

At The Top 2291

Chapter 2291-As the two chatted, Celine gradually began to admire Jasper's lofty ambitions.

At this moment, Mr. Murik came back.

"Sir, you are finally back!"

Jasper stood up with a smile and went to greet him at the door. Mr. Murik was flattered.

Mr. Murik took out a key document and said, "Good news, Saul's oil field has been successfully transferred over to Miss Maynard.

"However, since the two parties are not immediate relatives, and Saul did not die nor leave a will.

"Miss Maynard still needs to pay a fee!"

After saying this, Jasper immediately replied, "It's okay, I'll pay. Is there any other news?"

Jasper looked at Mr. Murik, who nodded in return.

"It seems that I can't hide this matter from you."

I was indeed blocked when I submitted the materials, and I failed the first time.

"But for some reason, the headquarters told me later that it had been approved, and they even brought me the contract and documents."

Mr. Murik described the whole process to Jasper vividly.

Jasper also listened with gusto. At the same time, he was looking back at Celine from time to time.

He could tell that it must be because of Celine's family in South America.

If it were not for this relationship, then today's matter would probably be very chaotic.

After Mr. Murik finished speaking, he put the contract and documents on the table.

"Okay, we only need Miss Maynard to sign and stamp the contract. After that, the contract will take effect immediately!"

Jasper looked at Celine. Celine did not waste any time before taking out her pen and official seal from her bag.

After signing and stamping, everyone seemed very satisfied when they saw the brand-new contract.

"I still have things I need to take care of, so if you two think the environment here is suitable, you can stay here for a while before you leave."

Mr. Murik finished speaking politely. Then, he turned and left. Jasper breathed a sigh of relief and took this opportunity to ask.

"Although you said that I shouldn't be so courteous to you, I still want to thank you for your help.

"Now that the problem has been solved, do you intend to stay and manage this oil field?"

Celine smiled and asked, "Do you want me to stay?"

Celine stared at Jasper heatedly. She did not know why she asked such a question.

When Jasper heard this, combined with Celine's appearance, Jasper felt like they were a young couple suffering from relationship problems where the man was being questioned by the woman, but... He and Celine were not lovers.

Jasper did not answer this question directly, and at some point, a cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

"You need to stay for at least a few days. I'll bring you around."

Celine smiled. She understood that Jasper was changing the subject, but what she understood more was how clueless this man, who was all- powerful in the business world, was when it came to relationship issues.

However, such a man fascinated Celine so much...

"Okay, since I'm already here, I have to go around, but you have to protect my safety!" Celine said with a smile. Although Qari was a bit chaotic, it was still a place that once had a splendid culture in Celine's eyes.

Celine finally spoke and Jasper felt relieved.

At the same time, Jasper also got the good news. Saul was no longer in danger and was transferred to the general ward.

Then, Jasper said, "You don't have a place to live in Bashra, do you? I'll take you to meet Mr. Jefferson, the owner of the oil field. He used to have a hotel under his name, so you can stay there."

Life at the Top Chapter 2292-The two went straight to the hotel and bought some fruit baskets on the way.

When Jasper appeared in front of the hospital bed again, he saw Saul reading a newspaper.

"Mr. Jefferson, it seems that you are recovering well!"

Upon hearing Jasper's voice, Saul hastily put down the newspaper in his hand. He said with a big smile on his face, "Thanks to you, I'm completely out of danger now."

"Mr. Jefferson, you are welcome. I am thrilled to be able to hear the good news of your recovery."

Jasper put the fruit and flower basket on the bedside table, but Saul stared at Celine next to him.

"Mr. Laine, who is this? Why haven't I heard you mention her?"

"Is she your..."

When Jasper heard this, he quickly interrupted him.

"Mr. Jefferson, don't talk nonsense.

"This is Celine Miss Maynard. In fact, she is the one who saved your oil field this time!"

Saul was stunned for a moment as if he could not believe his ears.

‘What did you say? She saved my oil field?’

‘That’s right, we saved your oil field. It’s all thanks to Miss Maynard!’

Jasper took advantage of the opportunity to tell Saul about the recent events.

When Saul heard that, he began to treat Celine with incomparable respect.

‘I see. Miss Maynard is really my great benefactor!’

‘Mr. Jefferson, you’re being polite. I only came here for Jasper’s sake. It’s just a small effort from my part.’

Celine’s understatement gave Jasper all the credit again.

‘That’s right, it’s all thanks to Jasper this time. I don’t even know how to repay you.’

Now that I’m still in the hospital, I need to tell you in advance that the oil field will be yours in the future.

‘And it doesn’t stop there. I will leave all my property here to you. I’ve reached that age, so it would be great if you can guarantee me annual dividends enough for me to go back and enjoy my old age.’

Saul sighed with emotion, his voice was full of loneliness and unwillingness.

Naturally, Jasper would not agree so easily. This gift came too suddenly, and it was too much.

‘Mr. Jefferson, are you kidding me? You just escaped danger.’

‘Before you’re discharged, I will take care of all your property for you. However, when you are well, you will surely flourish again and make a comeback!’

Jasper made a good speech, but Saul just nodded with a smile.

‘I know you’re trying to comfort me, but I’ve made up my mind to quit.’

The more I live, the more I figure I should accept my fate.

‘Maybe I’m destined to have such an ending.’

Saul told Jasper that he took a big risk when he dared to come abroad.

At that time, everyone persuaded him not to do this, but Saul made this decision against all opinions.

Aside from believing in his own vision at that time, he also had a reading.

At that time, Saul went to a fortune teller to get someone to read his fortune.

The other party pointed out that Saul’s fortune was abroad, but he would have a hurdle at the age of fifty-eight.

If he could not get through it, he would die. If he did, he would enjoy a new chapter of life.

After Saul said this, he looked at Jasper with a smile.

“My fifty-eighth birthday is three months away.”

It seems that the fortune teller was right. All his words have come true.

Now that I’m out of danger, it’s time to turn my life around.

“Yesterday’s cause is today’s effect. What goes around comes around, and it’s time for me to start a new journey...”

Life at the Top Chapter 2293-Saul opened his heart to Jasper, so Jasper did not force him anymore.

“Okay, but no matter what you think, Mr. Jefferson, I will still tell you that I’m just taking care of and keeping all the properties here under your name.”

Saul also understood Jasper’s stubborn character, so he did not get too entangled with him over this matter.

“Okay, okay, then it’s settled. I will hand over all my properties to you in the future. I’ll go back to Somerland early tomorrow morning, so you have to be careful here!”

Saul told Jasper a lot of things and the two chatted in the ward for several hours. Finally, Jasper stood up, bowed deeply, and took Celine away.

“I didn’t expect so many stories from that man.”

Celine, who was following Jasper, could not help sighing inwardly.

Seeing her melancholy and sentimental look, Jasper smiled and patted her shoulder.

“Don’t be so sad, I’m taking the burden off Mr. Jefferson’s shoulders.

“Even he’s not sad after pouring his heart out, so why are you so sentimental?”

Jasper once again resolved the embarrassing situation with a joke.

Soon, he brought Celine back to Saul’s hotel.

This place was closed for a few days, but when they opened the door and came in, everything inside looked brand new.

“Okay, you will live here temporarily today.”

“Are you satisfied with the furnishing of the room, Miss Maynard?”

Jasper was obviously very confident about this, but he just did not want to mistreat Celine. However, he did not understand what Celine was worried about now was not the hotel’s environment at all.

“Jasper, am I sleeping here tonight?”

Jasper nodded when he saw Celine’s surprised expression.

“Of course. Do you have such an expensive taste that you’re looking down on this palace?”

Celine waved her hand. "Of course not, the inside of this hotel is not bad.

"But if I stay here tonight, won't it mean I'll be enjoying all this alone?"

"What's wrong with that? How nice would that be? No one will bother you here in such a big hotel."

Obviously, Celine did not like this. "No, I will be very scared.

"Why don't you stay here too? There are so many empty rooms anyway.

"Just live next door to me."

Jasper could only nod when he saw Celine's insistence.

"I understand. Don't worry, I'll stay."

Jasper thought about it carefully. Anyone would be scared to live alone in such a big hotel in Qari.

Celine was very happy when Jasper agreed.

Now, Celine had become Jasper's follower. She would follow him wherever he went.

Jasper also understood that if Celine did not come along with him, she would be all alone here.

Soon, Jasper took Celine back to his oil field and immediately started to arrange work.

He could ignore the rest, but now that the official documents were issued, getting both fields operational as soon as possible became Jasper's top priority.

"Strange, why do I feel that there is a lack of manpower?"

Jasper muttered to himself in front of Julian, who quickly responded.

"Of course! There's no news from that boy Brock at all."

Jasper was reminded and he quickly slapped his forehead.

"Oh, my brain is so useless. How did I forget about that fool?"

"He only needed to go to the capital Bardot to help me test the reagents, so it's unlikely that he'd take so long, right?"

Life at the Top Chapter 2294-Jasper counted with his fingers. Brock had been gone for three days at least.

Even if there were no planes in Bashra when Brock left, he should have already arrived by now. Why was there no news about Brock yet?

Jasper, who was a little worried, quickly contacted Brock.

The call went through and soon Brock's rough voice could be heard.

"Hello, Mr. Laine."

"You still remember how to answer the phone, huh? It's been three days!

“What’s going on? Have you encountered any difficulties!”

Brock’s expression turned pale, but he finally confessed to Jasper. It turned out that Brock was not in trouble himself, but his relatives were.

Brock was not very familiar with the capital, Bardot, and he was just an outsider.

Therefore, he only knew as much as Jullian.

If you asked Brock where to buy weapons in the capital Bardot, he would probably know the answer.

On the contrary, if you asked Brock to find a research institute with relatively high standards to help with the appraisal, he would be stumped.

Fortunately, Brock had an uncle in Bardot, the capital, who also owned a hotel.

Brock immediately went to his uncle and received a lot of hospitality.

However, it was a pity that the good times did not last long, and Brock found something was wrong when he woke up the next Day.

His suitcase was gone and all the people at the front desk of the hotel were different. Moreover, his uncle had also disappeared!

Brock woke up instantly because the most important thing in the luggage was the sample that Jasper managed to get.

If that thing was lost, then Brock would not be able to explain himself when he went back.

That was also why Brock did not take the initiative to contact Jasper until now.

Brock was still looking for his uncle and at the same time, he was also looking for the sample.

“You don’t have to worry too much about losing the sample. Bashra is not very peaceful after you left.”

“I can get another sample so you better find a research center as soon as possible.”

“Come back after you’re done and we’ll talk about the rest later.”

Jasper understood what Brock had in his mind.

It was because if Jasper did not remind him, Brock would not only need to find the sample, but he also needed to find his uncle.

He wanted to know what happened to his uncle.

However, Jasper’s words reminded him that he was still on a mission.

He needed to prioritize the mission, so Brock made the promise.

“Don’t worry, Mr. Laine. I will complete the mission as soon as I get your sample.”

Jasper never doubted Brock’s loyalty. He knew that once he laid out the direction for him, Brock would surely complete the mission. Then, Jasper looked at Celine next to him apologetically.

“I’m sorry, our bodyguard is still busy. I guess your travels can only wait till tomorrow.”

Celine was not an unreasonable and spoiled woman, so she nodded to indicate that she understood.

“It’s fine. I just got here so it’s fine if we go tomorrow.”

Jasper felt like he had no manpower in Qari.

After he settled down here, he wanted to get those guys in Somerland to come to help him. He had limited energy by himself.

Life at the Top Chapter 2295-While Jasper was in full swing, Bella who fled back was furious.

“Yves, is this how a deputy leader should act?”

“They are so obviously luring US away and you fell for it so easily?”

“Did I hire you for nothing?”

Yves did not dare to continue provoking Bella as he was looking at her furious face.

However, Bella did not think about what she just said.

When the incident happened, it was decided between him and Bella to arrange for him to lead a group of people to go all the way to Najef.

Now, according to Bella, the responsibility for these things should all be attributed to Yves.

Of course, Yves would not accept the blame, so he changed the subject.

“Miss Bella, please calm down. I am indeed to blame for this matter. I underestimated the enemy.”

“It’s mostly Jasper’s fault though.”

“If this guy wasn’t so cunning, how would we get fooled?”

Miss Bella snorted coldly after hearing what Yves said.

‘You don’t need to remind me about this. Of course, I’m going to settle accounts with that guy!’

“But now the question is, how should we settle the accounts? We have lost the oil field completely!”

“We missed this great opportunity!”

The first time Mr. Murik encountered difficulties, it was Bella who gave the order after receiving the news. She thought she could use her status as the eldest daughter of the Rothschild family to suppress him.

However, to Bella’s surprise, the headquarters of the Petroleum Chamber of Commerce ended up rejecting Bella’s opinion.

The reason they gave was that they did not want to offend either Bella or the person who submitted the application.

Therefore, this matter should go through the normal procedure and no one should interfere no matter what the result would be.

Once they followed the normal procedure, Celine from the Maynard family in South America was naturally qualified to take over this oil field.

Bella recalled what had happened and she felt that she was almost defeated.

Bella had been so high-spirited when she set off. She had already regarded Qari as Jasper's grave in her heart.

Bella vowed to let Jasper fail in this country and never recover from it. Even so, it seemed now that she was the one failing miserably.

Yves hurried on to apologize.

"I'm sorry, Miss Bella, but we should let go of the past and look forward.

"I believe as long as this Jasper guy is in Bashra, we still have a chance.

"We haven't completely lost yet!"

Yves reminded Bella as she clearly seemed blinded with rage.

Bella's visit this time was originally a ballon d'essai by the Rothschilds. As for how to get rid of Jasper, it was a personal grudge between Bella and him.

At the end of the day, Bella still had to focus on the overall situation.

Now, they would rely on secretly manipulating the headquarters of the Petroleum Chamber of Commerce to control the pass rate of the Bashra oil field through false testing standards.

This was tried and tested.

In just a few days, Bella had directly or indirectly controlled nearly one-third of the oil fields.

As long as this plan continued, Bella would surely occupy more oil fields.

Once this number exceeded half, Bella would be able to hold the entire Bashra Petroleum Chamber of Commerce in her hands!

Although Jasper saw through their plan and made Bella suffer a lot of disadvantages, he was just one of several oil traders in Bashra.

Bella also thought of this, and her mood naturally improved a lot.

"That's right. Anyway, there will be opportunities in the future.

"As for those two oil fields, what's the harm of letting Jasper keep them for the time being?

"It is estimated that in less than a month, I will be able to obtain the actual control of the Bashra Petroleum Chamber of Commerce!

"When the time comes, everyone will have to hand over their oil field as long as I say the word."

Life at the Top Chapter 2296-Bella gave Yves an order to continue to pay close attention to Jasper's movements. It would be better to widen the net and turn their attention to the people around Jasper.

As long as they could gain advantages from these aspects, it would not be so unacceptable.

Yves nodded and immediately went to implement it.

Yves would not have known if he did not look into it. However, after some careful investigation, Yves got a lot of information.

First of all, Yves immediately found out that Jasper had arranged for Brock to go to the capital Bardot even before Saul started the riot.

Secondly, Yves also learned that Saul handed over all his property to Jasper.

Based on this information, Bella also analyzed Jasper's next move. "I think the most important thing for Jasper next is to ensure that the two oil fields and other industries resume production one after another.

"Because once those things get back to normal, Jasper will gain a strong foothold in Bashra."

Yves also thought so, and then he also gave another important piece of information.

"It is said that this time, there is a woman named Celine Maynard beside Jasper.

"The woman seems to be the one who helped Jasper resolve this crisis." When Bella heard this, hatred immediately surged in her heart like a tide.

"It's her. I want to see how capable she is!

"Remember what I just said? From now on, continue to arrange for more people to keep an eye on this woman!

"I want to know everything about her, even the hair she loses in one day!"

It had to be said that no one could extinguish the jealousy between women once it was ignited.

Yves immediately complied, and at the same time, he secretly complained in his heart. It was so late at night and he was so exhausted from doing so much.

Finally, Bella calmed down and waved her hand to let Yves leave.

Only then was Yves relieved, and after leaving Bella's room, he quickly found a place in Bashra to relax.

After relaxing, Yves returned to the headquarters of Sky Wolves Mercenaries in the middle of the night.

However, when he got back, Yves just ran into Captain Viktor.

The other party seemed to be in a hurry as if he had something to do.

Yves did not want to be nosey, so he just saluted and planned to leave.

Who knew, Captain Viktor stopped him.

"Yves, wait a minute."

'What's the matter, Captain?'

"Recently, you and Bella seem to have gotten in a lot of trouble in Bashra, right?"

"I hope you can maintain the peace nowadays. It's not good for US if this continues."

If Captain Viktor did not mention it, Yves would not think of it.

When he thought about it now, he was the most aggrieved party. So, Yves informed Viktor of his actions these days.

"In short, Miss Bella personally directed this."

"Captain, I really don't understand, do we have to obey her orders?"

After listening to Yves' complaint, Captain Viktor felt a surge of emotion in his heart.

"I know you have suffered a lot of grievances recently, but you have to handle this matter tactfully."

"As for Miss Bella's order, there is no other way. You can only obey."

"We are not afraid, but instead, this is profitable. We must get a behemoth like the Rothschilds to owe US a favor!"

"Do you get me?"

Life at the Top Chapter 2297-Yves understood Captain Viktor's plan, and he also knew that if this group wanted to grow and develop, it also needed powerful world-class capital behind it.

"I understand, Captain. Since you trust me so much, then I will endure to the end."

As soon as Yves finished speaking, Captain Viktor waved his hand.

"There's no need to get things so awkward."

"It'll be fine as long as you take her out to eat, drink, and have fun every day so that she can't remember she still has important business."

"Believe me, after we get the support of the Rothschilds, we will all enjoy the benefits."

"No problem!" Yves assured.

After Jasper got up the next day, he was busy again.

Jasper sent Saul away first and watched him get on the plane.

Immediately afterward, Jasper arranged for someone to mail the excess samples collected to Brock. He also had to take care of the rest of the things, including resuming the business of the hotels and restaurants.

After finishing his work, Jasper looked up and saw that it was already afternoon.

"It's really hard to be a boss here at Qari."

Jasper sighed. He had already freed up his time in the afternoon and assigned the work to others.

Meanwhile, Jasper had to fulfill some responsibilities, which was taking Celine around.

“Tell me, where do you want to go?”

“I’ll take you anywhere as long as it’s within Bashra.”

Jasper seemed very sincere at first, but he did not expect Celine to give him a challenging question the moment she saw her.

“Only within Bashra?”

After hearing that, Jasper was slightly taken aback and then asked, “Then do you have any other suggestions?”

After Jasper finished speaking, Celine took out her computer and handed it over.

Her eyes were full of anticipation and Jasper understood after seeing it.

Celine wanted to experience the customs of the Eastern Central Region.

However, she did not want to stay in the city. Instead, she wanted to visit some ancient villages and cities.

Jasper knew these places, and they had been developed into tourist attractions by people from all over Qari.

However, things were a little turbulent right now, so a lot of them were closed.

“Well, it’s not every day that you come here, so let’s go!”

Jasper agreed and Celine cheered for a while.

Then, Jasper hurried to find Julian.

“Julian, I’m going to take Celine to the surrounding ruins of the ancient city. Can you guarantee our safety?”

Julian was unambiguous when he heard this, and then he began to analyze it carefully.

“Jasper, I’m pretty confident if it’s just to guard against local robbers.

“But if other forces are involved, it’s hard to say.”

Jasper understood that Julian was talking about Bella or other forces with ill intentions.

Jasper understood and nodded seriously.

“However, as long as our whereabouts are hidden well enough, there will be no problem. After all, Qari is not small, and because of the particularity of its region, the chances of finding two people who are deliberately hiding their whereabouts to not be in the public eye are very small.

“At the same time, the places we’re going are also great for anti-tracking. As long as someone follows or takes action against US, we can detect it in advance.”

Julian's words also gave Jasper confidence. After that, he asked Julian to secretly mobilize another group of people before nodding and saying, "Let's not waste any time. Let's go."

Life at the Top Chapter 2298-Frank immediately notified Celine, who had already packed her luggage. Apparently, she was already ready.

"Get in the car, Frank will now take you on a day trip to Qari!" Frank said with a smile.

"Let's go!" Celine made a peace sign.

Then, in a burst of joy, Julian drove away from Bashra. Meanwhile, above the city gate, a man with sunglasses watched them leave.

"Captain Yves, I saw Frank leave Bashra with my own eyes..."

"What? How many people are there?"

"Only three!"

Upon hearing this vital information, deputy leader Yves got restless. He immediately notified Bella, who was also surprised.

"It seems that after this guy took down the two oil fields, he completely relaxed. In that case, we won't fall again, right?"

When Yves heard this, the corners of his mouth rose slightly. "Don't worry, Miss Bella. I will definitely let them have the time of their lives."

After Yves gritted his teeth and said those words, Bella looked forward to it again.

"Very well, then I will leave this matter to you. Don't make any mistakes, or you can just get lost!" Bella's face was as cold as ice, which showed that she had given Yves an ultimatum.

Yves nodded and immediately contacted the owner of a hotel.

"I need you to provide your best service to three guests. Their route happened to pass by your hotel. How can you make sure they stay in your hotel?"

Hotel owner Osdin said proudly, "Don't worry, Captain Yves. Even though my hotel is not the best in the city, it's the closest to the ruins of the Hanging Gardens. They will surely choose our hotel if they're here for leisure... When the time comes, we'll pull some tricks, and they will surely fall for it."

Yves discussed carefully with the hotel owner Osdin and soon finalized the plan.

"Alright. It seems that I have found the right person this time. No matter what, you must take those three people into the hotel under your name. I'll figure out the rest, and I'll be there as soon as possible!"

After hanging up the phone, Yves drove straight to his destination.

Julian drove for nearly two hours and arrived in another urban area before dark.

"It's getting dark now, so let's find a place to rest first."

Celine, who was very excited along the way, also nodded this time. She did not dare to take the risk of going out at night.

“Is there any good place to go?”

Frank looked at Julian, and Julian scratched his head when he heard this.

He replied, “Um... I’ve actually never been here before. But before we set off, I contacted someone, so Frank, please wait in the car for a while...”

After speaking, Julian got out of the car and left.

A few minutes later, Julian returned to the car, and Frank asked, “How is it? Any news?”

“Yes, Frank. A Somerland tour guide said he could introduce us to a hotel that is very close to the ruins of the Hanging Gardens.

As soon as Julian said that, Celine was satisfied. “Great, it will be convenient for US to go there tomorrow.”

Frank also thought it was good.

Therefore, he nodded and said, “Then let’s go...”

The group immediately went to the destination and soon met the Somerland tour guide.

“Good evening, lady and gentlemen. I am Milo Woods, the tour guide.”

Frank saw an energetic-looking young man with a crew cut approaching him. The other party also seemed very enthusiastic and hurried to help with the luggage.

Life at the Top Chapter 2299-Is our accommodation far away?” Bjorne asked.

“It’s not far, it’s just at the corner ahead, but there’s no parking space because it’s facing the street.

“The boss is very nice though, I know him very well,” Milo said.

Only then did Bjorne understand why Abraham parked his car on the side of the road.

The crowd followed Milo through a small street, and sure enough, they turned a corner and arrived at the hotel.

“It’s here. Come in and have a look!” Milo pushed open the door and invited everyone in.

Bjorne walked in and looked around. It really was decorated with the most traditional Eastern Central Region style.

The furnishings and decoration here made Celine very novel and satisfied.

“Go and check in first, and you can look at it as long as you want after you do that.”

Bjorne smiled, and Celine quickly stuck out her tongue when she came back to her senses. They also soon meet Osdin, the hotel owner.

The other party had a beard unique to the Eastern Central Region and was wearing a traditional costume. When he saw Bjorne and others, he immediately greeted them with a smile.

“Welcome, distinguished guests, are you satisfied with my hotel?”

Bjorne smiled slightly at this moment.

Then, he nodded and said, “We’re quite satisfied for now, but we’ll know more after staying the night.”

“Understand. Then I hope you can have a good dream at night. The butler will help you arrange everything.”

The owner, Osdin, waved and soon, a smiling butler appeared.

Bjorne understood at a glance that the boss was very hands-off when it came to managing his hotel, but this did not matter to Bjorne as long as his living environment was suitable.

Soon, everyone went to a suite under the arrangement of the housekeeper. This was specifically requested by Abraham, for safety’s sake.

There were a total of three rooms in the suite. They were all separated by a living room and the three would have separate rooms.

Celine was very satisfied with such an environment, and everyone fell asleep without talking too much.

After they fell asleep, the hotel owner Osdin immediately called Yves to report the situation.

“Captain Yves, I have already received him, and he is currently staying in my hotel. What should we do next?”

Yves was very satisfied when he heard this. Therefore, he nodded with a smile.

“Osdin, I never have to worry if you’re the one helping me. Don’t alarm them tonight, make a good impression on them. But you have to keep the video of them staying in the hotel or something like that for me in case I need it.”

Hotel owner Osdin was confused but nodded in agreement. “No problem, I can leave you the surveillance video of any day as long as you ask for it...”

About an hour later, Yves drove to the destination.

The owner of the hotel Osdin received him and pointed to the room upstairs.

“They’re staying in that room. I know, let them sleep well tonight. As long as we make sure they stay here, I will have a chance anytime.”

Yves still had a half-smile on his face which made Osdin’s scalp tingle. However, this was not the first time he was dealing with Yves, so obviously he was more or less used to it.

“Then I’ll arrange a deluxe room for you first. Come to me if you need anything!”

Yves nodded, and soon he was accommodated in a deluxe single room upstairs. The floor he lived in was one floor higher than that of Bjorne and others.

This was also to ensure that Yves could pay attention to the time when Bjorne and others travelled whenever he wanted to.

At the same time, Bjorne and others probably would not go to the next floor, so they would not notice Yves unless one of them wandered onto the wrong floor.

Life at the Top Chapter 2300-After entering the room and closing the door, Yves reported the situation to Anne.

“Miss Anne, Mozart and others are living downstairs from me now.”

“Really? Then why don’t you hurry up and finish this tonight? What are you thinking?”

“Relax, Miss Anne, there is a master among them, and they will definitely not lower their vigilance tonight.” Yves reminded Anne.

“Then how long are you going to wait?” Anne asked.

“Naturally, I have to wait until Mozart and the others completely let down their guard. Moreover, I have to wipe any suspicions surrounding myself and find a scapegoat.

“I think... Osdin, the owner of the hotel, is good. What do you think, Miss Anne?”

Anne did not know the owner of this hotel, so she was just curious.

“I don’t care, but isn’t this Osdin person your friend? Are you willing to sacrifice him like this?”

Yves said slowly, “Under normal circumstances, I’d be really reluctant, but this guy has always had his own ideas. He actually tried to blackmail me in an operation a few months ago. Even though he changed his mind later, I think I can’t let this kind of person stick around, which is why I choose this place...”

“I will complete the task and kill two birds with one stone! This will be my surprise for you, Miss Anne!”

Upon hearing Yves’ confident words, Anne was silent for a few seconds, then, she said, “Okay, then I’ll leave this to you.”

After Yves put down the phone, he planned to fall asleep early. However, he tossed and turned in bed and could not fall asleep.

“Weird, I’ve never been unable to fall asleep before!” Yves muttered to himself.

However, since he could not fall asleep, he rolled over and got out of bed.

When Yves came downstairs, he happened to run into an attendant with a hurried expression.

The other party ran into him and almost cried out in fright.

“Did you see a ghost? Why are you yelling?” The other party lowered his head quickly and apologized.

“I’m sorry. I... I’m just scared to be working the night shift... May I know why you’re out here so late?”

Yves wanted to find something to eat, but he changed his mind after he ran into the attendant.

“Find some food for me. I don’t want to go by myself. Remember to send it to my room.”

“Of course!”

After Yves instructed, the attendant ran downstairs. However, he did not go to the kitchen immediately. Instead, he went to his boss Osdin.

“Boss, I just met that guest. He asked me to make something for him to eat...”

Osdin looked off-colored, and he nodded forcefully. “Let me handle this. Just wait here.”

“Okay, Boss.”

Osdin went to the kitchen himself and soon, he came back with a steak.

“Go on... He will sleep after he eats this.”

The attendant carefully sent the steak upstairs and Yves thought it tasted amazing. After he wolfed it down, he felt tired.

When Yves woke up, he noticed something was wrong when he saw the sun outside.

“How did this happen? It’s 2 PM!”

Yves jumped out of bed and felt remorseful about oversleeping and wasting time. Thus, Yves quickly ran to Osdin.

“Hey, where are Mozart and his gang?”