Chapter 1001

It seems that she doesn't know what she should do so far.

"Let's go back first and discuss it with Dahan. Maybe there will be some way to solve this problem."

Gu Shaoyang comforted him, and then she and Xue Nu moved towards the fortress and stuck out their tongues faster and faster. Dahan, who had been lying on the bed in the fortress, quietly waiting for Gu Shaoyang and Xue Nu, was in his heart all the time. Worried about the two of them.

I was afraid that they would be attacked by the snow beasts in the cave, and that something would happen to them.

Xue Nu and Gu Shaoyang had been gone for several days, and there was no news about the two of them in the past few days. Han lies in bed all day long, and when he is asleep, he stares blankly at the sky in a daze.

Because he is so bored! So when he has nothing to do, it is easy for him to think about all kinds of things, and sadness can easily come to him.

Also. Because he was too worried, he had a strong desire to get up from the bed and walk outside the door to check if they had come back.

In this way, Dahan held on to his body, resisting the pain, and staggered out of the bed. After getting up, Dahan just relied on his own perseverance and walked to the door.

His hands were holding on to the door frame to prevent him from falling, but because he hadn't gotten up and walked for too long, he hadn't been active for too long!

So he Not long after he stood up and stood at the door, he couldn't hold himself up and fell straight down. When Xue Nu and Young Master Gu came back, they saw Dahan lying on the ground.

"Dahan!"

"Brother Feng!"

Xue Nu and Gu Shaoyang walked over chatting and laughing along the way. Xue Nu told Gu Shaoyang a lot of good memories between her and Dahan.

Xue Nu recalled every good thing she had with Da Han, so she felt more comfortable while walking. Speeding up.

She originally thought that when she saw Dahan again, his health would definitely be much better, but she didn't expect that what they saw was Dahan lying on the ground.

But when Gu Shaoyang saw Dahan lying on the ground, he immediately Jiang checked into bed and immediately started treatment.

Finally, after Gu Shaoyang's unremitting efforts, he finally cleaned up all Dahan's wounds and fed him pills before relaxing.

"Don't worry, he's fine. He was probably too worried about us, so he got up from the bed and wanted to go to the door to see if we were back."

"The wounds on his body have not cracked. All of them are almost healed, and some have scabs. I believe they will be completely healed in a short time."

Gu Shaoyang looked at Xue Nu holding Dahan's hand tightly, his eyes full of nervousness. After he told Xue Nu about Dahan's true situation, her frown relaxed slightly. He looked at her lying quietly on the bed. Dahan with his eyes closed, Xue Nu suddenly thought of something, then turned around and looked at Gu Shaoyang and said

"Brother Gu, can I trouble you with something?"

Xue Nu stood up and pulled Gu Shaoyang out of the room, but when she was pulled by Xue Nu, she suddenly asked. Gu Shaoyang was a little confused: Why don't you say it in the room instead of coming out? Is there something important?

Thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang was pulled out by Xue Nu. Inside the room, and after arriving outside the door, Xue Nu came and kept holding Gu Shaoyang's hand and said

"I want to ask Brother Gu to go down the mountain now and invite Dahan's grandpa up the mountain. Don't worry about grandpa's body being unable to bear it. Eat this for him, and grandpa will not be afraid of the coldness on the mountain."

The Snow Girl said as she took out a snow lotus from her arms. Judging from its shape, this snow lotus should be the best of the best! It is a very good tonic for the old man.

"But even if the old man is not afraid of the coldness on the mountain, the long way up the mountain is too long for him!"

Gu Shaoyang took the snow lotus from Xue Nu's hand and said very worriedly, and Xue Nu seemed to have a solution to this problem.

"You take this and use it to instantly travel back to any place in the snowy mountains. But my spell can only be used once by you, so you have to go down the mountain yourself and send grandpa up."

Xue Nu said and directly pulled off a piece of her own hair and handed it to Gu Shaoyang. After she pulled off a piece of hair, Xue Nu's complexion deteriorated at a speed visible to the naked eye.

"Eh! you!"

Seeing Xue Nu's face look so bad, Gu Shaoyang immediately wanted to cast a spell to transfer her spiritual power, but Xue Nu held out her hand to stop her.

"No! no! Brother Gu! You will still need to use your spiritual power to activate it to take you to any place. If you give me your spiritual power now, grandpa will not be able to come up by then."

"So you might as well keep it! I can recover on my own by resting in the snowy mountains for a while."

Xue Nu said with strong support, and then rushed Gu Shaoyang outside. She quickly entered the room to meditate and practice, so that Gu Shaoyang, who still wanted to say something more, could only swallow his words. In this way, Gu Shaoyang took the The snow girl gave her hair and snow lotus, and she ate another snow worm and set off down the mountain at an unprecedented speed.

Chapter 1002

Whenever Gu Shaoyang felt that his speed was not that fast, he took a mouthful of soup made from snow worms, but soon the soup bottomed out.

It was also very laborious to make the soup again, so Gu Shaoyang simply stopped making the soup, and instead grabbed a snow worm and threw it into his mouth.

He bit the snowworm into pieces and ate it. After doing this once, Gu Shaoyang found that eating snowworms directly was more effective than boiling them into soup.

So Gu Shaoyang never made soup again. Every time he felt his speed was slow, he would throw a snowworm into his mouth like a snack, and his speed would quickly increase.

Just watching the snow bug increase its speed, Gu Shaoyang reached the foot of the mountain in only two days.

Because Gu Shaoyang went down the mountain to the sparsely populated east side, not many people found him, and those people didn't show much surprise at his appearance.

Because Gu Shaoyang had been busy on the road, his hair and clothes were messy, and there were some blood stains on the corners of his mouth from eating snowworms.

Therefore, his appearance seemed to the people at the bottom of the mountain that he had been treated badly on the mountain, and it was very likely that he came down like some other people crazy.

The people at the foot of the mountain were worried that the crazy Gu Shaoyang would hurt them, so they all stayed away. But at this time, only one was willing to get close to him - the old man.

"child! Are you OK! Do you want a sip of water?"The old man looked at Gu Shaoyang very distressedly, and he didn't seem to recognize him. Seeing that the old man didn't recognize him, and the people around him were avoiding him, Gu Shaoyang took advantage of the situation and pretended to be the madman they thought he was, doing crazy things. The movement scared them away.

When the people around him saw Gu Shaoyang's appearance, they all hid far away, and then only the old man was left in the crowd chasing Gu Shaoyang.

"child! Don't do this! Don't do this!"

After Gu Shaoyang drove away everyone around him, he turned into a normal person and walked to the old man's side.

"Old man, don't you recognize me?" After returning to normal, Gu Shaoyang's voice became much more normal. When he heard the familiar but unmistakable voice, the old man was very confused.

"I? Who are you?" Gu Shaoyang took the old man back to his small house, then closed the door and cast a layer of enchantment to ensure that no one would spy on their conversation.

Then Gu Shaoyang washed up and appeared in front of the old man with his true appearance restored. But the old man only remembered after seeing his appearance

"It turns out to be you! Young man, have you seen my grandson?"

After knowing Gu Shaoyang's identity, the old man immediately asked anxiously and expectantly, and Gu Shaoyang didn't hide anything when he saw the old man's appearance. He immediately nodded heavily at the old man. After receiving Gu Shaoyang's affirmative answer, the old man almost didn't mention it in one breath. I saw him staring at Gu Shaoyang with big eyes, his mouth opened and closed wide.

But not a single word was pronounced. Seeing the old man like this, Gu Shaoyang was afraid that he had just learned the news about his grandson and was too excited. Unexpected, so he quickly comforted

"Master, don't be anxious! Only if you calm down can I talk to you properly! You don't even dare to say this!"

Gu Shaoyang said semi-threateningly.

Because if he didn't do this, the old man wouldn't calm down and wouldn't listen to him properly, so he had to take this step.

Sure enough, the old man calmed down immediately after hearing Gu Shaoyang's words. , then pulled Gu Shaoyang to sit on a chair, poured him another cup of tea, and put another cup of tea for himself.

Then he nodded heavily towards Gu Shaoyang:"Don't worry, young man! I'm not excited, please speak slowly!"

After doing all this, the old man said slowly to Gu Shaoyang, and Gu Shaoyang looked at the old man like this and was slowly thinking about whether he should tell him about Dahan's injury on the snow mountain.

After thinking for a long time, Gu Shaoyang decided not to tell the old man yet, but to tell the old man the good news about Dahan first, so that he could rest assured, and then tell the old man when he got to the snow mountain. In this way, even if the old man was anxious, he would be able to see Dahan right away, and he would be able to Seeing Dahan's condition.

If the old man is told the bad news about Dahan now, then the old man may start to worry now, and going up the mountain may not go smoothly.

Therefore, after comparing before and after, Gu Shaoyang put Dahan on the snow mountain. He told the old man all the news, but when the old man asked Dahan why he didn't come down the mountain, Gu Shaoyang was speechless.

"Since you said that Dahan lived a good life on the snow mountain, why didn't he come down? Have you forgotten that he has a grandfather at the foot of the mountain?"

The old man looked at Gu Shaoyang a little hurt and said, his tone full of sadness, and Gu Shaoyang saw the old man's depressed expression.

Chapter 1003

My mind was running rapidly, and then I suddenly thought of a person - Snow Girl!

"Old man! Where did you want to go? How could Dahan possibly forget you!" Gu Shaoyang directly denied the old man's own conjecture.

"Then why didn't he come down? Or is it that you actually didn't see Dahan at all when you went to the snow mountain, and then you lied to me just to comfort me?"

The old man has been guarding at the foot of the mountain for so many years, and the expectations in his heart have turned into nothing, and the disappointments have made his heart numb.

But this time Gu Shaoyang told him with great certainty, but when he thought about it carefully, he realized He immediately began to doubt the authenticity of what Gu Shaoyang said.

After all, he had experienced too many disappointments and pranks.

"Old man, don't you still believe me? I told you! Dahan is still alive! And he's still alive and well! very good! He hasn't forgotten you either! But because he has something to do on the mountain, he specifically asked me to pick you up!"

Gu Xiangyang was afraid that the old man wouldn't believe it, so he could only re-explain again, and his tone was very sure.

"You said, Dahan asked you to pick me up?"

When the old man heard what Master Gu said, he immediately stood up from his chair and grabbed his hand tightly. His body was trembling a little, as if he couldn't believe it.

"right! Dahan asked me to pick you up! Because he is getting married on the mountain! Need to meet the parents! The reason why I haven't gone down the mountain before is because Dahan is looking for your granddaughter-in-law up there!"

Gu Shaoyang told the old man about the existence of Snow Girl, and the old man couldn't hide the smile on his face after hearing Gu Shaoyang's explanation.

"Looking for a wife! Looking for a wife! Good luck finding a wife! Good luck finding a wife! Ha ha ha ha....."

The old man laughed loudly while chanting in his mouth. When Gu Shaoyang saw that the old man was so happy, he also became happy too.

"Walk! Walk! We'll leave right away!"

The old man was very excited when he heard that he was going to go up the mountain. He immediately started to pack his things and prepare to go up the mountain. However, Gu Shaoyang was very tired due to the hard work of traveling. He lay on the table and fell asleep while the old man was packing.

After the old man finished packing his things, he was ready. When he was about to leave, he saw that Gu Shaoyang was already asleep, so the old man put back the things he was carrying.

Then he sat quietly next to Gu Shaoyang and waited for him to wake up.

Gu Shaoyang lay on the table and fell asleep. It passed, and he didn't wake up until late at night, and the old man sat next to him and kept staring at him.

When Gu Shaoyang was sleeping, the old man didn't move a step, as if he was afraid that Gu Shaoyang would escape while he wasn't paying attention..Finally, after Gu Shaoyang woke up, the old man felt relieved.

"Old man, what are you doing?"Gu Shaoyang was still a little blurry when he woke up, and he only saw the old man's enlarged and kind face appearing in front of him.

"It's nothing, I just want to see you sleeping soundly. I'm just here watching you."

After hearing the old man's words, Gu Shaoyang realized that he had actually slept! But the old man looked at him as if he was looking at Dahan through him.

Gu Shaoyang got up from the chair as he spoke, and then asked the old man to bring the things with him, but the old man only took a crutch for the convenience of movement.

"You don't need to bring crutches, we can go up very quickly. You can grab some practical things that you want to bring to Dahan and Dahan's wife."

Gu Shaoyang took out Xue Nu's hair from his arms, and then discovered that Xuelian had not been given to the old man, so he went to the old man's room to look for him. After entering the old man's room,

Gu Shaoyang found that the old man had already packed all the things he wanted to bring up the mountain. I turned the room over and the originally tidy room became messy.

"I searched all over, but it was inconvenient to go up the mountain and carrying too much was a burden."

Gu Shaoyang saw that the old man was carrying a large bag of money, jewelry, and a lot of food in his hand. It looked like he had accumulated it over the years.

When he saw these things, Gu Shaoyang's eyes couldn't help but turn red:"Old man , take these with you."

Gu Shaoyang knew that these were the old man's wishes, and then he opened his space ring and put all the old man's things in.

"Enough is enough! It's not easy to bring so many things up there, and it's not like we can stay there for long."

The old man watched Gu Shaoyang keep stuffing things into the space ring and couldn't help but remind him, but Gu Shaoyang waved his hand at the old man and said

"This is not necessarily the case, maybe you will live on a snowy mountain forever! As soon as Gu

Shaoyang finished speaking, the old man's hearty laughter came over: "With my body, even if you can take me to the snowy mountains quickly, how long can I last?"

Chapter 1004

What the old man said was very realistic, but for Gu Shaoyang it was not a problem, it was just a trivial matter.

"Have you considered something that we haven't thought of yet?"

The old man took the snow lotus from Gu Shaoyang's hand and burst into tears instantly. Gu Shaoyang could only put his hand on the old man's back and pat him gently to comfort him.

"It's fine! It's fine! Dahan still knows how to be filial to you, and now he has a granddaughter-in-law! Just eat this snow lotus and then go up to the snow mountain. It will ensure that your body and bones are very strong and there will be no problem at all in a few decades!"

Gu Shaoyang gently patted the old man's body, and then urged him to eat the snow lotus. The old man also ate the snow lotus directly under Gu Shaoyang's gaze.

But after the old man ate the snow lotus, he clearly felt his body. There was a surge of warmth, and then the pain in his legs, which had always been a problem, instantly disappeared, his waist was no longer lumpy, and his hands were no longer sore.

He really wished that he had returned to the physical state of a young man after eating snow lotus.

"How's it going? You don't feel uncomfortable anywhere, do you?" Gu Shaoyang asked patiently, but the old man shook his head very happily, hammered his chest hard with his hand and said

"Look at me! Does it look like there is a problem?"The old man's words made Gu Shaoyang feel relieved a lot, and after finally preparing everything, they were finally able to get on their way.

"Let's go!"After Gu Shaoyang finished speaking, he took out Xue Nu's hair, and then began to inject spiritual power to activate it. And the hair was indeed as Xue Nu said, it must have enough spiritual power to activate.

Gu Shaoyang input a full tenth of it. It took Si's spiritual power to activate it, and then he could take the old man away.

"Master, stand still! We're leaving soon!"

After Gu Shaoyang finished speaking and received the old man's answer, he immediately set the target of the fortress.

But the old man standing behind Gu Shaoyang only heard a whooshing sound, and then felt a gust of wind blowing from his face, making him unable to open his eyes.

Then when he couldn't feel the howling of the wind and opened his eyes again, he saw that he was already in a place surrounded by snow-white.

"here it is?"The old man looked at Gu Shaoyang and asked very curiously, and Gu Shaoyang relaxed a lot after seeing that he successfully brought the old man to the top of the mountain.

"This is the top of the snow mountain."As Gu Shaoyang said, he took the old man to a place and looked down. The old man stood looking down and was a little scared.

"Okay, let's quickly go find Dahan and your granddaughter-in-law!"Gu Shaoyang smiled at the old man, and then led the way. The old man followed Gu Shaoyang closely.

But Gu Shaoyang, who was walking in front, was thinking about how to tell the old man that Dahan was injured and lying in bed.

"Dahan, don't you know I'm here today? Why don't you come out to pick me up?"The old man walked behind Gu Shaoyang and asked first, and Gu Shaoyang happened to catch up with the old man's words.

"Old man, I have to tell you something first so that you can be mentally prepared."

Gu Shaoyang's very serious expression made the old man's heart skip a beat, and then he couldn't help clenching his hands into fists: "It's okay! Boy! you say! I can hold on!"

Gu Shaoyang saw that the old man was so strong, so he slowly said: "Actually, the reason why Dahan didn't go down the mountain to pick you up in person is because he is injured and lying on the bed."

After the old man heard Gu Shaoyang's words, his mind went blank for a moment, and then he had already made a mental preparation in his own heart.

But when he actually heard the words coming out of Gu Shaoyang's mouth, the old man still couldn't react.

"Don't worry too! I had already bandaged his wounds when I went down the mountain to look for you. Now the snow girl has been guarding Dahan and taking care of him."

In order to make the old man feel relieved, Gu Shaoyang hurriedly comforted him, but the old man who had already climbed the snow mountain couldn't listen to Gu Shaoyang's comfort. He just wanted to see his grandson quickly and check on his condition: "Take me there quickly! I want to see him! I want to see him!"

The old man said more and more excitedly. Gu Shaoyang saw that the old man was agitated and uncontrollable, so he led the way. Soon they came to the gate of the fortress, and Xue Nu came out of the room when she heard their footsteps..

When she saw Dahan's grandfather, she subconsciously buried her head in blame. Because she was the one who trapped Dahan in the snow mountain for so long, and now she was worried that he would sleep on her after seeing her grandfather.

But the result was beyond Yuki-onna's expectation, but it also made her feel even more guilty towards her grandfather.

The old man thought kindly after seeing Yuki-onna, then walked up and patted her shoulder gently and said.

Chapter 1005

"Good boy! Thanks for your hard work!"

"Boy! Could you please take out the things I brought?"

The old man patted Xue Nu on the shoulder, and he was very satisfied with her as his granddaughter-in-law.

At the foot of the mountain, every family had a betrothal gift when marrying their daughter-in-law. This time, the old man spent all his life savings.

When Xue Nu looked at Gu Shaoyang, he kept saying She was not surprised when she took out something from the space ring, but when the old man handed a large bag of things to her hand, the snow girl could no longer hold back her tears, and they flowed out. When the old man saw Xue Nu didn't know how to comfort her like this. She could only ask for help from Gu Shaoyang beside her:"This... this... what should I do?"

After Gu Shaoyang received the old man's look for help, he immediately patted the snow girl on the shoulder and said:"Anyone who marries a daughter-in-law at the foot of the mountain must give a bride price. You don't have to do this."

"Grandpa hasn't seen Dahan for a long time, so he should go and have a look."

When he moved After that, he went to the room where Dahan was.

In the room, Dahan had already woken up. Xue Nu and the old man were sitting on the left side of Dahan and the other on the right side of Dahan. The three of them were talking and laughing.

It looked very harmonious, and after Gu Shaoyang saw it, he stopped interfering and just retreated silently.

And now Gu Shaoyang has got the fourth key, and he has done what Xue Nu asked him to do, what a fool The wound was getting better day by day.

It was time for him to leave. But before Gu Shaoyang left, he still had to do something more for them.

After all, they generously gave him the fourth key, and he He couldn't be ungrateful.

So Gu Shaoyang took out all the pills in his space ring, and then marked them one by one, and placed them neatly in a room. He also left a letter for them.

After all this After that, Gu Shaoyang left quietly, but the old man, Dahan, and Xue Nu who were chatting and laughing in the room did not notice his departure at all.

By the time they found out, Gu Shaoyang had already traveled two-tenths of the way.

Because there is no need to be too anxious when going down the mountain, Gu Shaoyang will try his best to catch the treasures on the boring snowy mountains. After all, the last time on the snowy mountain was not easy.

Even if he is going down the mountain, he cannot go back empty-handed. In addition, he went down the mountain in order to rush The old man ate a lot of snowworms, so now there were not many snowworms left in his space.

And he also needed to fill up his space ring in case of emergency.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang spread a bed on the snow. Layers and layers of black cloth, and then he chose a piece of black cloth to lie down and sleep. When he woke up again, just like his previous experience, the black cloth was full of snowworms! Look at these densely packed snow worms. Gu Shaoyang was not greedy and took away every one of the snowworms.

Instead, he selected some very big and plump ones under each piece of black cloth.

After all, snowworms that were too small had low nutritional value and were overcaught. It would also make the resources on the snow mountain scarce, so Gu Shaoyang was very careful.

In addition to catching the snow bugs, Gu Shaoyang also came to the mines on the snow mountain.

Because Gu Shaoyang did not forget that he still had two spiritual pets that he needed to feed with spiritual stones. , and the spiritual stones in the Snow Mountain Mine are also the best food and cultivation resources.

However, the spiritual stones in the Snow Mountain Mine are not easy to dig because they are too hard. No matter what Gu Shaoyang did, they were not shaken at all.

"This is how to do?" Just when Gu Shaoyang was puzzled and anxious, he discovered a wormhole in a mine.

And there was mucus near the wormhole! This discovery made Gu Shaoyang immediately regain his confidence: "I know what to do. Done!"

Gu Shaoyang said to himself, then he took out a piece of black cloth and took out a snowworm from the space ring and struck it against the spirit stone.

Although the spirit stone is extremely hard, it cannot match the hardness of the snowworm. The two of them were still better than the snow worm before.

But after the snow worm struck, the spirit stone quickly rolled to the ground, and Gu Shaoyang finally got the first spirit stone.

After getting the spirit stone, Gu Shaoyang only heard Two spiritual pets in his mind kept calling at him: I want to eat! I want to eat! I want to eat!

Hearing their calls, Gu Shaoyang felt a headache, but he did not immediately throw the spirit stones to them. , but continued to beat again.

After he successfully knocked down two spirit stones, he threw the spirit stones to them together, so that they could be divided equally one by one. It turned out that the reason why Gu Shaoyang did this was because he was worried about them Two will fight over a bite to eat.

Chapter 1006

But fortunately, the result was not what he thought, and it made him feel very gratified.

Because after one spiritual pet took the lead in sucking the spiritual stone, it did not snatch the other spiritual pet's spiritual stone. He just waited quietly for Gu Shaoyang to continue feeding.

Seeing that both of them were so sensible, Gu Shaoyang became more motivated to dig for spiritual stones. After a while, dozens of spiritual stones were placed at his feet.

And his spiritual pets had already drooled all over the ground when they saw so many spiritual stones, waiting for Master Gu to feed them.

Finally, when Gu Shaoyang got tired, he threw the spirit stones to them all, and then he started to work again.

This was repeated dozens of times. After the spiritual pets were full, Gu Shaoyang continued to dig, because he needed to stock up some food for the two of them, otherwise he would not know what it would be if he encountered such a good vein of mineral next time. It's time.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang stayed in the mine and kept digging for two days, and he finally dug out tens of thousands of spirit stones.

Finally, with a wave of his hand, he put all the spirit stones into the space ring, and then he slowly walked out of the spirit stone cave.

This time Gu Shaoyang can be said to have returned with a full load. There are not only snow worms in the space ring, but also many spiritual stones. If these resources are taken out, it will cause a huge sensation.

This thing can also be worth thousands of gold! Although Gu Shaoyang is a person who takes money and fame very lightly, he is still very excited to hold so many things in his hands.

So he was in a very happy mood all the way down the mountain, and he still took the east path, so not many people found him.

But this time, he did not deliberately make himself look like a madman. Instead, he stayed on the snow-capped mountain until it got dark below the mountain before quietly going down.

Then he took advantage of the hazy night to hide his figure in the pitch-black night, and then quietly left the snow-capped mountains.

There are always a lot of people surrounding the snow-capped mountains, and many of them never go up the mountain, but they just want to be surrounded by the snow-capped mountains all the time.

These people actually specialize in catching people who come from the snow-capped mountains alive and still have treasures with them. Those people specialize in robbing.

Gu Shaoyang happened to be such a person, but under the cover of the hazy night, most people did not notice Gu Shaoyang's figure.

So Gu Shaoyang left the snow mountain in a big way. Just when he thought he had completely gotten rid of the poisonous insects behind him, four people suddenly stopped in front of him.

"stop! You actually came down from the snow-capped mountains alive! I think I will definitely gain something! Why don't you hand over your things quickly!"

The four people surrounding Gu Shaoyang are famous for their piercing eyes at the foot of the snow-capped mountains, and the reason why they are so called is because their eyes are very vicious.

No one who has gained something on the snow-capped mountains can escape it. His eyes, even those who pretended to be crazy and acted foolishly, would be robbed by them.

And the reason why they did not surround Gu Shaoyang when he first came down the snow mountain They went up because they were worried that if they made too much noise, they would attract other powerful people around the snow mountain.

Once they lured those powerful people out, they would be making wedding dresses for others, so in order to have them all, Gu Shaoyang brought them from the snow mountain. The treasure that came down.

They deliberately waited for Gu Shaoyang to go far away, then quietly followed him, and then stepped forward when he was not paying attention.

And Gu Shaoyang was not a vegetarian. Although he had treasures on him, they were all He got it through hard work on the snow-capped mountains.

He completely ignored the four people in front of him who wanted to get something for nothing.

"roll! I only say some words once, and you can only hear them once!"

Although Gu Shaoyang was exhausted after coming down from the snow mountain, if he really fought with the four people in front of him, they were no match for him. They were just minions to him. But these four people decided that They knew that Gu Shaoyang had a treasure, so no matter what he said or did, they were unwilling to let go.

"It doesn't matter if you only say your words once, we can say our words several times! Hand over your things quickly. Otherwise, don't blame us for being rude!"

One of the people named Jin directly took out his weapon and threatened Gu Shaoyang, but the result was obviously without any effect.

Moreover, Gu Shaoyang was very unhappy when he pointed his sword at him, so he killed him with a look and instantly His good sword became a broken sword

"The sword is broken now, and a certain part of your body will be broken the next second!"Gu Shaoyang said while looking at Jin's head.

But when Gu Shaoyang looked at him like this, and a look from him caused his sword to break, he instantly became frightened in his heart, and the people with him did not dare to act rashly..

After they were all frightened and did not dare to act rashly, Gu Shaoyang stopped staying and jumped directly, completely hiding his figure in the night.

After he completely got rid of the four dazzling people, he finally slowed down and found an inn to have a good rest.

As soon as he entered the room, Gu Shaoyang immediately put his tired body into the bed, and then cast a barrier in the room before falling asleep.

And he slept directly until the next night. Although he slept for a very long time, fortunately, he also recovered a lot of the skill he had consumed before.

After waking up, Gu Shaoyang did not lie still on the bed, but directly meditated on the bed and continued to practice.

He had caught the inspiration for promotion on the snow mountain before, but because he was very busy on the snow mountain before, he never had time to gradually improve.

But now he finally came down the mountain and finally had time. In addition, when he went down to pick up the old man, he ate a lot of spiritual worms, so a lot of spiritual power accumulated in his body and needed to be refined.

But now is a very good opportunity for Gu Shaoyang. No one knows him in this inn, and no one will disturb him. It is a good place for him.

Thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang quickly entered the state of cultivation, and with the previous accumulation, he was promoted to this level very quickly. Coupled with the assistance of spiritual insects, Gu Shaoyang made even more breakthroughs in promotion, and was promoted to two levels in one go. class.

Although the turmoil of his promotion was blocked by the barrier, he still did not hide his pain from Gu Shaoyang, a strong man with high cultivation who lived in the inn.

When he discovered that there was a strong person in the inn, he searched from room to room, and finally found the room where Gu Shaoyang was.

But when he wanted to peek into Gu Shaoyang's room, he was blocked by his barrier.

"What a trick! Why is it so powerful!" The person who tried to break into Gu Shaoyang's room stood groping outside the door, but Gu Shaoyang, who was concentrating on practicing in the room, immediately noticed the situation outside.

Worried that the other party had an agenda, Gu Shaoyang quickly stopped practicing and then hid his cultivation. , then crossed the window and came to the corridor to quietly check who was trying to peek into his room.

Standing in the corridor, Gu Shaoyang saw the back of the other party. He was dressed in white and looked gentle, but he did not expect that there was a young man behind his back. People!

Thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but shake his head, and then turned around and went downstairs. The moment he turned around, he also tore off the barrier of the room.

Because if the person didn't see his room, he would probably not give up. , so Gu Shaoyang simply let him see clearly.

In this way, he would no longer stand at his door, but Gu Shaoyang would not return to the room just now, because it was no longer so safe for him.

Standing there Before he was going to eat something in the inn and then find another inn to practice, he had to melt all the spiritual power of the snow insects.

Otherwise, if it solidified in the future, the spiritual power would be wasted.

Just like that, Gu Shaoyang sat alone He was eating at the dining table, and in his room upstairs, there was this young man in white walking around in his room, which was very easy to tell.

He seemed to want to find some clues about Gu Shaoyang, but Gu Shaoyang's hygiene was very Be careful, so the boy in white found nothing.

In the end, he had no choice but to withdraw from the room, and then went downstairs in despair.

When he went downstairs to eat, he happened to sit down with Gu Shaoyang, but he didn't. He didn't know that the room he just checked belonged to Gu Shaoyang.

And he didn't say hello to Gu Shaoyang after sitting down. Instead, he completely ignored his existence and was immersed in his own thoughts alone.

"Who is the master upstairs? He was able to advance to two levels at once!"

The young man in white poked his face with his chopsticks, his thoughts were far away, and his chopsticks couldn't help but reach into Gu Shaoyang's bowl.

Seeing that his food was eaten by him, Gu Shaoyang's face instantly became disgusting, and then he directly. After paying, he turned and left, leaving the boy in white sitting alone.

The boy in white didn't notice anything was wrong yet, he just kept putting food into his mouth. Finally, after finishing a plate of food, he realized that he. His food hadn't been served yet.

And he couldn't see the person who actually ordered the food, so he couldn't find anyone even if he wanted to apologize.

"The shopkeeper's! Who was sitting at this table originally?" The boy in white really couldn't remember whose food he had eaten, but he felt very guilty, so he asked the shopkeeper, but the answer he got was not satisfactory.

"Young Master! Look how busy I am here! How could I remember who was sitting at that table?" The shopkeeper said helplessly.

The young man in white looked at the situation of the guests in the inn, and finally did not continue to question the shopkeeper, because the business in this shop was so good.

Chapter 1008

"well!" In the end, the boy in white sighed deeply, and then reluctantly went upstairs and returned to his room. At this time,

Gu Shaoyang, who had been looking for him, had found an inconspicuous inn to stay at.

And when he came to the new inn again, he was doing the same thing as he was in the previous inn - practicing.

The only difference was that no one was prying at him this time, because it was too late here. , the decoration of the inn is also very bad, so there are only a few people here, and one of them is Gu Shaoyang.

Focusing on practicing, Gu Shaoyang has not gone downstairs all day, and even if he goes downstairs to eat, there are only He was alone, and there were very few guests.

When he returned to the room after dinner, Gu Shaoyang did not exercise immediately this time. Instead, he sat by the window of the room and watched the people coming and going below.

Just as he was about to close the window, As he continued to practice, he suddenly saw the young man in white from the inn before, wandering aimlessly on the street.

Gu Shaoyang could roughly guess from his clothes that he should be a kid from a rich family, or a young man. House, because everything the boy in white wears is either rich or expensive.

It is obvious to tell others - I am rich!

And Gu Shaoyang, who is standing by the window, doesn't know why, but now he will look at this A person who had nothing to do with him, and his willpower seemed to disappear at this time.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang kept looking at the boy in white, and finally saw the boy in white entering the inn where he was now!

Seeing that At this scene, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help frowning, feeling a little unhappy. Finally, he slammed the window. The not so strong window was broken in half due to Gu Shaoyang's strength. The shopkeeper downstairs heard Gu Shaoyang's room. If there was a noise inside, I immediately went upstairs to check.

"Sir, are you okay?"The shopkeeper's knock sounded outside the door. Gu Shaoyang waved his hand and the door to his room was opened.

"What's the matter?" Gu Shaoyang looked at the shopkeeper coldly, expressionless. After Gu Shaoyang opened the door, the first thing the shopkeeper did was to inspect the room.

Then Gu Shaoyang only saw the shopkeeper reaching out and pointing at the half-dragged window. There was a helpless smile on his face, and he didn't look so happy.

At this time, Gu Shaoyang said with a slightly apologetic tone: "I'm sorry, I closed the window a little too hard. How much will it cost, I will pay you, or I will I can also repair it for you personally."

Gu Shaoyang told the solution he could give. The shopkeeper was not a mean person. He waved his hand at Gu Shaoyang.

"It's okay, I can come in person. This room is in a state of disrepair. How can I ask you to pay for it? Just please be a little gentler after repairing it."

As the shopkeeper said, he entered Gu Shaoyang's room, and then repaired the window in a few seconds, but Gu Shaoyang saw it.

After the shopkeeper left the room, he enchanted the room again, and then immediately I got up and went to check the window that the shopkeeper had just repaired.

I saw that the window that the shopkeeper had repaired had not been repaired at all, and there was another thing on the window - accumulation fruit.

Accumulation fruit will record every word and deed of a person in the room. Prying into other people's lives and he and the shopkeeper didn't know each other, why would he put such a thing in his room?

Gu Shaoyang really couldn't understand this question. And after he discovered the accumulated fruit, he didn't ask the shopkeeper. Yes, he just took away the fruit secretly.

Then Gu Shaoyang continued to search in the room to see if there were any other accumulated fruits that he didn't know about.

After searching, Gu Shaoyang did not find it in the room. His hanging heart was temporarily relieved, but from this point of view, he could be very sure that the accumulated fruit on the window was placed by the shopkeeper, because when he looked outside next to the bed, he did not find it. The shopkeeper only appeared after he came in to repair the window.

And how did the shopkeeper know that he was standing beside the bed, and how did he know that he would be attracted by the boy in white?

These are all issues that Gu Shaoyang needs to discuss, especially the boy in white. , and in order to preemptively find out the details of the boy in white, Gu Shaoyang secretly broke the enchantment in the boy in white's room in the dead of night and sneaked into his room quietly.

Then Gu Shaoyang cast the enchantment in his room again. to ensure that their actions in the room would not be known to outsiders.

Gu Shaoyang also woke up the young man in white who was lying on the bed, grabbed his neck tightly with one hand and asked:"Say! Why have you been following me all this time? Who sent you here?"

Gu Shaoyang's eyes were very fierce, and the boy in white truly felt that death was so close to him.

Chapter 1009

"I didn't follow you! I don't!"The boy in white resisted fiercely, but he was strangled by Gu Shaoyang's neck and it was not enough to resist.

So he could only explain verbally, hoping that Gu Shaoyang could believe it, otherwise his life might not be saved today!

"You still said you didn't! Didn't you want to spy on me at the last inn? Didn't you just come here when you saw me coming to this inn?"

Gu Shaoyang pressed the question word by word, but every time he asked the question, the young man in white kept shaking his head, directly denying Master Gu's conjecture.

"You think too much! I'm not following you at all! I wanted to break your barrier at the last inn, but it was just because the person I wanted to follow had been secretly observing you!"

"I came here because I saw him following you to this inn! besides! The people living in this inn are all very powerful! Including that humble shopkeeper!"

It seems that in order to make Gu Shaoyang believe him, the boy in white told him everything he knew, but it was still not enough to make Gu Shaoyang completely believe him.

"Can you name anything else?"

Gu Shaoyang had no way to verify the things the boy in white said immediately, so he couldn't judge the authenticity.

"besides! Today, the shopkeeper Lai repaired the windows in my room and put something in my room. You can check it out for yourself!"

Finally, the young man in white suddenly thought of this matter, and then told him quickly.

After hearing the young man in white say this, Gu Shaoyang finally let go of him.

The life of the young man in white who was finally released was no longer threatened, and he He was finally able to breathe heavily.

When he was sitting on the ground adjusting his physical condition, Gu Shaoyang had already come to the window to check.

Sure enough, as the boy in white said, there was also an accumulation fruit in his room.

Pick up the fruit. Gu Shaoyang's eyes couldn't help but narrowed slightly at the accumulated fruits in the room of the boy in white, and his mind was constantly recalling the scenes he had experienced.

Finally, after Gu Shaoyang thought about it for a long time, he suddenly thought of, It turned out that the first time he met the boy in white was not in the inn.

It was when he had just descended into the snow mountain! That was because the clothes of the boy in white were very similar to the snow in the snow mountain, and because he was in a hurry to go down the mountain, So it was just a faint glimpse.

When we met again later, because he was chased by four people with piercing eyes, he also met the boy in white on the way when he was on the road, but he had no impression of him. But now that he thought about it one by one, Gu Shaoyang realized that There is something fishy in it! And it seems to have been planned for a long time!

"Have you been to a snow mountain before? Did you get something on the snowy mountain?"

Gu Shaoyang guessed that the reason why the boy in white would keep following someone was because that person robbed him of his things, and the reason why that person followed Gu Shaoyang was because he also wanted to steal his treasure.

He and the boy in white Strictly speaking, they are all victims, but the difference is that one has been robbed and the other has not.

One knows the person's appearance and strength, while the other knows nothing.

"right! I have been to snow-capped mountains before and was lucky enough to get snow bugs from the snow-capped mountains, but this bug is very important to me and is used to save the lives of my family members!"

"But when I was going down the mountain, my belongings were forcibly robbed by a man! When I wanted to chase him, I found that his speed was very fast."

"And because of this, I wandered at the foot of the snow-capped mountains for a long time. Just when I was about to give up, you suddenly appeared, and then that person also appeared!"

"And that person has been following closely, sometimes appearing and sometimes hiding! Because I am not cultivated enough to find him, I can only follow you."

The boy in white explained to Gu Shaoyang why he followed him, and Gu Shaoyang didn't say anything. After all, it was excusable. If it were him, he would do the same thing.

"Okay, then do you know what characteristics that person has?"

The so-called knowing the enemy and being victorious in every battle. It is not a good thing for Gu Shaoyang to know nothing about the opponent now, so he needs the help of the boy in white. The enemy of his enemy is his friend. The boy in white naturally understands this idea, so the two of them A consensus was quickly reached and the public

"The man often wore rags and looked very shabby, and it was very easy to hide in the crowd. He was not tall, but he was quite strong."

The boy in white answered Master Gu's question, but the characteristics of the person he mentioned were indeed common on the street, so it was not of much use to Gu Shaoyang.

"Are there any other key features? The kind that can make people throw him out at a glance."

Chapter 1010

Gu Shaoyang looked at the young man in white with a more urgent look. He just wanted to know the answer quickly, so that he could better pay attention to the unusual reactions of the people around him.

"oh! I remembered! He also has a particularly obvious feature! There is a long black mark on his arm! But I can't remember the specific pattern."

The boy in white suddenly recalled that when he was attacked by that person, there was something black vaguely on the hand that attacked him.

"Left hand or right hand?" Seeing that he finally said some useful characteristics, Gu Shaoyang quickly continued to ask

"It seems to be the left hand! The man is left-handed." The boy in white recalled it for a while, and then said with great certainty.

After getting his affirmative answer, Gu Shaoyang had a rough idea in his mind, and what he had to do next was to always pay attention to people with such characteristics around him.

For some reason, Gu Shaoyang always feels that these people who want to snatch the treasure are not simple. They are likely to be a huge systematic organization.

Moreover, their organization may be very strict, and there are probably many capable people in it. If he fights alone this time I'm afraid it's a bit difficult to say.

Although the boy in white was not as good as him, Gu Shaoyang could also see that his ability was not low, and there was still a lot of room for improvement.

So Gu Shaoyang planned to take him together in his heart.

If there are two of us, then the chance of winning is better, and this boy in white has a conflict with that person, and the conflict between them is more intense than mine.

So, I If he asked the boy in white to cooperate, he would be very happy!

Thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang immediately walked up to the boy in white and prepared to question him. However, the boy in white looked at Gu Shaoyang who suddenly approached him and thought he was going to be beaten again. So he thought he was going to be beaten again. , I saw the boy in white quickly stretched out his hand to cover his face, and then quickly protected his neck with the other hand, for fear that Gu Shaoyang would pinch him again.

But Gu Shaoyang felt speechless when he saw the actions of the boy in white, so he He took his hand off, then looked directly at him and said

"Stop hiding! I won't do anything to you!"Gu Shaoyang said helplessly, but mostly speechless.

"Let's talk about cooperation."Then I heard Gu Shaoyang say very sincerely, but the boy in white didn't react for a while.

"ah? cooperate? With me?"After Gu Shaoyang grabbed the hand of the boy in white, he sat directly on the chair, and then put a cup of tea for himself.

The boy in white who was huddled in the corner got up from the ground, came to the table, and gave him the same cup. He poured himself a cup of tea, then looked at Gu Shaoyang and said

"What can we two do together?"

The young man in white clothes was a little confused, but when Gu Shaoyang saw him looking so stupid, he began to doubt whether it was the right decision for him to cooperate with him.

Just when Gu Shaoyang was doubting, the young man in white clothes seemed to suddenly wake up, and then he patted the table and looked at Gu Shaoyang

"So this is what you were talking about! This is naturally a dream! So you want to help me get the snowworm back?"The boy in white looked at Gu Shaoyang eagerly, but he actually had no such plan.

It was not because Gu Shaoyang wanted to cooperate with the boy in white and didn't want to help him, but because there were so many snow insects here, he asked the boy in white to cooperate. It's just because he wants to catch the person behind the scenes.

And then he can be clean, and he has to find the last key next. If these trivial matters block his steps, let these people follow him alive. Go find the fifth key.

Then it is very possible that he will use someone else to make the wedding dress! So after thinking about it, Gu Shaoyang decided that he must eradicate all these people before he can continue on the road.

And this young man in white is just For the time being, Snow Chong will treat it as his reward for cooperating.

"When the time comes, you will get what you want, and I will get what I want."Gu Shaoyang did not directly answer the question of the young man in white, but this can be regarded as his answer.

Although the young man in white was not so satisfied with Master Gu's answer, he still did not dare to say anything more.

Because he had just seen Gu The young master's strength is so strong that he only needs one move and he doesn't even have a chance to fight back.

"Okay, so what do we do?"The boy in white looked at Gu Shaoyang with his big eyes, waiting for him to give instructions, but Gu Shaoyang looked at him first.

"Just tell me what you know first."Intuition told Gu Shaoyang that there must be something else going on with the boy in white, so he quickly asked.

When Gu Shaoyang asked the boy in white, he thought he really knew something, so he quickly explained

"In fact, I know which organization these people belong to, but I don't know who they are specifically."
