

At The Top 34

Life at The Top

Chapter 34

After Jasper exposed Dawson's shortcomings, the smile on Dawson's face gradually dissipated. His domineering demeanor made his anger evident at once.

"Young man, what are you implying? Are you trying to teach me a lesson?" Dawson asked in a cold voice.

"I'm not trying to teach you a lesson, Uncle Schuler. I just want to give you a reminder," Jasper said without backing off.

"You're really something else!"

Dawson was so enraged that he laughed out loud. "I, Dawson Schuler, have gone through thick and thin while working for the past few decades. I've walked through more paths than you have. What makes you think you have the right to give me a reminder?" he questioned.

"Schuler Group is facing an imminent crisis. The company is already at the end of the cliff. One wrong step and the entire company will go bankrupt. You should know better than an outsider like me, Mr. Schuler."

Jasper told him everything at once. He even changed the way he addressed Dawson.

Upon hearing what he said, shock and anger streaked across Dawson's face.

Although Schuler Group was really in a dire situation, only a few higher-ups from the company knew about it.

He had not even told Wendy, his own daughter, much about it.

higher-ups who knew about it were close associates of his who had been by his side

never betray

this young supermarket chain as it holds the majority of the cash flow. However, someone has tricked Mr. Schuler by telling him that he financial circle. "The person who tricked you even asked you to single out the property rights to the group's chain supermarket assets. He told you you earn a fortune in the financial market. However, the investment failed, resulting loan, it would not pass the bank's evaluation because the property rights of the supplier will ask Schuler Group for payment once they know about it. Meanwhile, Schuler, am I wrong?" Jasper asked while staring

Dawson's face darkened expression on her father's face, she was pale in shock. "Father, is Jasp telling the truth?!" she asked you know about it? These are all confidential information that's kept after he committed trap used the listing of the company as bait to trick Dawson into investing his funds into core assets of Schuler Group, even managing to claim dozens of chain supermarkets all over the province. He was the