sun Dasheng couldn't help but nod secretly.

They held the award ceremony during the inter-school exercise. As the winner of the gold award, apart from receiving a certificate and a trophy from the City Education Bureau, Jian Ai also received three thousand yuan from Erzong, which was presented to her by Principal Sun.

In this era, three thousand yuan was not a small sum. It was already higher than the monthly salary of the working class. Probably only a noble school like Erzong could give three thousand yuan.

Jian Yiyi and the other bronze award winner received two thousand yuan each.

The news of a perfect score in the competition spread like wildfire in school. This was not only news in the Year One cohort, but the entire school was discussing it fervently. Wouldn't it be amazing to score full marks in such a competition?

Jian Ai was already crying in her heart.. It was difficult for news about her in Erzong to finally be positive.

Chapter 424: We'll Celebrate for You

In the cafeteria at noon.

"Xiao Ai, you have to treat us!"

Jian Ai had a plate in her hand as she sat down, when Xia Qinghuan spoke impatiently.

Guan Tao also looked at Jian Ai with a smile.

Seeing this, Jian Ai looked at Xia Qinghuan in amusement and said, "There's no problem with treating, but you're so busy filming. Do you have time to eat?"

“Yes, yes!” Xia Qinghuan quickly said, “I’m the third female lead. I don’t have many scenes in the first place, and I’m not as busy as before. Director Yiming also knows that I’m about to take my final examination, so he told me he plans to hold back my scenes. I’ll film again after the examination and during the summer break. It’s fine.”

Hearing Qinghuan’s words, Jian Ai nodded. “Alright, it’s my birthday soon. Let’s have a meal together. My treat.”

“Birthday?” Xia Qinghuan was stunned. She blurted, “Your birthday is in June?”

Guan Tao nodded. “Xiao Ai’s birthday is on the twentieth of June.”

Xia Qinghuan: “Isn’t that the day after tomorrow?”

Jian Ai waved her hand indifferently. “I didn’t plan anything. There’s no need to be so surprised.”

In the past, during her birthdays, her mother would buy a cake for her and cook a table of dishes to celebrate together with her aunt’s family.

Jian Ai had never celebrated her birthday with her classmates.

If Xia Qinghuan had not mentioned about the treat, she would have forgotten that it was her birthday.

“How can we do that?” Xia Qinghuan had a serious expression on her face. “We have to celebrate your birthday. Let’s celebrate it together.”

Jian Ai quickly said, “Don’t tell Lin Yi and the rest that it’s my birthday. Just say that I won the competition so I’m treating everyone to a meal.”

Jian Ai didn’t want everyone to spend money. It was mainly because she lacked nothing now. She was already very happy if they could have a meal together.

Unexpectedly, as soon as Jian Ai finished speaking, Lin Yi’s voice sounded from behind her. “It’s your birthday soon?”

Jian Ai: “...”

She turned around and saw Lin Yi, Yan Tian, and Gao Yang standing behind her. The plates in their hands were empty. It was obvious that they had finished their meal.

Without waiting for Jian Ai to speak, Xia Qinghuan quickly said, “Yes, it’s Xiao Ai’s birthday the day after tomorrow. She wants to treat us to a meal.”

When Yan Tian heard that, he couldn’t help but smile and say, “Great! The gold award for the Olympiad and a birthday. It’s a double celebration. We’ll help you celebrate it.”

The others also looked at her with a smile. Jian Ai was helpless and could only nod. She smiled and said, “Let’s do it this weekend. My family will probably celebrate for me the day after tomorrow. Let’s go out during the weekend and have fun.”

Everyone nodded in agreement. Lin Yi was already thinking about what to give Jian Ai.

After all, on his birthday, Jian Ai gave him a Guoyou fountain pen with his name engraved on it. He still couldn't bear to use it. He kept it in his pencil case, and his mood would improve whenever he saw it.

Now that it was Jian Ai's birthday, he had to give her a more meticulous gift.

The commotion made Jian Yiyi and the rest at another table nearby jealous.

Li Yunmei looked at Lin Yi's radiant smile at Jian Ai and felt that it stung her eyes. She immediately lost her appetite and slammed her chopsticks on the table. "Hah, what is she so smug for? Isn't it just an award?"

When Xi Jie saw this, she chimed in, "That's right. Yiyi won an award too. She's not like her. How arrogant."

Jian Yiyi's expression was gentle, and she revealed an embarrassed and ladylike smile. However, she thought to herself, 'I want to be arrogant too, but I'm not qualified because I only have the bronze award.'

Chapter 425: Thief

Although Baiyun City was located at the northern end of China, the weather was already hot in mid-June.

Jian Yu rode his motorcycle and left Zhonglou District's driving school. He headed towards Haicheng District.

Jian Ai helped him decide to learn how to drive. Jian Yu thought for a moment and felt that he should learn it. He found a driving school near Zhonglou District and registered.

The warm wind blew against his face. Jian Yu rode all the way and finally stopped outside a very famous cake shop in Baiyun City.

This shop was called Champs-Élysées. It was very famous in Baiyun City, so they had to order the cake two days in advance. The day after tomorrow was his sister's birthday.

The door of the shop was mainly milky white and matched with a few orange and yellow decorations. It was very fresh, but not flashy.

Although it was Wednesday afternoon, there was still a long queue in front of the counter. Fortunately, these people were here to buy bread and desserts. Birthday cakes were chosen and reserved at another counter.

As soon as Jian Yu entered the shop, a Hummer SUV stopped by the road.

"Miss, this is the best cake shop in Baiyun City."

The person driving was the Ji family's driver. He was in his early thirties and was strong. He was a retired special forces soldier.

Ji Haoxue sat in the front passenger seat and looked out the window at the cake shop. Then she nodded. "It looks okay."

“Uncle Tao, wait for me. I’ll go in and look,” Ji Haoxue said as she opened the door and jumped out of the car.

Ji Haoxue was still wearing a dirty braid with colorful hair ties. She was wearing a short motorcycle jacket and tight leather pants with riveting leather boots. She was exceptionally striking.

Thus, as soon as she appeared, she successfully attracted everyone’s attention.

Even in a developed city like Baiyun City, people who dressed like Ji Haoxue were very rare. After all, it was only 2002.

Jian Yu accidentally saw Ji Haoxue and was stunned for a moment. Her exaggerated appearance attracted him first. Although Ji Haoxue did not have thick makeup on, her outfit alone was enough to make people stare at her for a long time.

Although Ji Haoxue was tall, she looked about the same age as Jian Ai.

A few seconds later, Jian Yu looked away and shook his head helplessly. Young girls nowadays were too ostentatious.

He could not appreciate it.

Ji Haoxue looked around the door and saw many people queuing up in front of the counter. She walked over.

At this moment, the phone in her pocket suddenly rang. Ji Haoxue took it out and saw that it was her brother.

“Brother!” Ji Haoxue called out when she picked it up.

However, this action had already attracted the attention of some people. Two middle-aged men had already arrived behind Ji Haoxue and were pretending to queue.

Ji Haoxue was carrying a sling bag that fell to her lower back. At this moment, Ji Haoxue was on the phone with Ji Haoyu and did not notice the abnormality behind her.

One of the two men covered most of their vision, while the other took out a sharp dagger and cut a hole in the bottom of Ji Haoxue’s sling bag.

These two people were obviously experienced offenders with skilled techniques. Not only did no one notice their entire movements, but even Ji Haoxue felt nothing.

The wallet fell from the crack, and the man quickly caught it. Just as he was about to put it into his pocket, someone suddenly grabbed his wrist.

He looked up and met Jian Yu’s cold eyes.

Chapter 426: Explosive Combat Strength

Jian Yu caught the man’s hand with the stolen wallet. The man panicked and waved the dagger in his hand.

Seeing this, Jian Yu quickly let go and dodged, but it was still too late. The dagger could easily cut through the bag, so it was naturally sharp.

Jian Yu's arm didn't hurt, but there was a chill and soon, blood was flowing out.

"Ah!"

The man's sudden action attracted the attention of others. The girls in the queue did not know what had happened. When they saw someone bleeding, they immediately screamed and ran away.

Ji Haoxue was the first to turn around. When she saw the man behind her holding a knife, she could not help but be shocked. However, why did that wallet look so familiar?

Wasn't that her wallet?

"Brother, I have something on. Let's talk later."

Ji Haoxue quickly hung up the phone and quickly grabbed her bag to open the zipper. However, she saw that the bottom of the bag had been cut open.

In an instant, she realized what had happened.

When the two men saw that what they had done was exposed and that they even injured someone with a knife, they immediately ran.

Seeing this, Jian Yu didn't care that the wound on his arm was still bleeding. He rushed forward.

The two men were thin and weak. They were useless in front of Jian Yu, who was 1.83 meters tall. The man with the wallet felt his back sink. Before his feet could leave the shop, Jian Yu had pounced on him from behind.

Jian Yu was agile. He quickly grabbed the man's hand that was holding the knife to avoid hurting himself. Then, he used his knee to push the man's back, making him lie on the ground and unable to move.

Seeing this, the man's partner panicked and wanted to kick Jian Yu's head.

Unexpectedly, at the same moment, a wooden chair flew over from nowhere. Ji Haoxue had no idea where she got the strength to throw a small chair at the door.

"You stole my wallet. I think you're tired of living!"

Ji Haoxue shouted as she threw out the plate with the pastry in her hand. Then, she also threw out the clip.

Not appeasing her hatred, Ji Haoxue quickly rushed to the passersby, grabbed the cakes on their plates, and threw them out.

The thief cried out in pain when the clip hit his head. Before he could react, a cream mousse hit his face right in the eye.

Ji Haoxue looked around and saw a mop standing beside the counter. She dashed forward, picked up the mop, and rushed forward.

The person had just wiped the cake on his eyes with his hand. But when he opened his eyes, he saw a dirty mop pouncing at him. Ji Haoxue shouted aggressively, "Go to hell!"

Although Ji Haoxue was a young girl, she had used enough strength this time. This caught the person off guard, and he was hit in the face by a mop next. Then, he lost his balance and fell towards the exit. In the end, he sat on the ground and rolled down the steps outside the shop.

Those who did not leave the shop in time were dumbfounded. This combat strength was simply off the charts!

When Sun Tao saw this scene in the car, he quickly jumped out of the car. Coincidentally, the man crawled up from the ground in a sorry state. In this situation, he couldn't care less about his partner, who Jian Yu was holding down. He stood up and wanted to run.

Unexpectedly, Sun Tao grabbed his head with his large hand and knocked him into the trash can by the side.

The man rolled his eyes and fainted on the spot.

Chapter 427: Oh No, She Felt Tempted

Sun Tao let the person fall to the ground and rushed into the shop nervously.

There was a mess in the shop. Broken cakes and butter were everywhere.

Jian Yu's arm was bleeding!

Ji Haoxue had one hand on the mop and the other on her waist. She was panting from exhaustion.

"Miss, are you okay?"

Sun Tao rushed forward, and his voice was trembling.

If anything happened to Ji Haoxue, he could not bear the consequences.

Ji Haoxue regained her senses and waved her hand fearlessly. "Uncle Tao, I'm fine."

As she spoke, she threw the mop aside and rushed up to Jian Yu. She saw that his white coat had been cut, and blood had stained the sleeve.

"You're injured!" Ji Haoxue frowned and squatted down.

She looked up and met Jian Yu's gaze. Jian Yu had a pair of phoenix-shaped eyes and fair skin. He was handsome and manly.

Coupled with his bleeding appearance, she was simply overflowing with hormones.

Ji Haoxue's heart thumped inexplicably. Oh no, she was tempted!

Jian Yu didn't react much and said calmly, "I'm fine."

The thief under him was still holding Ji Haoxue's wallet tightly. Jian Yu snatched it off and handed it to her. "Your wallet."

“Thank you!” Ji Haoxue reached out to take it, but her eyes were fixed on Jian Yu’s face.

The more she looked at it, the more she liked it.

“Leave this person to me. Treat your wound!” Sun Tao walked forward and lifted the thief up. Jian Yu stood up as well.

At this moment, he looked at his injured right arm and frowned. He had lost a lot of blood.

The manager quickly took out a medical kit. “There’s gauze and disinfectant here. Let’s handle this briefly first. We’ve already called the police.”

Seeing this, Ji Haoxue quickly snatched the medical kit over. “I’ll do it.”

Jian Yu found a chair and sat down. He took off his coat and revealed his muscular arms.

Fortunately, it was only a sharp dagger, and it only scratched him. The wound was not deep, so he did not need stitches, but it was a little long.

“It might hurt a little. Bear with it,” Ji Haoxue said.

Jian Yu nodded expressionlessly. He was not afraid.

Seeing this, Ji Haoxue wiped the disinfectant with an alcohol swab and then applied red medicine. In the end, she wrapped it with gauze and tied a bow.

Ji Haoxue wanted to help Jian Yu wipe the blood on his arm, but Jian Yu said, “I’ll do it myself.”

“Let me do it!” Ji Haoxue was unwilling. As she spoke, she picked up a wet towel and wiped it.

Seeing this, Jian Yu said nothing.

After this incident, the people who wanted to buy things left one after another. Not long after, the ones left in the shop were only the staff and a few more people.

“Thank you for what happened just now. I didn’t notice it at all.”

After treating her wound, Ji Haoxue looked at Jian Yu and said guiltily, “I even caused you to be hurt.”

Jian Yu looked at her and said, “You’re welcome.”

Not only was she not afraid of such a thing, but she even took action personally. Thinking about it, she had surprised him.

The reason she was targeted by a thief was not only because she was young. Those who could come to this cake shop to buy cakes were all rich people. In addition, her clothes were eye-catching, and she had a phone at a young age. Naturally, people with intentions would notice her first.

Chapter 428: Believe in Love at First Sight

Ji Haoxue looked at Jian Yu with a direct and passionate gaze. It was the kind where she was looking at the person she liked.

He was so good-looking.

Not only was he good-looking, but he was also very righteous.

Plus points!

In the idol dramas on television, Ji Haoxue even scoffed at scenes of love at first sight. But now, she believed that love at first sight existed in this world.

It made her heart race immediately, and she had the impulse to marry him.

After living abroad for three years, Ji Haoxue was more mature and open-minded than her peers.

She did not care about being reserved. She just liked this big brother.

Ji Haoxue's gaze was too passionate, and Jian Yu felt a little uncomfortable being stared at. He immediately remembered that he was here for serious business today.

He stood up and walked to the counter. Jian Yu said to the staff, "Hello, I want to order a birthday cake. I'll come and get it in the afternoon the day after tomorrow."

"Alright!" The staff quickly agreed. "Look at the style in the display cabinet. Which one do you want to order?"

"I want to order one too. I'll come and get it in the afternoon the day after tomorrow as well." Ji Haoxue also appeared and looked at the staff.

Jian Yu couldn't help but look up at her. Seeing this, Ji Haoxue chuckled. "It's my brother's birthday the day after tomorrow."

Jian Yu nodded slightly and thought to himself, 'What a coincidence. This girl's brother is on the same birthday as Xiao Ai.'

"Is it your birthday?" Ji Haoxue wanted to talk to Jian Yu more, so she took the opportunity to ask.

Jian Yu shook his head. Thinking of his sister, his expression softened. He said softly, "My sister."

"You have siblings too?" Ji Haoxue smiled and said, "I have a brother too."

As she spoke, Ji Haoxue couldn't help but look at the display cabinet and point at a dark chocolate cake. "You should order chocolate. Girls like to eat chocolate. I like it very much."

Jian Yu looked at it and said, "She doesn't like to eat something too sweet."

Then, his gaze landed on a green cake. He asked the staff, "What flavor is this?"

Seeing this, the staff said, "This is green apple flavor. It's slightly sour amidst the sweetness. It's not sickening and sells well."

Jian Yu nodded. "I'll take this then. I want a twelve-inch one. Thank you!"

"I want this too!" Ji Haoxue quickly said, "Twelve-inch as well."

Jian Yu couldn't help but look at her again. Did she do it on purpose?

Didn't she like chocolate?

Ji Haoxue seemed to have seen the words in Jian Yu's eyes. She was not shy and said generously, "My brother doesn't like to eat too sweet either."

It was true!

"Write the words you want to see on the cake. Come and get it after three in the afternoon the day after tomorrow."

The staff handed each of them a piece of paper and a pen.

Jian Yu only wrote one simple sentence: Happy fifteenth birthday to Xiao Ai.

Ji Haoxue wrote: Happy birthday to the most handsome brother in the universe.

As soon as the bill was settled, the police arrived.

After a simple understanding of the situation, the police handcuffed the two thieves and put them in the car. As the victim, Ji Haoxue needed to go to the police station as well. Jian Yu acted bravely to help catch the thief, so he was also one of the involved parties. He also needed to go to the police station to record a statement.

Fortunately, the police station was only two blocks from Champs-Élysées. Jian Yu was willing to cooperate with the police, so he rode his motorcycle to the police station.

Chapter 429: Oh, Damn!

The details were very clear. With the other people's testimony from the cake shop, Jian Yu and Ji Haoxue only briefly described the incident and quickly recorded their statement.

These two thieves were both people with criminal records. This time, not only were they suspected of theft, but they also injured someone with a knife. They were probably going to jail.

In the end, one of the police officers couldn't help but look at Jian Yu and say, "Young man, righteousness is worth encouraging and advocating, but you have to put your safety first. You saw that the other party had a murder weapon in his hand, so you shouldn't have acted rashly. Putting everything else aside, if the other party stabbed you in the vitals, it wouldn't be a joke."

When Ji Haoxue heard this, she quickly nodded at the side. "That's right. It's fine if I lost my wallet. But if something happens to you, I'll definitely feel bad."

Jian Yu's arm was injured. Ji Haoxue felt guilty, but her heart ached even more.

Seeing this, the police officer couldn't help but look at Ji Haoxue seriously and said, "You're the same. You're not an adult yet, right? You actually dared to fight with the criminal? What if something happens?"

Ji Haoxue naturally wouldn't talk back to the police officer. She only stuck out her tongue playfully.

Jian Yu nodded. "I'll be careful next time. I won't be so rash."

The police had a good impression of Jian Yu. Not everyone had the responsibility and courage to help someone when they saw injustice.

His expression softened by seventy percent. "It's good that you remember. I see your arm is injured. It's better to go to the hospital to check lest you get infected."

Jian Yu: "Got it."

After leaving the police station, Jian Yu got on his motorcycle and was about to leave. Unexpectedly, Ji Haoxue quickly caught up from behind.

"Big brother, I'll accompany you to the hospital!" Ji Haoxue held the handle of the motorcycle with one hand and looked up at Jian Yu. "You got injured because of me. I should be the one paying the medical bills."

Ji Haoxue's facial features were very exquisite. Even in this ostentatious style, it could not hide her perfect face. However, she was only thirteen years old, and Jian Yu had no intention of thinking about anything else.

Hearing this, he drawled, "No need. It's just a cut. It's fine."

As he spoke, he was about to leave when Ji Haoxue quickly stopped him. "Hey, hey... Wait..."

Jian Yu frowned and looked at her questioningly.

Ji Haoxue felt her heart thump. The way this big brother frowned was so charming.

"Ah... your coat is torn, too. I'll compensate you!" Ji Haoxue said.

Jian Yu's eyebrows relaxed. He sighed and answered patiently, "It's fine. It's not worth much."

That was the truth. That white coat was only thirty yuan.

"I have something on, so I'll get going," Jian Yu said.

When she heard he was leaving, Ji Haoxue felt a trace of reluctance in her heart. However, she nodded in a daze. "Oh."

Jian Yu's gaze landed on Ji Haoxue's hand, which was holding onto his motorcycle. Seeing this, Ji Haoxue quickly pulled her hand back. Then, Jian Yu started the motorcycle and left.

Ji Haoxue's gaze followed Jian Yu's back until he disappeared. In the end, she regained her senses.

At this moment, Sun Tao walked forward and said, "Miss, let's go back too. Otherwise, the Old Master will be worried."

"Oh, damn!" Ji Haoxue suddenly stomped her feet, looking upset.

"What... what's wrong, Miss?" Sun Tao asked nervously.

Chapter 430: Learning at the Martial Arts School

Ji Haoxue looked depressed. "I forgot to ask for his contact details!"

Ah! She was a fool. How could she have forgotten such an important thing?!

Sun Tao looked at Ji Haoxue inexplicably and had a dark expression on his face. He thought to himself, 'You're the heiress of the Ji Group. How can you ask other boys for their contact details?'

However, this was Ji Haoxue's personality. She did not care about the difference in social status or age. If she liked someone, she would chase after them. This was cool. For her, it was not embarrassing for a woman to chase after a man.

Otherwise, someone else might snatch away someone as handsome and outstanding as this big brother.

As she was recording her statement, she noticed that this big brother was only eighteen years old, which meant he was only four years older than her.

Marrying a wife three years older meant he was blessed.

Marrying a husband four years older meant she would give birth to a son.

She wanted to give birth to a son for this big brother!

This person made her believe in love at first sight. Ji Haoxue felt in her heart that it was simply too lucky for a person to fall in love at first sight once. He was like a heroic knight who suddenly barged into her world and heart.

Now that she thought of his appearance, her heart could not help but pound.

Unfortunately... she forgot to ask for his contact details.

Ji Haoxue looked disappointed and couldn't help but pout. Seeing this, Sun Tao sighed helplessly. "Miss, isn't he going to get the cake in the afternoon the day after tomorrow? I'll drive you here a little earlier so you can meet him."

Sun Tao's words were like a strong ray of light that instantly awakened Ji Haoxue's dispirited spirit. Her eyes lit up. "Oh, Uncle Tao, you're too smart. Let's come out early the day after tomorrow."

...

After school in the afternoon, Jian Ai planned to go to Wang Yunzhi's house. Naturally, Si Yuehan would accompany her.

The feeling of someone picking her up every day made Jian Ai feel like a giant baby. However, there were too many troubles recently, so she had to be careful. She would be fine after the summer break.

On the way, Jian Ai suddenly told Si Yuehan about mental cultivation.

"The incantations for the twelve sets of mental cultivation techniques are all in my mind, but the cultivation progress is very slow. I can only use a few basic mental cultivation techniques freely now. I can't control most of them and I can't cultivate the highest level of mental cultivation techniques at all," Jian Ai said.

Although her cultivation had never stopped these days, the results were minimal.

At this moment, she also wanted to learn from Si Yuehan. After all, the two of them were of the same age, and Si Yuehan's power of darkness seemed to have reached perfection.

When Si Yuehan heard this, he said, “We can’t be anxious. The Sect Master just absorbed the mental cultivation techniques for a few months. It’s obvious that you’re talented since you’re already able to master the basics. Of course, apart from the enhancement of your talent, your physical fitness is also crucial.”

As she spoke, Si Yuehan couldn’t help but look at Jian Ai and say, “The Sect Master’s body seems to be a little weak, so you need to train harder. If necessary, may I suggest that the Sect Master go to a martial arts school to learn. The body is the foundation. Only when the foundation is stable, can you talk about anything else.”

Jian Ai nodded in understanding. Her body was indeed a little weak. After she attacked Liu Yong last time, the arm that she used to punch hurt for a few days. Both parties had suffered a loss.

“The martial arts school...” Jian Ai muttered. Why didn’t she think of that?

“What kind of martial arts school would be good? Judo? Taekwondo?” Jian Ai asked.

Si Yuehan shook his head. “A traditional martial arts school in China. The skills learned can complement the mental cultivation techniques the Sect Master practices. The effects are ideal.”