Chapter 581: He Was Actually Working For Someone?

Bai Zhou nodded indifferently and smiled at Han Shangyuan. "Brother Han, you've worked hard. If I have time in the future, I'll treat you to a meal alone."

Bai Zhou was not being polite. Instead, he felt he should treat him to a meal, especially after all, he had helped him a lot.

However, to Han Shangyuan, be it out of courtesy or the truth, these words were enough to make him feel fearful. The prince of Qiusi said that he would treat him to a meal. Even if he did not get to eat it in the end, it was still something to brag about.

"Mr. Bai, you don't have to be so polite. The project your real estate company is developing is beneficial to our Baiyun City. We will naturally support it." Han Shangyuan was not proud of his achievements.

As soon as he had finished speaking, Han Shangyuan hesitated for a moment. In the end, he asked a question he had long kept in his heart, "However, Mr. Bai, I'll take the liberty to ask. Why did you suddenly think of coming to Baiyun City to invest in a project?"

This problem had existed since the first time Han Shangyuan saw Bai Zhou. Although Qiusi still maintained the monarchy and sounded like an ancient country, everyone knew Qiusi was a very developed country. Just the exports of colored steel glass every year brought astronomical profits to Qiusi.

As the prince of Qiusi, Bai Zhou's net worth was naturally in the billions. The profits that he could bring to him by opening a real estate company in Baiyun City were nothing compared to his net worth, right?

When Bai Zhou heard this, he couldn't help but look at Han Shangyuan with a gentle look.

Seeing this, Han Shangyuan's heart tightened. He subconsciously said, "If Mr. Bai doesn't want to say it, then forget it. I'm just curious and have no intention of probing about you."

Bai Zhou raised his hand slightly, showing that Han Shangyuan didn't have to be so nervous. Then, he drawled, "Actually, this company isn't mine. It belongs to someone who's very important to me. I'm just working for her."

These words shocked Han Shangyuan so much that his eyes widened. He looked as if he had heard wrong.

The prince of Qiusi was working for someone else? And he was so diligent and conscientious!

Han Shangyuan wanted to guess who the person Bai Zhou was talking about was, but his imagination was limited, so he couldn't guess.

"Is she Chinese?" Han Shangyuan couldn't help but ask.

Bai Zhou nodded. "Yes."

Han Shangyuan: "..."

There was such a person in the business world in China? She could make the prince of Qiusi submit to her and do whatever he wanted?

This...

He couldn't help but feel like the entire world was a fantasy. He initially thought that Bai Zhou had taken a liking to the development opportunities in China and wanted to invest.

Unexpectedly, he was here to work for someone else. Just the thought of it made him feel a little scared. What was going on?

Han Shangyuan picked up the tea on the table and took a sip. He wanted to hide his shock. He didn't expect the tea to be hot, and it instantly scalded his tongue.

At the same time, someone knocked on the office door.

Through the careful knocking on the door, they seemed to sense the horror of the person outside the door.

When Han Shangyuan heard this, he quickly sat up straight on the sofa. His expression returned to his dignified expression as a senior official, and he said in a low voice, "Enter."

Liu Guozheng pushed the door open and entered. Sweat had covered his slightly plump face.. It was unknown if he was frightened or had rushed over.

Chapter 582: He Had Kicked an Iron Nail!

"Senior Official Han, I... I'm here."

As soon as he entered, Liu Guozheng nodded and bowed respectfully. Facing Han Shangyuan, he did not even dare to look up. It was mainly because of Han Shangyuan's tone on the phone just now that he felt a sense of crisis.

From the corner of his eye, he noticed a silver-haired man on the sofa. Liu Guozheng looked down and guessed that this person was involved in his sudden call.

Han Shangyuan looked at Liu Guozheng coldly for three seconds. He opened his mouth and said in a mocking tone, "Director Liu did a lot of good things recently!"

Liu Guozheng was not a fool, so how could he not hear the sarcasm in Han Shangyuan's tone?

He immediately curled up and broke out in a cold sweat in an air-conditioned office.

"Senior Official Han, if you have something to say, just say it... If I did anything wrong, you can criticize me. I will accept it and correct myself."

Han Shangyuan immediately snorted and couldn't be bothered to talk nonsense with Liu Guozheng. He raised his hand and slapped a document on the table.

"Look at it yourself. Does this document look familiar?" Han Shangyuan asked coldly.

Bai Zhou sat on the sofa with a calm expression. From the beginning to the end, he did not give Liu Guozheng a proper look. He did not need to say anything about this matter. Han Shangyuan would resolve it for him.

Without needing to reach out, Liu Guozheng saw the words on the document: "Proposal for Starlight Amusement Park Project."

Proposal submitted by: East Sea Real Estate, a subsidiary of Baiyun City's M Group.

Liu Guozheng was stunned on the spot. He couldn't control his expression as he looked at Bai Zhou in surprise.

Obviously, he had already guessed the identity of the third person in the office. He was from East Sea Real Estate.

His heart skipped a beat. He never expected that a small real estate company with a registered capital of less than a million yuan would know a high-level figure like Han Shangyuan.

He... Didn't he kick an iron nail?

Liu Guozheng forced himself to calm down and smiled apologetically at Han Shangyuan. He struggled to open his mouth and said, "Oh, I'm familiar with this project. It's done very well. I was quite satisfied when I saw it. At that time, I sighed with emotion. There are so many talents in our Baiyun City real estate world. The project submitted was very far-sighted. This will bring important promotion to our Baiyun City's development."

"Is that so?" Han Shangyuan's gaze darkened as he sneered. "Then tell me, why was the project rejected?"

Liu Guozheng had been thinking of words in his heart from the moment he saw this document. When he heard this, he couldn't help but stammer, "This... It's like this... The project is excellent... It's just that... Let me explain to you... How should I put it... It's... It's..."

After a long time, Liu Guozheng still couldn't say something proper.

Because there were no loopholes in this project proposal.

"Enough!" Han Shangyuan interrupted Liu Guozheng. He had a square face and looked mighty. Anger filled his eyes. "I think this should be the end of your job as a Director. You can even show such blatant favoritism.. Tell me, who gave you such a gut?!"

Chapter 583: Receiving Blame From Both Sides

Liu Guozheng's body trembled, and Han Shangyuan's question scared his soul away.

His heart was twitching nervously, but he was still trying his best to think of a way to salvage the situation.

Jian Changsheng didn't ask him to do so. All of this resulted from his decision. He also thought of dragging the Jian Group down with him. After all, the other party was a celebrity corporation in Baiyun

City, the leader of the real estate industry. When Senior Official Han heard the name 'Jian Group,' he might consider the other party's face and let him off.

However, if it did not work, not only would he be in a quagmire, but he would also offend the Jian Group. Wouldn't that be equivalent to receiving blame from both sides and putting himself in a difficult position?

After struggling in his heart for a while, Liu Guozheng still removed the Jian Group and took responsibility for the consequences. "Senior Official Han, I was careless in this matter. I didn't make the correct judgment immediately. It's my fault. I reflect on myself!"

With that said, Bai Zhou finally raised his eyes to look at Liu Guozheng.

At this time, he still refused to let go. The person who instigated him behind his back should have an important position in the business world of Baiyun City.

This seemed to be the Jian Group.

Liu Guozheng never expected that even if he didn't say it, Bai Zhou would have already guessed everything from various signs.

"Brother Han, I still have something on later. Please help me resolve this matter quickly," Bai Zhou said indifferently.

He had already achieved his goal. As to whether Han Shangyuan would punish Liu Guozheng, he was not concerned.

Han Shangyuan initially wanted to teach Liu Guozheng, who had caused him trouble, a lesson in front of Bai Zhou. However, when he heard Bai Zhou's words, he immediately changed his words. "Did you bring the public seal?"

Liu Guozheng nodded repeatedly. "Yes, yes."

Han Shangyuan gave him a look. Liu Guozheng didn't dare to say anything. He picked up the proposal without hesitation and flipped to the last page to seal his approval.

Bai Zhou took the proposal with the public seal and stood up. He smiled at Han Shangyuan. "Thank you."

"Mr. Bai, don't be so polite. Our people caused trouble for your company," Han Shangyuan stood up and apologized gently.

Bai Zhou chatted with Han Shangyuan for a while longer and left the City Hall with the document.

Liu Guozheng looked around and carefully said, "Ah... Senior Official Han, I have work in the afternoon. If there's nothing else..."

Before he could finish speaking, he received Han Shangyuan's sharp gaze, scaring Liu Guozheng so much that he quickly shut his mouth.

“If I remember correctly, you only rose to this position a year ago, right?” Han Shangyuan looked at him and asked coldly.

Liu Guozheng wiped the sweat on his forehead and nodded gently.

Han Shangyuan sighed. Liu Guozheng’s action was no small matter. It was a huge taboo in the political world to practice favoritism. He had caught him this time, but he did not know if he had done anything else in private.

If such a person stayed in the station as a director, the entire Audit Bureau would be in a mess.

“Go back and wait for the notice. I’ll inform you after I have a meeting with the other leaders in the city.” Han Shangyuan did not show mercy because Bai Zhou did not pursue the matter.

He was also someone who could not tolerate sand in his eyes.

Chapter 584: Shocking the Baiyun Real Estate World

When he heard this, Liu Guozheng was so frightened that he almost knelt down.

However, his rationality made him understand that at this moment, he only had the right to give in and had no room to argue.

Liu Guozheng walked out of Han Shangyuan’s office with a gloomy expression. He took out his phone and wanted to call Jian Changsheng to complain, but he didn’t call him for a long time.

In the end, this had nothing to do with the Jian Group. The other party only asked him to note that huge piece of land in the southern suburbs and what project East Sea Real Estate wanted to develop. The Jian Group did not ask him to cause trouble for East Sea Real Estate.

Initially, he wanted to help with a small favor. Just when he thought he was smart, he got played.

With such work ethics, he would either be demoted or fired. However, no matter what, he had to bear with it.

In the end, he stuffed the phone back into his pocket and gritted his teeth.

The urgent meeting the Jian Group held lasted from morning until afternoon, as such everyone didn’t even have time to eat lunch.

However, the result of the meeting was not as expected. The site selection of the project was still an important obstacle to the current progress of the project. Even if the suggestion of South City was very ambitious, there were still too many instability factors. No one knew when South City would be demolished.

The Jian Group’s meeting didn’t receive a satisfactory result, and East Sea Real Estate had already received the document that had been approved.

The next day, it went straight to the headlines and news.

East Sea Real Estate, a subsidiary of M Group, announced that they would develop the largest and most luxurious outdoor amusement park in the country in the southern suburbs of Baiyun City. It covered an area of over six hundred thousand square meters, and it would bring the most popular and comprehensive entertainment facilities from the country and abroad. Currently, the proposal has been approved.

This news was like a thunderclap that instantly blew up the real estate world in Baiyun City.

East Sea Real Estate, which had initially only relied on its debuffs with the Jian Group to steal the limelight, instantly became famous. This was the largest amusement park project in the country. The company's macro views and ambitions were instantly obvious.

Low profile? Impossible!

Before Jian Changsheng went out to the company, he saw this news on the television channel while eating breakfast at home.

He immediately frowned. Didn't they reject this project?

Why was it approved again in just a day?

Jian Changsheng didn't call Liu Guozheng because he knew that it would be wrong if this project wasn't approved.

It was likely that the other party had connections with the higher-ups.

However, this way, the Jian Group would fall behind by more than a little. The other party's project had already been approved, and he had not even confirmed the location for his.

More importantly, the newspapers were reporting about the other party's amusement park project. If the Jian Group proposed to develop the same project later, people would say that the Jian Group was a parakeet and it would be ridiculed by their peers.

This project could have brought huge benefits to the corporation, but now, all the benefits were gone when East Sea Real Estate announced this news.

Jian Changsheng immediately picked up the phone and dialed a number. "Disband the amusement park project team. This project is invalid."

Being calm and decisive was Jian Changsheng's usual style.

At the same time, East Sea Real Estate's phone numbers were exploding with calls from various industry peers or auxiliary industries.. The other party had their eyes on the fame and benefits of such a large project and wanted to collaborate with them to take a share of the profits.

Chapter 585: 'Blaze' Organization

At Earl Villa.

The television was also broadcasting the news about East Sea Real Estate, but Wu Bi was not a businessman and was not interested.

In the luxurious and spacious restaurant, there was a table filled with food just for breakfast alone.

Wu Bi usually only ate porridge and eggs for breakfast. The reason for a filled table for today was different, a friend had come from afar.

At the dining table, sitting opposite Wu Bi, was a beautiful Western girl.

The girl looked to be in her early twenties. Her vermilion hair fell to her shoulders, with fair skin and deep-set, blue eyes that were exceptionally lively.

Even though she had just gotten up from the bed early in the morning with no makeup, she was still stunningly beautiful.

The girl's real name was Caroline, and her Chinese name was Xing Li. She belonged to the most mysterious and powerful organization in the world now: Blaze!

Everyone knew about this mysterious 'Blaze' organization by accident. Very few had seen all seven members of the organization, and no one knows the true identity of the boss behind them.

On the other hand, in front of everyone, Wu Bi was the boss of Baiyun City's Tiankou Society. However, his real identity was a member of the 'Blaze' organization.

A few years ago, the most powerful organization in the world was called the International Killer Group. It was an assassination organization that specialized in grooming female killers. Every year, they would choose the ten most outstanding people from a hundred girls to enter the organization.

Blood Moon, Fire Fox, Black Cat, Yellow Wasp, Jellyfish, Blue Fox, Scarlet Scorpion...

The legend of these killers was still widespread in the underground world.

However, two years ago, the top secret agent in the world, Blood Moon, gathered over ten retired agents from the killer group and other highly capable people hiding in various corners of the world. In just a month, they eliminated the entire International Killer Group from the dark side of the world, and as a result, it rescued countless captured girls.

The 'Blaze' organization was an organization who had taken part in the siege of the International Killer Group.

With the destruction of the International Killer Group, the 'Blaze' organization conveniently became the most mysterious organization in the world.

However, after the mission to annihilate the International Killer Group, all the members of the 'Blaze' organization hid their tracks and disappeared from every corner of the world. There was no news for two years.

Who would have thought that two of the seven people in the organization were in Baiyun City?

"Ah... I miss Chinese food. My favorite soup dumplings and shrimp dumplings, and delicious chicken soup..."

Xing Li looked at the table full of breakfast items and was so touched that she wanted to cry. She looked at Wu Bi and said with an exaggerated expression, "Brother Wu Bi, you're too good to me. I know I was right to come to China to look for you."

Wu Bi smiled when he heard that. He was peeling eggs with his hand and answered casually, "As long as you're obedient here, you can eat whatever you want."

"I'll be obedient!" Xing Li quickly nodded. Although she was a foreigner, her Chinese was fluent, and one could hear no accent.

After putting the peeled eggs on Xing Li's plate, Wu Bi looked at her seriously and asked, "Did Xing Yun contact you?"

Xing Yun was Xing Li's biological brother. He was also a member of the 'Blaze' organization and was an especially radical and bloodthirsty murderer.

Xing Li stuffed a prawn dumpling into her mouth, and it puffed her cheeks up. She nodded and said, "He contacted me, but I didn't tell him I was looking for you."

When Wu Bi heard that, he was relieved.. "That's right. Otherwise, if he comes over as well, wouldn't it be a mess?"

Chapter 586: Demolition of South City

Xing Li swallowed the food in her mouth and blinked at Wu Bi. She asked curiously, "Brother Wu Bi, you and the boss live in the same place. Have you not seen each other for two years?"

Wu Bi shook his head. "Of course not."

As he spoke, Wu Bi couldn't help but sigh. "Not long ago, the remnants of the International Killer Group came to look for me. Three people from the other party came. I almost lost my life!"

"What?" Xing Li was shocked. "They really found you? How did they find you?"

Wu Bi's expression darkened slightly. "I don't know either, but I've dealt with the other party and didn't ask them to bring the news back. However, I can't be completely at ease. Since they can find me, they'll probably find others as well."

Xing Li also had a solemn expression on her face. She put down the chicken soup in her hand and thought for a moment before sighing. "As expected of an ace organization that has stood under the world for decades. Even though we have jointly destroyed it, we can't underestimate the remaining forces."

Wu Bi nodded. "I'm afraid that a wildfire will never end. These people have had enough time to recuperate for two years. They will probably come back for revenge in the near future."

"That's why the boss asked us to keep a low profile and remain silent. That's also the reason," Xing Li muttered.

Wu Bi sighed and revealed a handsome smile. "Forget it. Let's not think about this for now. Since you're here, have fun here. As long as the boss doesn't find out."

Xing Li smiled and nodded. "Brother Wu Bi, don't worry. I'm here. If the other party comes to look for you again, I'll cut them into pieces!"

"Alright, then you're in charge of protecting me," Wu Bi said with a smile. He was naturally confident in Xing Li's strength.

Two days later, people in South City started to move away.

Because of the demolition in South City, the property prices in the various districts of Baiyun City started to skyrocket. Be it selling or leasing, many people quickly found suitable housing and moved out to prevent the property prices from increasing.

At this moment, in the Wang family, a van was parked at the entrance. The people in the house were busy.

Wang Yunzhong stood in the yard, smoking. Old Madam Wang came up to him and said, "Yunzhong, why did you find a van? How many things can you put in it?"

"Mom, you and Dad can just take some clothes and daily necessities. I have everything there. Don't make it seem like you're moving," Wang Yunzhong said with a frown.

With this demolition, Wang Yunzhong suggested to the two elders of the Wang family to move to his place. First, he rarely spent much time at home and didn't care to stay with the elderlies. Second, the two elders were at home and could help him take care of Zichen.

"Then aren't these things all for nothing?" The old lady was used to being thrifty, so she naturally couldn't bear to part with them.

"Mom, if you lack anything later, I'll buy you a new one. I have a villa. Do you think it's suitable to take these things over?" Wang Yunzhong said patiently.

"Yunzhong is right. That villa is so luxurious. These things will just mess up his house. Let's bring lesser items," Old Master Wang said.

The old lady thought about it and finally nodded.

Wang Yunzhong seemed to have thought of something. He couldn't help but look at the old lady and ask, "Mom, did Xiao Mei move?"

When the old lady heard this, she nodded unhappily. "She moved yesterday. Yunzhi's family came over to help her move.. She should have temporarily moved to Yunzhi's place."

Chapter 587: You... You Changed a Partner?

When Wang Yunzhong heard this, he couldn't help but understand.

Although he had only been to Wang Yunzhi's new house once, it was not small. It should be more than a hundred square meters. However, it was a little tight for the two families to stay together.

The things were loaded into the van. Old Madam Wang locked the door and yard door. Coincidentally, neighbors poked their heads out. Seeing this, they all greeted, "Oh, Auntie Wang, are you going to stay at your son's place?"

All the neighbors knew that the eldest son of the Wang family owned a company. He lived in an enormous villa and drove a Mercedes-Benz. He was very rich.

When the old lady heard this, she nodded with a smile. "Yes, it will be demolished, eventually. We have to move sooner or later. Our eldest son is filial and insisted on picking us up to stay in his villa. We couldn't refuse."

It sounded like a casual explanation, but anyone who understood would know that she was showing off.

The other party smiled embarrassedly and said nothing.

When they got into the van and left South City, the person could not help but spit, "Bah, what are you so smug for?"

When they reached Wang Yunzhong's villa, the van driver and a helper helped move the things in. Only then did the two elders of the Wang family follow Wang Yunzhong into the house.

As soon as she entered the house, the fragrance of food assaulted her nose. The old lady was stunned and said, "Yunzhong, you cooked?"

"Qianqian knew you were moving over today, so she specially came over to cook," Wang Yunzhong answered casually as he changed his shoes.

As soon as he finished speaking, he saw Xu Qianqian walking out of the kitchen in an apron. She had a bright smile on her face, and even her usual makeup looked more elegant.

"Uncle, Auntie, you're here. Quickly wash your hands and prepare to eat. I've prepared everything!"

Xu Qianqian warmly greeted the two elders. Since the makeup on her face was very light today, she was like a different person from the last time she went to the Wang family. The old lady didn't react for a moment and thought that her son had found another one.

"Yunzhong, you... you changed a partner?" The old lady couldn't help but ask softly.

When Wang Yunzhong heard this, he almost choked on his saliva. When he came back to his senses, he couldn't help but look at the old lady, not knowing whether to laugh or cry. "Mom, what are you talking about? This is Qianqian. You've seen her before."

The old lady was stunned. Oh, why was her makeup so bad before?

Not that she thought Xu Qianqian looked better with thick makeup. On the contrary, Xu Qianqian, who had no makeup on, looked much more elegant and suited her eyes better.

The last time they met, they parted on bad terms because Wang Yunzhong brought someone home a few days after his divorce. The old couple could not accept it.

However, it had been so long, and the rejection had faded a little. Most importantly, Xu Qianqian looked more pleasing to the eye today than the last time.

When Xu Qianqian heard their conversation, she was not embarrassed. Instead, she reached out to take the bag from the old lady's hand with a polite expression. "Auntie, give this to me. Go wash your hands and we can eat."

The old lady nodded. Although her expression was a little indifferent, she had improved compared to before.

As soon as they entered the dining room, the table was filled with dishes. There was chicken, fish, seafood, vegetables, and meat. There were twelve dishes, and every dish looked good and smelled good. One could tell at a glance that they aroused one's appetite. It could be said that she had put in a lot of effort.

The old couple rarely went to restaurants for meals.. There could only be such a scene during the new year.

Chapter 588: You Went Overboard

"This... Your girlfriend made all of this?" The old man was dumbfounded.

After all, with Xu Qianqian's appearance, it was difficult to link her to a girl who could cook.

Wang Yunzhong initially thought his father's reaction was a little exaggerated, but when he saw the situation at the dining table, his expression froze.

This... was a little too much!

"Ah, yes..." Wang Yunzhong suppressed the embarrassment in his heart and forced himself to admit, "Qianqian made them. Her culinary skills are excellent. Sometimes, I work overtime, and she often makes delicious food for me and delivers it to the company."

When the old couple heard this, they felt this girl was quite good at taking care of people. Their impression of Xu Qianqian couldn't help but improve.

Moreover, it would take at least a few years to cook this table of dishes. It seemed that this girl was not as superficial as she looked. At least she knew how to cook.

While the two elders went to the bathroom to wash their hands, Wang Yunzhong quickly pulled Xu Qianqian to the side and said in a low voice, "You've gone overboard. There are so many dishes. How are you going to smooth things over in the future?"

It turned out Xu Qianqian did not make the dishes that were on the table. Instead, she bought all of it from a restaurant.

Xu Qianqian could cook rice into porridge, let alone stir-fry vegetables. She didn't even know how much water to add to instant noodles.

When Xu Qianqian heard this, she blinked innocently and said aggrievedly, "I... I just wanted to perform well in front of your parents to redeem my image."

Wang Yunzhong helplessly held his forehead and said helplessly, "You didn't have to be so exaggerated. Five or six dishes are enough. With over ten dishes, only my parents haven't seen the world, but if it were anyone else, who would believe you?"

"Then what should we do?" Xu Qianqian was initially quite smug, but when Wang Yunzhong said this, she instantly felt a little guilty.

Wang Yunzhong sighed. "It's fine, it's fine. It's all fake. When you have time later, study your culinary skills carefully. At least you can bluff your way through in the future. If you expose yourself, wouldn't all your efforts today be in vain?"

Xu Qianqian quickly nodded and agreed. "Don't worry, I'll apply for cooking classes tomorrow."

Seeing that she was willing to listen, Wang Yunzhong smiled.

"Yunzhong, where's Zichen? He's not at home?"

When the old lady came out of the bathroom, she realized she had not seen her eldest grandson.

When Wang Yunzhong heard this, he quickly explained, "Zichen went to Chunfen's place. It's summer break, so he went to play with Zimeng."

The old lady was unhappy when she heard this. She couldn't help but lecture Wang Yunzhong. "That's a child of the Wang family. Why do you keep asking him to go to his mother's place? If his mother says anything nasty to the child later, the child will feel distant from our family."

"Chunfen isn't that kind of person," the old man mumbled. "Zichen is still young, so he can't lack maternal love. It's not good for him either. It's fine for him to stay at Chunfen's place for two days occasionally."

Old Master Wang was a thoughtful person. Compared to the old lady, he was much more sensible.

Wang Yunzhong didn't argue with the old lady. He only said, "I'm also busy at the company, so I don't have time to take care of him. Zichen is in adolescence. If no one takes care of him, he can easily learn to be bad."

"But don't worry, Mom. Didn't you and Dad move over? Help me take care of Zichen later. I'll be at ease.. I'll pick him up in two days."

Chapter 589: She Could Give Birth to a Child for the Wang Family

The old lady quickly said, "Yes, I'll take care of Zichen after you bring him back. I'll definitely raise Zichen until he's fair and plump."

As they spoke, they were already at the dining table. Seeing so many delicious dishes in front of them, the old couple couldn't help but gulp.

Old Madam Wang had cooked for her entire life, and her culinary skills were not bad. However, they were all home-cooked dishes. When had she seen such exquisite and beautiful dishes?

Wang Yunzhong took out a bottle of top-notch Wuliangye for the old man. Xu Qianqian also scooped a bowl of black chicken soup for the old lady.

The old lady picked it up and took a sip. The taste was very fresh and delicious with a hint of sweetness. It differed completely from the soup made by ordinary families.

"Oh, it's delicious," the old lady couldn't help but praise.

When Xu Qianqian heard this, a smile immediately appeared on her face. "Auntie, drink more if you like. Black chicken nourishes the body, and it's especially beneficial for us women."

Hearing Xu Qianqian's words, the old lady found her much more pleasing to the eye.

"Your name is Qianqian, right?" the old lady asked Xu Qianqian with a kind expression.

Xu Qianqian quickly nodded and answered, "Yes, Auntie. My name is Qianqian."

"How old are you this year?" the old lady asked again, looking like she was looking at her daughter-in-law.

Xu Qianqian: "Twenty-six years old!"

She was as young as she looked. The old lady couldn't help but guess.

Zichen was sixteen years old this year. Since Xu Qianqian was only ten years older than her grandson, it was indeed not right for her to be his stepmother.

However, on second thought, Yunzhong was going to get married again; he couldn't possibly be a bachelor at forty years old. If he married someone of the same age, she wouldn't be able to give birth to children for the Wang family anymore.

This Qianqian was a little young, but her advantage was obvious. She could still give birth to a child for the Wang family.

In the past, she also thought that this girl was a bimbo who only knew how to spend money. Today, her impression of her had changed quite a bit. Not only was she an excellent cook, but she was also exceptionally respectful to her. She looked like she could dote on people.

With this thought in mind, the old lady couldn't help but smile and nod. "That's good. It's good to be young and healthy."

When Xu Qianqian heard this, her face couldn't help but be filled with a trace of joy. She looked at Wang Yunzhong and the two of them smiled.

During the meal, Xu Qianqian was even more attentive. She peeled prawns and picked up food. She kept talking, and the old lady smiled until her eyes couldn't be seen.

After dinner, the old man went to the garden in front of the villa alone to digest his food. He looked at the two small empty spaces in front of the villa and thought about planting some vegetables here.

Wang Yunzhong came out to smoke. When he saw his father looking around, he went up to him. "Dad, what are you looking at?"

The old man shook his head. Seeing that his son was here, he took the opportunity to say something to him.

"Yunzhong, have you contacted Xiao Mei recently?" The old man didn't beat around the bush and asked.

Wang Yunzhong was stunned for a moment before shaking his head. His expression was slightly embarrassed. "Why are you asking?"

The old man chuckled as if he had long seen through everything. "You're my son. Do you think I don't know what you're thinking?"

Without waiting for Wang Yunzhong to speak, the old man continued, "Xiao Mei is rich now. We don't know what happened, but she has worked in a nightclub for so many years.. If a big boss who likes her is willing to help her, it's not impossible."

Chapter 590: The Best Club in Our City

"If you want to make use of your sibling relationship with Xiao Mei to let her take care of your company, put down your airs as a brother and get closer to Xiao Mei to ease the relationship between you and her."

The old man favored boys over girls the most in the family, and he had doted on Wang Yunzhong the most since he was young.

Therefore, the old man's words shocked Wang Yunzhong.

"Dad, I know what you mean. But we can't rush this matter, right? I can't rush to curry favor with her, right? That would be a joke." Wang Yunzhong wanted to rebuild his sibling relationship with Wang Yunmei, but he also cared about his face.

After all, their relationship in the past was not intimate. He could not possibly turn around to express his goodwill after knowing that she had a company, right?

The old man nodded. "I know. I didn't ask you to do anything overboard. Everything starts from a small matter and changes bit by bit."

"Let's talk about now. Xiao Mei's family moved to Yunzhi's place because of the demolition! Yunzhi's house is not small, but it's still a little crowded for the two families to stay there. Why don't you lend your Haicheng District apartment to Xiao Mei's family to stay for the time being? Isn't that a help to her?"

The old man's words woke Wang Yunzhong up. That was right. He was embarrassed to curry favor with her, but how could he be embarrassed to help?

"Dad, I understand. When I have the chance to see Xiao Mei, I'll mention this to her," Wang Yunzhong said with a nod.

...

At this moment, in the parking space outside Shuiyun Club, a black Audi slowly stopped at the left side.

The car door opened and Jiang Chunfen got out of the driver's seat. Then, the backseat door opened, and Wang Yunmei and Wang Yunzhi alighted.

The three of them looked up at the luxurious club in front of them in unison. Wang Yunmei had worked in Yaochi for over ten years, so she naturally knew that Shuiyun Club was also an enterprise under the Ji Group.

However, at this moment, the logo beside the words "Shuiyun Club" had already been changed from the Ji Group to M Group.

"I heard this Shuiyun Club is the best club in our city?" Jiang Chunfen said slowly.

Wang Yunmei nodded. "It's a membership system here. Many people can't enter even if they have money."

Wang Yunzhi was speechless. She wanted to ask if this was under Xiao Ai's name, but the logo of M Group couldn't be lied to. Her real estate company and entertainment company had the same logo.

After locking the car, the three of them walked into the club together.

The main theme of the hall was a luxurious golden style renovation that instantly dazzled them. A huge crystal ceiling with a unique shape above their heads shone on the mirror-like ground under their feet. The soothing sound of the piano was long and distant. Coupled with the sound of flowing water in the indoor pond, it instantly calms everyone down.

Wang Yunmei and the other two had dressed up meticulously today. As soon as they entered the hall, a service staff welcomed them.

"Good afternoon, distinguished guests. Welcome to Shuiyun Club."

The service staff was an exceptionally dignified and pretty girl. She gestured for the three of them to go to the front desk to register.

Three beautiful receptionists were at the front desk. They said with the same professional and standard smile and tone, "Good afternoon, distinguished guests. Welcome to Shuiyun Club."

As soon as they finished speaking, the person in the middle, who looked like the leader, said, "Please show me your membership card."

When Wang Yunmei heard this, she quickly took out a black card with golden edges from her bag and handed it to the other party.
