Chapter 741: Who Brought This Red Wine?

It was Yan Tian on the other end of the phone. "Are you guys coming up? What's your room number?"

"1613," Xia Qinghuan said.

Yan Tian said something that frightened Xia Qinghuan so much that she quickly rejected, "Don't, don't come over. We'll go over!"

After hanging up, she couldn't help but say to the puzzled Jian Ai and Guan Tao, "They wanted to come to our room to have snacks and chat, so I rejected them. Let's go over with some snacks instead."

Jian Ai couldn't help but smile. "If they want to come over, let them come over?"

"I don't want to!" Xia Qinghuan denied it. "They'll mess up the room."

Guan Tao smiled and said nothing. Jian Ai also smiled helplessly. It was obvious that the two of them didn't care.

They casually packed some food and were about to go out when the landline phone in the room suddenly rang.

Xia Qinghuan returned and picked it up. It was Sun Dasheng. He asked her to organize the students to gather downstairs at three in the afternoon. There was a group activity in the afternoon.

Class One's rooms were all on the sixteenth floor. Lin Yi and the rest lived in Room 1603.

Since their door was ajar, it was obviously left open for them. Jian Ai pushed the door open and entered.

The layout of the room was the same as theirs. The furnishings were also the same, but the direction was different. Looking out from the floor-to-ceiling window, they could see the lush mountain opposite Liyang Lake.

"What's your room like?" When Yan Tian saw them coming, he quickly asked, curiously.

Xia Qinghuan threw the snacks on the bed and said smugly, "It's the same as yours, but the scenery is better than yours. Our house is a lake house, and we can see Liyang Lake directly."

A fragrance suddenly filled Jian Ai's nose. She frowned and looked back. She saw a decanter on the coffee table with red wine inside.

"Damn, who brought this red wine?" Jian Ai was shocked and looked at the boys, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

Yan Tian raised his chin at Lin Yi. "He brought it."

Lin Yi smiled. "We're out to play. Of course, we have to drink."

They would drink some red wine during gatherings, but was it good to drink at noon?

"I'm a little carsick. I can't drink. My stomach still feels uncomfortable," Guan Tao quickly surrendered.

Gao Yang, who was tidying up, looked up. "Why don't you lie on my bed for a while?"

The others looked at each other in surprise when they heard this. They saw surprise in each other's eyes.

What was going on? Wasn't Gao Yang a clean freak?

Guan Tao also remembered that Gao Yang was a clean freak. How could she have the nerve to lie on his bed? She immediately waved her hand and rejected him. "No, thank you. I'll just lean on the sofa for a while."

As she spoke, her face subconsciously turned red.

Putting the snacks on the coffee table, Jian Ai boiled a few cups of instant noodles with the kettle in the guest room.

Lin Yi poured wine into disposable cups for everyone. Xia Qinghuan couldn't help but say, "There's a group activity in the afternoon. Everyone, just drink a little."

Because the room was carpeted, they were not reserved and sat around the coffee table on the carpet.

"This place is much better than I imagined!" Xia Qinghuan was in a very good mood. She looked at the boys and said, "We just saw Liyang Lake. The sparkling green lake is quite beautiful."

Lin Yi nodded. "The school didn't fool us this time. The place they chose is good."

Although it was the off-peak season and there were over five hundred people on this trip, the discounted price was not cheap. The school had invested a lot this time.

Chapter 742: School Promotional Video?

Jian Ai remembered that in high school in her previous world, the school had organized activities like summer camps and winter camps. However, at that time, students had to pay for these activities.

One could imagine the activity fee Jian Ai's family could not afford to pay for in a noble school.

Therefore, even if Jian Ai was envious and wanted to take part, she didn't mention a word to her family.

Unexpectedly, now that she had money, she made it to the school's autumn trip. It was even free. How ironic.

As for why the school spent so much money to let all the Year Two students come out for an autumn trip, Jian Ai seemed to have a guess once afternoon rolled around.

After lunch, everyone slept in their rooms. At forty minutes past two in the afternoon, Xia Qinghuan took the name list and went to knock on the doors of each room. She asked the students to pack up and gather early.

The autumn weather was slightly cold, and the temperature difference was larger in the morning and evening. They did not know how long the group activity would be this afternoon, so the students consciously brought long-sleeved coats.

The elevator was crowded, and many people automatically went down the stairs from the safety passage. After all, it was effortless to go down.

When they reached the gathering point, Jian Ai found many photographers with cameras.

"I think I've guessed the goal of this autumn trip," Jian Ai suddenly whispered in Guan Tao's ear.

Guan Tao was stunned. The goal of this autumn trip?

Wasn't it to play? What other goals could it have?

Looking at Guan Tao's expression, Jian Ai couldn't help but laugh. "They might film a material for the school promotional video."

"Ah?" Guan Tao couldn't react for a moment. "School promotional video?"

Jian Ai nodded. "Did you forget that the teacher said last semester we needed to film a promotional video?"

Guan Tao thought for a moment before her eyes lit up. "That's right. The teacher said that those who achieve outstanding results can film promotional videos for the school. Isn't that you and Jian Yiyi?"

Jian Ai answered calmly, "Teacher Sun looked for me and Jian Yiyi, but I rejected him."

"Why?" Guan Tao was shocked and asked in surprise.

She could represent the school and appear on screen. When the time came, they could broadcast it on television. Everyone in the country could see it. It was an opportunity that many people could not get.

"I'm just a little hesitant. I don't want to be on television," Jian Ai said truthfully.

She admitted that she did not have any talent in acting, and when she thought of smiling at the camera, she felt so silly.

"Won't Jian Yiyi benefit from this?" Guan Tao frowned and looked unhappy.

Jian Ai smiled and said, "She relied on her results to win an opportunity. However, after I backed out, Teacher Sun also said that Jian Yiyi might be the protagonist. Who knows?"

Moreover, if she did not guess wrongly, there would be photographers taking photos of the Year Ones' military training.

After all, the promotional video this time was to promote Baiyun Erzhong's school culture, showcase the variety of school life, and shape the style of the school. In the end, it would be broadcasted to the entire country's audience. It must be very important, which was why the autumn trip was for free.

After all, the material came from life and practice. Just letting a few students run on the field and smile at the camera was not enough.

When everyone in the class was present, Sun Dasheng raised the small yellow flag in his hand and shouted, "Students, follow me. Don't fall behind."

Without waiting for the other classes to be ready, the students of Class One left the gathering place with their form teacher and a scenic area service staff.

Chapter 743: Barbecue Relay

Not long after, the students of Class One were brought to a huge flat open space by Liyang Lake.

The boundless, lustrous green lake flickered with waves of light that connected with the sky. The sky above the lake seemed to reflect a lustrous green color, and a group of birds formed a circle.

The staff's commentary sounded at the right time. "Students, this is Liyang Lake, one of the six major freshwater lakes in our country. Chengyang River is the primary source of water for Liyang Lake. The lake area is ninety-three kilometers long and has a maximum width of forty-one kilometers. The highest water level is eleven meters deep. It is also known as the first lake in the north."

Just now, she had only looked out of the window of the room. Now that she was close to the lake, her field of vision was even wider. It was not like the surging waves of the sea. Liyang Lake was peaceful, like a sleeping girl in a green muslin under the sky.

The scenic area was completely protected. There was no trash in the large lake, and the lake was clean and clear. Just looking at it made one feel relaxed and happy.

"This place is so good," Jian Ai said for the second time today.

Baiyun City's economy was developed, but there was no such natural and pure scenery. Even the scenery of the hot spring hotel where Lin Yi celebrated his birthday could not compare to this place.

It was indeed a level 5A scenic area in China.

The other classes arrived one after another. Everyone enjoyed the scenery of Liyang Lake for a while and saw a staff member driving a sightseeing bus over.

Then, under everyone's puzzled gaze, the staff built a staircase-like display booth in the empty space of the beach. Bottles of cured meat, seafood, vegetables, and so on were laid out one after another. It was obvious that they were ingredients for barbecue.

Seeing this, the crowd immediately became agitated.

"Damn, a barbecue?"

"This is a good group activity. I like it."

"I haven't barbecued in the wild before."

"The school is too good to us..."

All the students were obviously excited, and someone had also noticed that grills had already been set up on the left and right sides of the lake. There were exactly ten of them, and it was obvious that each class had a grill.

However, they were too far away to see the length of the grill.

“Come, students. Everyone, gather around the teacher,” Sun Dasheng called out to the students in Class One.

Seeing this, everyone quickly surrounded him.

“Teacher, is there a barbecue for the group activity in the afternoon?”

Someone couldn’t help but ask.

Sun Dasheng smiled and nodded. “As you can see, the ingredients are already on the display booth. However, the school organized an interesting game, so these ingredients are not for you to take as you wish.”

When they heard about a game, everyone instantly perked up. Just the thought of it was exciting.

Someone asked, “What game, Teacher?”

The other classes were also surrounding their form teacher. It was obvious that the teachers already knew the game content in advance and were explaining it to their students.

Sun Dasheng didn’t keep them in suspense. He immediately said, “The first activity is a relay. Everyone, look at the small red flag in front. That’s the starting point. Students who are participating in the relay have to run from the starting point to the booth. Then, they will pick up a set of ingredients from the booth and turn back the way they came. The total distance is one hundred meters. After the first student returns, the second student will set off. The ingredients you snatch will be the ingredients you can use for barbecue tonight.”

“However, there are rules in the game. There must be three boys, two girls, and a teacher – a total of six people!”

1

Chapter 744: I’ll Play Too

Girls were participating too?

When the students heard this, they couldn’t help but look at the ingredients in the display booth. Every serving was in a basin. It was fine if they ran over. If a girl ran back with a basin of meat or a basin of potatoes, wouldn’t she be exhausted?

“Girls should pick the lighter ones to snatch. I’ll still say the same thing. Be careful and don’t force yourself,” Sun Dasheng said.

Yan Tian was a sports specialty student in the class, so he was naturally included in such competitions.

“Do you want to participate in it? Snatch something delicious back!” Jian Ai suddenly leaned in front of Si Yue and asked him with a smile.

Jian Ai knew best how fast Si Yue ran. Moreover, she wanted to see Si Yue take part in such a game.

Hearing this, Si Yuehan frowned slightly. It was obvious that he didn’t like to participate in this kind of thing, but he said, “You want me to go?”

“What do you mean? Even if you don’t want to participate, I can’t force you!” Jian Ai smiled and said, “I’m also thinking about our class’s dinner. If other classes have people who run fast, and in the end, we only have roasted potatoes, roasted leeks, and so on, for dinner, how miserable will that be?”

Si Yuehan pursed his lips slightly. It was obvious that he wanted to refuse, but he didn’t dare to.

Although the Sect Master said that she would not force him, since she had said so, he had no right to deny it.

“Huh? I’ll play with you.” Jian Ai was playful. She really wanted to take part.

Her childhood in her previous life was gray, and she was also a nobody in class and in school. Nothing would happen to her.

Therefore, she had always felt regretful and hopeful about these things.

This time, Si Yue finally nodded. “Alright.”

Sun Dasheng was still picking people, especially the girls. They didn’t want to take part.

The main reason was that most girls were slow and weak. If they could not snatch the ingredients that the students liked, they would probably complain.

Jian Ai suddenly raised her hand. “Teacher, Si Yue and I will participate!”

Sun Dasheng’s eyes lit up when he heard that. “Alright, Student Jian Ai took the initiative to sign up. There’s already a girl, so there’s no need to feel burdened. The most important thing is to participate!”

“Teacher, I’ll go!” At this moment, a voice sounded. Everyone looked over and saw Li Yunmei raising her hand!

Li Yunmei had the advantage of height among the girls. In addition, she was usually tyrannical in school. One could tell at a glance that she was a strong girl. This game was quite suitable for her!

As such, the lineup for Class One was the boys, Yan Tian, Si Yuehan, and the sports commissioner, Yang Guangfei. The girls were Jian Ai and Li Yunmei, and finally, the form teacher, Sun Dasheng.

The six of them had to run twice, which meant that they could get twelve sets of ingredients.

The order of the relay was freely decided by the class. There were no compulsory restrictions, but the first to run should definitely be the fastest. This was because the first batch of ingredients was already on the display booth. Presumably, all the classes had already thought of the ingredients they wanted to get in the first round.

Not only the students participating in the relay race but also the other students watching and cheering were eager and excited.

Sun Dasheng called them to the side and discussed their strategy.

“Do you have any ideas?” Sun Dasheng looked at them and asked.

Although friendship was first, and competition was second, they still had to work hard to win.

Even if they could not snatch all the ingredients they wanted, at the very least, it could not be too ugly. Therefore, strategy was very important!

Chapter 745: Don't Worry, Leave It to Me!

"Teacher, we should list an ingredient chain first," Jian Ai said.

When everyone heard this, they looked up at her. After all, Jian Ai was usually a top student, so everyone would listen to her.

Sun Dasheng couldn't help but ask, "An ingredient chain?"

Jian Ai nodded and explained, "It's that we have to split the ingredients we want into levels. Later, when we run to the booth, we won't waste time choosing and will return with the most prioritised ingredients."

With Jian Ai's explanation, everyone instantly understood.

To put it bluntly, they did not want to waste time in front of the booth wondering what to take. Instead, they would quickly decide based on the priority of the ingredient chain.

In the end, the few of them discussed. The priority list for the ingredients was mutton, seafood, pork, vegetables, beef, chicken, and noodles.

Mutton was the first ingredient needed for barbecue. Without mutton, they could not consider it a barbecue.

The reason pork was ranked ahead of beef was because some students might not eat mutton. Therefore, with mutton, they should consider the next ingredient for students who only ate pork.

The reason for arranging the vegetables in the middle was that they could not put all the meat at the front of the ingredient chain. Otherwise, if they took all the meat, it would be too greasy.

After deciding on the ingredients, they discussed the order of the runners.

Although Yan Tian and Yang Guangfei were very good at sports, Jian Ai knew that Si Yue was the fastest among them. The first batch of ingredients was already on the display booth. In the middle of the display booth at the top was a basin full of mutton.

Therefore, Jian Ai recommended Si Yue to do the first run. For the sake of mutton, he had to go for it!

The second runner was Li Yunmei. The mission assigned to her was to bring back a basin of vegetables. After all, she was a girl. It would be too difficult for her to bring back a basin of meat.

Li Yunmei nodded. It was rare for her to listen to Jian Ai's instructions.

The third runner was still a girl, which meant Jian Ai herself.

"Then wouldn't there be vegetables for both trips?" Yan Tian objected.

With two girls consecutively, there would be two basins of vegetables. Although it was not bad, he felt they would suffer a loss.

The teacher also nodded and felt that Yan Tian's words made sense.

Jian Ai smiled. "Don't worry, leave it to me!"

Jian Ai's first goal was the greasyback shrimp. If that was not available, she could choose other seafood. If not, she could bring back a basin of marbled pork.

After all, she did not practice mental cultivation techniques and did not go to the martial arts school for nothing. She could not possibly bring back a basin of mushrooms.

The remaining people did not specify the ingredients. When the time came, they would look at the ingredients displayed on the display booth and decide on their own by comparing with the ingredients that their former teammates had snatched back. Because the ingredients displayed on the display booth were limited, a staff member would quickly fill the empty spaces after each round. As for what ingredients would fill the empty spaces, no one knew.

The sun was suspended in the sky above the lake in the west. People from the various classes were already gathered at the edge of the lake, and those taking part in the relay race were also lined up at the starting point.

All ten classes would participate at the same time. There was a staff member wearing a whistle at the starting point. He should be the referee for this competition.

"Go, Class One!"

"Go, Class Three!"

"Go, Class Eight!"

...

Students from various classes started to cheer for their classmates. Everyone had excited expressions on their faces.

The first batch of students had already made preparations in front of the starting line. The beach was not as soft and dense as other beaches. It should not affect their running speed.

Chapter 746: Charge, Si Yuehan!

Class One was at the edge of the beach. Jian Ai casually looked at the other classes beside her. The first batch of runners were all boys, and the second batch were mostly boys, too.

"Everyone, get into position!"

The referee's voice suddenly sounded, and the scene instantly fell silent. Everyone looked at the people at the starting point without blinking!

With a whistle, the boys rushed out like wild horses.

"Wang Qiang, you can do it!"

"Charge, Si Yuehan!"

“Xu Lin, you can do it!”

...

The spectators at the side gathered from the starting point all the way to the end. As these people ran, cheers rose and fell. On this calm and beautiful lake shore, there was a different kind of passion.

The other classes also chose the fastest to be their first runner, but one of them was slightly thin and long. He was in the lead from the beginning, and his advantage became more obvious as he got closer to the booth.

It was none other than Si Yuehan.

The name of the Shadow Asura was not undeserved. Even without the power of darkness, his speed was not something ordinary people could compare to.

“Oh my, Si Yuehan is flying, right?”

“This is too fast. Look at his leg. The scene is almost blurry!”

“He can even take part in the Olympics at this speed, I think!”

“Si Yuehan is so handsome!”

“Si Yuehan, you can do it!”

The fifty meters distance was like two blinks of the eye. Without a word, Si Yuehan picked up the mutton on the fourth layer of the booth with a clear goal and turned around to run back.

“Ah! We have mutton!”

“It’s not a barbecue without mutton. Si Yuehan is too handsome!”

The girls in Class One screamed and shouted crazily. Usually, Si Yuehan’s image had always been cold and aloof. This was the first time they had seen him participate in a group activity, so the girls were naturally excited and expectant.

And Si Yuehan did not disappoint them.

Carrying an entire basin of mutton was definitely not light. Logically speaking, it would greatly affect one’s speed, but it did not seem to obstruct Si Yuehan at all. As if there was nothing in his hand, he ran back to the finish line at the same speed as before.

Behind him, the boys from the other classes slowed down while carrying the ingredients. First, they were fighting for meat, which was too heavy. Second, the basin was filled with ingredients. They were afraid that their efforts would be in vain if they accidentally fell.

Si Yuehan’s first run established a huge lead for Class One, so Li Yunmei only met the first runners from the other classes halfway through her turn.

Li Yunmei was not slow. Although she could not compare to boys, she was considered very fast among girls.

The staff was filling the ten sets of ingredients that had just been taken away. Li Yunmei had already run to the booth and saw enoki mushroom, which the staff had just added.

Moreover, the enoki mushrooms were not placed in a basin like the other ingredients. Instead, they were packaged separately, just like how they were sold in a supermarket.

Li Yunmei hugged four bags of enoki mushrooms and turned around to run back.

“Li Yunmei, you can do it!”

“Be careful, Li Yunmei. Don’t drop it!”

Looking at the boys from the other classes gradually catching up to Li Yunmei, the students from Class One could not help but sweat for her.

Fortunately, the four bags of enoki mushrooms were very light. Moreover, she was running back with them in their arms. Although it would more or less affect her speed and she was competing with the boys from other classes, Class One was still in the lead when Li Yunmei ran back to the finish line because Si Yue’s advantage in the first run was great.

Chapter 747: Was This Girl a Monster?

At this moment, the staff filled a box of Coke in the booth.

They also considered Coke as an ingredient?

Barbecue with cola. It was like a pheasant turned into a crane.

Everyone’s eyes lit up as they stared at the box of Coke.

“Snatch the Coke!”

“Snatch the Coke!”

“Snatch the Coke!”

...

The cheers grew louder and louder. The Class One students, who had been cheering because they were in the lead, fell silent.

The third runner from Class One was a girl.

Jian Ai rushed out the moment Li Yunmei returned to the starting line. Her speed was shockingly fast. The boys behind wanted to close the distance but realized that they could not catch up.

Not only could they not catch up, but they were also gradually pulling away.

“Xiao Ai ran so fast!”

Xia Qinghuan widened her eyes in disbelief.

Lin Yi and the rest were also stunned. The girl running with her ponytail almost floating was Jian Ai?

She ran so quickly!

However, although Jian Ai was faster, the students of Class One were still a little disappointed. After all, everyone wanted that box of Coke, but as a girl, Jian Ai could not carry it.

“Jian Ai, chicken wings are fine too!”

“Right, we can get chicken wings!”

“The chicken wings are also very heavy, right?”

“Just take whatever you can.”

Some students from Class One shouted, as if they felt it was fine if she couldn't snatch the drinks and snatch other things.

However, in the next second, everyone was stunned on the spot, and their eyes widened as if lightning had struck them.

Jian Ai rushed to the booth and picked up the box of twenty-four cans of Coke without a word...

Then...

She directly...

Carried it on her shoulder!

She did not hug or hold it. Instead, she carried the entire box of Coke on her shoulder like a burly man!

The staff member responsible for replenishing the ingredients was dumbfounded. If not for Jian Ai's ponytail, he would have thought that this person was a boy.

Moreover, Jian Ai's movements looked natural and smooth, as if it was not difficult at all. After carrying it on her shoulder, she turned around and ran back!

The person currently ranked second in the race, who came forward, happened to witness this scene from the closest distance. He looked at Jian Ai, who had brushed past him, as if he had seen a ghost.

What the hell?

Was this person a monster?

“Ah... Jian Ai is so handsome!”

“Jian Ai! Jian Ai!”

“Jian Ai! Jian Ai!”

Class One, who had just fallen silent, was woken up by Jian Ai's action. They screamed at the top of their lungs.

Jian Ai had a box of Coke on her shoulder. Her classmates' shouts echoed in her ears. She did not stop walking, but hearing their encouragement filled her heart with joy.

This was the youth she yearned for the most in her previous life, and it was also what she should have at her age.

After running back to the finish line, Si Yuehan quickly took the Coke from her shoulder and asked worriedly, "Are you okay? Does your shoulder hurt?"

Jian Ai smiled and shook her head. "It's just a little heavy. I'm fine."

Compared to the morning exercises in the martial arts school, this was child's play to her.

The fourth runner, Yang Guang, flew back with a basin of marbled pork.

The fifth runner was Sun Dasheng. Teacher Sun was already old, so he did not expect to take part in such a game with his students. Fortunately, the teachers had changed into sportswear today, so it was easy for them to run.

However, Sun Dasheng with his beer belly and short legs, looked quite comical.

In the end, Sun Dasheng brought back a basket of potatoes. Yan Tian, who was the last to run, pulled back the disadvantage that Sun Dasheng had created in the previous round. He snatched back a basin of greasyback shrimps!

Chapter 748: Returning Full of Fortune

After the first round, all the classes basically had meat. Moreover, the strategy Jian Ai suggested was mostly applied across the classes. The boys were in charge of meat while the girls fought for vegetables.

However, in comparison, Class One had the most sumptuous ingredients. There was mutton, marbled pork, greasyback shrimps, enoki mushrooms, potatoes, and an entire box of Coke.

The two rounds were seamless. This meant that after Yan Tian returned, Si Yuehan would set off again as the first runner.

Jian Ai had also chatted with Si Yuehan. If there was mutton, he should continue to snatch it. If not, he should snatch the chicken wings.

At this moment, Li Yunmei took the initiative to turn around and ask Jian Ai, "Jian Ai, what should I take?"

Li Yunmei's mission was to take vegetables, but there were only a few types of vegetables that they could use for barbecue. It was too difficult to roast an entire eggplant, and it would not be delicious if it was sliced and roasted.

They already had enoki mushrooms, so Jian Ai eliminated the other mushrooms.

They also had potatoes.

"Beans, leeks, and green peppers. Take whatever you see. Anything is fine," Jian Ai thought for a moment and said to Li Yunmei.

Li Yunmei nodded. As soon as she turned around, she saw Si Yuehan running back.

On his second trip, Si Yue brought back another basin of mutton.

Li Yunmei brought back a basket of green peppers.

Jian Ai initially wanted to snatch the chicken, but she suddenly saw the staff adding a basket of corn.

Roasted corn!

Oh my. Just thinking about it made her salivate. Without a word, she picked it up and ran.

Yang Guangfei snatched a basin of chicken gizzards.

Sun Dasheng was just lucky. When he ran to the booth, the staff happened to replenish a basin of beef, and he took that away.

Yan Tian brought back another box of lychee soda.

At this point, Class One's final results were two basins of mutton, a basin of beef, a basin of chicken gizzards, a basin of greasyback shrimps, a basin of marbled pork, a basket of corn, a basket of green peppers, a basket of potatoes, four bags of enoki mushrooms, and two boxes of drinks.

They returned full of fortune!

The other classes also gained a lot, but not every class had mutton and drinks. In comparison, Class One had the most comprehensive ingredients.

The students swarmed over and took the initiative to help move the ingredients. Sun Dasheng was so tired that he panted. After resting for a moment, he called out, "Students, follow me to our class's barbecue table!"

The competition for the ingredients ended there. Everyone wanted to watch more because the game was enjoyable and interesting.

"Xiao Ai, are you a girl? You carried drinks and corn. You carried heavier things than the boys."

Xia Qinghuan rushed to Jian Ai's side and looked at her excitedly.

Just now, at the side of the court, she was cheering for Jian Ai until her throat was about to explode. Because Jian Ai was too manly, she had simply exceeded the boyfriend-o-meter.

1

"If you were a boy, I would marry you!" Xia Qinghuan pounced on Jian Ai and smiled.

Jian Ai was in a good mood. She said, "I didn't go to the martial arts school for nothing. This is nothing."

"Jian Ai, you were amazing!"

"That's right, Jian Ai. I didn't expect you to run so quickly!"

"You're strong too!"

"You're good in your studies, too!"

The other students couldn't help but praise Jian Ai. At this moment, Jian Ai was a well-rounded student in everyone's hearts.

“For everyone, for everyone!” Jian Ai smiled and replied. Her tone was exceptionally humorous.

This differed from the Jian Ai that everyone usually saw. After today’s incident, the students’, or at least Class One’s, impression of Jian Ai changed greatly.

After all, as a girl, she ran fifty meters with a box of drinks for all the students in Class One.

Chapter 749: Labor Makes People Happy

They also divided the area for the barbecue picnic according to class. There were five classes in each direction, so it wouldn’t seem too crowded.

Sun Dasheng brought his Class One students to his class area. There was a huge plastic shed behind them. They also prepared the barbecue pit in the resort, and it was about five meters long.

Other than that, there was charcoal for barbecue, a work table for handling ingredients, as well as metal skewers and other tools.

Obviously, they could not grill the ingredients directly at the barbecue this time. Instead, everyone had to skewer the ingredients and process them together. They also had to start a charcoal fire.

The sun set in the west, and a large expanse of fiery clouds surged over the horizon, causing the lustrous green lake to be illuminated in a fiery red. It was exceptionally beautiful.

The students didn’t delay and found things they could do.

The most important thing now was to skewer these ingredients that they had won through the competition well.

Fortunately, there were many people in the class. Although everyone had never experienced this before, it was not a difficult thing after all.

The area where each class was located was specially equipped with a professional hotel staff to help students with some questions that they did not understand.

Sun Dasheng didn’t forget to remind his students. “Everyone, be careful. Don’t hurt your hands.”

After all, there was a risk factor for using metal skewers.

“Guan Tao, you’re so fast!”

The girls were carefully doing a skewer of mutton when they realized that Guan Tao had already finished three.

Moreover, the skewers were fat and thin. The length was suitable and very standard.

Guan Tao smiled in embarrassment. “I went to a barbecue stall for my summer job. I helped with skewers during the day, so I have some experience.”

Everyone knew that Guan Tao’s family background was not good, but they did not expect her to go out to work and earn money at such a young age.

“Can you teach us? We can be faster this way. After all, there are two big basins of mutton,” one girl quickly said, afraid that Guan Tao would feel embarrassed when she suddenly mentioned this topic.

The other girls chimed in.

On the other side, Xia Qinghuan was peeling potatoes with a potato scratcher alone. However, the potato skins she had peeled were a tragic sight.

After she peeled a plump potato, half its weight was lost. It was such a waste.

“Oh my, do you have a grudge against these potatoes?” Seeing this, Jian Ai quickly went forward and snatched the potatoes from Qinghuan’s hand. “Quickly handle the corn. I’ll peel the potatoes.”

Although Jian Ai didn’t know how to cook, it was common for her to help wash vegetables and pick vegetables in the kitchen, so peeling potatoes was easy for her.

Xia Qinghuan pouted. “It’s quite simple when I see the auntie at home peeling potatoes. Why is it so difficult?”

Jian Ai couldn’t help but shake her head and laugh.

For an heiress like Xia Qinghuan, who did not use her hands in the kitchen, peeling potatoes was a job that did not seem technical, but it was too difficult for her.

Fortunately, there was something easier than peeling potatoes. Xia Qinghuan obediently went to handle the corn.

Some of the boys helped with the skewers, while others carried buckets to fetch water. The classes were busy, and laughter came from time to time.

Jian Yiyi didn’t want to skewer anything. She felt that the cured meat was sticky and disgusting on her hand. If her hands were tainted with the smell of blood, she might not be able to wash them off for a day or two.

She did not want to do other jobs. She was going to be a celebrity in the future, and her hands could not be stained with these things.

Chapter 750: Change the Ingredients

Jian Yiyi walked among the students and pretended to be busy.

However, when all the students were busy, her incomplete posturing was especially conspicuous.

Xia Qinghuan didn’t like her. She immediately said bluntly, “Jian Yiyi, what are you doing? Taking a walk by the lake?”

This voice was neither loud nor soft, but everyone heard it.

Everyone looked at Jian Yiyi.

Jian Yiyi was stunned as well. Seeing this, she quickly put on a careful attitude. "Ah, I just want to see if there's anything I can help with. I don't know what to do."

"Everyone has work on their hands, and they're learning everything that they don't know. Even if they don't know how to skewer, they can at least peel corn, right?" As she spoke, Xia Qinghuan carried a basket of corn to Jian Yiyi and said, "Peel this basket of corn!"

Jian Yiyi didn't dare to refuse. Fortunately, Xia Qinghuan didn't ask her to do meat skewers. She immediately nodded. "Alright, I'll handle the corn."

Xia Qinghuan was annoyed at her pretending to be weak. She immediately rolled her eyes in her heart and turned around to deal with the green peppers with her classmates.

At this moment, a boy from Class Two next door suddenly came to Class One.

"Hello!" The boy was fair and clean. As soon as he arrived, he greeted everyone loudly. He did not look as reserved as his appearance.

The students looked up when they heard this. As the monitor, Xia Qinghuan naturally had to take the initiative to stand up. "Hello, classmate. What's the matter?"

Although Xia Qinghuan did not know him, there was no one in Year Two who did not know Xia Qinghuan. When the boy saw Xia Qinghuan, he quickly smiled and nodded slightly. He said, "It's like this. I'm the class monitor of Class Two. My name is Sun Yong. I want to use the ingredients you don't have to exchange for some mutton skewers. Is that okay?"

Xia Qinghuan was stunned. "Don't you have mutton in your class?"

Sun Yong smiled embarrassedly and shook his head. "No."

As if afraid that Xia Qinghuan wouldn't agree, Sun Yong quickly said, "We won't exchange a lot. Just a little. What do you think?"

Xia Qinghuan was in a difficult position. Although she was the class monitor, Jian Ai and the rest had snatched the mutton from the competition. She could not make the decision to change them with another class.

"Wait a moment. I'll ask around for you," Xia Qinghuan said.

Seeing that there was a chance, Sun Yong quickly smiled and nodded.

The other students naturally heard Sun Yong's words, so Xia Qinghuan asked Jian Ai, "Do you want to exchange them?"

Jian Ai walked to the classmate who was making mutton skewers and squatted down. "How many skewers can we make with this basin?"

Guan Tao was more experienced and said, "There should be over two hundred skewers. The meat chunks aren't big, so we can skewer more."

Jian Ai nodded and made an estimate in her heart. Then, she said to Qinghuan, "Alright, since he took the initiative to come over, we shouldn't eat alone. There are two basins of mutton. The amount is enough, but we can't exchange too much."

Xia Qinghuan: "He said to exchange a little."

Jian Ai smiled. "Alright, ask them to bring a basin over. We can't give them the skewered meat. The mutton is the hardest to skewer. Give them an amount of meat where they can make thirty to forty skewers and let them go back to skewer it themselves."

In the end, Class Two exchanged ten skewers of chicken wings and ten skewers of beef for forty skewers of mutton.

There were two wings on one chicken wing skewer, and ten sticks of skewered beef. Both sides were not at a disadvantage. They even increased the diversity of ingredients for their classes.
