Chapter 1231

This woman's tone made it sound like Jasper and Tiffany had it coming.

The woman's arrogance had Tiffany flushing red in anger. However, while this innocent girl was angry, she did not know how to refute the other party.

Jasper pulled Tiffany behind him and said calmly, "Who are you to tell us to move away?"

Jasper had totally angered this annoyed woman now.

"What did you say?! Do you even know who I am? How dare you talk to me like this!"

"Who the hell are you? Why do I need to know who you are?" Jasper shouted, his gaze cold.

The Jasper of today was no longer the same small businessman that had to be careful while dealing with everyone.

This man currently held an astronomical amount of resources and had companies in all sorts of huge industries.

He might not be the most powerful person in the world, but no one in the industries he was involved in would dare to ignore his words.

After reprimanding Selena in distaste, Show remained seated in the car and smiled, though his tone was slightly annoyed when he said, "What more do you want? Will you only leave after taking a picture with me?"

Jasper shook his head. These so called celebrities made him want to vomit

At that moment, Tiffany stepped up from beside Jasper.

She told Show impatiently, "I used to like your songs a lot. I thought you were filial and an easy to approach celebrity! Who'd thought that you were actually like this? So disgusting!"

Show's expression darkened at Tiffany's words. However, upon seeing Tiffany's youthful and pretty features, Show's eyes lit up behind his sunglasses. "You're a fan of mine too, pretty girl?"

Tiffany replied angrily, "You wish! You're not worthy of being a fan of!"

Show chuckled and replied, "Don't say that. I think we can get to know each other a little better."

"Do you want to die?"

“About that...”

Ted mustered the courage and approached Jasper to whisper, “Mr. Laine, this man is Show Long and he’s a rather famous celebrity from Nawait.”

“We’ve been in a partnership with Nawait’s entertainment industry lately and the other party hoped that Show could use this chance to enter the Mainland market. That’s why we invited him over today.”

Jasper nodded.

Nawait’s entertainment industry mainly followed a Sunrise-philia style and there were quite a few outstanding celebrities.

However, these celebrities whom ordinary folk regarded as high-class and sophisticated were no more than a source of income for Jasper.

If they stayed in line, then everyone would have a great time.

Upon hearing Jasper's comment, Ted immediately reacted and called over a few security guards to drag the two away.

Show was limp in the security guards' hold while Selena seemed despondent. She let the security guards drag her away while she glared at Show sinisterly.

A short while later, the bright eyed paparazzi immediately swarmed over once they realized that there was conflict. A large group of them soon surrounded the escorted duo.

Not even legitimate entertainment news reporters could hold back from taking pictures of Show as the man got dragged away.

Since Show had yet to completely enter the Mainland market, this man was not as famous as he was when he was exposed for the master of time management incident.

However, he was still one of the superstars in Nawait, and the reporters were no stranger to his face.

Upon seeing these reporters, Selena mustered the courage she did not know she had and struggled out of the security guard's hold. She told Show resentfully, "You used me, Show! So I'll destroy your reputation too!"

This was what Stephen and Tiffany proceeded to do. Stephen would not pay any ordinary fan the time of day for this, let alone during the premiere. As the main cast and the director, Stephen had a lot of things to do.

However, Tiffany was different. From Jasper's introduction just now, Stephen understood that it was worth it for him to leave everything else aside to talk to Tiffany.

Tiffany was elated as she continued to ask Stephen more questions.

"Alright, Tiff. Let them get to work, there's always time to talk more after this is all over," Jasper told Tiffany.

Tiffany nodded obediently and gave Stephen an apologetic smile. "Sorry, Steph, I was too excited. You don't need to fuss about me, don't let me hold you back from what you need to do."

'I wouldn't dare.'

Stephen thought with a wry chuckle and waved Tiffany off. "You don't have to call me Steph like other people. I know I'm much older, but you can call me Steve if you'd like."

Stephen glanced at Jasper carefully when he said that. He let out a sigh of relief when he saw that Jasper neither agreed nor disapproved.

Superstars from both Harbor City and the Mainlands all recognized Jasper.

A spectacular situation immediately unfurled. Superstars, each more famous than the last, immediately lined up before Jasper to greet him.

The male actors were still fine since they just greeted him and introduced themselves before they turned and left happily.

However, female stars all seemed moments away from falling directly into Jasper's arms.

Tiffany ground her molars at the sight.

'These vixens are too annoying!'

Tiffany felt the urge to kick all these vixens as she watched these celebrities purposefully pull their tops down and lean toward Jasper coquettishly. Some even leaned in to whisper into Jasper's ear.

'How shameless can you be?'

Jasper did not show distaste in the face of these celebrities, even though most of them had ulterior motives.

Monastery Soccer was indeed made well.

Not to mention that Stephen wanted to use this premiere to prove himself after the establishment of his own company. Thus, the man had poured countless effort into its production.

Coupled with the results and achievements from Harbor City's box office sales, its premiere in the Mainlands was destined to garner a lot of attention.

The premiere event plus the movie lasted for a total of almost five hours.

After it was over, Jasper and Tiffany then followed the flow of people out of the cinema. The latter looked extremely pleased.

"Indeed. You really need mature and experienced actors when it comes to films. Also, Harbor films really are much better than those you see in the Mainlands," Tiffany said genuinely.

Jasper smiled. "You seem interested in developing further in the entertainment industry.

"The three listed companies under your name have been completely liquidated. They no longer belong to Clear Seas, let alone to you. Coupled with the fact that this incident had pitted us against the Law family, quite a number of Clear Seas' shareholders have voiced their doubts to the old master. This puts the old master in an extremely passive role. You should grow to be more mature, Your Highness."

Prince's expression paled further at White Glove's words.

"You're just a servant! Who are you to teach me anything?"

Prince scolded angrily. Staring at the receding night scenery of Waterhoof City, Prince heaved and said harshly, "What kind of human would I f*cking be if I don't take revenge?!"

White Glove shook his head slightly but did not say anything more.

As far as he was concerned, Prince was no different from a useless person.

After the fight between Jasper and Prince settled down, the situation became clear to many powerful people who had been watching on attentively.

Far away in Harbor City, Fabian immediately received the news after having just returned from abroad.

Conrad's brow twitched when he heard Fabian.

Fabian had always been very wary of Conrad.

Therefore, all Conrad knew was that Fabian had a huge trap waiting for Jasper, one that involved many people by Jasper's side.

However, Conrad had no idea what the specifics of this setup were.

Right now, he had gained another important piece of information.

Fabian had his eyes on Jasper's foreign stock market investments since the beginning. There was a huge possibility that this setup was related to these funds.

“Jasper really isn’t an easy opponent to deal with. Otherwise, we wouldn’t have failed in every test we gave him.”

“But as difficult he is to deal with, he’s also easy to get rid of. You just have to find the weakest part of this kind of person, after which you can deal with them in one swift attack.”

The last few times Conrad had fought with Jasper, the former had always planned around the idea of defeating Jasper.

However, Fabian did not. Ever since the man began to plan, he had never thought of destroying Jasper completely on the first attempt. Instead, the man was trying to destroy Jasper’s reputation as the undefeated god of war and plotted around the idea of tearing apart Jasper’s business framework.

This was completely ruining Jasper’s future!

“Don’t worry.”

Fabian had a small smile when he saw how Conrad fell deep into thought.

“Once Jasper’s screwed, everything he has in Southeast Province will belong to you. You have my word.”

Conrad chuckled and replied courteously, “Thank you for taking me in, Mr. Atticus.”
