

At The Top 39

Chapter 39

Zayden's expression tethered between gloomy and sunny when he hung up the phone.

He felt slightly frantic.

Having plotted for over two years, success was right before his eyes. Yet if anything were to happen during such a crucial time, forget about not getting any benefits, but his family would also surely doubt his ability.

"Motherf*cker. It's got to be that b*stard..."

Jasper's appearance flashed through his mind and Zayden punched his fist onto the washbasin.

"Then again, so what if you've found out? My success is just a moment away and Schuler Group will be mine in no time. And you, Wendy... All you need to do is be my woman, and I can perhaps let you live. Don't you dare try to die!"

After returning from the bathroom, Zayden was no longer in the mood to eat so he made up an excuse to leave.

Dawson did not ask him to stay and let him go as he wished.

Dawson frowned as he watched Zayden drive away from the field.

"He's growing impatient. There's no doubt that he'll try and speed up the transferral of assets, but that's not something I can deal with. The money I've already taken out for investment... Sigh."

up, "I can deal

looked at Jasper

there. How are you going to long as it's to do with money, it's

it comes

way to get that money back. The company's cash flow is tight and about to break right now. Suppliers

Dawson was concerned, Jasper had already proven his claim that this

Jasper going to get the

him

'That's unrealistic.'

blinded at such an age, but I've already planned it out. Should we get to the point, I'll leave the both of don't think I managed to be as outstanding when I was

Dad?" Wendy was nervous to Dawson's pessimism and embarrassed at how he had just given since you were a child, and here you are bringing him before me. How could I be Dawson's tone was grim.