Chapter 791: Disaster Strikes Like a Tsunami

“What’s wrong? Are you not feeling well?” Jian Changsheng quickly asked with concern.

Qiao Shuyi felt Jian Changsheng’s concern and couldn’t help but smile happily. She replied, “I’m not uncomfortable. I just didn’t sleep well.”

“Why don’t we go to the hospital tomorrow and get two prescribed sets of calming medicine?” Jian Changsheng asked softly.

Qiao Shuyi nodded and didn’t resist.

After taking a shower, the two of them lay on the bed. Jian Changsheng wore glasses and flipped through the contract in his hand with the light from the table lamp. Qiao Shuyi leaned against the bed frame and didn’t want to sleep. She just wanted to talk to Jian Changsheng.

She thought for a moment before finding a topic to talk about. “Changsheng, I saw the news about East Sea Real Estate yesterday. There seemed to be an accident at the construction site.”

Qiao Shuyi usually never read business newspapers, but she had heard about East Sea Real Estate more than once from Jian Changsheng.

She was especially concerned about what Jian Changsheng had said, so when she accidentally saw East Sea Real Estate on the front page of the newspaper, she picked it up and read it.

Coincidentally, she could talk to him now before bed.

Jian Changsheng was stunned. He didn’t expect Qiao Shuyi to care about real estate news.

“You know this too?” Jian Changsheng looked up at Qiao Shuyi and smiled gently.

Qiao Shuyi nodded and said softly, “I saw it by accident.”

“There’s something strange about East Sea Real Estate recently. It seems that they offended someone. Someone secretly caused trouble for them,” Jian Changsheng continued to look down at the document and said.

When Qiao Shuyi heard this, she was immediately interested. “Something strange? Don’t these things often happen at construction sites?”

Jian Changsheng looked up and sighed. “You heard the news, right?”

Qiao Shuyi nodded.

Jian Changsheng said, “In less than a week, their company already had three construction accidents. Two of them were reported. I heard they were all technical mistakes. They could have been avoided.”

Qiao Shuyi nodded with a dark expression and muttered to herself, “Oh, these people are too bad. It’s fine as long as it’s a fair competition. There’s no need to use such underhanded methods.”

“East Sea Real Estate is also unlucky. The new company has just been established and is developing well. Its future is bright, but it encountered such a thing.”

Although it was one of the Jian Group’s competitors, Qiao Shuyi still looked at it kindly. She immediately felt indignant about East Sea Real Estate.

Jian Changsheng looked at his wife’s gentle side, and his heart softened. “Don’t worry. East Sea Real Estate is not a simple company. It will settle these things.”

Xiao Ai and Manager Bai of East Sea Real Estate seemed to have an extraordinary relationship, but Jian Changsheng didn’t know what their relationship was.

However, he thought that his daughter should have nothing to do with East Sea Real Estate, so he cared little about this matter.

Just as he had said, East Sea Real Estate was not simple. They should be able to think of a solution to this matter.

The next day, disaster struck the Jian Group like a tsunami.

As soon as Jian Changsheng entered the company, a subordinate from the project department ran up to him anxiously and said, “CEO, bad news. Tianxuan Timber Company suddenly wants to end our collaboration.”

Jian Changsheng was shocked and thought he had heard wrong. “End our collaboration?”

The subordinate nodded. “They have faxed the documents to the company.”

“What’s the reason?” Jian Changsheng asked.

Chapter 792: Jian Group’s Crisis

The subordinate shook his head. “They didn’t say why. They just said that they would terminate their collaboration with the Jian Group unconditionally.”

Jian Changsheng took a deep breath. Because it happened too suddenly, he couldn’t process his thoughts.

Tianxuan Timber Company had been the Jian Group’s business partner for many years. This company was responsible for the timber materials for all projects in the Jian Group.

If they stopped the collaboration now, it meant that all the projects in the Jian Group would be forced to stop until they successfully negotiated with the other party or found another company to collaborate with.

However, with the scale of the Jian Group’s business, it was difficult to find a cooperative company that matched them well.

Before he could think about this question, another employee came to report.

“CEO, the higher-ups have ordered Baiyun Mountain Hot Spring to close for rectification for three months.”

Jian Changsheng's expression instantly turned ugly. It was going to be the National Day holiday. Was the hot spring hotel going to stop operations at this juncture?

"What's the reason?" Jian Changsheng asked.

Since it was an order from the higher-ups, they had to give an explanation.

The subordinate immediately said, "There's a fire hazard."

A fire hazard? Could it be the fire in the villa half a year ago? However, he had already used his connections to settle things, so the resort was not affected at all.

Why did they suddenly tell him to close the business for three months?

Misfortune did not come alone or in pairs.

Then, someone came up to report, "CEO, Quanling Crane called the company to withdraw their partnership with us from the South City demolition project."

Jian Changsheng: "..."

What a joke. This was a government project. Many companies were fighting to take part.

On account that the Jian Group had worked with them for many years, they personally recommended this company to the government. In the end, they announced their withdrawal just as they were about to start work?

What was going on?

The Jian Group's phone was still ringing non-stop. Big and small things kept happening. The entire company immediately fell into anxiety.

Jian Changsheng immediately called his former partners to ask about it, but they seemed to have disappeared from the world. He couldn't find a single one.

They were obviously avoiding him.

They were afraid!

Were they afraid of him or others?

Due to all these factors, the Jian Group's shares had already fallen drastically before two in the afternoon. In just half a day, the company's market value had dropped by over a hundred million yuan, and it had suffered heavy losses!

"Outrageous!"

At the Jian residence, Old Master Jian roared and slapped the Express News newspaper on the table.

The news of the Jian Group, a celebrity corporation in Baiyun City, having all its shares fall, appeared on the headlines today.

As for the specific reason, the Express News reported that they were still investigating further.

Old Master Jian was so angry that his entire body was trembling. This was the biggest crisis the Jian Group had faced since Jian Changsheng took over the company.

“What’s wrong? Why are you so angry?”

Old Madam Jian rushed over when she heard the commotion. Seeing the old man’s red face, she quickly went forward to support him. “What’s wrong?”

The old man covered his chest with one hand, and his heart ached. He kept muttering, “Outrageous. How outrageous.”

The old lady helped the old man back to the sofa and picked up the newspaper on the table to read. She was stunned.

“What’s going on? Why is this happening?”

The old man raised his trembling hand and pointed at the landline at home. “You. Call Secretary Wang. Hurry!”

Chapter 793: Did You Attack the Jian Group?

When the old lady heard this, she hurried to the landline and put on her glasses. She looked for Wang Yang’s phone number and dialed it.

The phone rang a few times before it was picked up.

“Secretary Wang? Hey, wait a moment. The old man is looking for you.”

As she spoke, the old lady walked to Old Master Jian with the phone and handed the receiver to him.

Old Master Jian took the phone and asked sternly, “Xiao Wang, what’s going on?!”

At this moment, the Jian Group was still in a mess. Wang Yang was so busy that he couldn’t do anything, but he had to explain to the old man.

After telling him what had happened today, Old Master Jian fell back in anger and almost fainted.

Wang Yang calmly analyzed, “Elder Jian, don’t blame me for not doing what you asked me to do, but I speculate that this matter must be related to East Sea Real Estate. The two newspapers I found before were suddenly revoked of their licenses yesterday. Those are authoritative newspapers in Baiyun City. How can they be stopped so easily?”

“I reckon that East Sea Real Estate is behind what happened to the Jian Group today. They should have already investigated me and are fighting back.”

After saying this, Wang Yang couldn’t help but sigh deeply.

The CEO was still in the dark, but if this matter was exposed, he would probably lose his job.

When Old Master Jian heard Wang Yang’s words, he widened his eyes in disbelief. Was East Sea Real Estate that capable? In just a day, it caused such a huge impact on the Jian Group?

He didn’t believe it.

However, even if he didn't believe it, he couldn't figure out what was wrong.

"Where's Changsheng? How did he react?" Old Master Jian suppressed his agitation and asked.

Wang Yang looked up at the tightly shut door of the CEO's office and whispered, "The CEO has been handling these things today, but the results are minimal. He's still on the phone and hasn't eaten for a day."

"Elder Jian, don't worry too much. Everyone in the company is working overtime now. I'll inform you if there are any substantial developments."

Old Master Jian nodded with a tearless expression. In the end, he didn't forget to remind Wang Yang not to tell Changsheng that he had instructed Wang Yang to lay a hand on East Sea Real Estate.

He knew his son. If Changsheng knew about this, there would be a barrier between father and son.

Jian Ai was at the newspaper stand outside the school again.

Looking at the contents of the newspaper, Jian Ai was shocked.

Bai Zhou made a move?

With this thought in mind, Jian Ai immediately took out her phone to call Bai Zhou. However, Bai Zhou's call came in.

Pressing the answer button, the two of them said into the microphone at the same time, "You attacked the Jian Group?"

Jian Ai: "..."

Bai Zhou on the other end of the phone: "..."

"I just saw the news in the newspaper and thought it was you," Jian Ai said truthfully.

Bai Zhou answered honestly, "I can't do something of this extent to the Jian Group."

Even if Bai Zhou had connections like Senior Official Han in Baiyun City, he was still a citizen of Qiusi. The Jian Group was deeply rooted, so he could not make many business partners they had worked with for many years change sides so quickly.

Jian Ai was shocked. If it was not Bai Zhou, who was it?

Did the Jian Group offend some other corporation?

However, few people could deal such a blow to the Jian Group in Baiyun City, right?

Chapter 794: Auntie, I Bought You Some Gifts

The matter seemed to have become more complicated, making Jian Ai unable to figure it out.

However, this was also good. The market value had evaporated in a day. Now, the Jian Group was in a mess. They should not be able to do anything harmful to East Sea Real Estate in the short term.

To Jian Ai, this was good news. The Jian Group was probably very surprised that the company would suddenly face such a disaster one day.

To be honest, Jian Ai was gloating from the bottom of her heart.

At night, Ji Haoyu appeared at Yaochi Club again.

In the hall, Wang Yunmei was talking to Sister Xia, the public relations manager.

“Sister Mei, it’s going to be the first of October soon. The club will definitely be busy. The activity last year was quite effective. I suggest we launch some new activities this year.”

Sister Xia was Yaochi’s public relations manager. To put it bluntly, she was in charge of all the escorts in Yaochi, and she was also Wang Yunmei’s former superior.

However, Wang Yunmei was a little older than her, so Sister Xia called Wang Yunmei as Sister Mei in the past. Even after Wang Yunmei became the general manager, she didn’t change the way she addressed her.

Wang Yunmei nodded. “I think so too. Let’s discuss it during the meeting later and see if there are any good ideas.”

As the two of them were talking, Ji Haoyu had already entered the lobby with four exquisite gift boxes.

He saw Wang Yunmei at the front desk and immediately rushed towards her.

“Auntie.”

Wang Yunmei was so focused on chatting with Sister Xia that she didn’t notice Ji Haoyu at all. As a result, when Ji Haoyu walked up to her and spoke, she was shocked.

The expression on her face didn’t fade. She turned her head and saw that it was Ji Haoyu. She immediately said in surprise, “Haoyu?”

Wang Yunmei almost called him Young Master Ji again. Fortunately, she thought quickly.

When Sister Xia saw Ji Haoyu, she was shocked. When she heard Wang Yunmei call Young Master Ji by his nickname, she looked at Wang Yunmei in surprise.

Sister Mei...

When did she become so familiar with Young Master Ji?

At this moment, Ji Haoyu glanced at Sister Xia’s face from the corner of his eye. Seeing this, Sister Xia quickly said, “Well... Sister Mei, I’ll get busy first. You guys talk.”

Wang Yunmei nodded gently.

After Sister Xia left, Ji Haoyu smiled obediently at Wang Yunmei and said, “Auntie, I especially came over to give you something.”

As he spoke, he handed a few exquisite gift boxes to Wang Yunmei.

Wang Yunmei was stunned and instinctively said, "For me? Haoyu... you don't have to be so polite."

Ji Haoyu was not in a hurry. He only said slowly with an easygoing attitude, "Auntie, keep them. They're all good things for beauty treatments. I specially bought them for you."

"Sigh, Auntie lacks nothing at home. Look, you even made a special trip for this." Wang Yunmei smiled helplessly, but she still reached out to take it. "Thank you for being considerate."

Perhaps it was because others can easily influence her, but Ji Haoyu had left an extremely domineering impression on Wang Yunmei when they first met.

However, facing the polite Young Master Ji now, Wang Yunmei quickly accepted the new him.

The main reason was that Ji Haoyu's performance was too natural. The innate aura on his body could be hidden without a trace. Facing Wang Yunmei, he was like an exceptionally sensible boy.

Chapter 795: I Love Home-cooked Food

However, although Wang Yunmei was embarrassed to refuse Ji Haoyu's gift for no reason, she couldn't accept it calmly.

She immediately said to Ji Haoyu, "When I have time, Auntie will treat you to a meal. Give me a chance to thank you properly."

When Ji Haoyu heard this, his eyes lit up. He nodded and agreed. "Alright, I'll try your cooking too. Xiao Ai always praises your cooking."

Jian Ai's voiceover: "Bah, aren't you shameless? When did I say that to you?"

"Don't listen to her nonsense. Auntie only makes some home-cooked dishes. I can't compare to the chefs in the restaurants outside," Wang Yunmei said with a smile.

Ji Haoyu answered, "I love home-cooked food."

At this moment, Ji Haoyu had completely led Wang Yunmei astray. She immediately laughed out loud. "Alright, if you like to eat, come to Auntie's house to eat anytime. Auntie will cook for you."

"Auntie, let's exchange phone numbers. When it's convenient for you, call me," Ji Haoyu said.

Wang Yunmei naturally wouldn't refuse. She immediately exchanged contact details with Ji Haoyu.

The two of them chatted and laughed for a long time. Many customers who had seen Ji Haoyu before passed by the hall and couldn't help but look at Wang Yunmei in shock.

Manager Wang was so close to Young Master Ji?

Until Ji Haoyu said goodbye to Wang Yunmei and left, Sister Xia, who had been watching from afar, turned back again.

"Sister Mei, what's going on? When did you become so close to Young Master Ji?" Sister Xia asked in shock.

Wang Yunmei smiled helplessly and said truthfully, "No, Haoyu is close to my daughter."

“Your daughter?” Sister Xia was stunned. “Isn’t your daughter just in high school?”

“Yes, I don’t know how they became friends,” Wang Yunmei said.

Sister Xia looked at the door where Ji Haoyu’s figure had disappeared with an incredulous expression. She shook her head in surprise. “I didn’t expect Young Master Ji to have such a gentle side. Everyone says that he has a strange temper. I was watching from afar just now and was afraid that he would suddenly flare up.”

“Hah.” Wang Yunmei couldn’t help but laugh when she heard that. “Even if he has a weird temper, he shouldn’t be laughing one second and getting angry the next. You’re demonizing him too much. I think this child is quite good.”

Sister Xia didn’t dare to say anything bad about Young Master Ji. Her gaze immediately landed on the exquisite gift boxes in Wang Yunmei’s hand. “Did Young Master Ji buy these for you?”

Wang Yunmei nodded. “They’re things women eat. I don’t know what they are.”

“Open them and let me see.” Sister Xia couldn’t wait to take the gift boxes and entered the front desk.

She opened the four gift boxes. They were blood bird’s nest, donkey-hide gelatin, ginseng, and cordyceps.

“Sister Mei, they’re all good for your looks. Moreover, it’s obvious that they’re top-notch goods on the market,” Sister Xia couldn’t help but exclaim.

These things might not be worth much to Ji Haoyu, but he had put in a lot of effort into this gift.

Wang Yunmei had never eaten these before. The main reason was that they were too expensive, so she couldn’t bear to eat them.

She did not expect that the first time she could eat them would be because of Ji Haoyu.

Sister Xia wrapped the gift boxes again and said, “Leave them at the front desk for now, Sister Mei. Don’t forget to take them away after work tonight.”

Wang Yunmei nodded in agreement, but she was already thinking about when to invite Ji Haoyu home for a meal. She still had to choose a time when Xiao Ai could also return.

Chapter 796: Audition

On Saturday, Rose Entertainment’s last audition for “Interweaving Night” was held.

Logically speaking, the company’s internal auditions were carried out secretly, and the previous auditions were indeed like this.

However, it was different this time. Although Jian Ai invited Yun Buyao at the last minute, Rose Entertainment still released the news immediately.

By morning, all the major entertainment media in the country swarmed over. They camped outside the audition venue early, waiting for Yun Buyao to appear.

At the venue, the entertainment companies that received the audition invitation sent people to bring their artists over to prepare early.

In the last audition, only Jian Yiyi was competing for the third female lead, Luo Yun.

The manager who brought Jian Yiyi along was called Dong Jie. He was also a top manager at Rose Entertainment. He was the one who brought Yuan Guang along.

“Brother Jie, I’m a little nervous.” Jian Yiyi clenched her fists uneasily. Her lips were slightly pale, and she looked nervous. She was not pretending.

When Dong Jie heard this, he couldn’t help but comfort her in a low voice. “Relax, Yiyi. Have you forgotten that you said you were never nervous? As long as you display your strength from your acting class, it won’t be a problem for you to get the role.”

Jian Yiyi nodded slightly.

She was not nervous at first until she heard that one of the examiners at the audition today was Yun Buyao.

That was her idol. She was so nervous at the thought of seeing Yun Buyao.

A Volvo car slowly stopped by the road outside the audition venue. The security guards, who had been waiting for a long time, quickly surrounded it.

Seeing this, it was obvious that Yun Buyao was here.

“Hurry up, Yun Buyao is here!”

“Stop smoking. Where’s the equipment? She’s here!”

The reporters panicked and rushed forward like a swarm of bees.

The car door opened. Yun Buyao was wearing sunglasses and light makeup. Her light green hair was scattered casually, and she appeared in front of everyone in an exceptionally casual manner.

“Yun Buyao, I’m a reporter from South Capital Entertainment. Why are you at the audition for ‘Interweaving Night’?”

Yun Buyao took off her sunglasses and smiled at the camera. Facing the reporter’s question, she answered, “Rose Entertainment invited me to be one of the examiners for the last audition for ‘Interweaving Night.’”

This was a good opportunity for her to help the Sect Master promote the company. Yun Buyao did not leave quickly like usual, but chatted with the reporters.

Reporter: “Yun Buyao, I heard this movie has a lineup full of newcomers. Will you make a cameo in the movie?”

Yun Buyao smiled mysteriously. “That’s not impossible.”

Reporter: "Rose Entertainment is a new company that has just been established for less than half a year. As an A-list superstar in Asia, why are you willing to support their new project? Did the other party give you a high remuneration?"

Yun Buyao continued to smile and responded, "You've guessed wrong. I'm doing free labor. I want to contribute to the new hope of Chinese movies."

"Moreover, Rose Entertainment is a subsidiary of M Group. I believe everyone still remembers what happened at the Langxing Gala. My good friend is a senior executive of M Group, so I'm doing this for him as well."

The reporters asked a few more questions, and Yun Buyao answered them all with a smile. In the end, she even cooperated with them and took photos from various angles. When the reporters were satisfied, she walked into the audition building under the escort of the security guards.

Chapter 797: Audition (2)

"Yun Buyao is here!"

Someone shouted in the waiting hall, and the noisy crowd immediately fell silent for a moment. Only when they saw Yun Buyao slowly walk in surrounded by security guards did they suddenly wake up.

"It's Yun Buyao!"

"I thought the organizers hyped up the news!"

"Oh my, I'm seeing her in person!"

"She's so beautiful in person. I'm going to cry!"

When they saw Yun Buyao, these people's excitement was overflowing. These newcomers who were determined to become actors and actresses undoubtedly had Yun Buyao in their hearts.

Yun Buyao waved at the crowd and shouted softly, "All the best, everyone."

Then, she entered the audition venue.

Jian Yiyi felt her palms sweat. The nervousness she had suppressed just now seemed to surge up again, mixed with indescribable excitement.

"Yiyi, when you go in later, don't look at the examiners. Think of yourself as Luo Yun. Imagine the plot with no distracting thoughts." Dong Jie didn't forget to comfort her.

Jian Yiyi nodded firmly and took a deep breath. After a while, she felt better.

This was the best opportunity for her to enter the entertainment circle. If she could get this role, she might become famous overnight. After all, the quality of the production team was evident, and the box office sales would not be bad.

In another corner of the waiting hall, a fair and handsome boy was equally nervous.

The boy was none other than Wang Mingxiao, who had offended Jian Ai when Rose Entertainment wanted to sign him.

Beside him was still the fat and noisy man.

“Mingxiao, don’t screw up. If you succeed this time, you’ll be completely famous!” The fat man looked even more nervous than Wang Mingxiao. As he spoke, he kept fanning Wang Mingxiao.

“You already have advertisements now. With your appearance and conditions, you’re born to be a celebrity. We’re just short of this last step. I heard the director won an Oscar, so whoever will be in this movie will become famous. You have to get yourself a role.”

Wang Mingxiao had a headache from the noise. He immediately frowned impatiently. “Uncle, stop nagging. Let me calm down.”

It turned out that Wang Mingxiao’s manager was his biological uncle.

The fat man quickly nodded. “Alright, I’ll stop talking. Calm down and perform well later.”

Not long after, the staff called out names.

“Qihua Management, Wang Mingxiao.”

The first person to be called was Wang Mingxiao.

“Eh? Mingxiao, you’re the first. Go, go!”

Wang Mingxiao quickly walked over. “Hello, I’m Wang Mingxiao.”

As he spoke, he handed the information in his hands to the staff.

The person looked at him indifferently and said, “Come in with me.”

The audition venue was a dark stage. There was a long table below the stage with five people sitting. In the middle was Yun Buyao.

Wang Mingxiao walked to the middle of the stage and felt the empty environment around him. His heart beat wildly.

“Hello, teachers...”

As soon as he spoke, an echo sounded in the venue, scaring Wang Mingxiao.

He paused for a moment before calming himself down and continuing, “My name is Wang Mingxiao. I’m from Qihua Management Company. I’m seventeen years old this year. The role I’m auditioning for this time is the third male lead in ‘Interweaving Night,’ Tong Fei.”

After a simple introduction, Wang Mingxiao walked to a corner of the stage alone and sat down. Then, he curled up and hugged himself tightly.

The audition began.

Chapter 798: Audition (3)

Everyone had five minutes to audition and could choose any scene they were confident of from the script to perform.

Although they could choose freely, most people would choose the most difficult scenes to highlight their acting skills and potential.

Little did they know that this way, most of the scenes were the same, which increased the competitiveness.

After the audition, the examiners in charge of judging below the stage would say nothing, nor would they share the results directly. Even if they spoke, it was just to communicate with each other.

In the waiting hall, Yu Xiaofeng paced back and forth nervously. From time to time, he would look up at the tightly shut door in front of him.

It was only a five-minute performance, but he felt as if a century had passed.

Finally, the staff pushed the door open and called out, "Sea Butterfly Management Company, Li Shuang."

As soon as he finished speaking, Wang Mingxiao walked out.

Seeing this, Yu Xiaofeng quickly went forward and grabbed Wang Mingxiao's arm. He said nervously and agitatedly, "Mingxiao, how is it?"

Wang Mingxiao's ears seemed to turn slightly red from nervousness, but his expression was still calm. Hearing this, he only said softly, "I think it's okay."

When Yu Xiaofeng heard this, he couldn't help but heave a sigh of relief. "As long as you feel it's okay. You didn't forget the script, right?"

Wang Mingxiao shook his head. "No."

Five minutes per person was actually very efficient. Moreover, these people would leave the scene after the audition. If they were chosen, the person in charge would call to inform them later.

More than an hour had passed, and the number of people in the waiting hall had already decreased by a third. Many people slowly became anxious as they waited. Some hid in the corner with scripts and memorized their lines. Some people were meditating with their eyes closed, as if they wanted to put themselves into the role in advance.

After more than an hour, the people in the waiting hall were halved, and the noisy venue gradually became quiet.

People could stay awake when they were hungry, so Jian Yiyi didn't eat breakfast in the morning. It was almost noon, but her name wasn't called. Her stomach was empty and uncomfortable.

She was so hungry.

"Rose Entertainment, Jian Yiyi."

Finally, the staff called her name. When the other actors who had not left heard the name Rose Entertainment, they looked up at Jian Yiyi.

Because everyone knew that the investment company for this movie was Rose Entertainment.

Walking onto the stage, Jian Yiyi lowered her head and took a deep breath. When she looked up again, her eyes were shining.

“Hello, teachers. My name is Jian Yiyi. I’m from Rose Entertainment. The role I’m auditioning for today is the third female lead in ‘Interweaving Night,’ Luo Yun.”

As she spoke, Jian Yiyi kept telling herself in her heart that she was the future Best Actress. This was an opportunity that she had dreamed of. As long as she took this step, everything would happen.

Self-hypnosis worked. Jian Yiyi exuded a rare calmness and confidence. In addition, her appearance was outstanding, and her temperament was very similar to Luo Yun’s.

This made the eyes of the examiners, who had just witnessed how nervous some of the past auditionees were, light up. They also had more expectations for her.

Luo Yun was the female lead’s best friend in the movie. She looked youthful and beautiful, and her personality was outgoing and lively. She was the kind of person who would make people like her at first glance.

This was Luo Yun’s most precious and obvious temperament.

Chapter 799: Could She Be Pregnant With a Girl?

However, everyone who was competing for the role of Luo Yun today chose the scene when Luo Yun saw the form teacher’s corpse. This scene was indeed dramatic, but it was not the most difficult to act in.

To the seniors in the industry below the stage, the essence of a role was to let the audience see the role through the actors. That was a qualified performance.

Jian Yiyi was very smart. She chose a scene of her talking to the female lead on the road after school.

This scene looked ordinary, and the lines were also ordinary. However, Jian Yiyi’s every frown and smile, and every move, could let people see the beautiful Luo Yun in the script.

Pure, flawless, energetic, and radiant, so much so that everyone could see through Jian Yiyi that Ye Zheng, who did not exist and had a completely opposite temperament, was emitting a gloomy aura.

At this moment, Jian Yiyi was Luo Yun.

As the last line fell, Jian Yiyi took a deep breath and bowed deeply to the audience.

The teachers below the stage couldn’t help but nod in their hearts. This morning, there was finally a newcomer that they completely recognized.

Jian Yiyi walked out of the door as if she had a dream. She had just... acted in front of Yun Buyao.

Her eyes stung, and she started crying agitatedly.

Seeing this, Dong Jie quickly leaned forward with a worried expression. “What’s wrong, Yiyi? Did you make a mistake?”

Jian Yiyi cried and shook her head. “No, I’m just a little emotional.”

When Dong Jie heard this, he heaved a sigh of relief. "You scared me. Just do your best. Don't give yourself too much pressure."

Inside, Yun Buyao put down the pen in her hand and smiled at the others. "It's not that I'm biased towards Rose Entertainment, but this Jian Yiyi is not bad. She has spiritual energy and an immaturity that is rare."

Another jury nodded as well. "Moreover, she's especially good at playing tricks. Look at the scene she chose. It looks very inconspicuous, but this is indeed the most authentic positioning of Luo Yun's role. There are many such scenes in the entire movie, but others chose the scene where she saw the corpse."

"Everyone wants to show their acting skills and perform some tense scenes, but this is a common problem for many newcomers. Because of the rich tension in the drama, this foundation is based on the script. Even if the actors perform flawlessly, they will still have a solid script at the bottom. They will more or less steal some of the limelight," a third person said.

Yun Buyao nodded in agreement. "Of course, it's a good thing to be able to perform well in a tense plot, but this is an audition now. We're looking for actors who can combine with the characters in the script. They didn't think of this and only thought about how to perform their acting skills, but they completely ignored how to perform the roles."

"It's a gain to see this. Let's continue looking."

...

Ever since Li Xia was confirmed to be pregnant, she became more picky with food, and she especially liked spicy food.

This morning, Li Xia and Wang Yunfa had just finished cleaning the shop and were eating breakfast.

A bowl of tofu pudding was red, filled with chili oil.

This was not the end. Li Xia still ate the red pepper sauce with fried dough sticks.

Wang Yunfa saw this and couldn't help but frown. He had discovered this problem over the past few days, but he didn't dare to say it.

At this moment, he couldn't help but put down his chopsticks and look at Li Xia. "Wife, you like spicy food so much now. Don't tell me you're pregnant with a girl?"

Chapter 800: Be a Slave

The elders all said that pregnant women who liked sour food would have a boy, while those who liked spicy food would have a girl. Even if Wang Yunfa didn't know this, he had heard of it.

When Li Xia heard this, she couldn't help but glare at Wang Yunfa angrily. "What do you mean? Are you afraid that I'll give birth to a daughter for your Wang family?"

As she spoke, Li Xia stopped eating and put down the chili in her hand. She continued, "Wang Yunfa, don't tell me you're like your parents, who only want a son and not a daughter? What's wrong with a daughter? Doesn't a daughter have your blood?"

Wang Yunfa didn't expect Li Xia to have such a big reaction just because he asked out of worry. He quickly explained in fear, "That's not what I meant. I would like it if it's a son or a daughter. It's just that we have to consider my parents. You know them too. They're looking forward to you giving birth to a boy and another grandson for them!"

Wang Yunfa had said this before. At that time, Li Xia was quite cooperative and said that she would work hard to give birth to a son for the Wang family.

However, women became extremely sensitive and irritable when they were pregnant. In addition, Wang Yunfa did not have any EQ. He did not know what he had said that caused him to be scolded.

This was such a scene now.

Li Xia was so angry by Wang Yunfa's words that she said sternly, "If they like boys, they can give birth to them themselves. Why should I care about your parents' feelings when I give birth to a child? My parents even like girls. Why don't you care about my parents?"

"What are you talking about? How old are my parents?" Wang Yunfa muttered with a sullen expression.

"Let me tell you, Wang Yunfa. I don't know if the child in my stomach is a boy or a girl, but if it's a girl, if you dare to treat our daughter like how your parents treated your two sisters, I'll divorce you. You can spend your life with whoever you want." Li Xia suddenly raised her voice, and her aura was quite aggressive.

Actually, she had been holding it in for a long time. Over the past few days, with the old lady around, she had to hide the spicy food she wanted to eat. She even had to cooperate with the old lady to eat the sour dates, sour plums, and so on.

She was a daughter, and her parents had also raised her. Previously, she could not get married and had been living with her parents.

Now that her days were getting better, she was also filial to her parents. She was not inferior to her brothers.

With the Wang family's pedantic thinking, how many losses had she suffered? Why didn't they repent?

His elder brother was promising, but was he as rich as his eldest sister now?

Wang Yunfa had been around for half his life, but he was not as good as his second sister's family.

The two sons could not compare to the two daughters, and the old couple could not bask in the light of their daughters. In the end, wasn't it their fault?

Wang Yunfa knew he had accidentally provoked Li Xia again. He was worried that it was not good for the child if she was angry during her pregnancy, so his tone softened. "Alright, wife, why are you so angry? I won't mention this again in the future, okay? You can take good care of yourself. In the future, regardless of whether it's a boy or a girl, I would love them."

Although he said that, he still hoped for a son in his heart.

After all, his family environment had influenced him since he was young. Like Wang Yunzhong, Wang Yunfa had inherited the idea from the two elders of the Wang family to favor boys over girls.

Seeing that he had admitted defeat, Li Xia immediately glared at him and didn't scold him anymore. However, there was a foul aura in her chest, and she was so angry that she couldn't eat.

Coincidentally, a customer came to buy vegetables. Wang Yunfa greeted the customer and quickly rushed out of the area with a chilly atmosphere Li Xia created.

He finally understood that he should tuck his tail between his legs and be a slave these days. He shouldn't say anything he shouldn't say, or he would receive a scolding.
